Tecumseh High School Accredited Again by NC

BY NEVILLE HART
TECUMSEH HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

Tecumseh High School has again been placed on the list of secondary schools unqualifiedly approved for the ensuing year by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. The local school has been a member of the association since 1920.

The North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools is a voluntary, non-incorporated association of secondary schools and higher institutions of learning founded in 1895 and having a mutual interest in the improvement and extension of educational opportunity in the area which it serves.

The Association operates in the 19 states of the North Central area of the United States — Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Dakota, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

Aims and objectives of the association are:

1. The development and maintenance of high standards of excellence in all of its member schools, colleges and universities.
2. The continued improvement of the educational program and of instruction at the levels of secondary and higher education.
3. The encouragement of such improvement through a scientific and professional approach to the solution of educational problems.
4. The encouragement and establishment of cooperative relations between the secondary schools and colleges and universities within its territory.
5. The maintenance of effective working relationships with other educational organizations and accrediting agencies throughout the United States.

While membership is entirely voluntary, continued membership does entail the desire and willingness of its members to maintain and abide by its democratically approved criteria for membership. Some of the criteria are:

(1) Philosophy and objectives; (2) educational program, including curriculum, pupil activity programs, library service, guidance service and instruction; (3) school staff; (4) administration and supervision; and (5) school plant and equipment.

Graduates of secondary schools accredited by the North Central Association are in an advantageous position in seeking admission to college. Graduates who have earned an average of "B" or better during their four years of high school may enter any college or university affiliated with the North Central Association without being required to pass entrance examinations.

Membership in the association confers on a school the prestige which comes from recognition by the outstanding educational agency in the area.

The school is likely to be able to offer its pupils and its community a wider range of service than would be possible without the stimulus of cooperating agencies.

As a member of the association, the school is able to participate in the various projects for the improvement of secondary education undertaken by the association.

CHURCH BUYS BUILDING PROPERTY

The Tecumseh Missionary Baptist church, which is now holding its meetings in the Pythian Hall, has recently purchased property on the corner of Parkway and Cairns street in the west end of town. They plan to build a new church there in the near future.

This church was organized Aug. 8, 1954, with 13 charter members and has grown to a membership of 40.

Hamilton, Schwartz, Powell, Titley and Purkey Are Voted To Council

Hamilton Leads Slate

City of Tecumseh voters Monday re-elected two incumbents and elected three new men to the city council.

Leading the voting for council office was John Hamilton with a surprising 664 votes. Johnny is well-known and well-liked but nobody has been able to say why or how he was able to lead the voting by such a majority. John, himself, expressed surprise over the support voters gave him Monday.

Following him in the voting was Arthur Schwartz, incumbent, with 593 and William Powell with 532. Councilmen Hamilton, Schwartz and Powell received two-year terms.

LeRoy Titley, incumbent, with an even 500, and Don Purkey, with 439, were elected to one-year terms.

The three new men elected have an average age of just over 29.

Incumbents Edith Smith and Blair Bashore gained sixth and seventh spots with 396 and 340.

They were followed by Robert Fuller with 327 and Stephan Illeck with 274.

Robert French, unopposed, received 614 votes for justice of the peace.

The new council meets next Monday night to reorganize. Members of the council are Mayor H. H. Hanna, Mayor Pro-Tem R. H. Moore, John Hamilton, Arthur Schwartz, William Powell, LeRoy Titley, and Don Purkey.

A week from Monday new councilmen elected Monday will meet with the four hold-over councilmen for their first taste of local government.

Mrs. Naomi Sallows, city clerk, said the election "ran smoothly". She was high in her praise for election workers.

Precinct 1 had a turnout of 327. Precinct 2 had a turnout of 618.

Although Tecumseh had 2921 registered voters, only 945 turned out Monday or about 33 per cent.

Harold Warren Heads V. F. W.

New officers for the coming year were elected by the Hall-Slater Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at their regular meeting March 30.

The new commander chosen was Harold Warren. Warren Filter will be senior vice commander and Clifford Curran, junior vice commander. Carson House is the new post advocate; Louis Richards, quartermaster; Gaza Kish, chaplain; Richard Johnson, sergeant and Henry Kempf, trustee for three years. At a recent meeting Richard Butler was chosen to the board of trustees for a five year term.

The new officers will be installed by Past Commander Harlan Boyes at the next meeting Wednesday, April 13.

SWANS

Two distinguished visitors dropped in on Tecumseh, Monday—from the sky. A pair of Whistling Swans are making an unexpected visit to the Globe Pond.

Mrs. J. H. Rohweder and Miss Ann Carson rubbed unbelieving eyes and rushed for field glasses and bird books. The pure white plumage, stately carriage, jet-black legs and beak confirmed the identification but did not explain how they happened to be there.

As far as can be seen neither bird is injured.

Whistlers winter in the region of Chesapeake Bay but they spend their summers beyond the Arctic Circle and these have a long way to go.

It is probable that these are strays from a northern flight and the Rohweders and Miss Carson are sadly listening for another flock to whistle them away.

Beasley Wins In Ridgeway

Ben Beasley is the new supervisor of Ridgeway Township. In the only township contest in the Tecumseh area Monday, Mr. Beasley, running on the Democrat slate, nosed out William Spohr, Republican, by a 159-143 count. He replaces former Supervisor Raynor J. Benedict who died March 4.

Other Ridgeway Township results were:

Clerk—Clare Griffen (D) 121; Viva Brown (R) 179

Treasurer — Charles Benedict (D) 147; Charles Fairbanks (R) 155

Justice (Full Term) — Merle Spence (D) 123; William Kuster (R) 174

Member Board of Review — Wilmer Lorenz (D) 152; Royal McElroy (R) 145

Rust, Odor In Water Puzzle City

City manager Ed Nelson says the city is doing everything possible to eliminate the rustiness and bad odor in some city water.

Explaining that the water department has had several complaints from various parts of town concerning the water conditions, he said they began soon after the city opened its new well on north Union street.

So the new well was closed but the complaints still continued; and the department thinks something else is causing the water conditions.

Other engineers tell the city that iron content is high in water in winter months but it should be less now that Spring is here.

The city manager advises that all faucets out doors be opened to clean out all basement pipes. This, he said, has corrected the odor condition in several homes.

Samples of city water go to Lansing each week, he continued, and reports come back marked "very good."

The city, he said, will do everything possible to eliminate the rustiness and odor in the water.

Seniors Win In Speech Contest

Tecumseh High School entered five students in the District Forensics Speech Contests at the Adrian High School Tuesday, March 29. The five types of speeches were: declamation, interpretive (dramatic) reading, humorous reading, original oratory and extempore.

Gary Hizer, senior, won second place in original oratory with his speech "Can Democracy Last?"

Roger Busche, also a senior, won first place in dramatic reading with a monologue "Beyond the Last Mile." Roger was highly commended by the judges on his fine interpretation and sincere feelings shown in giving this speech.

Since first place winners go on to the regional level, Roger will enter this contest before the end of April.

Others who entered the district contest were Pat Davis, Mary Howell, and Carl Henkel.

Forensics director at Tecumseh High School is Mrs. H. V. Whited of Clinton.

Driver Charged with Manslaughter in Boy's Death

A 13-year-old Ridgeway boy was almost instantly killed Saturday night about 9 p.m. when the bicycle he was riding on M-50 a half mile east of Ridgeway was struck by a car.

Dead is Richard Merrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Merrick of Ridgeway.

Driver of the car Leon W. Dillon, 26, of Dundee, told Clinton State Police he swung to the left to go around a car when he struck the bicycle. Richard and his brother Merle were riding east on the left side of the highway, facing oncoming traffic.

Dillon's car struck the rear of Richard's bicycle and the boy was thrown to the ground. His skull was fractured and his neck was broken.

The car continued down the left side of the highway about 200 feet, then shot across the highway and went into a ditch.

Merle Merrick escaped injury.

Dillon told police he did not see the boy until just a second before his car struck the bicycle. He said he had driven from Angola, Ind., that evening and was on his way to his home in Dundee.

Charged with manslaughter in the boy's death, Dillon demanded an examination before Justice L. J. Van Deusen Tuesday morning. Specifically, he was charged with being under the influence of liquor when the Merrick boy was killed.

Dillon's examination is scheduled for next Monday. A bond of $5000 was set.

The Merrick boy first was taken to Green's Funeral Home. Services were held Tuesday from the Niblack Funeral Home. The Rev. H. Woodall officiated with Boy Scouts of Troop 73 of Tecumseh as bearers. Burial was in Ridgeway Cemetery.

A member of the troop, Richard was an eighth grader at Ridgeway School.

He is survived by his parents, his brother Merle Lee, his sister Mrs. Lois Bame of Milan, his maternal grandfather Thomas Maynard of Holland, Mich., and his fraternal grandmother, Mrs. Etta Cowell of Fairfield, Mich. He was preceded in death by his brother William Irving.

AUTOS

Featuring a nation-wide observance of "Spotlight on Automobiles" to stress the economic and social importance of the automotive industry, Tecumseh new car dealers will hold a parade of new models Friday, April 15.

The parade will be led by the Tecumseh High School Band under the direction of Donald Johnson.

Dealers also will hold open houses Thursday, Friday and Saturday to show their new models during individual auto shows.

New car dealers taking part are Schneider Brothers Garage, Butler Motor Sales, G. H. Fisher Pontiac Motors, Inc., Wilson Motor Sales and Keith Bailey Motors.

Presbyterian Men Will Fete Sons

The Presbyterian Men's Club annual Father and Son Banquet will be held Thursday, April 14, in the Fellowship Center of the Presbyterian Church.

George McCombs is in charge of the program. George Rathbun will act as toastmaster for the occasion.

Guest speaker will be the Rev. Charles T. Leber, Jr., director of the Dodge Community House. Since the Rev. Leber has been at Dodge House he has helped many young people and adults to become better Americans.

The Woman's Association is serving the banquet under the direction of Mrs. Ruth O'Neill.

Juniors Are Professional in "Arsenic and Old Lace"

"Arsenic and Old Lace," the comedy of the slightly unbalanced Brewster family and what the effects of their mental condition had on nice old gentlemen roomers, was professionally staged by Tecumseh High School juniors before large and appreciative audiences last Thursday and Friday nights.

It would be difficult to single out "stars" in the performance, since one half of the 14-member cast made the most of their exciting and funny roles.

Betty Day as Abby and Merene Boltz were letter-perfect as the Brewster sisters. They were two of the sweetest and lethal little old ladies you ever could meet. And they made the best elderberry wine.

Margaret Champanois as Elaine Harper and Edwin Lewis as Mortimer Brewster, the only normal Brewster, were capable as the young lovers. They delivered their lines with punch and acted natural in their love scenes.

Harold Weakly as Jonathan Brewster, the family blacksheep who had polished off 12 persons, was the perfect Boris Karloff type of heavy. He was really a menace. Harold had the voice to go with the part, too.

Top comedy honors were carried off by the screwiest of the screwy Brewsters. John Cadmus as Teddy Brewster, who fancied himself as Teddy Roosevelt, had a meaty comedy role and with his bugle playing and charges up the stairs he made the most of the situation.

Don Partridge as the sinister Peter Lorre type of character Dr. Einstein was really more funny than sinister. His voice, too, added a lot to the finesse of the role. Speaking in a whiny voice but with perfect enunciation he enjoyed his role immensely, even when he inadvertently ripped his pants and flubbed a line.

Others who added bits of merriment to the hilarious proceedings were Albert Geberowski, Roger Finnegan, Duncan Harris and Walter Bailey as police officers; Ray Puffer as the Rev. Harper; Larry Kohl as Mr. Gibbs; and Bill Browne as Mr. Witherspoon who, as the curtain came down on the final act, gave the two little old sisters a 13-12 verdict over Jonathan in the battle of scoring the largest number of bodies.

Miss Jacqueline Egan, director, again proved that top plays will be thoroughly enjoyed by Tecumseh play goers. She was capably assisted by Marcia Bashore as producer and Sharon Claxton as stage manager.

Shirley Watson and Karen Beach were responsible for the fine and quaint costuming.

Make-up, which was particularly outstanding on Teddy, Jonathan and the two old sisters, was by Pat Davis, Linda Dewey, Sylvia Helzerman, Lois Crowell, Judy Seidel, Mary Ellen Folk, Francis Dibble and Vicki Johnson.

Linda Beck contributed the sound effects.

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

A HUGE FLOCK OF CANADA GEESE that numbered about 3000 was seen by Mr. and Mrs. Karl Schneider and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Mohr Saturday night about 8 p.m. Going northwest, the geese were flying in the familiar V and making a terrific honking noise, Karl said. He said there were three streams.

THE BOO-BOO OF A LINE by Don Partridge which was the high point of the junior play reminds me of a Hillsdale High School play years ago. The heroine rushed in to see that mayhem had been committeed by the villian and she gushed "Oh, they've been gound and bagged." This little boo-boo also stopped the show.

ANOTHER SOUND OF SPRING is the peeping of the baby chicks in the post office. No, they won't stay there. They have been shipped to folks in the area who ordered them.

WHO HAS THE OLDEST car that still runs in the Tecumseh area? If you know of a real old one still being used, let the Lining know.

WHAT IS GOING TO HAPPEN to the pigeons that used to use the old East Branch school for their home? They really sound mournful about the razing of their former home. So far they are using the huge trees on the site.

FOR THE FIRST TIME in my life I saw two wild ducks roosting. They were way up in the sycamore tree on Evans Creek one morning last week.

IF YOU HAVEN'T DONE IT, take the time some sunny day to lie on your back and look at that beatuiful sky. I did this Saturday afternoon and the result was the most serene moment I've had in a long time.

THE GIRLS HAVE NEW can-can petticoats that they have gone slightly ga-ga over. In fact, they want to wear them on the outside of their clothes so others can see them. This seems to be carrying the finery of the Easter parade a bit too far.

LOUIS S. SCHNEIDER has joined the grandfather's club of the American Legion. His membership in this exclusive club developed when "Young Louie" and his wife presented "Old Louie" with a grandson early Monday morning. The membership card reads: "Louis S. Schneider is a life member without attending meetings which are never held and without paying dues which are never collected."

A NEW BOOK, FRESH OFF the press, was written by Edwin D. Kerr of Clayton. Mr. Kerr, owner and manager of the supply house there, titled his book "Pa Says." Dedicated to his father, the book is a collection of pa's homespun philosophy, short sketches and poems. It will be published by Vantage Press April 23.

Mrs. Forest Abner entertained at dinner Thursday evening in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mr. Abner. The event was a surprise celebration and the guests were relatives from Britton and Dundee.

Mrs. Thomas O'Hara and son Neil returned Tuesday from Fredricksburg, Va., where they visited Lt. and Mrs. Norbert O'Hara and their baby son. They also went to Washington, D. C., where they joined a throng of 125,000 other sightseers enjoying the beauties of the cherry blossoms. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Shultz of Ann Arbor.

Miss Anne Carson returned last week from an 18 day trip through the southern states and as far as Miami, Florida. She was accompanied by Mrs. Cora TenBrink of Ann Arbor and they made a very leisurely tour of interesting southern spots.

Mr. and Mrs. Royce Beal and three children of Ann Arbor spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr and Mrs. Clyde Bailey. The family observed the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Beal.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Drewyor received a phone call Monday evening announcing the birth of a son to their son and wife, Pvt. and Mrs. Larry Drewyor at the military hospital at Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md. The baby weighed over seven pounds and is named Douglas Larry. His parents live at Haver de Grace near the Aberdeen Base.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheldon were their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hoag of Saginaw. Other callers on Sunday were their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sheldon of Dundee and Miss Ella McNeil and Dr. Mabel Rugen of Ann Arbor. The Hoags also spent some time with Mr. Hoag's mother, Mrs. Bertha Hoag, who has been ill at her home for several days. Mrs. Emma Day, who lives with Mrs. Hoag, has also been rather seriously sick.

Miss Deborah Dugan, a student at Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., was a weekend guest of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Hayden.

Reuben VanWinkle is quite seriously ill at his home on East Shawnee street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cowan of Chicago, formerly of Adrian, called Sunday on Mrs. Richard Moiles.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Allen and son Paul have returned to their home in Boulder City, Nevada after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Allen and her mother, Mrs. Clare Dickinson and family. Wit-Wisdom Club Elects Officers

Election of officers was the principle order of business at the Monday evening guest night of the Wit and Wisdom Club at the home of Mrs. Hoyt Whelan.

The nominating committee, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Collins, Mrs. Fred Rector and Miss Marjorie Wickwire presented their report which was accepted and resulted in the election of the following: President, Mrs. Leon VanValkenburg; vice president, Earl Greene; secretary, Mrs. Earl Wickwire and treasurer, Wilfred Waldron.

The spring banquet was announced for May 2 at the Episcopal Parish House, with reservations in charge of Mrs. Whelan. It was suggested that members bring guests.

Fred Dickinson opened the program with two solos, "Let Miss Linda Pass" and "Good Morning, Mr. Bobolink" with Mrs. Dickinson at the piano.

In a reading which followed, Mrs. Fred Sheldon touchingly portrayed the city-country reactions of an Italian emigrant. Her costume and rendition brought down the house.

The speaker of the evening introduced by the leader, Mrs. John Lott, was Perry Satterthwaite, whose account of his experiences on his recent trip to Europe and North Africa was most interesting. He gave informative glimpses of the life of a diplomat, as a guest of his brother, the U. S. Minister to Morocco.

Mrs. Whelan and her assistant hosts, Dr. and Mrs. Wesley Mast and Mr. and Mrs. David Locke server refreshments to the members and their many guests.

Auto Owners Do It Again
Male Drivers Under The Age of 25
Take Notice

Last Year — 1954 — Auto Owners pioneered a constructive change. They took the girl driver out of the high rated class.

Today other companies are following our lead.

This Year — 1955 — We still face the facts and act. Automobile accidents are still too frequent and too costly, but the records reveal that some drivers are entitled to a better deal.

Effective April 1, 1955, and thereafter the Auto Owners Insurance Company of Lansing, Michigan, has completely revised their classification of drivers' risks.

CUB SCOUT PACK 73 COMMITTEE MEETS

The committee of Cub Scout Pack 73 met Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Manwaring. As an expression of sympathy, those present decided to send a rose bush to the parents of Richard Merrick of Ridgeway as a living memorial to this former member of the pack.

They also voted to donate a foot of land to Camp Kanesatake, the Boy Scout camp at Wolf Lake. More land is nedded to enlarge the facilities of this important vacation spot.

The group was informed that the pack had received the blue ribbon for efficiency and for handicraft display at the Lenapee district Cub show held here in January and were reminded that this was conservation month which might be observed by building bird houses, planting seeds, etc.

An interesting report was made of the hike taken by the pack last Saturday to the Standish pond. Leaders in charge were George Meads, Howard Wilson Jr., Paul Hadsell, Cumbaster Irwin Richardson and Den Chiefs Harold Underwood and Paul Surratt

Special features of the day were a treasure hunt, "Beat Your Buddie" and a weiner roast.

The committee members surprised Mrs. Irwin Richardson, wife of the cubmaster, with a shower of gifts preceeding the meeting.

76 THS Indians Work Out In Spring Sports

Baseball, Track and Golf Will Begin Soon At School

Seventy-six Tecumseh High School athletes are working out in Spring sports.

Coach Les Runk has 30 out for the baseball squad; Coach Vic Lawson has 38 out for the track squad; and Coach Doug Murdock has eight candidates for the golf team.

Coach Runk might have lean pickings this year. Defending champions of the Southeastern League, Tecumseh has only two lettermen from last year's nine. They are Dennis Farley and Ray Larned.

Last year the Indian nine won the title with a 4-2 record. Their season record was 7-5.

Coach Vic Lawson has nine harrier lettermen. They are Dean Andrews, Leroy Betzoldt, Jim Bowser, John Cadmus, Richie Davis, Glen Haviland, Ken Miller, Bill Scutt and George Tilton.

Last year the Indian harriers finished second in the Southeastern League and sixth in the regional meet. They also tied for 11th in the state class "B" meet. In dual and triangular meets they won two and lost two.

Coach Doug Murdoch has just one returning letterman. He is Val Spangler.

Coach Murdoch's linksmen won four and lost four matches last year.

These are the 1955 Spring sports schedules at Tecumseh High School:

F.F.A. Members Attend Convention

Darrell Lowery and Edwin Lewis, the two official delegates of the Tecumseh Future Farmers of America, attended the 27th annual state convention with their adviser Paul Burns.

Phillip Young, son of Mrs. Mabel Young, received the State Farmer Degree at the convention. He was one of 208 to receive the degree. Phil was also given special recognition by being the only person from the county to receive either a "silver" or "gold" rating for his farming program.

There were 35 silver ratings, and 30 gold ratings of the 208 members receiving the state farmer degree. For the silver award the boys average age was 17, the average income $3,131, and their average investment in farming was $4,326. The boys receiving the gold award were also 17 years old, their income was $4,435 and the average investment in farming was $5,570.

The "star" state farmer of the year was Theodore Mattson of Felch, Michigan. This marked the first time in the history of the Michigan FFA that the Star State Farmer has been from the Upper Peninsula.

tended the convention with the Tecumseh group. The boys attending from the Clinton Chapter were Gary Service and Bob Wisner.

hickory AND horsehide
by DIZZY TROUT

LAKELAND, Fla. — Comparing this year's crop of rookies in the Tigers' spring training camp to 1937, when I broke in with Detroit, presents no problem. There simply is no comparison.

This year's squad holds probably the greatest array of rookies ever to train with the Tigers. But back in '37, the only promising newcomer was Frankie Croucher, an infielder tabbed "the Gehringer of the minors." He was certainly our most talked-about rookie—outside of Ol' Diz.

However, Frankie broke his right ankle sliding into second base the following spring, an injury from which he never fully recovered, and ruined his chances of becoming an all-time great.

This season, several of the rookie crop could sustain injury and the Tigers would still have many talented newcomers remaining.

Pitching Strengthened

For example, where our pitching has been limited this past 15 years and certainly was not too good in 1954, now we have additional hurlers to strengthen our mound corps and make the new season look as bright as the Lakeland sunshine.

Werner Birrer, Bill Black, Paul Foytack, Bill Froats, Jim Stump and Duane Maas — all are young and throw with exceptionally great speed.

Add Billy Hoeft, Ray Herbert, Bob Schultz, Ned Garver, Bob Miller, Steve Gromek, George Zuverink, Al Aber, Leo Cristante, Bennett Flowers, Van Fletcher.

I don't know how many of them will make the grade—except for some of the regulars of course—but I'm certain Bucky Harris is going to come up with a good 11-man pitching staff.

Strong Outfield

With the addition of newcomers Jay Porter and Bubba Phillips to our outfield, Bucky maintains that in all his 31 years as a manager, this is the best-throwing outfield he has ever had. Few base runners are going to take advantage of Al Kaline, Bill Tuttle, Porter, Phillips and Jim Delsing.

In the future book are two fine, young catchers, Walter Streuli, a 20-year-old, right-handed hitter, and Tom Yewcic, 22, the former Michigan State quarterback. Both throw well, have good batting power and are the "take-charge" type of player. They may still need further seasoning, but we'll hear lots more from them later on.

I sure know how important it is to have good catching, and I credit Bob Swift and Paul Richards for whatever success I may have had in the big leagues. When I won, Swift used to say, "Well, we got Diz through another one today." But when I lost, it was awfully quiet in the shower room.

What They Say

"VALUATIONS PLAY A tremendous roll in the operation of your public schools. Tecumseh's range of approximately 10 million dollars between local assessed valuations and state equalized valuations, if not remedied, may seriously effect all children in Tecumseh as well as most adults.

"According to surveys made by the United States Chamber of Commerce, education makes people good producers and good consumers, and money spent on education is a sound investment. The educational level of any community has a close relationship to the level of business prosperity of that community. Where schools are best, average incomes are greatest, retail sales are greatest, rentals for homes are highest, more telephones are used, more homes are owned by the people who live in them.

"The wide range between local assessed valuations and state equalized valuations jeopardizes this educational facility in Tecumseh at present because of the formula used by the state in apportioning state aid."

—Supt. James McDowell

"WORK IN THE 4-H CLUB has been a vital part of my education and it also has furnished me with a great deal of recreation during the past nine years. I recommend 4-H Club work highly to other prospective 4-H Club members."

—Ken Mitchell of Holloway

"THE H-BOMB IS BIGGER than the A-bomb—but it is still a bomb. It has its limits as does any other weapon. It makes the civil defense problem larger, but not different.

"A bomb 1000 times as powerful as the Hiroshima bomb will not cause damage 100 times as far away, only 10 times as far. It will harm an area only 100 times as large, not 1000 times as large.

"... Cooperate fully with your local civil defense authorities. They want to help you learn how to survive, if we are attacked. What you do BEFORE the explosion also can save lives, including your own."

Jess loved the home. But he hated the idea of a "big debt."

"Jess," I said, "a debt might seem bigger than it actually is. Inflation has doubled or trebled our assets and likewise our liabilities."

"I suppose," Jess replied. "But $12,000 seems like a whale of a mortgage."

"Your income is sizable too," I said. "Surely you can afford a small portion for housing. You'd pay quite a bit to shelter your family in comfortable style whether you ent or buy."

"I guess you're right," Jess said.

"If it's any comfort," I added, 'the number of families buying homes on time is at an all time high. A wit recently remarked, Some people are known by their leeds, and a lot more by their nortgages.'"

Jess laughted. That's right. I'm sure I can afford to buy if nearly everyone else can. What do you say we tie that home up?"

May we help you find a good home too?

A message from Ralph Hodges, 'Your Pharmacist'

RECENTLY THERE HAVE BEEN CASES REPORTED of serious consequences resulting from overdoses of medicines given to infants and children.

EVEN COMMONLY USED HOUSEHOLD MEDICINES can be harmful if improperly taken. A five grain aspirin tablet may be a poisonous dose for an infant.

SUBJECT TO VARIATION, it is important to remember that an average dose for a one-month infant is usually 1/20th that of an adult. The dose for a one-year child is about 1/7th, and for a five-year old about 1/3rd of an adult.

LISTEN MOST ATTENTIVELY to any verbal instructions your Physician may give you. In case of any doubt, if he is not available, please check with us.

Grade School News

Grade Five—Central
Mrs. Sclater

Our class was very sorry that Mrs. Uckele is sick, and unable to continue teaching this year, but we are happy to have Mrs. Sclater.

In health we have made food books which show the right foods to eat daily. We have now started posters showing different right and wrong postures.

For Easter we are making the scene of the Crucifixion. We are all enjoying this very much. We hope to have the other grades come in and see this.

In social studies we are studying about the United States. Our room is divided into committees to work on each group of states. When we study a group that particular committee gives reports and other facts that our text book does not have.

Grade Six—Central
Mrs. Crawford

We have just finished one of the most difficult assignments we've had this year—the writing of [illegible]ager reports. Much research was necessary but when the reports were read, we could see the results of the preparing them. We had a wide variety of topics too, and this made them interesting to hear.

Mrs. Crawford is reading Men of Flight to us. This is a story of airplanes from the time they were invented. We especially enjoy it because we studied about planes in science and the names of early fliers are familiar as well as the problems these men faced. It seemed funny that a speed of forty-eight miles per hour once was considered a great thing.

March birthdays were celebrated by Patty Squires, Sharon Fielder, Jimmie Gordon, and Jerome Kemp.

Our boys and girls put on a fine exhibition of square dancing for their parents. Most of them agreed it was fun as well as good exercise.

Grade Six—Central
Mrs. Runk

In our social studies class we are studying India. From Life magazine, we have found interesting and colorful additions to our bulletin board materials on Buddhism and Hinduism.

We have a new boy in our room whose name is Samuel Van Norman. He is from Clinton.

Our class officers for March were President, Kenneth Beevers; vice-president, Gale Kimerer; secretary, Gary Wagner; treasurer, Samuel Van Norman.

Grade Five—Central
Mr. Kelty

The Central States are being introduced and studied this week.

As an activity the class is making flour and salt maps that are divided into sections. These sections are painted as we study that part of the U. S.

Kindergarten—Patterson
Mrs. Updike

We are very busy this Easter time. Our tree has changed into an Easter Egg Tree and we like it best of all. Our new story that we have made up tells all of our plans. Easter Hats to be made, Easter blankets, and our Easter parade are all in the story. We think it is fun to play about the Easter Bunny and all the surprises but we remember, too, the real meaning of Easter and why we [illegible] this special day. Many of our beautiful pictures remind us of the true Easter story and in our little "Thank You" prayers we remember the first Easter.

We were very glad to have Mrs. Sage and Mrs. Powell spend the afternoon with us and we hope more of our mothers will come before the end of the school year.

Reading readiness and number readiness is always a part of our daily work. We like to find the left side where our eyes start. We count everything in our room, even the cookies that we enjoy with our milk.

Melissa Sage brought us the record of Peter Pan and we never tire of it. Most of us saw Peter Pan on television and the record is just like seeing it all over again. Soon we will be first grade children and we are looking forward to that happy time.

Grade One—Patterson
Mrs. Buttolph

Yesterday morning Steven Hollar had his tonsils out. We hope he is soon better and back in school.

Jimmy Pihl leaves Saturday to spend two weeks in Florida. We surely wish we could all go with him.

We have been very busy getting our room ready for the Easter bunny. We have made many pictures of his helpers painting eggs. Each of us made a nice basket to put our eggs in that we dyed. We all have been very careful to do the right thing because we know the Easter bunny may be peeping around anytime to watch us. We want to have a happy Easter and we hope you do, too.

Those who have celebrated their birthdays since last month are Calvin Rickard, Lynn Gomez, and Patty Kreps. We hope they have many more happy birthdays.

Grade Five—Patterson
Mrs. Osburn

Floyd Steel has returned to school after having the chickenpox.

In art we are working on poppy posters to display for Poppy Day for the American Legion Auxiliary.

Bobbie LaPrad brought each of us a copy of the twenty verses of Davy Crockett.

We had an assembly in the gym this week. Chief Dewel Beard and his wife were here. The old Chief will be ninety-eight this summer. His program was very interesting.

We have nearly completed the study of South America. We have found some of their ways very different from ours. The girls thought it was very odd that some of the Indian women of Bolivia wear as many as ten skirts at once and wear them until they wear out or fall off in rags.

Sharon Butler brought us a nice bunch of pussy willows.

We have our room decorated for Easter.

Grade Six—Patterson
Mr. Kaiser

Our class has the display case for the next three weeks. Our theme for the case is Spring.

Many of our classmates have been on trips lately. Camilla Grigg won a trip to Detroit to visit the Ford Plant, Rotunda, Museum, and Cinerama. Dean Eddy, Dianne Fuller, and Jane Hodges have been Florida visitors.

We are studying Asia in social studies. It is very interesting. The people of Asia have many strange customs and religions. Last week in reading we dramatized the story, A Letter for Nikias. Twenty of us are entered in the [illegible] department's Poppy Contest.

Chief Dewey Beard, a Sioux Indian from the Black Hills, was here to present an assembly program. He will be ninety-eight years old in August. We enjoyed his program very much.

Marjorie Van Valkenburg was the first one to bring in pussy willows this year.

Big news about

Buick's 4-Door Riviera

THIS brand-new kind of automobile—the sensation of all the Auto Shows this year—is now rolling off the Buick assembly lines in volume numbers. That's the first news.

And the second is just as wonderful—this dramatic new model is very definitely everything that eager buyers hoped it would be.

For the 4-Door Riviera is the first "hardtop" ever available with separate doors for rear-seat passengers—plus full sedan room in the rear.

It comes breezing in with all the low-lined sweep and wide open visibility of Buick's original 2-Door Riviera—and luxurious new spaciousness in its full-length 4-door body.

With windows down, no posts appear for the rear doors, and you get a completely unobstructed view at both sides.

You find rear doors hinged at front edges to swing wide and free, and assure easy entrance and exit.

And you'll find legroom, headroom and hiproom extra-generous both front and rear—with interiors tailored in fabrics and patterns specially reserved for the 4-Door Riviera.

Best of all, this new Buick beauty comes off the line in both the low-price SPECIAL Series and the high-powered CENTURY Series.

So you can pick your 4-Door Riviera with the potent performance of a 188-hp or 236-hp Buick V8 engine—the swift getaway and gas saving of Variable Pitch Dynaflow*—the velvet stride of the Million Dollar Ride—the long list of Buick bonus features at no extra cost—and all at "great buy" prices that have helped move Buick into America's "Big Three" of best sellers.

But—come see us about the 4-Door Riviera now.

With all-out production—and a prompt order—this newest excitement in cars will be yours that much sooner.

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

God's healing and redemptive power will be emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Scriptural selections will include the following from Psalms (103:2-4): "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; Who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies."

The present availibility of God's goodness and power will be brought out in readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following (472:24-30 All): "All reality is in God and His creation, harmonious and eternal. That which He creates is good, and He makes all that is made. Therefore the only reality of sin, sickness, or death is the awful fact that unrealities seem real to human, erring belief, until God strips off their disguise. They are not true, because they are not of God."

From April, 1944, to July 31, 1954 the American Red Cross prepared and donated 18,114,656 cubic centimeters of gamma globulin to State Health Departments [illegible] the Office of Defense Mobilization for free distribution to physicians for use in the prevention or modification of measles and the treatment of infectious hepatitis.

How Do We Measure Success In Life . . . ?

Some by the standard of world goods we have acquired. Others can see beyond to the richness of our experiences and the goodness of our deeds that lives after us.

So the dignity and beauty of the funeral is seen as a living symbol of the goodness of the departed. Accept with gratitude the flowers, the music and things that make the final tribute a memory of beauty.

Complete and official figures show that again in 1954—for the 19th straight year—
MORE PEOPLE BOUGHT CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER CAR
No other low-priced car even comes close to matching these important Chevrolet advantages . . .

If you're planning to buy a new car, the one you just can't afford to miss seeing is Chevrolet—for 19 straight years America's best-selling car. The Motoramic Chevrolet offers you so much more than the other low-priced cars that it's hardly fair to compare them. And even the high-priced cars don't have all the advantages that today's Chevrolet offers you.

The beauty's built in—not bolted on!
Chevrolet's beauty is inherent in the basic contours of metal and glass. There's no excessive bolted-on ornamentation to go out of style overnight.

The Body's by Fisher!
You see Body by Fisher on lots of the high-priced cars—and only Chevrolet has it in the low-price field!

Today's most modern engines!
That goes for Chevrolet's new V8 and two new sixes as well. All bring you a modern 12-volt electrical system—double the voltage of other low-priced cars. Then Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8" has the shortest piston stroke in the industry!

A drive to suit your driving!
There's silky, peppery Powerglide (even better this year!), new Overdrive (both extra-cost options), and a new Synchro-Mesh transmission that's as smooth as they come.

All the power helpers you want!
Windows, seat, steering, brakes—all are available with built-in "muscles" to make driving as effortless as you wish. They're optional at extra-cost—and worth it!

Come take the key!
There have never been so many good reasons why you should drive a Chevrolet!

Over Ten Million Chevrolet owners—Two Million more than any other car!

One of the outstanding features of a Navy destroyer is versatility. In the crew no man serves aboard for one job alone.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

Callousness and cruelty, retaliation and vengeance, run as smears of blood through human history. In Genesis we hear Lamech boasting to his wives, 'I kill a man for wounding me, and a boy for striking me. If Cain is to be avenged sevenfold, then Lamech seventy and seven fold."

Primitive religion pictures God himself as cruel to his foes, ruthless and vindictive. The Old Testament is full of passages in which Jehovah is represented as taking vengeance on those who oppose him.

But Jesus said the opposite of all this. "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy." Mercy is an element in love which goes far beyond the legal requirements of justice. Man in his highest moments has always recognized mercy as a quality of God. Listen to the tribute of Shakespeare:

The quality of mercy is not strain'd,
It droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath. It is twice bless'd:
It blesseth him that gives and that takes.
'Tis mightiest in the mightiest: it becomes
The throned monarch better than his crown:
His sceptre shows the force of temporal power,
The attribute to awe and majesty,
Wherein doth sit the dread and fear of kings;
But mercy is above this sceptered sway,
It is enthroned in the hearts of kings,
It is an attribute to God himself;
And earthly power doth then show likest God's,
When mercy seasons justice.

Lamp Should Give Enough Light, Charm

A table lamp may add charm to your living room, but if it does not give enough light, it does not serve its real purpose.

To remedy this light problem, Evelyn Zwemer, of the home management and child development department at Michigan State College, suggests using the new R-40 "white" light bulb.

She explains that it is more expensive than ordinary bulbs because of an extra coating of powder on the inside and so is worth the extra cost.

This coating makes for greater diffusion of light and often eliminates the need for a bowl in the lamp. Miss Zwemer explains that the more light is diffused, the better the quality of light. The "white" light bulb also has less glare when looking at it directly than an ordinary bulb.

To use the new "white" light bulb you may have to remove the metal support for the shade and replace it with a broad harp support. For good lighting, the base of table lamps should be 25 inches or more in height and open-top shades should have a bottom diameter of 16 inches.

The new "white" light bulbs are available in 60, 100, and 150 watts and a 50-100-150 watt three-way bulb. They can also be used in pin-to-the-wall lamps and the small floor type lamps.

Good [illegible] at the conference was Wednesday and Mrs. Fay Whelan accompanied Ruth Boyce of Tecumseh, Sandra Copeland of Clinton and Joan Deming of Britton, the local chapter's three Good Citizens, to Detroit where they were guests of the D.A.R. at lunch.

Two hundred seventy-eight girls from all parts of Michigan were present and 17 year old Susanne Harrison of Niles received the award of State Good Citizen. Among the top ten of the "runners up" for that honor was Tecumseh's Ruth Boyce.

Finding Easter's Date Easy, Says UM Astronomer

Determination of Easter's date, apparently a difficult task for many persons, actually is quite simple, according to Associate Prof. Hazel M. Losh of the University of Michigan's astronomy department.

Just remember two things, she advises, and you'll have no trouble: Easter, she says, comes without fail the Sunday following the first full moon in spring.

"The full moon was considered important in fixing the time of this celebration because it enabled olden day travelers to go on their pilgrimages safely by night or day," she continues, adding that we'll have about fourteen hours of daylight by the end of the month.

Venus continues as the bright "Morning Star" rising about two hours before the Sun and near the east point of the horizon. And Jupiter is the bright planet almost directly overhead around sunset.

Saturn is rapidly moving into view for the evening hours, rising at about 10 p.m. in the southeast about two hours after Spica and about two hours before the red star Antares, the three being in almost a straight line to the horizon. Mars can still be seen as a red object above the western horizon just after sunset.

Jupiter is rapidly overtaking Uranus, Professor Losh explains, and by the end of the month will be found just slightly to the northwest of this fainter planet. Uranus is barely perceptible to the naked eye on a moonless night, but through a telescope it appears plainly as a little green disk, she adds.

A few straggling meteors may be visible around April 20 after midnight, according to Professor Losh. These streaks seem to radiate from a point southwest of Vega, the bright star in the constellation of Lyra which is rising in the northeast just after dark.

Rising in the southeast soon after sunset is the constellation Virgo, with the bright star, Spica. Virgo is shaped in the form of a "Y" lying on its side, east of the constellation Leo.

Since Spica is about 155 light-years distant the light from the star that we see now has been on its journey to us since about 1800, and the star is more than 400 times as luminous as our Sun, concludes Professor Losh.

Hanna Re-Elected Mayor

Dealers Put Spotlight on New Autos

This week was proclaimed "Spotlight on Automobiles and New Car Dealers" by order of a proclamation issued Monday by Mayor H. H. Hanna.

Stressing the fact that the automotive industry has grown to be one of America's greatest enterprises and that automobiles were among the most essential products now being offered the American people, the Mayor called on Tecumseh citizens to consider the great accomplisments and the bright future of the automotive industry.

Mayor Hanna said that the sale and servicing of cars and trucks is a vital factor to the economic health of this community and state as well as to the entire nation. Millions are provided employment by the industry according to Mayor Hanna who also pointed out that new car dealers have billions of dollars invested in their businesses to insure the American people economical, adequate and safe transportation.

The new car dealers of Tecumseh plan an extensive program during the week as a part of their "Spotlight" program which is sponsored nationally by the National Automobile Dealers' Association.

To be featured are:

Five of Tecumseh's new car and new truck dealers will hold public "open house" Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Dealerships will be open to visitors and trained employees will be on hand to explain each phase of the complex operation of a modern auto sales and service plant.

Dealerships throwing open their doors to the public during the week are: Schneider Brothers Garage, Butler Motor Sales, Wilson Motor Sales, G. H. Fisher Pontiac Motors, Inc., and Keith Bailey Motors.

Residents of Tecumseh also will witness a novel Easter Parade this year when the community's new car dealers present their first "Easter Parade of New Models" Friday at 2:15.

(See SPOTLIGHT, Page 8)

Parade

New car dealers of Tecumseh Friday will hold a parade of new cars as part of the national "Spotlight on Automobiles" promotion.

The parade, which will be led by a Tecumseh Police escort, and the Tecumseh High School band, under the direction of Donald Johnson, will form on north Oneida street at 2:15 p.m., march west on Chicago, turn north on Maiden Lane, turn east on Logan, turn south on Evans, turn east on Pottawatamie and turn north on Oneida again.

The parade also will march through Herrick Park, Indian Acres, Tecumseh Acres and through some of the residential area of "old" Tecumseh.

Dealers taking part in the parade of new cars will be Schneider Brothers' Garage, Inc., Butler Motor Sales, G. H. Fisher Pontiac Motors, Inc., Wilson Motor Sales and Keith Bailey Motors.

BULLETIN

Robert King, Sr., 65, Lenawee County clerk, died suddenly from a heart attack while he was at work at his office about 11:15 Wednesday morning.

His son Robert King, Jr., of Tecumseh was called from his work at Tresco.

Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Tecumseh Youth Make Plans for Michigan Week

Representatives of the Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts, Girl Scout Association, Teen-Age Club, C.A.P. Cadets and the Child Study Club met recently in the office of the chamber of commerce with Secretary Mrs. Earl Pennington to plan for "Youth Day-New Frontiers" on Saturday, May 21, as a part of the observance of Michigan Week throughout the state.

Erwin Richardson will be the general chairman and Donald Johnson will be marshall of the day.

The group outlined some interesting plans which include the election of youth city officials and a queen and her court of five to reign for a short period of time.

Other tentative plans provide for scout camping, exhibits, a parade of youth with floats included, field day activities, and finally something depicting the future as seen by the youth.

Further planning meetings are scheduled by this group. Other members of it are Dale Jacobs, Walter Hizer, Garland Holmes, John Hamilton, Mrs. Hugh DesErmia, and Mrs. Truman Rentschler.

Local Car Dealers Do Annual Business of $2,640,800

The new car and truck dealer in Tecumseh performs one of the most vital functions of any independent businessman. It is his job to sell essential and dependable transportation to the people here and to provide the service know-how to keep the vehicles in tip-top operating condition.

His service department, manned by experts and equipped with modern scientific tools and machinery, guarantees the precise workmanship to keep the town rolling smoothly on wheels.

The new car dealer has a big investment in the community — an investment in buildings, in parts and accessories, and in service department equipment. He also has an investment in terms of community goodwill built up through the years. Five dealers here have been in business a total of 71 years.

New car retailers in Tecumseh contribute to the local welfare in a variety of other ways. All told, they employ 52 persons and have a total annual payroll of $196,040. They pay their share of local taxes on a total capital investment of $378,000.

They also pay state and federal taxes on a combined gross business of $2,640,800.

And above all, they are community leaders, active in civic clubs and giving to community service organizations such as the Community Fund and Red Cross.

Civil Defense Gets Vehicle for Disasters

The Community Fund board Friday night voted to allocate up to $2000 for an emergency vehicle to be used by the Tecumseh Civil Defense.

George Kilbourn, director, presented the need to board president Mrs. Edith Smith and members Mrs. Richard Preston, John H. Thompson, Frank Rice, the Rev. Edward Escolme Owen Partridge and George Green, Jr.

Board members told the civil defense director to receive bids from local car dealers. City Manager Ed Nelson, Chief Kilbourn and John Saling, assistant civil defense director, opened the bids. The low bidder on the ranch wagon was Butler Motor Sales.

The wagon will not be used for police patrol, Chief Kilbourn said.

It will go on all fires and other emergencies, he continued, and the pneolator will go with it to all fires and other emergencies when needed.

When funds are available, the wagon will be equipped with a two-way radio and it also will be equipped with first aid kits, two blankets and a stretcher. Chief Kilbourn pointed out that the wagon will not be used as an ambulance.

Meanwhile, an anonymous giver has given the civil defense department a Meyers boat and trailer, an outboard motor and grappling hooks which can be used in drowning cases.

Chief Kilbourn publicly thanked the community fund board for the wagon and the anonymous giver. "Their efforts on behalf of civil defense here are very much appreciated," he said.

Egg Hunt Enjoyed by 500 Children

Sunshine, balmy breezes, 508 eager boys and girls and 800 Easter eggs combined to make the egg hunt on the Recreation Field Saturday afternoon a marvelous success.

But the 13 members of Troop 7 of Tecumseh Girl Scouts and their leaders are the ones who deserve the credit. These 12 and 13 year old girls are led by Mrs. William Snook assisted by Mrs. Julius Vincze. On Saturday their efforts were supplemented by Mrs. Jack Hartley, Mrs. J. D. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Wotring and son Ronald, Lester Runk, Julius Vincze, Ron Harris and Amiel Teske to whom they are very grateful.

The troop realized a profit of nearly $125 which will be added to their summer camp fund.

Winners in the up to seven year age group were Douglas Cook and Fred Kachur who found the golden eggs and received live rabbits; and Jon Pichlier, who found the most eggs (19) of anyone in his group and won a "lambcake". In the over-seven group, Michael Hanna and David Brooks found the golden eggs while Harold Underwood won with a total of 17 eggs.

In the egg roll, which followed the hunt, the junior winners were Tommy Aiuto, Bobby Moore, Debby Goldsberry, Tommy Marine, Danny Hare, Douglas Skinner, Bobby Runk and Terry Brooks and the older prize winners were Thomas Smith, David Lemerand, Charles Saling, Michael Whelan and Nicky Penrod.

Wants Dem Appointed to County Board

Whether councilmen would consider appointing a Democrat to represent the city on the Lenawee County Board of Supervisors was the question raised by Grenval W. Spangler at the reorganizational council meeting Monday night.

In his letter to the council in which he wished members "a productive and successful year," he pointed out "it is common knowledge that all four of the past supervisors representing the city of Tecumseh are identified as Republicans."

"It is also common knowledge," his letter continued, "that the Democrats cast over 25 per cent of the total vote in Tecumseh. Fair representation requires that at least one of the appointed supervisors be a Democrat . . ."

Thanking Mr. Spangler for his interest, Mayor Hanna said: "We never have had any thought of politics. In fact, we have tried to keep partisan politics out of city government."

He said supervisors appointed by the council serve at the council's pleasure and they "can serve for life if we want them."

Mayor Hanna told Mr. Spangler: "There is no vacancy at present."

Present members of the board of supervisors representing the City of Tecumseh are Mayor Hanna, councilman LeRoy Titley, former councilman B. O. Bashore and John Saling, city assessor.

This is a copy of Mr. Spangler's letter to the council:

Tecumseh, Michigan
April 11, 1955

Council of the City of Tecumseh
Dear Sirs:

With best wishes for a productive and successful year in your administration of city affairs and government I would like to bring to your attention a point in the selection of supervisors to the county board of supervisors which has been overlooked in the past.

Although Tecumseh is supposed to have a non-partisan government elected at a non-partisan election it is common knowledge that all four of the past supervisors representing the City of Tecumseh are identified as Republicans. This fact cannot be considered non-partisan.

It is also common knowledge that the Democrats cast over 25 per cent of the total vote in Tecumseh. Fair representation requires that at least one of the appointed supervisors be a Democrat if we are to continue in the spirit and with the intent of the city charter.

As a citizen and registered voter in the City of Tecumseh, I sincerely hope that this council will give the deserved attention to this matter when it considers the appointments of the supervisors this year.

Respectfully submitted,
Grenval W. Spangler

Tecumseh, Michigan

Patterson School Wins High Honor

Supt. James McDowell, who attended the regional convention of the American Association of School Administrators at Cleveland last week, was pleased to find that Patterson School had won honorable mention at the convention.

Many secondary and elementary school buildings are entered in an architectural exhibit each year sponsored by the architects of America and the American Association of School Administrators.

Two secondary and two elementary schools receive merit awards which are the top awards and two secondary and two elementary schools receive honorable mention awards.

Tecumseh can be justly proud of having received one of these two honorable mention awards for Patterson School, Supt. McDowell said.

The complete layout of the architect, Warren Holmes and Company, as exhibited in Cleveland, will be on display at some local point in the near future.

Fire Dept. Gets Gifts of Equipment

The Tecumseh Volunteer Fire Department last week received more new equipment for fighting fires.

The Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce gave the department a smoke ejector outfit consisting of a fan and generator. Jaycees earned $650 in funds to buy the equipment. They held a minstrel show and a donkey basketball game to raise the money. Originally the club planned to buy the fan only for about $180 but then it decided also to buy the generator.

An anonymous gift to the department at the same time consisted of 250 feet of weather-and water-proof cable, two 500-watt flood lamps, one 500-watt spot light and a reel for the cable.

Meanwhile, the city received two all-purpose oxygen masks for rescue work that it ordered some time ago.

The Firemen's Association which accepted the gifts publicly thanked the Jaycees and the anonymous giver for the gifts.

Drunk Driver Fined, Jailed

Robert F. Michael, 25, of 401 20th street, Jackson, was arrested by city police early Saturday morning for driving while under the influence of liquor.

He pleaded guilty before Justice Robert French Saturday and was sentenced to serve five days in the county jail and fined $50 and costs of $8.60. If the fine and costs are not paid, he will serve an additional 30 days in jail.

Michael's operator's license also was revoked.

The departmental rally was announced for Sunday, May 14 in Ann Arbor when Mrs. Harlan Boyes will be installed as sixth district president for the coming year.

ATTEND ASSEMBLY

James McDowell, Matt Lund of Adrian and Dale Faucey of Hudson represented Lenawee County teachers as their delegates at the Michigan Education Association representative assembly in Lansing March 31 and April 1 and 2.

Mr. McDowell was appointed early this year as a member of the White House Conference by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Clair Taylor and he is also a member of Mr. Taylor's State Committee appointed to study the problem of adult education and community college.

He's Getting Used to Jail

Charles A. Bumpus,, 22, of Tecumseh, is getting used to jail.

He was back in jail Monday just two days after his release. Once again he was charged with assault and battery. He pleaded guilty to the charge before Justice L. J. Van Deusen Monday.

Bumpus was released from jail Saturday after serving 20 days for assault and battery. Justice Van Deusen sentenced him March 21 on the previous charge.

Bumpus and Richard Stevens of Clinton received jail terms of 30 and 10 days after fighting with Glen Florek, manager of the Pike Inn on U. S. 112, Saturday night. Florek told Clinton State Police that when he refused to sell them beer, they started to fight.

Bumpus also was ordered to pay a fine of $50 and costs of $4.30 and he was put on probation for a year. If he doesn't pay the fine and costs he will serve 75 days in jail.

Stevens also was fined $25 and costs of $4.30. If these are not paid he must serve a 30-day jail sentence.

Council Names Schwartz New Mayor Pro-tem

MAYOR
H. H. Hanna

MAYOR PRO-TEM
Arthur J. Schwartz

H. H. Hanna was re-elected mayor of the city of Tecumseh by council action Monday night.

Meeting for its reorganization, councilmen elected Mayor Hanna by a 5 to 2 vote. R. H. Moore received two votes.

The vote for mayor pro-tem had to be held three times before one of the three candidates in the running received a majority.

On the first ballot Councilman Moore received three votes; John Hamilton, one of three new councilmen, two votes; and Arthur Schwartz, two votes.

The second time Councilman Moore received three; Councilman Hamilton one and Councilman Schwartz three.

On the third ballot Councilman Schwartz was elected mayor protem, receiving four of the seven votes cast. Councilman Moore again received three votes.

Former Councilman B. O. Bashore gave the invocation and he and former Councilman Edith Smith made brief remarks.

Mr. Bashore said: "The council had problems that the average citizen knew nothing about, but the solution of these problems is not impossible. It will take time and money, but with the proper cooperation Tecumseh will continue to be the best little town on earth."

He wished the new council "the best of everything" in dealing with city problems.

Mrs. Smith said: "It was a wonderful experience to be on the council and I appreciated the opportunity to contribute my bit to the welfare of the community.

"I hope all of your expectations will be filled and I hope you enjoy your time spent on the council."

The remainder of the time was spent by Ed Nelson, city manager, in discussing the new city budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

The discussion was primarily for new councilmen John Hamilton, William Powell and Don Purkey to give them a glimpse of the overall city financial standing and problems.

Budget

The City of Tecumseh will have a budget of about $300,000 for the new fiscal year beginning July 1.

This figure, give or take a few dollars, will be used by city officials planning the new year.

Ed Nelson, city manager, discussing the new budget at an unofficial preliminary hearing Monday night with councilmen, explained that the proposed 15-mills for city services will be split into seven mills for general purposes; four mills for city streets and highways ;two mills for the sewer sinking fund; and one mill each for the sewer department and cemetery association.

Councilmen were agreed that the budget should be balanced with anticipated revenues equalling anticipated expenditures.

The city manager said he thought he could balance the budget.

Further work on the budget will be done next Monday night when the new council meets for its first regular meeting.

FINED FOR BEING DISORDERLY

Blanche Travis, 42 years old and Ruby Jantz, 57, both of Route 1, Tecumseh, were arrested by Adrian police Monday.

Charged with being drunk and disorderly they were each sentenced to pay a fine and costs of $23.60 or to spend ten days in jail when arraigned before Justice John K. Lowe.

Complain of Dog Days

If you want to be sure that Rover doesn't come to a sad end you had better check on his activities these spring days.

Chief George Kilbourn said too many home owners are complaining that dogs are ruining their flowers and lawns.

The chief said the county dog warden has been notified to pick up stray dogs and their owners also stand to receive warrants for letting their dogs run loose.

Grade School News

Kindergarten—Central
Mrs. Preston

We are very busy getting ready to be First Graders. One day we visited a first grade room to do some first grade work.

We have fun with picture story games, number games, and number songs.

Some of us have made up very nice stories about pictures which we have drawn or painted. Ginny has one about a train, Linda has one about her house, and Merton has one about his dog.

We like to dramatize stories and our favorites for this month are "The Little Red Hen," "Ask Mr. Bear," and "The Three Billy Goats."

Easter time in our room was a happy time, with fuzzy bunnies on our bulletin boards, and bunny-ear hats for us to wear, bunny songs, and rhythms. The Easter Bunny surprised us and filled our Easter baskets one day while we were visiting in a First Grade room.

Kindergarten—Brownville
Miss Bugbee

Spring is here! We are really enjoying ourselves. We changed the furniture around in our room, and have been thinking about the many spring activities. Brenda Marine, Douglas Skinner, Carol Elliott, and Shiela Beaty brought plants so we could watch them grow. Freddie Choske brought a bird nest to show us. Douglas Skinner brought some wooden shoes so we could all try them on. We decided that we liked our own better. We made many nice things for Easter, and have had fun pretending that we were bunnies and ducks.

We have been very busy with numbers recently. We each made our own number charts by cutting pictures out of magazines. We have also been playing store, and learning to recognize different coins.

We are also learning to recognize color words by association. We have each made our own color chart.

Lelile Pence was absent several days with the mumps and Henry Strand had the chickenpox.

Several boys and girls have had birthday parties. They are Debbie Cheever, Stephen Sawers, Kenneth Carswell, Larry Beckey, Philip Browne, and Lee Ann Ward. Their mothers brought refreshments for us.

Jimmy Goodman went to visit first grade with his brother. He told us of the many things which they do, so we are trying to do them too.

We are very proud of our new doll clothes and [illegible] which our mothers fixed for us. They are very nice. Thank you, Mothers!

Visitors this month were Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. Goodman, Mrs. Lemerand, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Sowers, Mrs. Cheever, Mrs. Carswell, Mrs. Beckey, Mrs. Browne, Mrs. Ward, and Mrs. Andrews.

Grade One—West Branch
Miss Steinhoff

We are very happy to have the spring weather and to talk to our readers again.

About half of us are nearly through with "Our New Friends." The rest of us are working right along.

Most of us have learned our numbers and can make them and can count very well. We are learning to count by 10's. Most of us have learned to do manuscript writing very well. We have been writing our own notes to our mothers telling of school events.

We have some good singers in our room. Miss Gillespie has taught us to sing "Here Comes Peter Cottontail," "The Ballad of Davy Crockett" and "Spring Is Here."

All of us enjoyed our trip to the "Su[illegible] Mrs. Brighton and Mrs. Robison went with us.

On Friday, April 1, Archie Gillman left us and moved to Adrian.

Grade One—Central
Mrs. VanValkenburg

Our room reminds us of Easter. We have made Easter eggs, rabbits, chickens, Easter lilies, and Easter baskets.

We are happy that we are all finally reading in our last basic reader, "Our New Friends."

We have three birthday girls this month, Janice Fletcher, Bonnie Staulter, and Linda Klingensmith.

One of the highlights of our year was our trip to the Maple Sugar Bush. Mr. McDowell let us use the bus. That was a great treat and we thanked him for the use of the bus. When we arrived at the Sugar Bush we saw many trees. They had pails hanging on them. Mr. Munger let us sample the maple sap and then some of the maple syrup. We saw where they boiled the sap to make it into maple syrup.

Last week we made a mural of our trip to the Sugar Bush. Each one made a tree, an aluminum pail, and themselves, also the bus that we rode on.

With the mural and many more pictures and stories that we have made, we put them in the display case. We named our display, "Spring."

First Grade
Mrs. Neitling

Our room really looks like Easter. Bunnies and little chicks are hiding in every corner. We are going to make Easter baskets Thursday.

Janice Sinkey treated us to cup cakes Monday. Her mother had decorated them and they were very pretty and tasted very good.

Eddie Brazee had a birthday party at school last week. We all enjoyed it very much. Eddie was seven years old.

We are keeping weather records for the month of April.

The Eagles and Indians are nearly ready to begin the last unit in "Our New Friends." The Jets will begin the third unit in the same book next week. The Redbirds have nearly finished "Fun With Dick and Jane."

We are learning to count by tens in numbers.

We are going to have a spelldown this week sometime. We are surprised to find how many words we can spell now.

Judy Wells has moved to Alabama. We are sorry to have Judy leave.

Cites Group Cooperation In Making Michigan Week A Success

An appeal to all organizations in Lenawee county to cooperate vigorously with Mrs. [illegible] W. Cooke, Clayton, county Michigan Week chairman, in making the May 15-21 observance a big success here is made by Dr. Grover C. Dillman, state chairman.

"Whether we make real progress this year toward the objective of Michigan Week will depend, more than anything else, on the cooperation the county committee gets during the next few weeks of preparation from the organizations that represent communities and groups of all kinds throughout the county," Dr. Dillman writes.

The objective, he points out, is to make every individual in Michigan really acquainted with his state and community and proud that he is a citizen of both.

The state committee has prepared numerous suggestion sheets covering different activities of Michigan Week but Dr. Dillman emphasizes that every community is expected to observe Michigan Week in whatever way its leaders feel will go farthest toward this objective.

He urges that appropriate activities be planned by local organizations for each of the special days of Michigan Week:

Sunday, May 15 — Michigan Spiritual Foundations Day.

Monday, May 16 — Exchange of Mayors Day.

Tuesday, May 17 — Michigan Hospitality Day.

Wednesday, May 18 — Education Day.

Thursday, May 19 — Our Livelihood Day.

Friday, May 20 — Our Heritage Day.

Saturday, May 21 — New Frontiers Day.

To prolong the life of bed linens, Michigan State College textiles specialists suggest using a mattress pad, buying the proper size sheet, reversing the sheets; equalizing the wear by putting the bottom hem at the top every other time; and rotating the sheets so that one sheet is not used all the time.

PRESBYTERIAN LEAGUE

"Playing With Mud" was the interesting program presented by Mrs. Howard Truesdale at the April 5 meeting of the Presbyterian League held in the home of Mrs. John Saling.

The president, Mrs. Robert Ries, presided at the meeting and devotions were led by Mrs. Helen Hendershot. The mother and daughter banquet was announced for May 5 in the Fellowship Center of the church.

Following the business meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Irene Boltz, Mrs. Ivadel Crowell, Mrs. Irene Finnegan and Mrs. Marie Smith.

The next meeting of the group will be held May 3 at the home of Mrs. E. J. Aebersold.

The first Red Cross sponsored swimming and life saving course was given in 1914, and since that time over 9,300,000 persons have been instructed in water safety.

The Silver Lining

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

THIS IS WHAT YOU might call shopping on the run. The train stopped for the Chicago crossing Friday afternoon and as a trainman leaned over the railing of the caboose, he was handed a sack of groceries by a chap standing on the sidewalk.

RIP VAN WINKLE HAD NOTHING on a man who has lived 65 years. A man or woman too for that matter, who has reached this age has slept slightly more than 21 years if he or she averaged eight hours sleep a night.

JOE HAYDEN REPORTS that an albino robin seems to be making plans to spend the summer on West Logan street. The normally red breast of the bird is entirely white. Joe says it has been about their home for the past week.

MR. AND MRS. HENRY KORTH and daughter, who live on south Adrian street do not believe in confining outdoor decorations to Christmas time. They have an "Easter Tree". A low shapely evergreen on their lawn has its branches tipped with dozens of brightly colored Easter eggs. The effect brings "Ohs" and "Ahs" of admiration from passing motorists. And what a lot of omelets those eggs must have made.

TICKER TAPE NESTS might be expected among the capitalist birds of Wall street but for some strange reason the yellow strips are popular with feathered architects in Michigan, according to Walter P. Nickell, naturalist at Cranbrook Institute of Science. During an extensive analysis of abandoned nests, Nickell frequently discovered ticker tape woven among such conventional materials as leaves and twigs. He refuses to see any stock market omens in his discovery, however, pointing out that the nests also included tinfoil, tennis shoe laces, drinking straws, ribbons, shredded fireworks and surgical gauze.

THE TEACHER COMMENTED on what a fine looking suit the little boy was wearing to school and, being an uninhibited and very honest little lad, he replied: "Well, I really wasn't supposed to wear it to school. This is last year's Easter suit and mom was trying it on me to see if it still fits when the bus came to pick me up. I didn't want to be late so I had to come to school in it."

THE HOUSE OWNED BY the Palman's at 409-411 east Logan was pictured in the Detroit Free Press Sunday. One of the oldest houses in Michigan lived in continuously, it was built by Musgrove Evans, city founder, in 1826. To show how slow these big city dailies are in pouncing on a good feature, our Miss Waldron wrote a fine history of the house last May and the HERALD published a picture to go along with the story.

NATIONAL HONORS and a valuable prize are in store for some boy or girl who has performed an outstanding act of kindness to animals. The kind deed may be a rescue, a special project for the benefit of animals, or a written work, according to the American Veterinary Medical Association, which sponsors the award each year. Anyone who knows of a boy or girl not over 18 years old who might qualify is invited to submit a nomination. Deeds on behalf of dogs and cats have predominated in the winning column since start of the award in 1944, but the committee in charge of the project emphasizes that kindness to livestock and wild animals is just as acceptable in determining the winner. Nominations should be sent not later than May 1, 1955, to the American Veterinary Medical Association, 600 S. Michigan Avenue, Chicago 5, Illinois. The award consists of a framed certificate describing the act of kindness and a $100 U. S. Savings Bond.

Mobil Adds Power Compound To Regular – Grade Gas

C. W. Bailey, agent for Socony-Vacuum Oil Company, announced today that Mobil Power Compound has been added to regular-grade Mobilgas and that both Mobilgas and Mobilgas Special, which has contained the combination of additives since its introduction last year, have higher octane numbers. Both new gasolines are now on sale at all Mobilgas stations in Tecumseh and vicinity.

Mr. Bailey explained that he has known of the new gasolines since March 30, when Socony-Vacuum held a meeting at Adrian, Michigan, at which technical experts explained why the new gasolines were developed and how they will improve the performance of automobiles.

"The new regular-grade Mobilgas for the first time brings most of the performance benefits of many premium-grade gasolines to those cars which do not require the top octane number of Mobilgas Special," Mr. Bailey said.

"Mobil Power Compound is the most powerful combination of chemical additives in a motor fuel. It lessens spark plug fouling, reduces stalling due to carburetor icing, and helps keep the fuel system free of engine-formed gum deposits. This gives the motorist more miles per gallon of fuel consumed. Furthermore, Socony-Vacuum's refining processes combine those gasoline components which give better mileage on short trips with frequent stopping due to traffic and those which result in economical performance on longer trips. Thus the motorist using Mobilgas Special or Mobilgas will experience smaller gasoline consumption than with conventional gasolines."

Monday Club Closes 61st Year With Spring Luncheon

The 61st year of the Tecumseh Monday Club came to a close with the annual spring luncheon held at the Parish House of the Episcopal church. Eighty-five members and guests attended.

The tables were decorated in keeping with the theme "International Relations," with a color scheme of red, white and blue, each table being centered with a globe and the speakers table having a lovely bouquet of white snapdragons and pompoms with red and blue carnations. Mrs. Robert Bonner, Mrs. Wesley Mast and Mrs. Ralph Westgate were the committee responsible.

Mrs. Horace James gave the invocation and a chicken luncheon was served by the ladies of the church.

After luncheon, the members introduced their guests of the day and the retiring president, Mrs. Thomas O'Hara thanked the committees and the departmental chairmen and reviewed some of the more successful programs of the year. Mrs. W. G. Waldron reported that two students had been sent to try-out for the Interlocken scholarship and Mrs. Floyd Bryan told of the beginning of Girl's Town in Ann Arbor.

Mrs. O'Hara also requested the donation of material for quilts and rugs to be sent to Maple Lane Manor and asked for volunteers to assist in this work. Announcement was made of the luncheon of the County Federation birthday, April 20 at the Baptist Youth House, reservations for which should be made by April 18 with Mrs. George Green Sr. or Mrs. Ted LaBounty and members were reminded that registration for the event will begin at 8:45 a. m.

The historical skit of the first 10 years of the club is being written by Miss Edith Ingersoll, costumes are in charge of Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney and the music Mrs. W. G. Waldron.

An invitation was read from the Dundee Woman's club for a musical they are sponsoring Sunday afternoon, April 24 at 4 p.m. at the Congregational church and Mrs. Herbert Murphy reported on the state convention held recently in Detroit.

Mrs. Charles Allen was program chairman with the assistance of Mrs. Seaton Dove and music was furnished by Mrs. William Hayden at the piano. The Globe Trotters, an organization of 19 foreign born wives of local service men, had sent three of their number as speakers of the afternoon.

Mrs. Henry Hamilton, whose home was near Athens, Greece, told of the elaborate celebration of Easter in her native land. She said it was the most important holiday of the year and lasted for a week ending with the slaughtering of a lamb for the family dinner on Easter Sunday. She displayed pieces of handmade linen woven by her mother.

Mrs. Seaton Dove Jr., who came to America from Scotland, said New Year's rather than Easter was the important holiday in her homeland, a day of feasting and open house. She brought a "tam" made of the Douglas Plaid, which was the plaid of her family clan.

English customs were described by Mrs. Merritt Wattles of Tipton, whose birthplace was at Covington. She told an incident of her arrival which was amusing now but not then. Tired and bewildered, she arrived in Toledo and, too upset to telephone her fiance, she took a cab all the way to Hudson paying $35 for the trip.

The program ended with a vocal solo by Mrs. Mulvaney, "Ode to the Nations."

The new president, Mrs. Herbert Murphy then introduced Mrs. E. J. Aebersold, who welcomed Mrs. O'Hara into the Past President's Club and the organization adjourned until October.

Christian Science Services Listed

How the law of divine Love revealed by Christ Jesus offers mankind redemption from sin and limitation will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Doctrine of Atonement."

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (19:6): "Jesus aided in reconciling man to God by giving man a truer sense of Love, the divine Principle of Jesus' teachings, and this truer sense of Love redeems man from the law of matter, sin, and death by the law of Spirit,—the law of divine Love."

The Golden Text is from Mark (10:45): "The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many."

4-H Club Projects Are Available

Summer 4-H Club projects are available for Lenawee County boys and girls if they join a 4-H Club now, reminds Jim Pelham county 4-H Club agent.

Last year exactly 1000 boys and girls in this county were enrolled in 4-H Club work and they want to have other interested farm and town youths join them in their summer work.

Livestock projects in dairy, beef, sheep and swine are open in both production and breeding classes, Pelham announced. Poultry and rabbit raising projects are available, too. Crop activities slated for this summer include corn and oats, along with home and commercial vegetable gardening.

Food preparation and food preservation by freezing and canning are activities of special interest to 4-H girls enrolled in summer 4-H Club work.

These projects are designed to help the boy or girl develop skill and "know-how" over a period of years. Beginning members learn the basics of farm or homemaking techniques and then progress to more advanced projects, he explained.

Other long term projects include such activities as conservation, flower gardening, home landscaping, health and safety and junior leadership.

For information about becoming a 4-H Club member, see a 4-H leader or member, or visit your county extension office in the basement of the court house.

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

Misery loves company!

For the young and beautiful, buying a hat can be fun. But for one who is neither one nor the other it is a grim and deflating experience. Those millinery store mirrors are bitterly candid, particularly for an unreconstructed non-conformist with all her hair.

The hats were beautiful. Flowers, fruit and feathers in an enchanting array of colors and fabrics. But they all had one mission in life. They were meant to nestle in a halo of curls like a brooding butterfly clutching the head with prehensile claws. Not one was intended to spread itself charitably over braids and other deficiencies.

"Were there no silk or straw tams?"

"Oh no, modom, these are what they are wearing."

And "they" were—in droves. But we were not, obviously. From the front, the one we had just tried on was almost flattering but in the rear-view mirror the effect was like the stern of an ocean-going freighter. outward bound. We were peeling it off, along with much of the hair beneath, and preparing to slink quietly away, when there, on the other side of the mirror, were two pairs of amused and understanding eyes. It was another victim of "what they are wearing" and—of all things—a husband. In this case it was not too much hair but too much head and we exchanged three, wry smiles over something that looked like a dicky bird perched above her round and motherly face.

It was a heartening encounter and gave us strength to go on. But at the next store again the hats were all made for the beautifully "permed." Again hope gradually waned and then again we met the couple with the sense of humor and the too large head size. This time words were exchanged, such as—"Wouldn't you think there might be a few odd hats for odd people?" and "Well, guess we will just have to go bareheaded."

Then in the third store, there it was! Not what we had hoped for, of course, but still a hat that was almost adequate, front and rear. We were bearing it across the street in triumph, when, coming from the opposite direction were, the other millinery misfits. And the husband was proudly carrying a hat sack.

Probably motorists, waiting for that traffic light, still wonder why three apparently sane pedestrians suddenly broke into broad grins, waved hat-sacks aloft and chorused, "Found one!" Maybe they thought it was the end of a treasure hunt and at that they would not be far wrong. What they had witnessed was the "touch of nature that makes the whole world kin."

The refreshment table was centered with a floral arrangment flanked with gold, lighted candelabra. The four-tiered wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Lillian Bartle. Mrs. Edith Southard and Mrs. Genevieve Sisson poured. Mrs. Marvin Fansher and Mrs. Woodall played musical selections during the serving.

The choir sings sacred music only, and has been appraised as one of the outstanding small college musical groups in Indiana for its rendition of these numbers.

Members of the choir are selected to sing with the group from the entire student body. Auditions are held during the first week of the fall semester. The choir practices one hour each day and memorizes all music presented in public concert. A number of concerts are presented during the school year in Indiana cities.

C of C Warns Of Racket In Baby Shoes

Parents were warned today by Mrs. Earl Pennington, secretary of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce not to entrust baby's first shoes and other articles of sentimental value to unknown concerns without first checking on their reliability. Described as a perennial petty racket with disproportionately high mental anguish to its victims, she outlined the problem as follows:

"While there are a number of entirely responsible firms engaged in the business of converting baby's first shoes into a lasting form of application of metallic bronze, the field is rife with bogus representatives and irresponsible one-man firms who roam the country leaving a wake of disappointments.

"Carrying samples of 'permanized' baby shoes, the original shoe with all the characteristics dear to the parents preserved by bronze coating, the salesman solicits orders to convert baby's shoes into bookends, ash trays or picture frames.

"Promising delivery within a week or two, the phoney salesman obtains as large a deposit as possible, often the entire payment in advance. And that's the last the victim sees of him, her baby's shoes or her money. Sometimes the shoes collected by such bogus salesmen have been found in a hotel wastebasket, or off the highway where he has thrown them as he skips town."

Mrs. Pennington said that parents should also make sure what process is used in doing the work. "There are a few firms," she said, which allegedly 'permanize' or 'bronze' these articles of sentimental value, returning them as promised, but in unsatisfactory condition. The firm's salesman may represent that the baby shoes or other articles will be coated or covered with substantial thicknesses of bronze or other metal by electroplating, when in fact the shoes are given only a lacquer finish of bronze color.

"Satisfactory rendering of baby shoes and such articles in lasting form can be obtained by electroplating. Firms regularly engaged in this work can and do supply a lasting finish to such articles with methods which are utilized daily in industrial processes. It is important that the householder ascertain in advance the true nature of the particular process that is being offered to her and the results that may be expected from it."

POWELL WANTS TWO CITY POSITIONS

William Powell, one of three new councilmen, wants to keep his job on the city planning commission.

He told councilmen Monday night that he would like to continue to serve on the commission and councilmen, finding no "law" that says he can't, agreed that it would be a good idea to have a councilman on the planning commission, so he will continue to hold both positions.

Schneider Bros.' Buick-Chevrolet Is Oldest Here

Louis Schneider and a Buick

A Buick dealer since 1918 and a Chevrolet dealer since 1931, Louis S. Schneider is owner of the oldest automobile agency in Tecumseh.

Fresh out of the army where he served in the corps of engineers in Europe and Russia during World War I, Louis Schneider and his brother Karl established the Buick agency when they got their first Buick in 1918.

After two years Louis bought Karl out and was sole owner but the name Schneider Brothers' Garage has been retained through the years. Today it is located at 130 West Chicago Blvd.

Born Jan. 16, 1895, in Adrian, Louis attended Tecumseh Public Schools, graduating from the high school "gosh I don't remember when." He attended Michigan State College taking an engineering course. This was a natural bent since he had worked for his family's Tecumseh Electric Company as an electrician. The company served Tecumseh, Britton, Deerfield and Petersburg before it was sold to Michigan Eastern and in turn became part of the Consumers Power Co. Louis was 15 when he began working for the family electric company.

He later entered MSC only to leave to enter the army in World War I. He lied his age to get into the corps of engineers. When he came out in 1918 he held a master sergeant rating. You had to be older to be an engineer.

His long association with Tecumseh car buyers made him a natural for the Automobile Oldtimers' Club and his overseas hitch in the great war also made him a natural for the American Legion. He has served in almost every capacity in the local American Legion Post and today he holds a life membership which

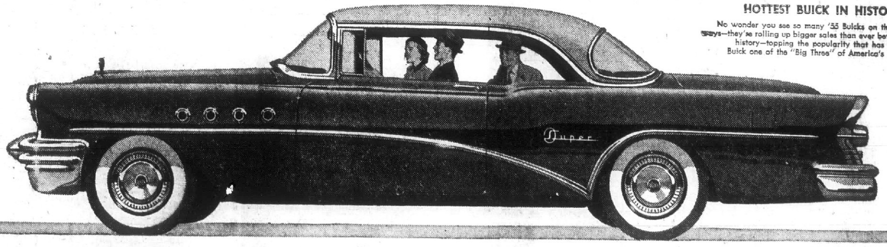
Want to feel like a pilot feels?

HOTTEST BUICK IN HISTORY

No wonder you see so many '55 Buicks on the highways—they're rolling up bigger sales than ever before in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three" of America's best sellers.



Today's the day to "Join The Test Pilot Club" and see what a thrill you get when you try Variable Pitch Dynaflow*

We're not kidding.

When you try a '55 Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflow, you'll feel like a pilot does when he heads his plane down a runway for take-off.

For you, in the driver's seat, are doing what that pilot does—you're changing the pitch of your propellers—one way for instant response on getaway—another way for better gas mileage in cruising.

Your propellers are whirling in oil, deep inside the Dynaflow unit. When you press the pedal in the normal way, you hold those propellers in their economy angle—and you enjoy plenty more miles from your gasoline.

But when you want instant acceleration—for quick getaway, or for a sudden safety-surge of emergency power—you just press the pedal way down, and—with absolute smoothness—you get the action you want, and split-second quick.

It's the thrill that's the talk of the industry—performance unlike anything you have ever known before on the ground.

And so many folks have been asking to try it that we Buick dealers across America have set up April as "Test Pilot Club" Month. All it takes to join the "Club" is a test drive at the wheel of a new Buick. That's all.

So we cordially invite you to win your "wings"—to try the spectacular performance of Variable Pitch Dynaflow—and to feel the mighty V8 power that puts the whip to these gorgeous new Buick beauties. Drop in this week.

Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.*

Local Delivered Price of the 1955 Buick SPECIAL $2253.88
2-Door, 6-Passenger Sedan, Model 48 (illustrated) is Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities. Even the factory-installed extras you may want are bargains, such as: Heater & Defroster—$81.70; Radio & Antenna—$92.50.

Thrill of the year is Buick

Said a sleuth: Ah! The mystery's unravelin'—
About cars that "take off like a javelin."
But with Dynaflow's switch
Of its Variable Pitch—
You were here. Now you're there.
Boy, that's travelin'!

Let's Lay The Foundation

Prior to the city election five candidates made public statements in which they said they favored having a scientific re-assessment by an outside source of all city real and personal property.

Four of the candidates that favored this equality in local assessed valuation were elected to the city council Monday, April 4.

Although they have not publicly come out for it, the three other members of the council are not against the proposed re-assessment program. So now we may see something done in getting equality in local assessing.

Action should be started now on getting this outside survey. Letters should be written and if possible invitations should go out to assessment survey experts who do this type of work. They should be invited to a council meeting to discuss the costs of the proposed program and to explain officially how the survey works. The city may not be able to pay for the program this year, but ground work could be laid.

Councilmen have heard a lot of second-hand information. They now should get the information first hand.

New councilmen are reminded that they supported such a program prior to the election. Now they are reminded that they have a chance to put their beliefs into concrete action.

Salute To New Car Dealers

NEW CAR DEALERS
NEW CARS
SPOTLIGHT ON AUTOMOBILES
WEEK, APRIL 11-16

featuring EASTER PARADE of 1955 Models

Since this is "Spotlight on Automobiles" week, it might be well to give a hand to the businessman who stands behind the automobile — the new car dealer who sells and services those sleek vehicles that grace our highways. It is in large measure due to his efforts that the Auto Age in America has come into being. His salesmanship, his faith in the commodity, have been tremendous factors in the spectacular expansion of the industry in a span of just over fifty years. He is the essential link between producer and consumer.

The dealer's salesmanship is attested to by the fact that today there are more than 58 million vehicles registered in the United States. There are 70 million drivers traveling over a trillion miles annually.

Our community, like all communities, is highly dependent on the product which this independent retailer sells and services. We use cars in a multitude of necessary tasks every day and, indeed, would be lost without them. And, needless to say, the economy of our town is unified internally and integrated externally with far-away places by motorized transportation.

It should not be overlooked, either, that the retail automotive industry provides local employment of no small proportion. The average American dealership gives livelihood to 16 persons, adding up to a national total of 700,000 persons. New car dealers pay wages and salaries of $2.5 billion yearly.

Tecumseh dealers may well be proud of their big role in the nation's economic life. They are proud of being part of an industry that is a giant among giants; they are proud of the results of their individual enterprise; and they are proud of the communities their business investments are helping to grow.

In turn, we are proud of them.

"Do you suppose I'm getting sick?" Bob Bowman asked his wife.

"You don't look like it," she replied.

"I know," he said, "but you don't know my symptoms. I can't seem to keep my mind on my work when I'm inside. I feel restless and upset. I keep making excuses to get outdoors."

"Go on," his wife urged.

"Well, strangely, I feel great when I'm outside. In the fresh air and sunshine I calm down and enjoy living."

"My dear," Mrs. Bowman said with a smile, "I'm no physician. But I'm certain you have a common April malady: Spring Fever."

Bob grinned, "You're probably right. I'll bet if we could give up renting an apartment and get a place of our own, I'd be right on top. I just need some earth of my own to work in and enjoy."

"Don't look at me," Mrs. Bowman said, "I'm not holding you back. I've been hoping you'd reach that conclusion for a year or two."

"Good," Bob replied. "Let's call a Realtor right away to see what's available. What was the name of that firm your Dad recommends?"

Easter morning early service at the Baptist church was attended by 150 young people from the Methodist, Friends, Baptist and Assembly of God churches. The service was opened by a prayer, spoken by Diane Dillon which was followed by the invocation by John Cook. Francis LeBaron sang, "Up From the Grave," there was scritpure reading by Marcia Bashore, a prayer by Barry Packard and singing by a trio composed of Sharon Muhn and Jean and Janice Merritt.

Three short talks followed on the subject of "What Easter Means To Me" by Lonnie Stall of the Assembly of God, Marilyn Manley of the Friends church, Linda Sisson, Baptist and Gary Hizer of the Methodist churches. A hymn by the congregation, "Oh For a Thousand Tongues" and the benediction, pronounced by Phil Surratt closed the meeting.

Joe Hayden, David Withrow and Harry Teet were ushers and Mrs. Herbert Dillon was at the organ.

After the meeting, the Baptist and Friends churches served breakfast to their respective young people. At the Baptist Youth House the tables were set in the form of a cross, with Easter lilies and white candles at the center and miniature crosses on each arm. Robert E. Kelley Dies In Accident

Robert Ernest Kelley, a former employee of the city of Tecumseh, died Sunday morning in a Battle Creek hospital following an automobile accident late Saturday evening near Union City.

Mr. Kelley, who was employed in the water department in Tecumseh for several months during 1954, was 26 years of age. He was a native of Wauseon, Ohio, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelley, and lived in Tipton for some time but had recently moved to Union City.

Survivors are his wife, Betty, and a son, Curtis Robert, of Union City; a sister, Mrs. Wayne Curtis of Tipton; his mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wells of Wauseon; four brothers, Charles and Richard of Tecumseh, Patrick of Florida and Donald, who is in the U. S. Navy; a half-sister, Mrs. H. B. Cole of Manitou Beach and a half-brother, Thurlow Kelley of Hudson. His father and a son, Paul Dean, preceded him in death.

Funeral and burial were in Union City.

AEBERSOLD TO RETURN TO STATES IN MAY

A recent letter to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Aebersold contains interesting information regarding their son, Major Gregg Aebersold of the U. S. Air Force. Major Aebersold, who is stationed in Formosa, was sent there for a six months tour of duty to set up the gunnery program for the island. When his period of service was due to end the Nationalist government requested that he be allowed to remain another six months. The request was not granted by his superiors, however, and Major Aebersold will go to Korea soon and return to the U. S. in May. His family is living in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Butler's Ford Reputation Rides On Every Sale

"We always have tried to live up to our slogan 'honest—friendly' and we have staked our reputation on every sale," says C. O. Butler, owner of Butler Motor Sales, the Tecumseh Ford agency at 135 West Chicago Blvd.

That the company owned by "Chuck" Butler has succeeded can be attested to by the thousands of satisfied customers who have dealt with the Hoss trader during the 25 years he has been a dealer here.

The Ford Motor Company also has recognized Chuck's record as a dealer. If a Ford dealer can earn the company's "Four Letter Dealer Award" once he can consider himself a very fine dealer. But Chuck has earned the merit award twice.

Chuck Butler, for 35 years a Ford dealer in Michigan, was born March 13, 1894, in Battle Creek, but his family later moved to Bellvue and Olivet where Chuck was educated. He went on to attend Olivet College, then he transferred to Michigan State College. At the East Lansing school he played a lot of football and he was a member of the team of Spartans that clipped the University of Michigan 24-0 in 1915. Chuck still is active in the MSC Alumni Association, having served as president in 1947. He also is a member of the Spartan Club.

In World War I he served in the army as a second lieutenant. After the war he worked in the Dodge and Ford plants in Detroit, and later, returning nearer to where he was raised, he joined the Cushman Auto Sales in Battle Creek as a salesman for 10 years and he served as sales manager for five years.

On March 1, 1930, he opened his Ford agency in Tecumseh and began his "honest and friendly" reations that have become part of his working slogan.

Chuck and Mrs. Butler live at 210 south Union. They are members of St. Peter's Episcopal Church where he has been a vestryman and warden for seven years.

Very active in community activities, Chuck has been a member of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce 25 years. He has been a director six terms and has had the president's job three times.

A member of the Tecumseh Rotary Club 24 years, he also is a past president.

Other activities included his his serving as general chairman of the Tecumseh Echoes pageant.

He has been a member of the Lenawee Country Club 20 years and a director and past president of the Tecumseh Country Club. Chuck also has been a member of the Tecumseh Club 25 years and president three times.

His activities also have included:

Director Michigan Auto Dealers Association; president of Lenawee Atuomobile Dealers Association; membership in the American Legion for 32 years; and membership in the National Automobile Dealers' Association. He is now serving Lenawee and Monroe Counties as MADA director.

An outdoor man, Chuck also is a member of the Tecumseh Gun Club, the Lost Lake Woods Club of Michigan and the Pine Creek Club of New York and the Michigan Seniors Golf Association.

His hobbies are golf and hunting.

His biggest thrill came from the latter hobby. Hunting elk in Wyoming last year with a group of Tecumseh friends, he was trapped by a bull moose. "I really sweated for awhile," he said, "and that's as close as I ever want to come to being used as an antler sharpener."

BIG THRILL — Chuck Butler of Butler Motor Sales received a big thrill when he received the Ford Motor Company's four-letter dealer award for excellence. Marion Dietrich presented this first of two such awards to Mr. Butler (right) in 1952.

HOW'S YOUR BUDGET

THESE ARE TRYING TIMES for the family paycheck, and the lady of the house has a man's job when it comes to balancing her budget.

She has a friend and helper in the truck, however, for, although she may not realize it, motor transport helps keep the cost of living down by cutting transportation costs.

The average family spends more for transportation than for any other item save food. So it is clear that the ability of trucks to increase the efficiency of moving goods of all kinds results in substantial savings to the consumer.

The thing we have to guard against is allowing politicians to increase taxes on trucks beyond the more than fair share they're already paying, for, you see, every tax increase on trucks actually comes right out of the people's pocketbooks in increased prices for everything they buy.

Keith Bailey Got Biggest Thrill Buying Olds Agency

Keith Bailey and an Olds

As a commanding officer of amphibs LCTs and LSMs in the South Pacific during World War II, Keith D. Bailey, Tecumseh Oldsmobile dealer had many thrills, but none of them compares to the thrill he received when he bought the Oldsmobile agency at 3024 E. Monroe road May 1, 1954.

Born Sept. 25, 1921, in Blissfield, Mich., he is the "baby" of the five dealers from the standpoint of years in service here.

But Keith has had an enviable first 11 months in Tecumseh. His sales of the sleek cars made in Lansing, Mich., continue to mount because as he puts it: "We see that people get their money's worth. When they buy Olds they take a big jump in getting cash value received."

Keith beileves a satisfied customer is his best means of promoting further sales. His slogan is "Ask any Keith Bailey Olds owner." He believes that this slogan must have a lot behind it or Oldsmobile owners that buy from him would not offer the fine unsolicited testimonials they do.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Bailey of Adrian, Keith graduated from Adrian High School and Adrian College. He took a bachelor's degree in education from the Methodist college. He also attended Northwestern University for advanced work. While at Adrian College he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Michigan Alpha Chapter.

He once was an office employee of the Bohn Aluminum for two years and he also spent some time in the office of Bridgeport Brass in Adrian before starting his Oldsmobile agency here.

During the war he spent 39 months in the U. S. Naval Reserve, spending 26 of these months in New Guinea, the Philippines and China. As a lieutenant (j.g.) he commanded amphibs. He "enjoyed" the Navy.

After the war—Oct. 9, 1949, to be exact—he married the former Jane Hart in the Episcopal Church of Adrian.

They have three boys—Johnny, 4; Billy, 3; and Joe, 1. And they are expecting another some time in the latter part of this month. Needless to say, Keith wants a girl this time.

Keith lists one of his hobbies as music and he lends a rich baritone voice to the Adrian Episcopal Church where he directs the choir Sunday mornings. He used to sing more but he no longer has the time to devote to it.

Other hobbies are golf (he shoots between 80 and 85) and woodworking.

"I have a shop in the basement of my new house where I tinker around," he says. Asked what he makes that is complicated, he said "Nothing. The most complicated thing I've done so far is to nail a board to the wall." But he has made his three boys some toys.

Keith is a member of Lodge No. 39, F. & A. M. of Adrian, William Stark Post the American Legion of Adrian and the Lenawee Country Club. His transfer to the Tecumseh Country Club is now pending.

WESTMINSTER LEAGUE

Twenty-five members of the Westminster League of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Roger Linger.

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Fred Oberlin and the program was a panel discussion and quiz on the subject of character building. The main item of business during the evening was making plans for serving the district meeting dinner of the O.E.S. April 21, which will be held at Fellowship Center.

Mrs. Linger was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. James Gabler, Mrs. Walter Morden and Mrs. Clarence Champanois.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Learn How to Pull Together

Saw a kid go by the Clarion office on a brand-new coaster wagon yesterday—and it reminded me of when my brother and I were about forty years younger.

Our folks weren't poor, but there wasn't enough to buy two wagons for Christmas. We got one between us. Dad made a rule that we each could have it for a week – but the boy with the wagon was responsible for keeping the kitchen wood-box filled.

Seemed a bargain to Bud and me—at first. But soon we discovered it was no more fun playing alone than working alone. It wasn't long before we were sharing the wagon in return for sharing the chores.

From where I sit, you can't enjoy a privilege yourself if you're going to deny it to others. There are some folks who want the right to enjoy their favorite beverage—but would deny me my right to an occasional glass of beer. I doubt if such people get their full "share" of happiness, though.

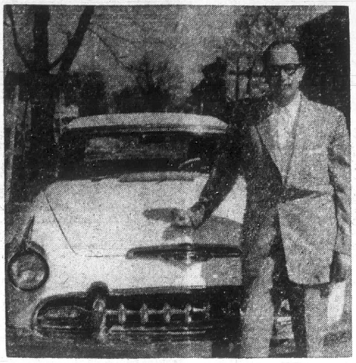
Wilson Motor Sales Stresses Service Selling Plymouth-De Soto



Harvey Wilson and a DeSoto

Harvey Joseph Wilson of Wilson Motor Sales at 123 south Ottawa street, better known to his host of friends as Harv, is sold on the two Chrysler Corp. products he sells, the Plymouth and the De Soto. "Models this year," he says, "are particularly outstanding in every way."

Wilson Motor Sales, an agency since Oct. 15, 1953, has the byword "service." Whether applied to a new car, a used car or to the service department where skilled mechanics work on cars brought in, the agency stresses service rendered to its customers as its strongest selling and re-selling point. "A satisfied customer," Harv says, "will come back again."

Born in Ashville, North Carolina, Aug. 24, 1922 to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilson, he later moved with his family to Detroit where he attended St. Mary's High School.

An outstanding athlete in the two major sports of baseball and football, Harv received the biggest thrill of his life when he pitched a no-hit baseball game in Class "B" Sandlot League in Detroit when he was only 16. But what might have been an outstanding baseball career was cut short when Harv broke his back, arm, and leg while playing football. He still has a lump in his arm from one of the football injuries.

Harv married the former Juanita K. Jenkins in Johnson City, Tenn., June 27, 1942. They have two children Linda K., 11, and Jan R., eight months. The family attends St. Elizabeth's Church. They live at 721 north Union, Tecumseh.

Harv has been a resident of Tecumseh nine years. Before coming to Tecumseh as manager of the Kroger store here, he worked for the Kroger Co. in Toledo and Monroe as a manager and trainer.

And for four and one-half years he was a salesman for the Butler Motor Sales.

Active in community affairs, Harv is a member of the board of directors of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce and he has helped on community fund drives.

Old football injuries kept him out of the service but he has served in the Michigan National Guard.

Bowling and golf are his hobbies. He carries a 161 average in bowling and he shoots golf in the low 90's.

He is a member of the Tecumseh Exchange Club and the Adrian Elks.

Geologist Visits Miss Ingersoll

Guests last week of Miss Edith Ingersoll were Dr. Helen Foster, who has just returned from Japan and her sister, Mrs. Norman Fisher of Los Angeles, Calif. Both are former residents of Adrian, the daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Foster.

Dr. Foster received her degree at the University of Michigan in the somewhat unusual field of geology. She taught for some time at Wellesley College and then joined the U. S. Geological Survey, under which she spent seven years in Japan. She has worked in some of the more remote regions of the islands but as all the results are "classified information" most of her adventures are not for publication.

While returning to the United States she visited Honk Kong, Indonesia, Australia, New Zealand and the Philippines and was a passenger on the government transport plane immediately preceding the one which crashed recently in Hawaii, with the loss of all on board. Dr. Foster, in the course of her work has flown the Pacific twelve times.

Mrs. Fisher returned to her home in California, Friday but Dr. Foster is in Washington, D. C., where she will be briefed on her next assignment. This will be the making of a geological map of the island of Ishigaki, which is near Okinawa. The work will require about six months.

How Do We Measure Success In Life . . . ?

Some by the standard of world goods we have acquired. Others can see beyond to the richness of our experiences and the goodness of our deeds that lives after us.

So the dignity and beauty of the funeral is seen as a living symbol of the goodness of the departed. Accept with gratitude the flowers, the music and things that make the final tribute a memory of beauty.

Pontiac Sales Hit All-Time High

Pontiac sales soared to a record high of 54,146 new cars in March, R. M. Critchfield, Vice President of General Motors and General Manager of Pontiac Motor Division announced today. During the last 10 days of March 21,489 cars were delivered. March sales were 30 per cent over February and by far the highest month's sales in Pontiac history, topping Pontiac's previous record of August, 1950, by 20 per cent, Critchfield said.

Total sales of 1955 Pontiacs through the end of March have gone over the 228,000 mark. Critchfield enthusiastically predicted record sales of over 550,000 new Pontiacs during the 1955 model year.

In comparing sales this year with 1954, Critchfield said they were up 66 per cent over March last year.

Used car sales by Pontiac dealers also reached a new high in March. Dealers reported 75,677 used car sales, more than 19,000 units above March, 1954.

Auto Owners Do It Again

Male Drivers Under The Age of 25

Take Notice

Last Year — 1954 — Auto Owners pioneered a constructive change. They took the girl driver out of the high rated class.

Today other companies are following our lead.

This Year — 1955 — We still face the facts and act. Automobile accidents are still too frequent and too costly, but the records reveal that some drivers are entitled to a better deal.

Effective April 1, 1955, and thereafter the Auto Owners Insurance Company of Lansing, Michigan, has completely revised their classification of drivers' risks.

MADA Director C. O. Butler Cites Auto's Importance

C. O. Butler, director of the Michigan Automobile Dealers' Association for the Lenawee and Monroe County area, says the essentiality of the automobile to the modern functing of a community is a fact many people tend to forget. Yet is is something demonstrated every day. Only if a town were suddenly deprived of cars would a consciousness of their all-importance to the local economy and living pattern be fully realized. For America is truly a nation geared to motorized transportation.

Let's stop and think about the rich variety of ways in which we use automobiles every day of our lives. We use them to drive to and from work, for business purposes, for going to shopping centers, for taking our children to and from school, for visits to the doctor and dentist and for going to church.

Those living in suburbs especially lean on the automobile for economic purposes—for reaching their work downtown and getting to shopping districts and retail service establishments. In fact, the automobile is the creator of suburbia, the chief stimulus to the outward explosion of cities. It has created a new mode of living, and with it new economic opportunities.

In connection with observance of "Spotlight on Automobiles" Week, Mr. Butler called attention to the following facts pinpointing the essentiality of the automobile in America.

. . . Thirty-five million American families — that's 70% — own at least one automobile, and the number of motor vehicles registered last year reached a record total of more than 58 million. In 115 of the nation's most populous counties there are nearly as many cars as families. In fact, cars outnumber families in some counties.

. . . Eighty-seven per cent of all car owning families rely on their vehicles for essential transportation. Forty-seven per cent of car usage is for work or business; 23% for shopping, 8% for church, 5% for school and 4% for health.

. . . Drivers in the U. S. number 70 million with two-thirds being male. These drivers roll up over half a trillion miles annually.

. . . American farmers own almost seven million cars and trucks. The horse and mule, once the chief power sources on farms, now run a poor second to motorized farm vehicles, being outnumbered two to one.

. . . The automobile and its allied industries employ 9.7 million person—one out of every seven workers in the nation. And 700,000 people are directly dependent on franchised dealerships for their livelihood.

. . . More than half a million school pupils are known to use private automobiles regularly to reach classes.

. . . Automobiles are essential to public safety. The squad car gives police added mobility and the ambulance is an indispensable weapon of mercy.

These statistics tell the story of the importance of the automobile. To breathe life into these figures all a person need do is think how many times a day he needs the car and what life would be like in his town without the gasoline chariot.

Although the Tigers' record in spring training games has been nothing sensational, I think fans will be pleased with this year's team.

Bucky Harris has done a lot of experimenting with the line-up in practice contests, trying to learn all about his material But now that we have come to the regular season and the chips are down, our best players will be on the field every day.

The Tigers are, essentially, a young team and an exceptionally fast one. We may be a little short on power, perhaps, but I believe this will be overcome by tremendous speed on the base paths and considerable defensive ability.

You won't find a faster, better throwing outfield in either major league. Not many balls will drop for cheap hits on Al Kaline, Bill Tuttle and the rookie, Jay Porter nor will many base runners take liberties with them.

Better Hitting

Porter, who can really blast a ball, has added power to our team, and Al Kaline's much-improved slugging provides that much more to our potential.

Of course, we know what dependable Ray Boone can do, and with the addition of first baseman Ferris Fain the Tigers are blessed with another consistent hitter.

Finally, with our pitching apparently improved over last season I feel that Detroit will be fighting it out with Chicago and maybe Boston for third place. I think the Tigers should beat Boston for at least fourth, for we're a sounder team than the Red Sox.

Naturally, I look for the Indians and the Yankees again to fight it out for the pennant. I pick the Indians to repeat because they look even stronger than last year. For one thing, their pitching is more stable.

Tougher Competition

The Yankees should chase them all the way to the wire, but I doubt if both teams once more will go over the 100-victory mark. Boston isn't likely again to drop 20 out of 22 games to the Indians, and Baltimore and Kansas City are not going to be such push-overs.

Incidentally, I look for Kansas City to be an improved ball club. Their move from Philadelphia should help them. Baltimore, too, seems a little stronger, but it appears that the Orioles and the Athletics still will be fighting to keep out of the cellar.

As for Washington, I expect the Nats to be giving someone a tough time for fifth place in the Hickory and Horsehide League.

BUICK

was granted to him last spring.

For more years than he cares to mention he was active in the Legion's Memorial Day parade as marshal. And he always led the parade riding a fine horse which was for years his best loved hobby.

Louis Schneider also is a member of the VFW, the Masons, the Adrian Elks, the 40 et 8, the Tecumseh Country Club, Tecumseh Club, Michigan Automotive Trade Ordinance Association.

He is a charter member of the Tecumseh Rotary Club.

Soon after he started the Buick dealership here he married the former Alice Lowe. They live at 115 south Union and they attend St. Peter's Episcopal Church. They have one son Louis, 33, known by many Tecumseh folks as young Louie. He is vice-president and general manager of the agency today and his dad gives a lot of the credit for the agency's success to his son's drive and management.

For years an active member of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce "Old" Louie used to head up the special promotion when Tecumseh merchants of an earlier era held Wednesday specials. Folks jammed Tecumseh from miles around to see the special vaudeville talent Louie signed up to put on acts on the mobile stage. At one time he became quite scientific about it.

"I had a friend with the P.T. Barnum Co. in Detroit who would give me advanced weather forecasts. If the weather was going to be good I'd sign up real good shows. If the weather was going to be lousy I'd sign cheap shows in advance. My friend never missed."

Louis can't single out his biggest thrill since he started his agency here. "I've had a lot of them," he says.

One of his biggest is a continuing one. This is the fact that he is still selling Buicks to folks who bought cars from him soon after he started his agency. He also is still selling Chevrolets to buyers who bought some of the first Chevrolets ever sold in Tecumseh. "This is the best sales talk we can have," he said, "and we are grateful to these folks."

"Today there is a difference in the service department. When I first got my start, I could fix any car we serviced. All I needed was wrench and the part. But today you have to really know your stuff to work on these modern cars. Our servicemen are constantly going to school to learn how to do the job better and there is a lot to learn. We keep pace with all improvements."

Louie said his agency carries a normal inventory of $28,000 in Buick and Chevrolet parts. "In 99 cases out of 100 we can service the missing or broken part right from our own stock," he said.

Car Dealers Serve Automobile Safety

Safety is a day-by-day concern of Tecumseh new car dealers. They have loaned automobiles for behind-the-wheel instruction in high school driver education courses, and they have supported the varied programs of national organizations such as the Inter-Industry Highway Safety Committee, sponsored by the National Automobile Dealers Association which is sponsoring "Spotlight on Automobiles" and other automotive interests.

In commenting on the fact that April 11-16 has been designated as "Spotlight on Automobiles" week, local dealers said motorists must remember that highway safety "should be spotlighted every day of the year, every moment of the day."

Tecumseh's franchised new car dealers have made an important contribution in fighting the battle against accidents by:

1. The annual May vehicle safety check. Under this voluntary program thousands of motorists bring their vehicles to service departments for inspection of 10 points vitally affecting safe operation.

2. A campaign to "Make Courtesy Your Code of the Road." This campaign was designed to create widespread awareness of the need for sane highway manners. Dealers helped get into the hands of the public material emphasizing seven rules of courteous motoring.

3. Safe Driving Day. When President Eisenhower proclaimed last Dec. 15 Safe Driving Day, dealers pitched in and did everything they could to make it the success it was, proving that motorists and pedestrians can reduce accidents if they really want to.

4. Man-to-Man and Dad-to-Daughter safe driving programs. Dealers have promoted safety through distribution of pledges signed by teen-agers and their parents. Parents appreciate having safe driving habits instilled in their children and teen-agers quickly learn that safe behind-the-wheel conduct helps to make it possible for them to borrow the family car.

5. Good highway programs. Realizing that safety depends, in part, on good roads, dealers have been an extremely vocal group in urging improvement of America's highway network.

Don't Be One Spot, One Bait Angler

Don't be a one-spot or a one-bait fisherman, advises Karl F. Lagler, chairman of the University of Michigan's Department of Fisheries.

And try to look at fishing through the eyes of a fish, he adds.

"You'd never find a hunter sitting in one spot all day," says Professor Lagler, "and yet look at how many fishermen just sit and wait for the fish to come to them!"

He suggests that anyone who really wants to catch something go after it. First, start casting the shoreline with a floating-diving lure.

If the water is clear start the bait moving the second it hits the water, he urges, but if the water is cloudy let it stay still for five or ten seconds, then start retrieving, he adds.

"This gives the fish time to find what caused the splash if visibility isn't good," he explains.

If you don't hook any near the shore cast into deeper water using a sinking bait which will plumb the depths, advises Professor Lagler.

And if they're still eluding you, try the heavier cover like lily pad fields, weed patches or the moss beds and cast a slow sinking lure next to this cover, making a steady retrieve, he suggests.

"Excellent places to work are around sunken logs, fallen trees, brush piles and rocky shorelines," he maintains.

And by all means, he declares, approach quietly. Agreeing with a well-known angling expert, Homer Circle, Professor Lagler gives these tips: If you're in a boat don't come up to the spot you've selected plunking your oars vigorously, scrambling around with your tackle, splashing your anchor over the side, and finally standing up where you're clearly silhouetted against the sky.

"The big ones didn't get big through being thoughtless or stupid and they'll give you a wide berth after this sequence," he emphasizes. Be quiet, unobstrusive, and as much like a fish as possible, if you really want loaded lines.

"Don't chug your chugger so loud that you can hear it—it'll sound like a hippopotamus to a fish, and that's not a tempting meal," he concludes.

And for fishermen who want other tips on how to catch their fish, Professor Lagler suggests they come to the Fishing Clinic to be held April 23 in the University's Yost Field House.

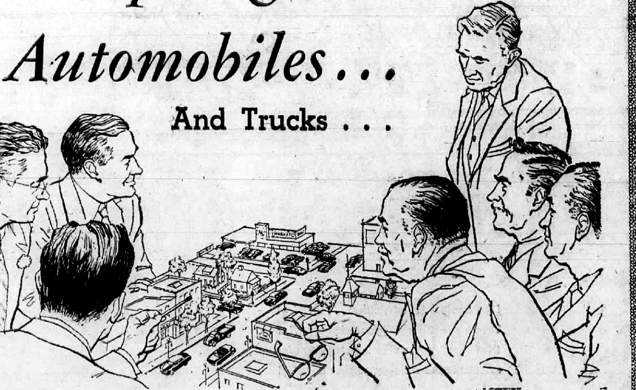
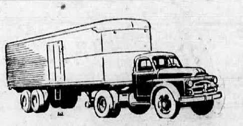
Automobiles . . .
And Trucks . . .





. . . Did you ever stop to think how important the transportation industry is . . . and how important the trucking industry is to the nation's welfare and economy?

Today, we can live as near to, or as far from, the heart of things as we choose. Today we shop, work and vacation with greater conveniences than ever before.

And the economic health of our community depends on this. This is where the trucking industry enters to do an outstanding job of transporting goods to shops, stores and homes. Almost everything comes in by truck and almost everything goes out by truck.

Trucks also are used to a large degree in transporting new cars from factories to local dealers. So you see, trucking plays a vital role in the general economy and the automotive industry.

Assessment Survey Explained for Council

Councilmen Monday night heard a representative from an assessment survey firm explain how the city could reassess personal and real property.

Steven Fifer of Cole, Lear and Trumbull of Dayton, Ohio, explored the possibility of having the city use his company for this service which has been discussed for some time.

He could not say exectly how much a survey would cost but he said it might cost "around $13,500."

Mr. Fifer told councilmen that he would need more information about the city before he could give a more exact price quotation. He asked that the city provide him with answers to: the square foot area of the city, population, the number of dwellings, industries, personal parcels, utilities and commercials.

Mr. Fifer thought his firm could do the necessary survey in about three months, depending on the answers to the above questions and also on how many men the company would bring in.

His firm, he said, has done Clinton, Adrian, Addison, Fenton, Saline, Kalamazoo and other Michigan cities and villages. He told councilmen that any of the cities his firm has surveyed would offer the best of references.

Answering a question, he said personal inventories are spread over a period of 12 months and an average is taken so a business or industry is not penalized for buying merchandise or stock in advance.

He also showed councilmen the complete and full card system his company would use in the survey.

Councilmen explained that the new budget does not provide for funds for the survey. Mr. Fifer said his company would let the city spread the cost over a two-year period.

Mrs. Naomi Sallows, city clerk, was instructed to write Mr. Fifer's company to give it additional information pertaining to a proposed survey of local assessments.

School Budget Approved, Goes to County Board

Tecumseh's educational opportunities will show improvement if the Lenawee County Tax Allocation Board approves the local board of education's budget for next year, states Supt. James McDowell.

The budget was approved by the board of education at its April meeting last week. As soon as the tax allocation board rules on it, it will be released for the public, the superintendent said.

The allocation board has to approve the budget and award the millage for operations.

"It has been necessary to curtail somewhat school opportunities for Tecumseh youngsters during recent years due to the rapid growth of the community and the low assessed valuation compared with state equalized valuations," he said.

But, he added: "Now that it is possible to levy taxes for schools on state equalized valuations it is hoped that some serious conditions such as overcrowded classes, limited supplies and equipment and inadequate salaries may be somewhat remedied."

The board of education, he said, also is requesting from the tax allocation board that the 13-mill bond debt tax be levied on local valuations because more than sufficient funds for the yearly debt retirement needs would be available and thus the local tax for school debt would not be increased.

In other board business Dr. Lester Anderson of the University of Michigan discussed problems of annexation and consolidation. The board will not change its present policy.

John Lott, Clarence Wagner, Merrill Gray, Harold Black, Pearl Wolf and Austin Partridge of the Colvin School district visited the board to discuss annexation and requested admission of their seventh and eighth grade pupils to Tecumseh Public Schools next year. Since the total number is less than 10 pupils and would not materially effect the junior high program, the board voted to accept them for next year, thus relieving Colvin of a serious situation for the present.

The program generally will follow the last open house which was so well attended last Nov.

This is the schedule planned by David Dick and his committee: home room period from 7:30 to 8 p.m.; parents' selection of courses of study he or she wishes to attend from 8 to 8:20 p.m.; panel discussion in study hall covering high school questions from 8:20 to 8:35; election of new officers at 8:35; consultation of parents with teachers from 9 to 9:15; refreshments in the cafeteria from 9:15 to 9:30.

In the second period parents will choose among these six courses of study offered by the high school: college prep, general, agriculture, commercial, industrial arts and home economics. The parent will attend the curriculum meeting in which his child is enrolled.

Mr. Dick said parents of sixth graders are especially invited to the open house which is arranged for the sixth and seventh grade. Present eighth graders will be in high school.

Explosion

Gasoline or naphtha is finding its way into the city sewage disposal plant.

City Manager Ed Nelson reports that the condition could cause a serious explosion. He says several plants have been wrecked by explosion in the past few months because gasoline was dumped into sewer systems.

He asked that any gas station, industry or dry cleaning establishment check their employees to see that the gasoline or naphtha does not enter the city sewer system.

Track Fund

At its April meeting last week the board of education voted $2800 from the general fund to augment money raised in the Community Fund drive last autumn for the purpose of building a running track at the recreation field.

City Manager Ed Nelson and Fay Whelan of the recreation board discussed the track plans at the board meeting.

The Community Fund drive raised $4044.27 for the track and now with the board of education fund the city can go ahead to build the track.

The city manager said the most important factor that had held up the work was the lack of the right kind of cinders. But now these can be acquired and work on the track is expected to be completed this summer.

BITTEN BY DOG

Paulette May Martin, 5, of 3002 Shady Lane, was bitten on the face by a stray dog Monday about 11 a.m.

She was treated for a gash on the right side of her face at Herrick Memorial hospital.

Letter Surprises

Hospital Supt. Calls City Loan a "Gift"

Councilmen Monday night were thanked in a letter by Miss Gertrude Spaulding, superintendent of Herrick Memorial hospital for the fine gift the council gave the hospital.

But, councilmen reasoned, this was not a gift. It was a loan. So there must be some misunderstanding on the part of somebody.

To get the full story you have to go back to the night of Monday, Jan. 17 when Clarence Gilman, president of the hospital board, and Lloyd Rhein, a director, asked the council permission to borrow about $16,000 to complete the hospital's alterations to house new X-ray equipment and for operating capital.

At this time they told councilmen that such a loan would be backed by the hospital's accounts receivable. J. C. Beardsley, city attorney, explained at that time that the hospital could not borrow. He said the city would have to be the borrowing agency and then turn the funds over to the hospital board.

Later the attorney put the necessary legal machinery in motion to apply to the Michigan Municipal Finance Corporation for the loan. Still a little later the MFC granted the city permission to borrow $16,658 "to make capital improvements in the municipal hospital."

When Miss Spaulding's letter was read Monday night councilmen could hardly believe what they had heard. They again said the fund was a loan and not a gift.

Councilman R. H. Moore pointed out that the new budget does not provide for the fund and that the amount should be called to the attention of hospital officials as a note payable and it also should be listed in the city's records as an account receivable.

Although the city is liable for the loan, it fully expected it to be repaid from the hospital's accounts receivable.

Councilman Schwartz said: "Next time to avoid any possible misunderstanding, let's get it in writing."

Mayor Hanna told councilmen that the hospital board invited the council to tour the hospital before the next council meeting.

Councilmen agreed that the tour also would serve as a good time to explain that the loan was not a gift and they expressed surprise that hospital board members had not told Miss Spaulding this fact.

8 Denominations To Help Plan for Baccalaureate

A new plan for baccalaureate services was adopted by the Tecumseh board of education last week.

The new plan, which will be in operation this year, is this:

Principal Neville Hart will invite a different denomination each year to assist him in making plans for the services. Each denomination will secure an outstanding out-of-town minister of its faith to give the address. The board of education will pay all expenses.

Principal Hart drew up this list of denominations who have taken part in the past and who wish to take part in future services: Catholic, Friends, Baptist, Lutheran, Episcopal, Methodist, Presbyterian and Assembly of God.

Board members felt that since the services now are held in the high school gymnasium denominations whose regulations prevented their taking part in the services when they were held in a church other than of their faith now may wish to help plan the services.

The State of Michigan requires "A child must be five (5) years old on or before Dec. 1 to enter kindergarten at the opening of the school year in Sept."

The enrollment will be afternoons, 2 to 4 p.m., at Central School principal's office.

"We would appreciate cooperation with the enrollment, as it will aid us in making our plans for next year," Mr. Greene said.

Two more drunks were arrested by Tecumseh Police and fined by Justice Robert French.

Use Care in Buying Tot's Shoes

The shoes you buy for your preschool children may play a big part in whether they have foot trouble in later years.

This is explained by Mary Lewis, of the foods and nutrition staff at Michigan State College. She says children grow so fast that by the time they are 6 to 8 years old the foot bones have formed and the characteristics of their feet have developed.

Because youngster's feet are so important, their shoes must be carefully selected. Miss Lewis quotes an expert on what to look for when you go shoe shopping with your children. He is Dr. L. Starr in the department of orthopedic surgery at New York University.

Put on and lace up both shoes on the child. Have him stand on both feet. If the shoes are wide enough, you will be able to pinch a small fold of leather across the top of the shoe at its widest part. If the shoes bulge along the sole line, they are too narrow and if the leather wrinkles, they are too wide.

Make sure the shoe is long enough; there should be room for the width of your thumb at the end of the shoe. And, quotes Miss Lewis, make sure the little toe has its fair share of space, too.

For best support in walking, be sure you note the heel-shank area. When you child raises his heel from the floor, as in walking, the heel of the shoe should follow the foot and neither gap at the sides or the back.

Finally, Miss Lewis says, be sure you have the family doctor check your child's feet. If necessary he can prescribe corrective measures.

ANCIENT STATE LANDSCAPE BUILT AT U-M — Michigan's landscape as it was millions of years ago has been simulated in a new three-dimensional display at the University of Michigan Museum. The exhibit shows the kinds of trees which contributed to the state's cumulous coal deposits and includes a one-eighth size replica of a Carboniferous Age dragon fly which had a wing spread of two feet. Making a textbook check of the exhibit is Margaret L. Blunt, U-M student from Albert Lea, Minn.

McColls Are Music Club Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. John McColl were hosts to the Tecumseh Music Club Tuesday evening at their home west of town. Miss Marie Wintersteen, Mrs. Leon VanValkenburg and Mrs. Faye VanValkenburg were guests.

The program, in charge of Miss Edith Ingersoll, was devoted to the music of the Impressionistic School and the leader gave a most comprehensive resume of its important composers and their place in musical history.

Following her explanation, Mr. McColl played records of Delius, DeBussey and Stravinsky, selections which were outstanding examples of this school. He used his high fidelity player which brings out the full tonal range of both instruments and voice. This delicate apparatus was constructed by Mr. McColl himself.

It was announced that the club has been invited to sing on two occasions during the celebration of Michigan Week in Tecumseh. The nominating committee, headed by Miss Ingersoll, reported the slate of new officers for the coming year. This was accepted and the following were declared elected: president, Mrs. William Hayden; vice president, Mrs. Arthur Schwartz; recording secretary, Mrs. George Wittrup; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Perry Hayden; treasurer, Mrs. Clarence Bock and librarian, Miss Ingersoll.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. William Hayden and Mrs. John Wintersteen served refreshments to the group.

In May the club will meet with Mrs. Kennard Wise.

Twelve members of the Fiddlesticks Club met Tuesday evening at the home of Gerald Kruse. They answered roll call with the names of composers and there was a discussion of orchestral instruments.

The singing of several scalesongs and rounds closed the evening's program and the boys and girls enjoyed refreshments served by Mrs. Kruse.

It was decided to have a picnic for the May meeting at noon, Saturday, May 15 in the woods of the Day farm. This group, which is the junior music club organization, is under the leadership of Mrs. Murray Day.

More than 1,000 conferences and special courses were held at Michigan State College's Kellogg Center for Continuing Education in the three years following the Center's opening in 1951.

A national labor relation board decision issued April 5, paved the way for election among plant and traffic employees of the General Telephone Company of Michigan to determine a certified bargaining agent for future negotiations with the company.

This decision is a result of a petition filed last June by the CWA-CIO for representation of the company's employees in the two departments throughout the state, who heretofore, had been represented by the IBEW-AFL as the first step in determining the bargaining agent, in accordance with this decision, Mr. Russell W. Bradley, NLRB examiner, met April 12 in Muskegon with representatives of the two unions and the company. Plans for the forthcoming election were consumated.

Local Schools Join in State-Wide Clothing Drive

Tecumseh elementary schools will take part in a state-wide clothing collection in schools in Michigan, the week of April 25, Principal Earl Greene announced today.

The drive, which is part of the thirteenth National Children's Clothing Crusade, is conducted annually through Save the Children Federation, under the auspices of a national advisory committee of school superintendents.

Clothing collected by the federation is used to aid needy children and families in Korea, in war-depleted countries of Europe and the Middle East, in isolated rural areas of the United States and on the Navajo Indian Reservation.

Every family in Tecumseh is being asked to send a bundle of good clothing to school during the week of the drive. Pupils in the elementary schools will be given circulars to take home Friday before the drive to explain it to parents, principal Greene stated.

He added, "We know that the City of Tecumseh will go over the top in meeting the state goal."

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN DETROIT

A Detroit paper of last week carried the news of the death in Detroit of Karl A. Braman, who was formerly a jeweler in Tecumseh. His death occurred Monday night following an accident when his car struck the rear of a D.S.R. bus. It was thought he may have suffered a heart attack before the collision. His widow will be remembered as Alice Owens, who had a millinery store here for several years.

Mrs. Braman survives as does his daughter.

Funeral and burial were in Detroit.

Harriers Are Dumped

Picking up 32½ points in the shot put, pole vault, 120 yd. high hurdles and 180 yd. low hurdles, Bedford High School gained a 62¾ to 46¼ Southeastern League track victory over Tecumseh High School last week. The Indians could manage only three and one-half points in the same events.

Tecumseh had first place winners in the medley relay, 100 yd. dash, broad jump, 880 yd. run, high jump and 880 yd. relay.

The medley relay team consisted of Young, Cadmus, Weakly and Dickinson. Time was 2:49.7.

Ritchie Davis copped the 100 yd. dash in 11.1; Davis also won the broad jump with 19'½"; Miller won the 880 in 2:10; and Davis won the high jump with 5' 5"; Betzoldt, Cadmus, Andrews and Bowser copped the 880 yd. relay in 1:42.5.

Airport 9 Wins, 8-2

Tecumseh High School Indians got off to a dificit start in the Southeastern League baseball league, losing to Airport Community, 8-2, last Friday.

Airport scored three times in the first inning to salt away the victory against the defending league champion Indians.

Tecumseh did manage to push across a run in the fifth and one in the seventh. Airport matched the Indians' fifth inning run to complete its scoring.

Heavy sluggers for Tecumseh were Barton with a triple with one on and Hatcher of the visitors boomed out a home run with two aboard.

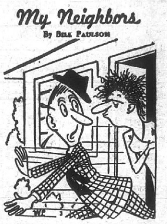
The battery for Tecumseh: Larned, pitcher, and Benham, catcher; for Airport, W. Hogg, pitcher and Jabe, catcher.

The Indians had five hits and made five errors that helped contribute to Airport's run production.

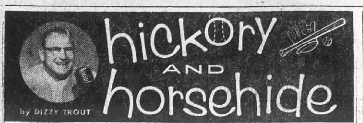
Airport had eight hits and only one error.

My Neighbors

By Bill Paulson



"Well, thank heavens for the 'right-to-work'!"



Practical jokes and pranksters are still very much part of professional baseball, although in recent years there hasn't been so much nonsense. The players are too intent on making the team.

I know of a humorous incident that occurred several years ago, however, when Goose Goslin, JoJo White and Gee Walker (remember them?) went turkey hunting. A day before the season on our feathered friends opened, JoJo and the Goose bought a turkey and clothes line and went into deep bush about three miles from camp, where they tied the bird to a tree.

The next morning they guided Walker in the general direction of the turkey, then disappeared. Sure enough, hearing the gobbler, the excited Gerry walked and crawled through muck, mud and briars to come within shooting distance.

Gee triumphantly banged away. Then, with a smile of success, he approached the turkey only to find attached to the tied-up carcass a note that said:

"Nice shooting, Gerry."

Late On Field

I'd guess that the oldest prank in baseball is tying into a hard knot the baseball stockings of a player arriving late. This, of course, makes him even later getting onto the field and sometimes puts him in the doghouse with the manager.

A variation of this gag was pulled on first base coach Schoolboy Rowe last year. Schoolboy wore some flashy yellow socks that he seemed to admire a lot. So a couple of players washed them and kept them in a dryer until they had shrunk to the size of baby socks.

What the pranksters didn't know, however, was that Schoolboy had 11 more pairs just like them.

Popular Coach

Ball players play practical jokes usually on fellows they like. Thus, because Rowe is popular, the former Tiger pitching great is the butt of more pranks than others on the club.

Take the time last summer when his wife had just got into Detroit and Schoolboy was hurrying to dress and meet her after a game. There was just one snag. Someone had run a lock through the loops of his trousers so that he couldn't put them on.

After a lot of hearty laughter, young pitcher Bob Miller came up with a key to unlock them. But it wasn't Miller who had pulled the gag, and Schoolboy to this day wonders who it was. Ol' Diz knows but he's not telling.

Later, when the Tigers were in Cleveland to close out the season, Rowe arrived in the clubhouse to find that his baseball shoes had been thoroughly nailed to the floor. It was one day that Schoolboy didn't coach the Hickory and Horsehide sport.

Are all gasolines pretty much the same?

No, they're not. Standard gasolines are distinctly different. We've got our own way of making gasolines—and we're mighty fussy about things like purity, proper balance for all 'round performance, and guarding the quality of the gasoline until it's in your tank. That's why Standard maintains private and exclusive terminal facilities in your area—to assure you of uniform gasolines of the same consistent high quality day in and day out. Yes, STANDARD WHITE CROWN and RED CROWN Gasolines are protected for your benefit all the way from the refinery to your car . . . for Standard maintains private and exclusive lake tankers, river barges, pipelines, tank cars and trucks. And a good thing to remember is this . . . no gasolines arrive at or go out of our terminals but Standard gasolines.

Try a tankful of one of these clean burning, high octane gasolines today, and drive away convinced that there is a difference!

Everything it takes to be "TOPS"!

Standard's modern refineries are the finest it is possible to build and maintain. Our chemists and engineers conduct a continuing program of research and development to bring you the best in gasolines . . . to assure you consistent high quality day in and day out for peak performance and power . . . to give you gasolines that have everything it takes to be tops!

You expect more from STANDARD and get it!

Got an itch to switch the pitch?

Here's the New Hit in Hardtops —the 4-Door Riviera

WANT to do what a pilot does when he clears for take-off? Want to feel the pulse-quickening thrill that comes of giving the gun to a high-powered automobile with the world's first airplane-inspired transmission?

Want to try Buick's Variable Pitch Dynaflow* – the spectacular new wonder drive that's the talk of car makers and car buyers alike–and the drive that's sending Buick sales soaring to new record-breaking highs?

Well, sir–be our test-pilot guest at the wheel of a '55 Buick and let today's Dynaflow do the honors.

When you press the pedal as you normally would, you move ahead in velvety smoothness, getting plenty of miles from each gallon of gas . . .

Because twenty propeller-like blades inside the Dynaflow unit, spinning in oil, have an angle of "pitch" for top economy – like the modern plane's propellers when cruising in the air.

But comes the need for emergency acceleration, and–like a pilot does for quick take-off and climb – you switch the pitch of those Dynaflow propellers for action, just by pressing the pedal all the way down.

Instantly, you get full-power response for split-second getaway, or for a sudden safety-surge to get out of a tight spot on the highway.

It's a response thrilling beyond all previous experience – because there's never been anything like it before in any car.

And we'd like you to try it–along with the walloping new V8 power, the cruiser-steady ride, the fine handling ease, and the true big-car roominess that are all part and parcel of every Buick.

Can you come in today–this week, for sure – and test pilot the hottest Buick yet built?

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Local Delivered Price of the 1955 Buick SPECIAL

Let's Clean Up

Although Tecumseh, unlike thousands of other communities throughout the nation, has not officially designated a special week for cleaning up the city, this does not mean that every home owner and businessman cannot personally do what he can to make Tecumseh a cleaner and finer city.

Such a program brings visible results and benefits because it gets rid of unsightly dirt and rubbish inside and out.

And there are unseen benefits that are even more important: rubbish is also a dangerous fire hazard and it and dirt may become a breeding place for both rats and disease.

Thousands of American communities can't be wrong.

Any week which can make Tecumseh a cleaner, healthier and safer place to live, to work and to play is worth the whole-hearted support of everyone who lives here.

Let's clean Tecumseh up and enjoy it more!

Cancer and the H-Bomb

In a hydrogen bomb attack on an unidentified American city of 1,240,000 population, 49 per cent would escape death if they received advance warning and took precautions. This estimate was made public in Washington a few months ago by Civilian Defense Administrator Val Peterson.

In an attack by cancer — the nation's number two killer — Americans have a 50 per cent chance of escaping death if they receive warning and obtain early, adequate treatment. So American Cancer Society statistics indicate.

Mr. Peterson disclosed that the government was experimenting with a warning device that could be installed in a bedroom and be set off by a change in electric current if enemy bombers approached. He predicted that within two years an elaborate detection system would be able to warn target cities from two to six hours ahead of an enemy bomber raid.

The Cancer Society is conducting a year-round, nationwide program to apprise the public of the warning symptoms of that disease, and how vital it is to have prompt medical attention, so that the present high death toll from this cause may be steadily cut down.

Cancer often gives early warning by one of seven common danger signals which can be easily observed by people generally. But to detect some of its sneak attacks in an early stage the observers must be physicians.

Billions of dollars are being spent by the government for super-range jet planes and guided missiles of tremendous power, as a defense against hydrogen or atomic bomb air raiders.

In contract, the ACS is seeking the comparatively modest total of $24,000,000 in its annual educational and fund-raising crusade, while preparing for a knockout offensive against cancer by supporting research and stimulating discovery of new, more effective medical weapons against cancer.

The office door opened and a husky voice boomed out, "Is this the place that sells homes?"

Well, what could I do, but admit it.

Standing before me were a young fellow and his mother.

"Mom owns a house here," the young man said. "It's rented. But we've decided to sell it now. I built it for her three years ago, but we both live in another city now. Can you sell it for us?"

Knowing the district and ever fairly sure of the home, I felt we could if it were priced right. I was.

"We'll accept G.I. appraisal the lady said.

"Do you think an exclusive listing with your firm is our best bet?" the young man asked.

"Yes," I replied. "You'd only have to keep in touch with one office. That would be a convenience for you. Then, it would be easier on the tenant. We can call for appointments and retain his goodwill. He'll know how things stand."

"That's good," he said.

I answered, "Yes, but the real answer lies in the fact that we can probably sell it for you in a month or two. After all, what you want most is RESULTS. An exclusive with us is the first step towards a SALE."

"O. K.," the lady said, "go ahead. And good luck!"

May we sell a house for YOU too?

RECEIVES WORD OF DEATH OF BROTHER

Mrs. B. J. Roberts received word Monday morning of the death of her brother, Perry Lamkin, which took place Sunday evening in the Ypsilanti hospital. Death was caused by a stroke, following a long heart illness and was complicated by pneumonia.

Mr. Lamkin was born August 2, 1884 in Franklin township, where he spent his youth, going later to Detroit. He was the son of the late Benjamin and Sarah Lamkin and was the youngest of ten children.

He is survived by his wife, the former Ethel Millard of Detroit and one sister Mrs. B. J. (Bertha) Roberts, Tecumseh. Eight brothers and sisters preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held for Mr. Lamkin at the Harvey Neely Funeral Home in Detroit and burial was in that city.

MSC Tests Way To Freeze Pineapple

There is a right way for preparing pineapple for the freezer in your kitchen.

After studying and experimenting with several methods most commonly used with pineapples available in Michigan, food specialists at Michigan State College came up with this recommendation: Cut the pineapple in thin slices or small cubes. Pack in freezer cartons, cover with a 30 per cent sirup and freeze.

The recent study on frozen pineapple was conducted by Dr. Pauline Paul and Elva Sween in the department of foods and nutrition at Michigan State College. Before this study, the best way to freeze pineapple was not clear, because there were so many different methods recommended by different sources.

Besides pineapple, grapefruit were also frozen and tested. They found the best results when grapefruit were sectioned and frozen with ascorbic acid and 40 per cent sirup. But the researchers felt even this method was not "particularly good" and that more work should be done on freezing this fruit.

The pineapple was frozen several different ways to arrive at the best one. Samples were packed with 30 per cent sirup, dry sugar, and unsweetened. The 30 percent sirup was prepared by using two cups of sugar and four cups of water. The fruit was sampled at the end of three months and after several months in the freezer.

Christian Science Services Listed

Man's God-given dominion over the bondage of fear will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Probation after Death" will include the following from the King James Version of the Bible (Hebrews 2:9,15): "But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man . . . And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage."

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (426:16): "When it is learned that disease cannot destroy life, and that mortals are not saved from sin or sickness by death, this understanding will quicken into newness of life. It will master either a desire to die or a dread of the grave, and thus destroy the great fear that besets mortal existence."

Dale Lewis Teaches at Western State

Each year Western Michigan College sends several hundred senior students into classrooms in area schools where they spend half of each during one semester learning how to teach by actually teaching.

This spring is no exception, and while a large percentage are concentrated in the campus training school and at Paw Paw, others do find their work taking them into many other schools.

It is always one of the most thrilling and demanding times of a student's college career.

Dale A. Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Paul Lewis, RFD 1, Britton, is teaching driver training and physical education, as well as assisting with the coaching of track at the campus training school, as a part of the requirement for his teacher certification.

ST. PETER'S GUILD

Twenty members of St. Peter's Guild of the Episcopal church met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Thomas O'Hara with Mrs. William Wright assisting the hostess. Plans were completed for the card party at the Parish House tomorrow night, which the Guild will sponsor. This affair is open to the public and will begin at 8 p.m.

The group also discussed arrangements for a mother-daughter dinner of the women of the church to be held May 9, and for the second annual Kitchen Tour which has been scheduled for May 19.

Further plans for both these events will be made this afternoon at the regular meeting of the Auxiliary of the church at the Parish House.

The Michigan legislature in 1925 changed the name of Michigan Agricultural College to Michigan State College.

Local Topics

Mr. and Mrs. Ormond Osborn of Jackson and the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Osborn of Rosebush, Mich. called on Miss Mary Whitelock and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bryan, Friday. Both men are sons of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Osborn and formerly lived in Tecumseh.

Mrs. Charles Lister returned to her home near Britton last week after spending three months with Mr. and Mrs. William Spreeman.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown and Mrs. Elizabeth Wing returned last night from Detroit, where Mrs. Wing and Dr. Brown attended the clinics of the annual Michigan State Dental and Dental Assistants. Mrs. Wing presented a clinic on denture repairs at the meeting on Wednesday.

Thomas O'Hara and son Neil will go to Quantico, Va., tomorrow to see Lt. and Mrs. Norbert O'Hara, who with their infant son will return with them for a visit in the O'Hara home. Lt. O'Hara will then be stationed at Pensacola, Fla., for training in jet flying.

Here's why Chevrolet out-V8's everybody!

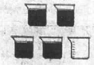
These features and advantages are the measure of a truly modern V8 engine . . . and only Chevrolet has them in the low-price field. Most aren't even found in high-priced cars. That's why Chevrolet is stealing everybody's thunder with the most modern V8 on the road!

motoramic CHEVROLET

Modern 12-volt electrical system! The only car in the low-price field with the extra energy of 12 volts . . . twice the electrical punch!

Faster, stronger cranking for cold-weather starts and a "fatter" spark for faultless high-speed operation.

Highest standard compression ratio in its field! Chevrolet's compression ratio is 8 to 1, to wring every possible ounce of power and extra miles out of every gallon of gas.

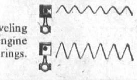


Requires only four quarts of oil! Chevrolet's V8 engines are so efficient they need only four quarts of oil . . . so you save on every change!

Highest horsepower per pound! These great V8's weigh far less than any similar engine in America, top the low-cost field in power per pound!

Shortest piston stroke in the industry! Three-inch stroke reduces cylinder-wall friction, generates less heat, permits more compact design.

The pistons do far less traveling per mile . . . that means less engine wear, lighter loads on bearings.



It's the valve-in-head V8 as only the valve-in-head leader can build it!

The "Two-Ten" 4-Door Sedan with Body by Fisher.

COMPLETE and OFFICIAL figures show that again in 1954—for the 19th straight year—MORE PEOPLE BOUGHT CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER CAR!

DON'T BUY ANY V8 UNTIL YOU'VE TRIED CHEVROLET'S RECORD-SMASHING "TURBO-FIRE V8"!

MICHIGAN MEDICAL SERVICE

BLUE CROSS-BLUE SHIELD IDENTIFICATION CARD

You can't duplicate the "3 Plus" advantages of Blue Cross-Blue Shield!

① HOSPITAL SERVICES, NOT LIMITED CASH! No other state-wide plan gives you basic services the way Blue Cross does, through its contract with the hospitals! Other plans give you fixed cash payments, which may pay only a small part of your hospital bill . . . the big part to be paid by you!

② DOCTOR SERVICES, NOT LIMITED CASH!—with a choice of a $2,500 or $5,000 family income ceiling medical-surgical contract. You get service benefits if your family income meets the requirements of the contract you choose. The service benefits provision is offered only by your Blue Shield Plan.

③ YOUR BLUE CROSS-BLUE SHIELD CARD CUTS RED TAPE! Eliminates need for making a hospital deposit! No forms to fill out on admission to the hospital . . . no claims to file . . . no wait for payment. Blue Cross - Blue Shield Plans are the only plans that contract directly with your hospital and doctor.

Nothing can replace . . . or come close to replacing . . . the "3-PLUS" advantages of Blue Cross - Blue Shield protection against the cost of hospital and doctor care!

And—with hospital care something that 1 in 3 families need every year, think how important it is that your family be protected!

Chances are, your family is protected . . . and protected by Blue Cross - Blue Shield (nearly half the people in Michigan have it!).

And granted, you may think Blue Cross - Blue Shield protection is good. But it's far more than "good." It's so good that millions of Michigan people have found they just can't afford to be without it. There is no substitute . . . and here's why—

HOSPITAL SERVICES . . . NOT CASH!

Unlike plans that provide you with fixed cash benefits to cover the cost of hospital services (and rarely do you get enough cash!), the Blue Cross Comprehensive Contract gives you all the basic hospital services themselves . . . regardless of the cost.

This protection provides up to 120 days at a time . . . at almost any general hospital in Michigan, and at Blue Cross member hospitals all over the country! Every enrolled member of your family gets this very same protection, too.

DOCTOR SERVICES . . . NOT CASH!

Any time you need hospital care, you'll surely need a doctor's care, too . . . and it's against the cost of in-hospital doctor care that Blue Shield protects you.

Just as it's possible to get hospital services through Blue Cross, it's possible to get doctor services through Blue Shield.

Blue Shield offers you a choice of a $2,500 or $5,000 family income medical-surgical contract. If your family income meets the requirements of the contract you choose, the cost of your participating doctor's in-hospital services will be covered by Blue Shield. This service benefit provision is made available to you only through Blue Shield. In any event, regardless of your income, liberal amounts will be paid to the doctor of your choice.

NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATIONS

Blue Cross and Blue Shield are non-profit organizations . . . sponsored by Michigan hospitals and doctors so that Michigan people can have the kind of protection they need, and at a cost they can afford. Together, these plans offer more protection for the money than you can get through any other organization.

Compare other plans with your Blue Cross - Blue Shield. Look for the "3-PLUS" advantages. You won't find them offered by any other state-wide protection plan. That's why there is no substitute for Blue Cross - Blue Shield.

If you do not already have Blue Cross - Blue Shield, ask your employer or your union representative how you can get low-cost group coverage for you and your family. (A company with as few as five employees may qualify as a group.) Or, call or write the Blue Cross - Blue Shield office listed in your telephone book.

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

THE COOPERATION OF those who took part in the parade Friday was really wonderful. Many thanks go to Bob Vallie and Frank Gregory of the police department, to Don Johnson and his Tecumseh High School Indian band and, to the drivers in the new cars, to the dealers and to the Rumpf Truck Line. Those in it had fun, they made some noise, and they presented a lot of color with the new cars.

MR. GUPPY ON PIE Plant Pete and Bashful Joe last week pulled this darb: "It's better to have loved a short girl than never to have loved a' tall."

OUR KINDERGARTNER IS LEARNING to spell. From the bathroom, loudly shouted, came her most recent attainment: "Hey, daddy, I can spell bleach: D-E-X-O-L."

THE OLDTIMER SAYS: "The income tax law really has teeth in it, and they develop an ache for everybody!"

EARL GREENE WANTED TO KNOW if he looked any different. Tuesday he and Mrs. Greene observed their silver wedding anniversary. They were married in a Michigan snow storm in Kalamazoo April 19, 1930. He said he still feels fine and chipper; then he sank on a small filing cabinet in the office here and almost had to be revived.

RECENT WARM DAYS OF SPRING have stirred Michigan's bee colonies to activity. The busy little bee in springtime isn't just something for the poets to write about. In Michigan he is mighty important. He produces $2 million worth of honey and beeswax annually. What is of even more concern is the fact that he pollinates about $50 million worth of fruit and field crops that are grown on 518,000 acres of land in the state.

MRS. WARREN ZORN, WIFE of the director of the Hi-Chicago Chorale which will sing at the Tecumseh Friends Church April 27, was a roommate of Mrs. William Hayden while they were students at Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill.

DO YOU REALIZE THAT a lot of good things besides some sore muscles can come from spading a garden? The Lining proved this Saturday. It was refreshing to be out doors on such a beautiful day, it was thrilling again to see newly-turned soil; and it was a warm feeling to know that through the continuing process of life vegetables and flowers again soon will be growing from this turned soil.

And if this were not enough, angle worms by the handful also were found. So, after all this "hard work" it was only natural to seek some relaxation such as fishing. What better spot than right in the yard on Evans creek in the hole under the old sycamore. With the water gurgling over the rocks as it heads out toward the Raisin it is peaceful down there toward late afternoon. Turned out that it was more than just a swimming lesson for the worms. We caught nine or ten, mostly red eye bass and our little speller, who is not quite six, tied in to a sucker about a foot long. You could hear her yell in excitement all the way to Clinton.

It was quite an afternoon: the garden was spaded, (no, not just to get fishing worms—it says here) I got my exercise, went fishing and caught part of the dinner; all the time enjoying a delicious April day. And when a garden needs to be spaded and you get all these other bonuses this may be rationalization to the fullest.

A LITTLE NOTE FROM Mrs. T. M. Jardine of Glen Ridge, New Jersey: "Thanks for the reminder. I'd hate to miss the HERALD!" A check for the renewal of her paper was enclosed. Bless her heart.

AN INTERESTING COPY OF the New York Herald for April 15, 1865, was brought in by John Surratt. It belonged to his grandfather Lochar Surratt and it told of the assassination of President Abraham Lincoln. Several interesting things were in this paper printed 90 years ago last Friday. Some of them: There were eight headlines running nine inches on the lead story telling of the president's assassination and each headline had a period after it. Column rules between stories were wide and black. The first headline on the lead story was simply "Important." There were six columns to the paper with each column slightly wider than ours. The paper had no display type advertising. It had four pages with news about the final stages of the Civil War pushed to the back page to give complete coverage to the President's assassination.

THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK—He who merely knows right principles is not equal to him who loves them.

D.A.R. Chapter Displays Antiques

Guest night of Abi Evans Chapter, D.A.R. was held Friday evening in the Episcopal Parish House with Mrs. Cecile Smith as program leader. About forty members and guests enjoyed a program which included the display and description of the "cherished possessions" of those present.

There were pieces of beautiful and historical glass and pottery; pictures, books, jewelry and lace. Miss Edith Ingersoll brought the heavy bronze belt buckle worn by her father during the Civil War and a razor which had been owned by one of the captors of Major Andre in the Revolution.

A saddle bag used by her doctor grandfather was shown by Mrs. Mabel Beardsley and Mrs. Louis Schneider told the story of her prized paisley shawl. Things that were part of the background of Tecumseh were shown by Clara Waldron. They included a rush bottom chair made in the village in 1840, a woven coverlet whose interest lay in the fact that it was made in this vicinity and record books of the minutes of the first town meetings in 1828 and of early surveys of the same period.

The appointments of the refreshment table were heirlooms belonging to the hostess, Mrs. Arthur Brown. The linen cloth was home spun and hand woven and the centerpiece of spring flowers was arranged in an unusual delft blue bowl of a bowl and pitcher set. Antique glass candlesticks completed the setting. Mrs. Louis Schneider assisted in serving and Mrs. Roy Whiting and the regent Mrs. Pearson presided at the tea and coffee urns.

The business meeting was in charge of the new officers with the new regent, Mrs. Neil Pearson in the chair. Devotions were conducted by Miss Edith Ingersoll and the regent announced the appointment of Mrs. F. C. Dickinson as chairman of the committee on arrangements for Heritage Day during Michigan Week.

Lodi Lake Topic of Garden Club

"The Lodi Lake Wild Flower Sanctuary" was the subject of a very interesting talk by Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, Friday afternoon before the Tecumseh Garden Club. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Leon Rosacrans.

Mrs. Dickinson said this tract of land, which is dedicated to the preservation of wild flowers, consists of 72 acres in the Manistee National Forest and her description held the attention of her listeners.

The president, Mrs. Harold Wilson, conducted the business meeting during which there was a report of the Mrs. R. S. Moore memorial committee. Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, chairman and Mrs. Leon Rosacrans and Mrs. Hoyt Whelan comprise the committee, who told of their decision to plant a group of flowering shrubs on the hospital grounds as a memorial to Grace Heck Moore. Mrs. Dickinson also reported the planting of a white pine tree on the grounds by the same committee.

Mrs. Rosacrans reported a very successful sale of tickets to the Detroit Flower Show by the club committee in charge. The club then voted to send Miss Ann Carson and Mrs. Harold Wilson as delegates to the annual meeting of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan which will be held in Jackson in June.

After the meeting, Mrs. Joseph O'Pravil presided at a tea table whose centerpiece was a lovely arrangement of spring flowers. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Edward Boss, Mrs. Earl Wickwire and Miss Mary McWilliams.

The May meeting will be a garden tour in charge of Mrs. Wilson.

Grade School News

Grade Two—Central
Mrs. Callihan

Our Easter began early when Sharley Wegner's mother made each of us an Easter rabbit and Easter egg cookie. We enjoyed making things for our room and home about Easter. The spring posters were of roller skates and wagons.

Dora Girbach was out of school to have her tonsils removed. We are glad she is with us again. Tuesday we were surprised to have a letter from Junior Ward. We looked at our map to find out where Belding is. We all answered his letter.

We listened to the Davies yesterday. Many of us remembered them from last year. We wished they had repeated some of the songs again.

We enjoy our blocks and puzzles that we bought with our picture money.

Science lessons will be more fun now that we can really see things grow. Joan Langham was the first to see a bird on a nest. So far the Song Sparrow has four eggs. We hope they hatch out soon.

Caroline Morley and Glenda Shavalier brought treats for their birthdays. Gary Klingensmith and Terry Sisty also have birthdays in April.

Grade Two—West Branch
Miss LaPointe

We now have covers for our Weekly Readers which will make it easier to save our copies.

Robins and bluejays are now making good use of our bird feeding station. We have observed that the robins do not allow any sparrows to eat with them.

We have a number of people with April birthdays. Those celebrating this month are Kathleen Mitchell, Linda Shavalier, Paul Gomez, Laure Wright, Linda Green, Gerald Sniffen, and Dennis Beemer.

When Susan Hohenstein celebrated her eighth birthday, March 31, her two sisters Jean and Gail, served ice cream and cupcakes.

Our first bouquet of flowers of the season was presented by Ruth Ann Brooks.

The West Branch teachers wish to express their sincere thanks to all the P.-T.A. members who worked so faithfully to make the Easter party a success. A sum of $142.33 was cleared and this money will be used for West Branch projects.

VFW Honors Past Leaders

The second annual banquet of the past commanders and past presidents of Hall-Slater Post, No. 4187 V.F.W. was attended by 60 post members last Saturday evening. It was held in the Baptist Youth House where the ladies of the church served roast beef dinner.

The tables were gay with bouquets of spring flowers and each past president found a corsage beside her place while each past commander received a boutonniere. The floral arrangements were later sent to Herrick Memorial hospital.

Address of the evening was given by Wyman Campbell of Milan, past district commander, who spoke on "Americanism."

The master of ceremonies was Commander Harold Warren and the banquet arrangements were made by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stites.

Gilbert Named Successor

Miss Spaulding Resigns as Hospital Head

Miss Gertrude E. Spaulding has resigned as superintendent of Herrick Memorial hospital. Announcement of her resignation which becomes effective May 1 was made Tuesday by Clarence Gilman, president of the hospital board.

Miss Spaulding who came here six months after the hospital opened had been superintendent 16 years.

She will be succeeded as superintendent by Orrie L. Gilbert, 36.

After an extensive vacation in the New England states, Miss Spaulding will take one of a number of positions in the Detroit area that have been offered to her.

Commenting on her resignation, Miss Spaulding Tuesday afternoon said: "I shall miss Tecumseh. It was a very fine community to work in and to live in and I had a lot of fine people to work with."

She also said: "My resignation was not made in haste. I have been planning it for some time."

She will stay on "for a few days" to help Mr. Gilbert become acquainted.

Mr. Gilbert holds a degree in accounting from Ferris Institute and in June, 1952, he received a degree in hospital administration from Northwestern University.

He has had hospital administrative work in Coldwater and Plainwell, Mich., and in Chicago, Ill.

Mr. Gilbert is married and he and Mrs. Gilbert have two daughters, six and two.

The Gilbert family will move to Tecumseh from Coldwater as soon as adequate housing becomes available.

City and Township Assessments Upped by Equalization Board

The tax equalization committee of Lenawee County raised both Tecumseh and Tecumseh Township assessments and lowered the assessment for the city of Adrian.

An addition in Franklin Township's assessment also was made by the county equalization committee.

A sum of $431,500 was added to Tecumseh's assessment, making a county equalized value of $10,149,400. Tecumseh Township was increased $81,600, making its equalized value $1,600,800. Franklin Township was increased $50,000, making its equalized value $2,273,210.

The biggest item was a $4,841,084 deduction made in the assessment of the city of Adrian.

Herman Titley, Franklin Township supervisor, chairman of the equalization committee, said the cut was made because the committee felt that the assessment was too high compared with an average of other county units.

Supervisor Mills Swick of Macon Township was one of the eight supervisors voting against accepting the report. The eight opposed the report on the grounds that assessments were supposed to be up to the 1954 county average of 55 per cent of cash value, while some townships assessed at 50 per cent of cash value.

But the equalization report passed 24 to 8.

Chairman Titley was asked to get the prosecutor's opinion on whether school taxes should be spread on county or state equalization as ruled by the supreme court last year.

Clean Up

Next week, Monday through Friday, will be general clean-up week in Tecumseh.

Residents are asked to spruce up their yards and business men their stores.

All rubbish left at the curbs will be picked up by city trucks, reports Ed Nelson, city manager.

Dr. Robert Laidlaw Returns to Practice

Dr. Robert W. Laidlaw will resume his practice of dentistry next Monday.

His office above Butler Motor Sales has been extensively remodeled and redecorated.

Mrs. Harold Kopka has returned as his dental assistant and early in June Miss Dorothy Selentine of Adrian will become dental hygienist.

Until March of this year Dr. Laidlaw served as a captain in the U. S. Air Force at Yokota Air Base near Tokyo, Japan. His wife and two small sons also were there. Now the Laidlaw family is at home at 409 Brown street.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw, Dr. Laidlaw graduated from Tecumseh High School. He first began his practice of dentistry in Tecumseh in July, 1949, but he was called into service in June, 1953.

Mrs. Ray Sluyter Heads B. and P. W.

April was birthday month for the Business and Professional Woman's Club and Monday evening the 56 members who came found their places at tables appropriately decorated for their birthday month. The clever table arrangements were the work of Mrs. Duaine Service, Mrs. Harry Stanifer and Miss Alice Randall.

Three guests, Miss Jean Parker, Mrs. George Wittrup and Mrs. Donald Wright were introduced, the invocation was pronounced by Mrs. Ray Sluyter and the club enjoyed a dinner which was climaxed by a lighted birthday cake for each one present.

Mention was made by Mrs. Service of the trailer "Kitchen of Tomorrow" which will visit Tecumseh May 11 and 12 under the sponsorship of the Consumers Power Co.

The important item of the business meeting was the report of the nominating committee given by Mrs. Purnell Osburn. Officers chosen for the coming year were: president, Mrs. Ray Sluyter; first vice president, Mrs. R. W. Dixon; second vice president, Miss Lucille Hawley; recording secretary, Mrs. Lester Runk; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mary Drake; treasurer, Miss Ann Carson. A report of the golden anniversary of the County Federation of Women's Clubs was given by Mrs. James Artman, who was a delegate from the club.

The program chairman, Mrs. Myrna Tingley then introduced Mrs. W. G. Waldron who responded with a much enjoyed piano selection, "The Mountain Stream," after which the guest speaker, Mrs. F. C. Dickinson was presented.

Tecumseh has learned to anticipate with pleasure a book review by Mrs. Dickinson and this was no exception. She gave the humorous, esthetic and very human highlights of Emily Kimbrough's book, "Forty Plus and Fancy Free,"

Iron Creek Church Observes Centennial

In the spring of 1928 a supply pastor was asked to occupy the pulpit of the Iron Creek United Church at Manchester for a few weeks during the illness-enforced absence of the regular pastor. The "supply pastor," the Rev. Alvin Brazee, former Tecumseh school teacher, and father of Neal and Don Brazee of Tecumseh stayed on awhile longer, little thinking that the few weeks would extend to 27 years.

Friday, Saturday and Sunday the Rev. Brazee will be on hand when his congregation observes the 100th anniversary of the founding of the church he now serves.

He also will give his church's history at the centennial banquet Friday night at 8 p.m. During this program he will repeat how the little church got its start when a small band of Christians met at Iron Creek schoolhouse and organized the Society of the Free Will Baptist Church.

For almost 14 years services were held in the school. Then Dec. 8, 1868, the present building was dedicated.

Through the early years, the church was supplied by professors or students from Hillsdale College.

In 1905 the parsonage was built and other additions such as electricity in 1938, the well in 1944, the church basement in 1946 and a new organ in 1948 were made.

Saturday a centennial tea will be held at 2:30 p.m.

At the Sunday service at 10 a.m. the Rev. Brazee will speak on "Our Heritage" and Mr. Dalton VanValkenburg will sing a solo.

Sunday at 2:30 p.m. the sermon will be brought by the Rev. Edward Escolme, pastor of the Friends Church of Tecumseh. Mr. VanValkenburg will have charge of the music.

Tulips

If there is a tonic in beauty, then even the passerby is "benefitting from treatment" at Herrick Memorial hospital this spring.

That border of King Alfred tulips about the crescent-shaped bed at the entrance and the startling brilliance of the Red Emperor tulips along the foundation are just the beginning. There is more to come.

It must be a source of well-earned satisfaction to the Garden Club, whose committee, headed by Mrs. J. R. Thompson is responsible for it all.

JAYCEES MEET

The Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce will meet tonight (Thursday) at 6:30 p.m. in the Baptist Youth Center.

Rehabilitation Adds Life to Their Years

"We have added years to their lives and now we must add life to their years," stated Mrs. Hilda Will who spoke to Tecumseh Rotarians Tuesday night on the problem of the rehabilitation of the handicapped.

Introduced by Ray Sluyter, Mrs. Will said there are 26,000,000 handicapped and chronically ill in the United States today and of those 10,000,000 are housewives.

Rehabilitation on a major scale was begun by Dr. Howard Rusk with veterans of World War II, Mrs. Will explained, as she traced the relatively short history of the program. After the war Dr. Rusk continued the program in the Bellvue, N. Y., hospital; and Bernard Baruch saw the immediate importance of the program and helped to finance an institute to train the disabled for doing jobs.

One of 16 handicapped today is self sufficient, she said. These are known as ADL, act of daily living.

Citing the economic importance of a rehabilitation program, she said 8000 handicapped persons in one year earned $14,000,000 and paid $1,000,000 in taxes.

Mrs. Will said the Federal government last year passed bill 565 which allocated $30,000,000 for rehabilitation of the handicapped and chronically ill. This will increase to $40,000,000 next year and $50,000,000 the year after.

These funds will provide care for only one in 20, she said.

Today there are 200 doctors in the United States trained in rehabilitation, she continued and in Michigan there are 64,000 handicapped and chronically ill in nursing homes that have rehabilitation facilities.

Mrs. Will explained that a committee now is planning a Lenawee Living Center and she asked Rotarians to appoint members to this committee. She hopes that a rehabilitation program can be started here.

Citing another example she said Knox County, Tenn., had 1500 disabled on welfare. Of these 525 could be rehabilitated. They were costing the county $275,000 a year. For $113,000 a year 225 were trained so they brought in $400,000 a year to the county.

"A return of this kind is a good investment," she said, "to say nothing of the importance of adding self sufficient happiness to human lives."

Brownville Group Hears Dr. Mohr

Dr. Robert Mohr was the speaker at the Thursday evening meeting of the Brownville Mother's Club held at the Brownville school. There were 22 present of whom two were fathers.

Dr. Mohr took as his topic, "Questions you would ask your dentist" and before he had finished the audience had asked many and learned much about oral problems of their children. Short talks were also given by principal Earl Greene and the teacher, Miss Myrna Bugbee.

The club presented a gift to the school which had been part of their year's project. The hospitality group of the club is Mrs. Frederick Ward, Mrs. Cecil Pence, Mrs. William Beackley and Mrs. Charles Irelan.

Mrs. Byron Goodman and Mrs. Howard Wilson Jr. and their committee served refreshments.

CENTENNIAL SCHOOL DISTRICT 10

Mrs. Vaughn

We are learning many poems for spring.

After Easter we washed our painted pictures off the windows and took down our Easter decorations. The walls look bare but not for long; our spring pictures will soon fill up the space.

The first prize for free hand painting was won by Josephine Martinez. The second prizes won by Kay Adams and Mary Lewis. The third prize by David Woods.

The first prize for traced drawings and paintings was won by Janet Bachtal. Second prize Diane Handy, third prize Anthony Sullivan.

We have started making our Mother's Day gifts.

Christine Cote has returned to school. She had the mumps. Richard Teske and Hicidro Martinez have the mumps now.

We all have spring fever and many of us have blisters on our hands from the ladder bar and the giant stride.

We are waiting to see which of us had the real vaccine last year. We hope we were all lucky.

COMFORT EXTENSION

The last meeting of the season of the Comfort Extension Club was held last week at the home of Mrs. Ivadell Crowell. It was decided to discontinue regular meetings until Sept. but to have a potluck supper for the members and their families at the Centennial schoolhouse sometime in June.

The club is sending representatives to the Northland color clinic in May which is staged at the Northland shopping center near Detroit as a part of Michigan Extension Service. Because of the large number of clubs represented only two from each club may attend the clinic but six members of the Comfort group are going to the center. A bus for club members will leave from Adrian.

The second lesson in the making of draperies was given by Mrs. James Wegner and Mrs. Irene Finnegan and after the lesson the hostess served refreshments.

V.F.W. AUXILIARY INSTALLS OFFICERS

At the April 20 meeting of the V.F.W. Auxiliary it was announced that two indoor flags had been presented to the Macon school at the regular P.T.A. meeting April 12.

As part of the evening's program Sandra Copeland of Clinton gave an oration. Plans were made for Poppy Day May 20 and 21. Mrs. Wyman Campbell of Milan, president of the sixth district then presented the new officers who had been elected at the previous meeting and installed them in their positions for the coming year. Three who were unable to be present will be installed later.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Bert Warren and her committee. The next meeting will be held in the post rooms Wednesday, May 4.

SARA REBECCA CIRCLE

The April meeting of the Sara Rebecca Circle of the Methodist church was held at the home of Yvonne Makas on Cairns road, April 19. Mrs. Horace James had charge of the program for the evening and she discused the work of the United Protestant Church Women of the World.

A new member, Mrs. Gerald O'Brien, was introduced and a project for the club was discussed. It was decided to make draperies for the church nursery and Mrs. Raymond Seitz volunteered to do the necessary sewing.

The May meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Judson Miles, 201 S. Union St., at which time new officers will be elected.

hickory AND horsehide
by DIZZY TROUT

To a pitcher, baseball sometimes is a screwy game. A pitcher can have all the stuff in t'e world on any given day and still lose the contest.

Although he may have the ball really hopping and breaking, the hurler's control may be off only a hair, the ball just missing the corners of the plate. Or the umpire's decision may be against him on the close ones.

Then again, the batter accidentally hits the ball off his fist and it pops over the infield just out of reach. Or a grounder takes a bad hop at the moment it's about to be fielded.

I've been knocked out of games where my pitches were going for me but the breaks weren't. That's one of the reasons it is so difficult to achieve a low earned run average or even to hurl .500 ball in the major leagues.

When I came up to the Tigers in 1937, Mickey Cochrane, then in his last year as manager, told me. "Diz, if you can hold the opposition to four runs per game you'll be a big winner."

In 14 years in the American League, my earned run average was something less than 3.45 and I won 173 games as against 161 defeats.

Deliveries Vary

Pitchers employ varying deliveries. Among them are the overhand, three-quarter side arm, side arm and the underhand, the latter being extremely rare although Elden Auker used it successfully for the Tigers during the 1930's.

A good, live fast ball, such as those thrown by our own Bill Hoeft or Mike Garcia of Cleveland or Bob Porterfield of Washington, can come over the plate in varying fashions. One ball rises. Another shoots into the right hand batter's fist. Still another sinks and yet another may sail out four or six inches.

Curve balls, like those thrown by the Tigers' Ned Garver, Cleveland's Bob Lemon and Boston's Mel Parnell, are thrown three ways. The overhand breaks straight down. The three-quarter side arm goes out and down. The side arm is usually a flat curve.

Tough Pitch

Some batters see the spin of the fast ball and the curve and set themselves for it, but against the slider they are often helpless.

The slider usually is thrown fast and has a bullet spin. This spin the batters are unable to see and so can't adjust themselves to to the pitch.

Knuckle balls, those sinking pitches thrown by Willard Nixon of Boston and Early Wynn of Cleveland, are not used often.

Although the batters have a tough time hitting them, pitchers have more trouble controlling them, catchers experience difficulty holding them and umpires have headaches calling them in the Hickory and Horsehide game.

Indian Track Team Edged by Blissfield

Tecumseh High School lost a close non-league track meet to the Blissfield Sugar Boys Thursday, 55½ to 53½.

Ritchie Davis again was the big gun for the Indians, taking firsts in the 100 yd. dash, the broad jump, the high jump and the 220 yd. dash. In order he had a 10.6; a 19' 6"; a 5' 5" and 22.8.

Other first place winners for Tecumseh were Baker with a 19.8 in the 120 yd. high hurdles; Betzoldt with a 58.6 in the 440 yd. dash; Miller with a 2:10 .2 in the half mile; and the Indians won the medley relay (Young, Cadmus, Scutt and Dickinson) in 2:41.1.

Other point getters for Tecumseh were Scutt with a second in the shot put; Drummonds with a second in the high jump; Betzoldt with a third in the pole vault; Tilton with a third in the 120 yd. high hurdles; Andrews with a third in the 100 yd. dash; Bowser with a third in the 440 yd. dash; Marsh with a third in the 180 yd. high hurdles; Dickinson with a third in the broad jump; Andrews with a third in the 220 yd. dash; and Young with a tie for third in the high jump.

Blissfield, with six firsts and eight seconds, had a slight edge in team balance that decided the meet.

Tecumseh was able to pick up only two seconds.

Stock Car Races Set for Adrian

An agreement has been signed between Marcum Promotions, Inc., and the Lenawee County Fair Board for the staging of stock car racing this season under the sanction of the Midwest Association for Race Cars, Inc., at the quarter-mile Fair Grounds race track in Adrian.

Frank Canale, MARC Secretary who will be in charge of the Sportsman Division races at the Fair Grounds track, announced that the opening night of racing will be Thursday, May 12, with the popular Sportsman races to be held every Thursday for the season.

Larry Marthey, MARC Publicity Director, will be in charge of publicity and promotions for the Adrian track this season.

The MARC, headed by Johnny Marcum of Toledo, is now the second-largest stock car racing organization in the United States. Work is now beginning on general improvements on the Adrian track for the 1955 season and it's expected to be in top shape for the 1955 opener.

All of the top pilots who raced at Adrian last year under the MARC sanction will be returning this year, with nearly all of the top ten sporting new cars for the 1955 inaugural.

Rollie Beale of Toledo was track champion last year when he took 18 per cent of the MARC point fund of $700 distributed to leading Adrian drivers. Rollie has a new car geared to defend his Adrian title.

Also returning are runnerup Kenny Nemire, Len Segur, Leo Caldwell, Johnny Josza, Jim McCune and other topflight stock car pilots racing in this area under MARC sanction.

It won't be long until the great Blue Heron, one of Michigan's largest birds, becomes a "family man" again, according to Harry W. Hann, assistant professor of zoology, at the University of Michigan.

He says the heron usually arrives from the south the latter part of March and goes to a nesting site to repair a previous nest or build a new one. In the Eastern United States nests usually are located in tall trees, commonly in swampy areas. Farther west, the nests may be on the ground, rocks or in bushes.

Nesting sites or heronries, if left undisturbed, will be used year after year and may contain from a few nests up to several hundred.

By the middle of April the female usually has laid from three to five eggs, pale bluish-green in color. After four weeks of incubation, in which both parents take part, the eggs hatch and feeding of the young is begun, the professor states.

At first the young are fed a liquid, regurgitated food, but when they are older they eat frogs, fish and other small animals, which are collected by the parents and regurgitated into the bottom of the nest. Large amounts of food are consumed, and both parents are kept busy furnishing the supply. The young must be fed for two months or more, until they become as large as the parents.

When a parent comes with food there is loud calling and squawking by the young. In a large heronry the noise takes on the form of a continuous uproar, which is kept up 24 hours a day.

Finally, the young birds learn to fly and forage for themselves, and by the middle of Aug. the heronries are deserted.

Indians 9 Edged, 3-2

Losing in extra innings to Bedford last week, the Indians dropped their second Southeastern League game of the year. The score was 3-2 and the teams had to play nine innings to settle it.

Tecumseh managed only three hits off the slants of Knaggs, right hander. The curve ball specialist struck out 16 Indians and issued four walks.

One of the hits was a homer by Jim Bowser in the second inning. The Indians added another run in the ninth.

Bedford, which managed only five hits off Ray Larned who whiffed 14 Mules and walked seven, tied the count in the sixth and won the duel in the ninth. In the final inning Williamson walked, Osenbaugh singled and Boehme walloped a double to chase two winning runs across.

Benham was behind the plate for the Indians and Rollman was the Mules' backstop.

HOTTEST-SELLING BUICK IN HISTORY
No wonder you see so many '55 Buicks on the highways—they're rolling up bigger sales than ever before in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three" of America's best sellers.
$2253.88
delivered locally!
*2-door, 6-passenger Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 48, illustrated. Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities. Even the factory-installed extras you may want are bargains, such as:
Heater & Defroster....$81.70
Radio & Antenna....$92.50

Unless we miss our guess, a lot of surprised people are going to do some new back-of-an-envelope arithmetic when they see the Buick price shown here.

Because we know that many folks still don't realize how little a Buick really costs—that the dollar difference between this big Buick Special 2-door, 6-passenger Sedan and the leading smaller cars has virtually disappeared.

Buick Sales Are Soaring As Never Before

But more and more of them are finding it out. And that's a major reason why Buick production and Buick sales are soaring to all-time highs today—and why Buick again is outselling all other cars, regardless of price range, except two of the well-known smaller cars.

Big reason, too, for this soaring popularity is Buick's full line of automobiles, giving you a choice in any price class—the rock-bottom-priced Special, the high-powered Century, the supremely spacious Super, and the custom-built Roadmaster.

But above all, more and more people are discovering that the price you pay for a Buick buys more sheer automobile than the same money buys elsewhere.

More advanced styling, more deep-down comfort, more pure power thrill, more ride steadiness and handling ease and solidity of structure.

More spectacular performance, too, from the modest extra cost of Buick's automatic transmission.

For here you get Variable Pitch Dynaflow†—the new wonder drive born of modern aeronautics to give you instant full-power getaway and acceleration when needed—and far better gas mileage when cruising.

Why not come see us this week, for sure? We'll be happy to have you test-pilot a new Buick, just for the sheer thrill of it—and show you quite clearly that if you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick.

†Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Thrill of the year is Buick

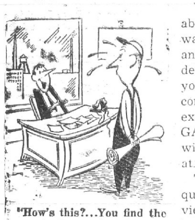
We All Have a Stake in GAW



"How's this?...You find the guaranteed annual customers. I'll give you the factory—you pay me a guaranteed annual wage!"

Whatever you may think about the guaranteed annual wage plan formulated by CIO and AFL leaders should not depend entirely on which side you represent. This may be a confusing statement but let's examine the popularly called GAW plan then perhaps you will see what we are driving at.

The two principals in GAW quite naturally have opposing views. No writer in America better has summed up these views than Ed Townsend, labor correspondent of the Christian Science Monitor. In a recent dispatch, Mr. Townsend wrote:

"Labor contends that guaranteeing the income of workers would give an important boost to the national economy; sure of how much money they could count on every week of the year, workers would buy more freely and the market for goods and services would grow bigger and steadier, the unions argue.

"Management contends that in the long run the economy would be hurt, not helped. Because of the heavy potential cost of unemployment, its spokesmen say, industrial conservation would spread among employers, retarding plant expansion, shrinking the number of jobs, and therefore reducing the national market for goods.

"There are extremist views, expressed by the UAW and the increasing list of unions in both the CIO and AFL that are bidding this year for guaranteed pay, on the one hand, and by such organizations as the National Association of Manufacturers and the Chamber of Commerce of the United States on the other."

There is a third group and members of the unions and members of management both are in this third group as all of us consumers are. What about the consumer? And what about the effects GAW might have on the work philosophy of this whole country?

A laborer is worthy of his hire but wage demands in the past have been passed on in higher prices to the consumer. If the GAW is adopted, labor costs will be increased and higher labor costs again might mean higher prices and if prices are raised company customers, and then ultimately consumers, will be paying for GAW. Moreover, payment to idle workers might reduce sales volumes and jobs if higher prices become necessary.

Some union leaders, however, state that the cost of GAW should come out of profits. But is there a guaranteed annual profit, or GAP as it also has been abbreviated? The answer is clear. Would the GAW plan actually put some of the smaller companies out of business? If labor costs get too far out of line, thus dipping into marginal profits now being made by smaller companies will these small companies continue to be able to provide jobs? This is a sober thought. A guaranteed annual wage on paper is no good if there are no companies to provide the jobs.

If, on the other hand, the talks with General Motors Corp. and the Ford Motor Company which, it appears, will be used by the unions as "test cases" can bring about a possible solution to "guaranteed annual employment" which the unions might actually be attempting, then the GAW plan might have more merit than appears at present. The lay-off has been an economic bug-a-boo to thousands of workers whose families actually have to plan for the time the plant is down for inventories and change overs.

One aspect of the GAW plan needs particular scrutiny. This is the extension of the "call in pay" now being used. The new plan is this: if workers report to jobs in any given week they must be paid for the full week, regardless of whether they work at all, or how many hours they work. This hardly seems fair and one wonders what it will do for workers' incentive. If a man who is not working is paid the same wages as the man who is on the job what incentive will the working man have to do a good job and produce? For some time in this country there has been a work philosophy of "something for nothing." It seems that this aspect of GAW only will fan this flame and further weaken the nation's sinews.

Still another aspect of the GAW plan that might have lasting effects on the economy is the so-called "war fund" pledged by union members that might be used as a strike fund. If a long strike develops—and this is a possibility—it would cause great economic disruptions. And such a strike would indirectly effect all of us.

Regardless of how you may feel about GAW, answers will be forthcoming in less than two months. The UAW-CIO has scheduled June 1 as "G-Day," the deadline for auto bargaining.

"We're sure glad we decided on buying a home," Mr. Kramer said to me as we met in a store last week. "You remember the awful time we had deciding."

Indeed I do. Over a year ago, the Kramers resolved to "stop" some of their rent money. They knew that the surest and easiest road to financial independence begins with home ownership.

But then the Big Debate began. Mr. Kramer had his heart set on a new car. The old one wasn't functioning too well, and anyway he really liked automobiles — especially new models.

Mrs. Kramer wanted a home. Not only for the security involved, but to be able to enjoy real family living. She wished to play the piano and sing. The upstairs apartment just didn't fill the bill.

The down payment money wouldn't cover both a car and a home. Reluctantly, he gave in.

"The new model cars, with the wrap around windshields, would have made ours look obsolete already. But our home looks as good as the day we bought it. I just can't tell you how much more enjoyment we get out of living in our own home."

I'm glad the Kramers are happy. Perhaps this incident will serve to "settle" a debate at your house.

Decide in favor of a home! You'll have a lifetime to enjoy your choice. We'd be pleased to help you find the right one.

County Federation Marks Golden Anniversary Here

As befitted one of the oldest of Lenawee County's women's clubs, the Tecumseh Monday Club was hostess last Wednesday for the golden anniversary of the 31 member clubs of the County Federation. The town's junior organization, the Business and Professional Woman's Club assisted.

The sanctuary of the First Baptist church, where the meetings were held, was profusely decorated with arrangements of flowers sent by the member clubs in memory of their deceased members. Most were in keeping with the golden theme of the event, as were the many lovely arrangements which graced the luncheon tables in the Youth House. These were the work of Mrs. Robert Bonner, Mrs. Carlos Jones and Miss Anne Carson.

Both of the day's sessions were presided over by the federation president, Mrs. Harold B. Cole of Manitou Beach. That in the morning was devoted to business after the singing of the federation song, "Lenawee, Dear Lenawee," the invocation by Mrs. B. O. Bashore and the welcome and response by Mrs. Guy Pocklington and Mrs. J. T. Carpenter.

Routine federation reports were followed by brief resumes of the activities of the member clubs. Then followed the always interesting ceremony of the selection of the "Club Woman of the Year" and the "Club of the Year." Mrs. W. P. Rogers of Palmyra, chairman, of that department announced the choice of Mrs. J. Cleon Mason of Blissfield for the former honor and the Addison Women's Club for the latter with the Onsted Women's Club and the Blissfield Service Club as runners-up.

Luncheon for the 200 guests was served by the women of the Baptist church and at the tables they were entertained by "Reminiscences" given by Mrs. Athol Brainard, humorous and serious happenings and experiences of a past president of the federation.

After an interlude of organ music by Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, the meeting reconvened with the election of officers as the first order of business. Those chosen to have charge during the coming year were: president, Mrs. Eugene Ryan of Addison; vice president, Mrs. Cleon Mason, Blissfield; second vice president, Mrs. Harold Theilan of Adrian; recording secretary, Mrs. Dale Moore of Morenci; treasurer, Mrs. W. P. Rogers of Palmyra. Mrs. Byron Curtis of Mantiou Beach and Mrs. A. E. Balser of Hudson were then appointed by the president as corresponding secretary and parliamentarian respectively.

Past presidents attending were Mrs. E. T. Armstrong, Mrs. A. H. Veasey, Mrs. Paul Ahleman, Mrs. L. W. Kelley and Mrs. Lesle Pickford of Adrian; Mrs. A. E. Brainard and Mrs. Harold Reynolds, Onsted; Mrs. Matt Benner and Mrs. W. W. Cooke of Clayton; Mrs. Arthur Haviland of Hillsdale; Mrs. H. F. Rohrback of Blissfield and Mrs. Truman Rentschler of Tecumseh. They were honored by corsages of yellow flowers and a tribute was paid to all past presidents by Mrs. Mason.

Club members who had died during the past year were remembered in an impressive memorial service conducted by Mrs. Ryan and Mrs. Clifford Slocum with Mrs. Edna Richmond at the organ. It was concluded by a solo "The Lord's Prayer" sung by Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney.

The anniversary theme was typified by an historical resume, "Our Golden Years," planned and carried out by a committee made up of Mrs. Warren P. Van Orden, Miss Edith Ingersoll and Mrs. Welden Beebe. They recounted the events of the federation's beginning the past 50 years and as they did so the periods under discussion were vividly portrayed by a parade of members, attired in costumes of that day.

1900 was portrayed by Mrs. Howard Truesdale; 1905 by Mrs. Jennie Temple; 1907 by Mrs. Jennie Satterly; 1915, Mrs. Nina Heath; 1920, Mrs. Robert Bonner; 1925, Mrs. Wilfred Waldron; 1930, Mrs. Veva Conner; 1935, Mrs. John Quigley; 1940, Mrs. Virgil Deming; 1945, Mrs. Earl Baldwin; 1950, Mrs. Paul Maves and 1955, Mrs. Robert McCoy in an appropriate golden gown.

Lawrence J. Taylor, director of extended services for Hillsdale College was the speaker of the afternoon and his talk stressed the importance of the opportunities for social and cultural development for the individual that were offered by club work. He said listening to a speaker or a concert was helpful but the actual work and fellowship of the organization was of vastly more importance.

The program was fittingly closed by a cornet solo, "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp" played by Jack McKimmy of Adrian, the selection being the one with which he won the Interlochen scholarship sponsored by the federation. The new officers were then introduced and Mrs. Cole was welcomed into the Past President's Club by Mrs. Rentschler. A prayer by Mrs. Rohrback closed the anniversary meeting.

Officers and members of the local clubs whose efforts made the golden anniversary a success include the club presidents, Mrs. Thomas O'Hara and Mrs. Homer Colson and the Monday Club president-elect, Mrs. Herbert Murphy. Mrs. Mulvaney was in charge of the costumes used, Mrs. W. G. Waldron of the music, Mrs. George Green Sr. of ticket sales and the guests were registered by Mrs. M. G. Partridge and Mrs. E. J. Aebersold. Ushers were Miss Lillian Cannon, Miss Vera Gilbert and Mrs. Edna Codling while many others assisted in important ways.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Red Finds a "Sweet Solution"

Red Jackson found a slick way to get his cows to eat what's good for them. Seems they were passing up the tall green grass—full of minerals and vitamins—and eating the short grass, which is naturally sweeter.

Red solved the problem by spraying a solution of corn syrup over the grass that was going begging. The cows sure went at it. Red says it's lucky for him—and the cows—that every one of them has a "sweet tooth."

Next week, according to Red, he's going to have his cows clean up all the weedy grass along his fences—after he sprays them with more corn syrup, of course.

From where I sit, some folks, like Red, are always trying out new tricks—and others stick with the old tried and true methods. Just a question of preference, I guess. Like the way you may enjoy coffee with meals, while I prefer a cold glass of beer. So let's not allow any bad feelings to "crop up" by thinking ours is the only choice.

Perk Up Hat Veils: Press or Stiffen

The veil on your hat will do its best to flatter you only when you keep it stiff, pert and fresh looking.

Reviving a veil that has become limp and lifeless is easy to do, says Lola Belle Green, clothing specialist at Michigan State College. Without taking the veil off the hat, you can press it plain or between two thicknesses of waxed paper.

When merely pressing the veil, a layer of tissue paper over the veiling prevents catching the tip of the iron in the mesh.

For longer lasting results, Miss Green suggests stiffening the veil with the use of gelatin. With this method you will have to remove the veil from the hat. Use the proportion of one teaspoon gelatin for each cup of water. Soften the gelatin in a little cold water and fill the cup with warm water.

Dip the veil in the solution and squeeze out the excess. Then, explains Miss Green, stretch the veil to its original shape by pinning it to a flat surface.

Miss Green adds that when you use a veil correctly it is flattering and may do just the trick in making your hat becoming. A veil softens the lines of a severe hat and may add to its height or width if draped the right way.

Dark veils, especially blue, worn over the face often make the skin appear clearer.

Dorothy Wonderly, Donald Withrow Wed In Britton

Immanuel Lutheran church in Britton was the scene of the marriage of Dorothy Ann Wonderly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wonderly of Britton and Donald Withrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Withrow of Tipton.

The Rev. Vernon Schwartz of Britton performed the double ring ceremony April 16 before an altar decorated with baskets of snapdragons and palms. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Dow Bilby sang "I Love You Truly," "Oh, Promise Me" and the "Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Miss Shirley Netcher at the piano.

Nylon tulle over white satin with Chantilly lace was the choice of the bride for her wedding. The gown featured a lace bodice with portrait neckline and the sleeves ended in points over the hands. The skirt was marked with rosettes and lace inserts. She carried red roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride's attendants were gowned in net over pastel taffeta and their bouquets were carnations in matching pastel shades. Mrs. Walter Wonderly was matron of honor gowned in blue and bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Frolich in yellow, Mrs. Harold Kopka in pink and Miss Rose Ann Withrow in aqua.

Flowers girls were Connie and Carol Wonderly, nieces of the bride and Rickie Wonderly and Peter Dermyer, nephews of the bride and groom, carried the rings on satin pillows.

Mr. Withrow was attended by Eugene Withrow as best man and ushers were Walter Wonderly, Pete Dermyer and Arnold Withrow.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Tecumseh Grange Hall for 350 guests. Mrs. Al Kent and Mrs. Ernest Jackson served the five tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Marilyn Wonderly served the groom's cake and Mrs. Harold Schroeder the ice cream.

Others assisting were Mrs. Herman Kent, Mrs. Chester Jackson and Miss Joyce Schafer. Miss Barbara Brown of Petersburg had charge of the guest book and Miss Mildred Steinke and Miss Blanche Schafer the gifts. Others assisting in serving were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Handy, Dow Bilby and Mrs. Frolich.

Lunch was served at midnight at the home of the bride's parents for 75 guests. Lilah Cadmus and Mrs. Hamilton Moore assisted with serving.

Mrs. Withrow is a graduate of Britton High School with the class of 1951 and is employed in the service department at Tecumseh Products Co. The groom graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1950 and is also employed at the Products.

The American Red Cross plans to spend $36,640,300 of its $85,000,000 budget on services to the armed forces and veterans during the next fiscal year.

Sharon Claxton, Coreen Marsh and Merene Boltz are winners of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce's essay contest "What My Mother Means To Me."

Receiving honorable mention in the contest were Barbara Velandra, Sandra Bishop, Anna McCann, Eileen Reid, Linda Refner and Joseph Prochaska.

Miss Claxton won $15; Miss Marsh won $10; and Miss Boltz won $10.

The three winning essays follow:

BY SHARON CLAXTON
Britton, 11th Grade

Dear Mom:

Thanks a lot for sending me the five dollars; camp life is sure hard on the finances. But then you always seem to know when I need money; and when I ask for it you seldom question the reason or complain like a lot of parents do that I don't know the true value of money like you did when you were a kid or that I spend too much; but you realize that I wouldn't ask for money unless I needed it for a good reason. Mother, I hope I never take advantage of this trust and faith you have in me. To do so would be a venial sin, and although I may have many faults that one is not among them.

It's a pity that people aren't aware of how much a person means to them until they are separated from each other. I've found this to be altogether too true in my case. Not that I've never loved you, quite the contrary; it's just that never before have I realized how much you mean to me; how bare my existance would be without you.

You've looked after me for an awfully long time, Mom, receiving little compensation or appreciation for your efforts. Mom, I would like to thank you now; thank you for everything you've ever done for me—for the tender, patient care you gave me when I was a baby; the comfort and love I received, and still receive, when I was hurt or faced by problems insurmountable in scope; for the security you've always given me; for instilling a faith and trust in me that no matter what I've done or how bad I've been I can come to you and pour out my troubles, knowing that you will understand and guide me to what's right, taking a large part of the burden on your already trouble-burdened shoulders. I thank you for the sacrifices you've made for me—giving up a new dress so that I might have a new coat or the bicycle that I wanted so badly for Christmas. You've spent long tedious hours doing chores which would make me happy or comfortable; cooking, sewing, mending, washing, ironing, and continually picking up after me. Whenever I ask you where something is you always seem to be able to tell me exactly where I left it last. For these things and many more, I thank you so much.

I know that in the past few years we haven't been able to have much of a family life; but, Mom, I want you to know that I understand the

Egrets

And now it is egrets! No sooner had the whistling swans taken off for their arctic summer than two white herons or egrets stepped into the limelight.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Driscoll have had box seats for both performances for the swans moved from the Globe to the Red Pond and the Driscolls saw them depart into the northern sky. Now the white herons feed practically in their front yard.

Old timers tell us that neither visit is unique to this season. Swans have often paused on our ponds during migration and white herons like their "Great Blue" or "Great Gray" cousins have summered here before.

They like secluded homes, however, and perhaps it is because their natural cover has been destroyed that they have been forced onto the open stage.

Scholastic Writing Awards Made

Morrice and Stanton Are Thriving Communities

George H. Rothney, president of the Village of Morrice, will become Mayor of Tecumseh, Monday, May 16, and Mayor H. H. Hanna will become president of Morrice as mayors and presidents throughout the state exchange positions and towns during Mayor's Day, the second day of Michigan Week, a special week geared to promote the State of Michigan.

Ben Beasley, president of Britton, will exchange jobs with Mayor S. B. Stebbins of Stanton.

Morrice, according to President Rothney, was settled about 1875. It was named for William G. Morrice, one of the founders.

In a letter President Rothney also commented:

Settlement came about the time of completion of the Grand Trunk railroad from Lansing to Flint. It was incorporated as a village in 1894 and today the population is a little more than 600.

Morrice is in Shiawassee County; M-78 which goes from Lansing to Flint touches the northern edge of the village. Morrice is about 20 miles from Lansing and 30 miles from Flint. Owosso, the largest city in Shiawassee County, is 12 miles north of Morrice.

The Wire Products Co. of Morrice manufactures eavestrough hangers and television towers are made at a plant employing about 20 men. And a new industry, a screw machine shop, soon will be starting.

The village has a poultry processing plant which serves the farmers with a good outlet for their poultry products and an elevator to provide a market for their grain and Michigan Navy beans.

Many people who live in Morrice work in Lansing, Owosso and Flint.

Morrice has a president-council type of government with six on the council, plus a president, clerk and treasurer.

Last Sunday a new $100,000 St. Mary's Catholic church was dedicated.

BRITTON-STANTON

Mayor S. B. Stebbins of Stanton, who will come to Britton for the day while President Ben Beasley goes to Stanton, reports that Stanton is an incorporated city of 1152.

Mayor Stebbins also gave the following information about his city:

"It is located in the center, exactly, of the county of Montcalm, about equal distance from Grand Rapids, Lansing, Muskegon, Saginaw, approximately 50 miles from each. We are on M-66, 20 miles north of Ionia. Our local governing body, the council, consists of the mayor and six aldermen, city clerk and city treasurer.

"Stanton is a clean little city where the residents take pride in keeping their property neat and orderly. We have beautiful maple

Phosphate Seen Eliminating Rust in City Water

Attempting to eliminate a rusty condition in city water, councilmen Monday night approved the city manager's request for adding polo phosphate to the city water supplies.

In the past few weeks the city has received complaints from several parts of town on rust in water.

Several things have been done by the city to eliminate this condition. The new well on north Union was closed; home owners were advised to open all out door faucets to clean out basement pipes; city water samples constantly have been checked; and two weeks ago all hydrants were flushed.

In his report to the council Mr. Nelson said chemical feeders, which the city has, could be installed at well points. He recommended that they be installed at number three, four and five wells.

The chemical, he said, costs 17 cents a pound and results from its use are guaranteed.

Based on the amount of water the city now pumps, between 30 to 50 pounds daily would be needed.

Three and one-half to five parts of the phosphate per 1,000,000 gallons of water are used, depending on the amount of iron in the water.

The phosphate, the city manager said, is used by a number of cities and villages that have high iron content water supplies.

"This phosphate is tasteless and non-toxic and you won't even know it's in the water," he said.

o

Councilmen re-appointed the members for these terms.

WE'RE SORRY!

And we apologize.

We never fully realized what the response would be when we opened a new dry cleaning establishment here. We never dreamed that you folks would swamp us with so much cleaning.

You have snowed us under and we like it but . . .

Because of the unprecedented demand from you and your neighbors we can't give you the fast service that we would like to give. It will take a little longer than we expected.

But rest assured that this fine fast service will be in force again as soon as we can get out from under the piles of cleaning that are stacked all around us.

We certainly appreciate your patience and understanding.

Foreign Students Entertained at Grange Meeting

A most interesting and unusual event took place at the regular meeting of Tecumseh Grange last Thursday evening. Sixty-seven Grange members were hosts to 50 students from more than a dozen foreign countries who are attending the University of Michigan. They represented North, South and Central America, Mexico, Spain, Portugal, Pakistan, Turkey, Philippines, Korea and many others.

Worthy Master Roger Gillespie gave a brief welcoming address to the guests explaining the history, background and aims of the Grange movement. He was followed by Lillian Bilby, accompanied by Mrs. Iva Grigg, singing "In the Garden of Tomorrow" and "Mandy" and a tap dance by Keith Steele and Peggy Ramage, "On the Sunny Side of the Street." George Everetts then played a selection on bones, accompanied by Mrs. Dow Bilby and a musical trio, Mike, Frank and Joe Prochaska provided further entertainment.

George Luther of the University then introduced the student guests who gave examples of the music of their native lands. Four Koreans sang a selection as a quartette, there was a vocal duet by two Venezuelans and a visitor from Spain played two piano selections. Vocal solos by students from San Salvador and Pakistan closed a musical program which was more enjoyed than understood by the audience.

Wit-Wisdom Club Spring Banquet Attended By 60

The annual spring banquet of the Wit and Wisdom Club was in the pleasant surroundings of the Parish House of the Episcopal church. Sixty members and their friends enjoyed the dinner served by the Daughters of St. Peter at tables delightfully decorated with spring flowers.

The banquet had been arranged by Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw and Mrs. Hoyt Whelan and the program which followed was planned by Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Waldron and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bonner. They, along with all the other committees and officers of the year, received the thanks of the retiring president, Mrs. John Lott, who introduced the new officers and then turned the meeting over to the program chairman, Mrs. Waldron.

The setting of the event was radio station "STIFF" and the program was sponsored by Casey's Coffins, Mrs. Laidlaw was the announcer and Mr. Laidlaw gave the commercials. They announced a variety program which opened with two piano selections given by Miss Peggy Jo Pocklington. She was followed by a speech, "This Generation", by Carlos Jones, in which he stated that this generation saw the dawning of a new era, the atomic age and that while the force unleashed could bring about miracles industrially, man must learn new spiritual values to meet the challenge.

"Voices Out of the Past" was the topic given the Rev. Edward Escolme and he gave a quick resume of the people and institutions he fo[illegible] when he arrived in Tecumseh in 1918, and contrasted the atmosphere of that period with that of the present.

Diane Woodward, accompanied by Ruth Boyce then sang "The Man I Love" and "Over the Rainbow". This was followed by the story hour, when the Rev. E. C. Dickin told of his recent trip to Washington, D. C., where he was impressed by the many evidences of the sacrifices made by patriots of the past, who placed emphasis on what they could give, not what they could get.

The new president, Mrs. Leon VanValkenberg then announced committees for the coming year. Programs will be in charge of the Laidlaws, the Bonners and the F. C. Dickinsons while the new members, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Finch and Mr. and Mrs. Bonner will assist Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Brazee.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN TO HONOR MISSIONARY

A very pleasant occasion is anticipated Saturday morning at the Fellowship Center of the Presbyterian church when the Woman's Association will sponsor a 10:30 "brunch" in honor of Miss Glenna Williams of West Virginia.

Miss Williams is a national missionary in that area and is one of those supported by the church. She naturally feels very close to the women of the Tecumseh church and hopes to meet all of them. She will arrive in town Friday evening and will remain over the weekend.

Sunday morning she will speak to all the children of the Sunday School. As they are urged to bring their parents to this meeting, it will be a joint assembly in the sanctuary of the church.

Mother--She Means All the World to Me

reason why, that Dad, being a doctor, is always busy, and you help him in the office, but I realize that it is unavoidable, and that you are sorry it has to be this way, as you compensate for this lack by doing many other things for me.

We have shared a lot of joys, sorrows, fears, and triumphs together, Mom, and emerged from most of them with flying colors. This has created a mutual bond between us that is so strong that nothing, not even time, will ever sever it.

Now you and Dad have reached the fruit of your labors, for the task of raising your children so that they will be fit to take their place in society is almost finished, and I am the only one remaining at home. Now you have more time to enjoy yourself and to pursue your interests more thoroughly without the burdens of motherhood to hinder you. I am so glad; you have worked many years raising us, and you've done your job well; believe me, you deserve all the relaxation and fun you can get.

I have tried to tell you how I feel about you, Mom, but it seems that no matter how hard I try I can't express my true feelings. The words that I put on paper are so horribly hollow compared to what I feel in my heart.

Perhaps I can't write down what I feel, but until I have a chance to demonstrate my feelings to you next week in person, I want you to remember—I love you, I love you, I love you.

With all my heart and soul.

Your daughter

BY COREEN Y. MARSH
Tecumseh, 9th Grade

What my mother means to me. That actually is quite difficult to answer, because it is very hard to put my feelings into words.

I shall start by describing my mother. She is about five feet, four inches tall, medium built, short curly brown hair with a few silver hairs placed there by care. She has twinkling blue-green eyes and is almost always smiling, laughing, or joking. She is not, some people would say, beautiful. But to me, she is the prettiest woman in the world, both outside and inside. She is always cheerful and ready to lend a helping hand to us, her children, or friends and neighbors.

I think that too many children take their mother (and fathers) too much for granted. They say "Well, my mom and dad are here, and always will be." Some children even ignore their parents. But what if their mother or father were suddenly snatched away? It seems that after a loved one is gone, one remembers, then too late, about the many wonderful things the person had done and then appreciates them more. After it is too late, you realize how much the person really meant to you. I trust the Lord that I may never ignore my parents, but give them my love and consideration during the seemingly short time that they will belong to me. I realize that I have been saynig more about both parents, instead of only mother, but it is hard to talk about one when they belong together.

I looked the word "mother" up in a dictionary just to see how they define it. One definition was "a female parent." A female parent. Well, I can gladly and thankfully say that my mother means more to me than just a "female parent." She helps me in almost every imaginable way. When I have a confusing algebra problem, for instance, or a difficult musical piece, a skirt which won't hang correctly, a big problem about how to make friends again about how to make friends again with a girl whom I had quarreled with, or even a wilting folwer, who do I immediately rush to? My mother. She is everything from a clothes stylist to a peacemaker, from an encyclopedia to a first aid kit for hurt feelings, from a "green thumb gardener" to a great comfort in time of need.

She never seems too busy to help me or my three brothers. She makes our many problems miraculously seem to vanish into thin air. She seems to understand me better than anyone I know.

However, from all this, don't think that we aren't disciplined. When we step off the straight and narrow path, we are in some way punished. In the long run we will always thank her for that.

All these things that I have mentioned are only a small part of "What Mother Means To Me."

BY MERENE BOLTZ
Tecumseh, 11th Grade

My Mother — two short words, but when I say them it's with pride and respect. My love for my mother is and shall be everlasting and unfailing. She's someone special whom I hold very dearly. She can bring joy and contentment into my life when I think there can be none.

From the time of infancy Mom has nursed and cared for me in her loving and devoted manner. She warmed, comforted, and guided me with a skill and strength which she alone possesses. I learned right from wrong as she taught me the ways of life and its problems. Throughout the years I have always felt if ever a problem arose, I could talk it over with Mom or Dad with absolute trust and confidence in their answer.

In my home is a great feeling of security and understanding — neither of which would be possible without my parents. The trust they place in me is great and shows they respect decisions of right and wrong. For this I am very thankful and proud.

Seldom do you hear Mom complain but she's always willing to work and sacrifice for her family.

Mother is a strong believer in God. As she helps us to learn of Him, she strengthens our faith.

When Mother's Day comes around this year, I shall know why—in honor of the best mother in the world—My Mother.

shade trees lining our streets which cause much favorable comment from visitors.

"We have no industrial activity; however, about three hundred of our people are employed in Greenville, Ionia and Edmore, at Gibson Refrigerator Company, and Federal Mogul in the city of Greenville; Carboloy in Edmore, and Ionia Mfg. Company in Ionia.

"We have 196 lakes in our county and we are located in the center of this industry. Hundreds of permanent homes have been built on the shores of these lakes in recent years, for the most part by people from Detroit, Lansing and Grand Rapids. Each year, people retiring from their city work come here to become year around residents.

'The courthouse, road commission, federal and state offices furnish enough steady employment to equal that of a fair size factory.

"We have good schools, one new modern building, four fine churches, two of them new, and a well balanced shopping center.

"Our agricultural activity is diversified with dairy farming in the lead, potato production next and we also produce a large amount of muck operation which results in the raising of mint, onions and lettuce in large quantities.

"We were one of the first to know the pine and when Stanton was new, we had some seven or more saw mills. But now the timber is about gone so other production has taken its place.

"Stanton is the home of Ned Lilly, nationally famous for his trapshooting ability. He has won many championship shoots and comes by his skill naturally, as his father, Dr. I. S. Lilly was an outstanding shooter before Ned. Ned also has a son John who is an exceptional shot for a boy of eleven.

"We boast of being the home own of D. Hale Brake, former state treasurer, who has served Michigan well for many years."

Easy Does It Kitchen Show Planned Here

Public showings of Consumers Power Company's mobile display, the "Easy Does It" Kitchen, will be held Wednesday and Thursday, May 11 and 12 from 2-4 p.m. and from 7-9 p.m. in Tecumseh.

The public will be admitted free to the exhibit during those hours.

Designated to give the homemaker a wealth of ideas on how her kitchen and homemaking problems can be simplified with improved cabinet and appliance design, the "Easy Does It" van has received the unanimous acclaim of homemaking experts from all over America since its introduction at Michigan State College.

Actually a traveling van, the big exhibit holds special interest for homemakers with some physical handicap or disability. Many of the ideas the trailer embodies can be put into effect at the visitor's home with only minor alterations in existing kitchens, according to Marjorie A. Bettesworth, Consumers' general home service supervisor, who is in charge of the exhibit.

Home economists from the Company's staff will be in the trailer during the public showings to explains its functions to visitors.

The Tecumseh showings are part of a general tour of Consumers' 26,000 square-mile Outstate Michigan service area which the van is making this year.

hickory AND horsehide

by DIZZY TROUT

Taking up where we left off on pitching, it is interesting to note that pitchers differ markedly in their throwing pattern.

The Tigers' Ned Garver, for instance, possesses an excellent repertoire, including a good curve, a sinking fast ball and a wider-breaking slider than most.

A slow worker, his success is due largely to changing speed on all three pitches. Now and then he apparently sneaks in an old-fashioned spitter, technically illegal, but a lot of them use it.

Ned's theory is to get the batter out on a different pitch each time so that the hitter never knows what to expect.

Virtually the opposite is Steve Gromek, who believes in overpowering the batter with fast balls. Steve tries to throw a strike every time, generally walks few men and works much faster than the average pitcher.

Thrown Side Arm

Gromek's fast ball differs from Garver's in that it is thrown more side arm so that it rises in flight. Thus, the batter is likely to hit more flies.

But Steve also has good control of a sinking fast ball, which he employs with runners on base. The ball is likely to be hit on the ground, allowing for a double play, or at least it keeps runners from advancing.

Tiger batters differ on rating American League pitchers as their toughest to hit. Harvey Kuenn, for one, classifies Cleveland's Bob Lemon as his greatest headache because of Lemon's ability to keep the ball away from him and because of a sinking fast ball that's difficult to hit in the air.

Harvey, one of the game's best line drive hitters, rates Washington's Bob Porterfield second because of his tremendous speed, Porterfield throwing an overhand fast ball and a curve that breaks down.

Sour to Fain

Ferris Fain, twice American League batting champ, also classifies Lemon the toughest pitcher to bat against. He has similar respect for Ed Lopat of the Yankees, Early Wynn of Cleveland and Mel Parnell of Boston.

According to Ferris, Lopat is hard to hit because of his herky-jerky throwing motion. In addition, Lopat knows all the pitches in the book, including the screwball, knuckler and slider.

Wynn is tough to bat against because of his control of a knuckle ball and his rising fast ball, Parnell because of his wide-breaking slider that comes in close to the knees and his fast ball that crosses just over the right hand corner.

Lopat, Wynn and Parnell are alike in that they try to get the batter out on a different pitch each time, just as Garver does. When Old Diz pitched in the Hickory and Horsehide game, though, I just tried to get them out—period.

Jackson Races Begin Saturday

Saturday night, May 7, is opening night at Jackson Motor Speedway and will feature the first stock car races at the speedway for 1955.

The opener will be made up of nine events on the banked 3/8 mile track that has become well known in the Michigan area.

The lid is off on engine sizes and the fastest field of cars yet seen at Jackson is expected with a top-notch field of drivers from Michigan, Ohio and Indiana. The lighted 3/8 mile oval has been carefully graded and the west turn has been widened and banked more steeply to take care of the higher speeds and sharp competition expected.

Stock car races will continue every Saturday night with time trials at 7 p.m. and the first race at 8:30 p.m.

Jackson Motor Speedway is located one mile north of Jackson on M-50.

Boysville Nipped by South Lyon

South Lyon nipped Boysville in a League of the Lakes baseball game Friday, 7-5.

Boysville led 3-2 going into the seventh inning, then the roof caved in and South Lyon came up with a big, five-run inning.

Boysville came back in the bottom half of the inning to push two runs across, but couldn't catch the Washtenaw County team.

Batters were Hork and Jones for South Lyon and Walters, Tourangeau and Carry for Boysville.

Britton Stopped on No-Hitter

Doug Dunn closed the door on Britton hitters Friday and Onsted won, 3-1. Although the Tories didn't get a hit, they scored a lone run when Grady got another life after striking out and the catcher dropped the third strike. He went to third when the first baseman muffed the attempt to wipe him out. Grady scored on another infield error.

Onsted scored a single run in the second and a brace of runs in the third for a Little Six victory.

Dunn fanned 19 batters.

Bruce and VanValkenburg hurled for the Tories.

Commenting on the Passing Scene

HAS THERE EVER BEEN A more sincere person than Mrs. Hilda Will? You only have to talk with her or hear her lecture for a few minutes and you will realize fully that here is a person with a singleness of purpose that few of us have.

Mrs. Will lives rehabilitation of the handicapped and the chronically ill. Currently she and her committee members are trying to establish a Lenawee County Living Center here. The Living Center, she states, would have the primary purpose of adding life to the years of those who are handicapped, making them self sufficient and giving them the will to live.

Of course rehabilitation is a two-way street. The handicapped must first know that there is some one who cares enough to help them back to self sufficiency. Then he or she must do the necessary work, and work it is on the part of both the handicapped person and the doctor, nurse or physiotherapist.

It is our sincere hope that Mrs. Will and her committee will be successful in their plans for a rehabilitation center here. Their quest in helping to mend broken lives and limbs has no peer.

AFTER LONG AND FAITHFUL service Miss Gertrude Spaulding has left Herrick Memorial hospital to join the staff of a Detroit area hospital.

Miss Spaulding served the local hospital for 16 years, coming here just six months after the hospital opened its doors.

She did an excellent job in her efficient management of the hospital.

And if you will pardon the personal element for a moment, we would like to point out that Miss Spaulding always was courteous and kindly to the staff of this newspaper. Her considerate cooperation made possible several fine features about the hospital and we appreciated her efforts very much.

We wish her well in her new position, whatever it might be; and we hope her successor, Orrie L. Gilbert, also will be successful in his work as administrator of the hospital here and that he and his family will enjoy Tecumseh and its people.

MICHIGAN STATE HIGHWAY crews are now in the process of placing 3500 picnic tables at roadside parks and picnic table sites along trunkline highways throughout the state.

Efforts of the department have made possible 87 roadside parks built at natural beauty spots. As a result of the department's work, Michigan today is considered the national leader in the development of roadside parks and picnic table sites. And through these parks the highway department has been contributing considerable to the promotion of Michigan's great travel and tourist industry.

Above all its contribution has made it possible for touring families to "seek a pleasant peninsula and look about them."

Enjoy the parks on your drive and help to keep them attractive.

Letter to Editor

Dear Editor:

So Be It—"Dogs and more dogs."

Yes, that is just it, dogs running loose, everywhere, and why does this city here allow it? You don't see it in Adrian and it doesn't need to be here, if we had the right force back of it, and why can't they be kept on their own premises?

Didn't you read the article in our home paper April 21, where a little 5-year-old girl had been bitten by one of your stray dogs?

That should convince you what takes place when dogs are allowed to roam at large all over town, and there should be something done about it NOW, not a year from now. You will please notice, if you will, that the owners of dogs who care about them keep their dog at home, where they are cared for and fed, and anyone owning a dog should at least think enough of the pet, (so to speak) to WANT TO KNOW, where it is anytime of day or night. Stray, loose dogs are a menace to the people of any city or town no matter how you figure it or look at it. PLEASE DO SOMETHING.

—Mrs. E. B. Nobles

"I've been meaning to call you for some time," said Mrs. Morgan, an elderly lady who had asked us out to list her home, "but I didn't have the courage until today."

"What held you back?" I said with a grin. "You weren't scared of us were you?"

Mrs. Morgan laughed. "No, not that exactly. You see this has been my home for 15 years and I kind of hate to part with it. But my daughter thinks I should sell out and move to Texas to be near her. I've thought about it for a couple of weeks. It took until today to get the courage to call you.

"I know I'm sunk now," Mrs. Morgan continued, "because I know your reputation is to really sell houses."

"Maybe we could slow up a little for you," I replied.

"No, don't hold back," Mrs. Morgan said, "go ahead and sell it right away. The quicker the better!"

"O. K.," I answered.

And sell it we did — within a month!

Do YOU want to sell your home? If so, the best course you can follow is to get the courage to call us!

"A LITTLE LEARNING IS A DANGEROUS THING"
*(Author's name below)

There are times when a little common sense knowledge of what to do for a trivial ailment is often effective.

But if symptoms persist, it may be dangerous to depend on a "Little Learning," of your own or a friend. Your Physician has studied many years to gain a "Lot of Learning." It is better sense to use his knowledge.

A Part Of Your Child's Education . . . .

To be well advised on all matters pertaining to the funeral is expected of most adults. There is need during most everyone's lifetime to on some occasion make arrangements for a funeral.

It might be well to have your child know these things too. You are invited to bring your child, when old enough to have some understanding, to see the Green Funeral Home. We will be happy to discuss funeral matters with him — a good educational influence.

Bright Future Seen For American Economy

A bright future, including some challenging problems, was predicted for the American economy by a group of the nation's top business and labor leaders meeting at Michigan State College.

Discussing "Business in the Future" in a Centennial year symposium sponsored by the School of Business and Public Service, business and labor speakers pointed out that knotty issues will be raised by advancements such as automation, nuclear power, decentralization and a growing population.

Management is faced with "no easy task" in decentralization — the necessary development of business and industry in new areas, said J. J. Cronin, vice president in charge of the manufacturing staff of General Motors.

Stressing that the greatest importance in an organization is placed on people, Cronin declared that "properly selected and guided by fair policies, they are challenged to develop themselves through their opportunity to exercise their talents to the utmost."

A stronger voice for America's retail merchants in government affairs was urged by Stanley S. Kresge, vice chairman of the board of directors of the S. S. Kresge company. "Too few people in distribution, particularly retailers, have taken an active part in government affairs. We have not been as alert and articulate as our brothers in agriculture, manufacturing and organized labor," he said.

Kresge said he favored less foreign aid in the future and more world trade because "foreign competition is healthy in forcing U. S. manufacturers to do a better creative job and to produce goods at a lower price."

Automation—the use of automatic machines and equipment—is a gradual development in American business and industry and not an "overnight miracle," observed Leonard P. Spacek, managing partner of Arthur Anderson and company, Chicago.

Automatic machines, such as electronic computers, will cause a gradual, rather than radical, displacement of labor, he predicted. Spacek said electronic equipment will cut out "drudgery," office work will have more interest and office employees will be more skilled and higher paid.

Office automation, Spacek pointed out, has these advantages: speed, replacing wheels and gears; ability to go step by step through a process without human effort; reduction of clerical cost; rapid figuring of sales goals, production controls and inventory forecasts.

"Certainly we do have up-to-date factories, but we don't foresee a completely automatic automobile plant," said R. H. Sullivan, vice president and group executive of the Ford Motor company. Automatic equipment in industrial plants has resulted in safer conditions for workers and more economical operations, Sullivan said.

Greater productivity is the only answer to the high cost of living, stated R. C. Waehner, general manager of the distribution division of Lever Brothers, New York. "Automation does not end on the assembly line," he said, pointing out that it plays an important part in moving raw materials to a plant and the finished product to the consumer.

The belief that technology automatically bestows higher living standards is a "myth," according to Jack Conway, administrative assistant to Walter Reuther and chairman of the UAW-CIO committee on automation.

"Only as we consume what we produce can the economy remain in balance," he said. "Automation is not to create unemployment but to create abundance."

Conway said that by 1965 there will be a potential labor force of 79 million in America. But with a 20 per cent increase in per capita income by that time, a 32-hour week, adequate retirement pay for those over 65, and education for young people through 21 years of age, the labor force would be 62 million, approximately what it is today, he said.

Labor does not fear automation, Conway said, but "vast changes in job content are in the making."

In granting the American people rights to work, speak and live as they wish, the U. S. constitution has created more power than the atomic bomb, said Howard J. Stoddard, president of the Michigan National bank. He listed five things he said America must do to remain prosperous:

1. A progressively larger share of the national income must be diffused. 2. Individual reward must be based on work performed. 3. Potentialities of the people must be developed to the maximum. 4. Every person must be able to earn his own living; society must provide for the indigent and aged. 5. Spiritual growth must be continued as a counterpart of material prosperity.

Looking ahead 20 years to 1975, the U. S. will have to provide enough food, clothing, shelter, education, recreation and other wants for an additional 60 million people, said Leland I. Doan, president of the Dow Chemical company.

The challenge for business in the future, Doan declared, is a "markedly improved technology." Doan mentioned the following as likely to play an important part in America's future growth:

Nuclear energy. This will tend to equalize power costs throughout the country, permit further decentralization of industry and may supply homes with both heat and power.

Automation. This will upgrade the educational level of the work force because there will be fewer unskilled workers, many more skilled workers, engineers, research people, accountants, and others.

New developments in housing and clothing. Cheaper building materials and materials which can be erected with less hand labor will be sought. Clothing which resists wrinkles and which may be thrown away when soiled will take away additional household chores.

5 BASIC REASONS FOR PONTIAC'S RECORD-BREAKING SALES

1. PONTIAC COSTS LESS THAN ANY CAR EQUALLING ITS 200 HORSEPOWER

If you delight in flashing performance, here's all the reason you need to join the record-breaking thousands who are swinging to Pontiac. The 200 horsepower delivered by the economical Strato-Streak V-8 with the four-barrel carburetor, optional at extra cost, is the highest power ever delivered by a car at Pontiac's price—higher than that of cars costing considerably more. For thrift and thrills it's Pontiac all the way!

2. PONTIAC COSTS LESS THAN ANY CAR EQUALLING ITS LONG WHEELBASE

Model for model, Pontiac has a longer wheelbase than any car at its price—122" or 124", depending on whether you select an 860, 870, or Star Chief model. That's size where it really counts—and it's important because a long wheelbase is the reason for Pontiac's smooth, road-leveling ride and the roomy comfort of Pontiac's large, luxurious Body by Fisher—advantages that put Pontiac on a level with far costlier cars for sheer riding pleasure.

3. PONTIAC COSTS LESS THAN ANY CAR EQUALLING ITS LUXURY-CAR STABILITY

The big, husky Pontiac with rugged X-member frame gives you the safe, solid feel at cruising speeds that motorists have formerly paid high prices to enjoy. And it links this road-holding comfort with ease of control like that of costly sports cars. You travel in superlative comfort in a Pontiac for the lowest price ever placed on such big-car stability.

4. PONTIAC'S DISTINCTIVE BEAUTY IS UNMATCHED AT ANY PRICE

Pontiac's style and beauty are a perfect match for its colorful performance. Future-fashioned lines, Vogue Two-Toning and Twin-Streaked hood provide dash and glamour unsurpassed by any other car at any price.

5. You can buy a big, powerful Pontiac for less than many models of the lowest-priced cars and much less than stripped economy models of higher-priced makes

860 2-door, 6-passenger Sedan—state and local taxes, if any, extra. Prices may vary in surrounding communities due to freight differential. $2123.20

Grade School News

Grade Two—Patterson
Mrs. Garlick

We are in school again after our vacation and happy to be back.

Birthdays we have celebrated are those of Karol Davis, Jeffrey Noe, and Aprill Warren. We now have 12 people who are eight years old.

A Polyphemus moth came out of one of the cocoons. We were not in school to see it emerge so we had a surprise when we found it.

Aprill Warren brought a jar containing four pollywogs a few days ago. She also brought an article from a magazine telling us how to care for them. We hope they will live so we can see them develop into frogs.

Marvin Grigg brought three baby chickens to visit at school just after Easter.

Mrs. Rice, Michael's mother, gave us some puzzle, a barn, and a cash register which Michael no longer used. We are very happy to have these things and we are glad Mrs. Rice thought of the second grade.

Bradley Hatch and Diane Hoch are new children in Patterson second grade. We are happy to have you with us, Bradley and Diane.

We have enjoyed our last two assembly programs. We saw an Indian Chief and his wife, and the Davies of Canada sang for us.

We are able to use the new baseball diamond if no gym class is using it. If it is in use, we play baseball on another part of the playground.

Grade Three—West Branch
Mrs. Laskey

We have been studying gardening during science these spring days, and we have learned many new things about plants.

In language class we are learning how to give book reviews and how to write book reports. It is fun to listen to our friends tell about the books they've read. They make us feel so curious that we want to read the book they tell about.

Most of us think it is easy to multiply but story problems really make us work.

Mrs. Laskey is reading the "Land of Oz" to us. So many make-believe things are in it that our imaginations work overtime.

Nevoda Gillman moved to Adrian and Garry Lee Bowers moved to Macon. We all miss them.

Carolyn Peters shared her birthday with us and we all thank her for the ice cream and cupcakes her mother brought us.

Grade Three—Patterson
Miss Baker

We have spring fever! It is hard to work when you would rather be outside jumping rope or playing ball—but there aren't many weeks left of school and we are trying to finish our books.

We are learning to multiply in arithmetic. It is lots of fun. Soon we shall be dividing too.

Our first reading group have finished both basic readers in reading and are now in a supplementary reader. The second group have one more unit to read and they will be ready for a supplementary reader also. We have learned how to write book reports in language and now when we read a library book, we write a report for reading class.

We do not know who is ahead in our spelling baseball game. Miss Baker is keeping the score and will tell us in May. As soon as we know the winners, we will tell you. Each of us has a pretty ribbon on which we put a star if we get an A on our Friday's spelling test. Some of us have five stars already.

We put dirt in egg shells and planted different seeds in them for science. We are going to watch them grow. The plants that are good, we are going to take home and plant.

This month Barbara Colgrove, Karen Heberlien, Karen Goller, Jim Osburn and Bob Morey had birthdays.

We will be around to visit you once more. Until we do come — So Long.

Grade Four—Patterson
Mrs. Colson

Several of our girls are using their free time to make scrap books on different subjects. Some of them are very interesting.

Karen Sue Cox left our room this week. She has moved to a farm near Adrian, and will go to a rural school.

Part of our science time has been used in coloring some of our common birds. The children find information about them in the library. We have chosen some of them for a bright border above the chalkboard.

We are finding out how plants and animals grow, and plan to plant some seeds so that we can see for ourselves just what happens.

We have left China on our make believe trip, and are now visiting some children who live in Norway. It will be a long trip from there to our next stop, which is South America.

Multiplying with two figure numbers had us all puzzled for a few days, but it doesn't seem so difficult now.

Grade Three—Central
Mrs. Illeck

We had a very interesting experience one day last week. Michelle Anderson brought a giant clam to school. It was about eighteen inches in diameter. We found a science book that told us many interesting things about the giant clam.

Guy Boss is again a patient in University Hospital at Ann Arbor. We hope he will soon be well enough to come back to school.

We are composing original poems. Some of the poems are very good. We are making a booklet and illustrating each poem.

Grade Three—Central
Mrs. Vallie

We are very sorry to have Jean Brown leave our room. She is moving to Mississippi.

Murray Richardson's mother brought some beautiful cupcakes to school for us. We celebrated Murray's birthday with a party and had the cupcakes and ice cream for refreshments.

Carolyn Fletcher also celebrated a birthday during this month.

We are beginning to feel like "almost fourth graders" now. We have learned to multiply and most of us think that is a lot of fun.

Also, we have been working on a colonial unit in reading, the results of which we are putting in the display case in the hall.

You'll feel like a pilot without leaving the ground
It's The Hardtop with Four Doors!
Here's the new hit in hardtops that's taking the country by storm – Buick's pioneering and pace-setting 4-Door Riviera. The "convertible" look, with no center posts in the side-window areas–but with separate doors for rear-seat passengers. Shown here in the low-price SPECIAL model–also available in the high-powered CENTURY Series. Both now in volume production to insure prompt deliveries.
Just wait till you switch the pitch of Buick's new Dynaflow*!
How would you like to take the wheel of a high-powered Buick and feel an experience you never felt before in any earth-bound vehicle?
How would you like to do—just by pressing down the gas pedal—what a pilot does when he's ready for take-off?
And how would you like to drive with the happy thought that you're getting plenty of miles per gallon in normal cruising – and the electrifying action of the world's first airplane-principled transmission when you need it for split-second getaway response or accelerating power?
It's all for you when you say the word and slip into the driver's seat of a new Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*
Not only do you take command of record-high Buick V8 power—and the most envied ride in the industry—and the brawn and heft and luxury of a truly solid automobile.
You also call the turn on twenty propeller-like blades deep inside a wondrous new Dynaflow that's patterned after the principle of the modern plane's variable pitch propeller.
You hold these blades in their high-economy angle when you press the pedal in the normal way—and you get a lot more miles from a tankful of gas.
You switch the pitch of these blades to take-off position when you press the pedal way down—and you get spectacular action instantly.
Don't take our word alone that this is thrilling beyond all previous experience.
Talk to anyone who's tried it. Or, better yet, come try it yourself. That way you can learn firsthand why Buick sales are soaring to all-time best-seller highs. Drop in this week, won't you?
*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Annual Play Festival Will Open May 9

Getting underway May 9, the 1955 University of Michigan Drama Season will present an outstanding array of stars in an exciting series of five plays at the Lydia Mendelssohn Theatre in Ann Arbor. Each play will open on Monday and run for one week. Evening curtain at 8:30 p.m.; matinees Thursday and Saturday at 2:30 p.m.

Eva LeGallienne will open the Season on May 9 in her triumph from the current Broadway season, "The Southwest Corner." Also appearing in the John Cecil Holm play will be Enid Markey and Parker Fennelly of the New York cast. The excellent performances of these three talented actors won unanimous acclaim from the New York critics this spring. Mr. Holm adapted this play from the novel by University of Michigan alumna Mildred Walker.

The week of May 16 brings Helen Hayes, first lady of the American theatre, in a special production entitled "Gentlemen, The Queens." The presentation will consist of segments from Bernard Shaw's "Catherine The Great," Shakespeare's "Macbeth," Maxwell Anderson's "Mary of Scotland" and will close with Laurence Housman's "Victoria Regina." In the last two plays, Miss Hayes' performances are considered among the greatest in theatrical history.

Featured members of the cast will be Philip Bourneuf, Edith Meiser and Ray Boyle. The production will be staged by Andrew McCullough, who first came to fame as the director of the TV program Omnibus. An elaborate pattern of settings and costumes is also being planned.

Coming direct from a successful run in New York is N. Richard Nash's delightful play "The Rainmaker" for the week of May 23. A romantic comedy with a western setting, it has won favor with audiences for its fresh originality and its humorous characterizations. It is described as a "Hit you must see" by Richard Coleman of the New York Daily Mirror. Stars of this play will be announced later.

Television and stage personality Faye Emerson will be appearing in "Biography" beginning May 30. A regular panel member of CBS TV's "I've Got A Secret," she has received many awards for work in this medium, including Look Magazine's citation as the outstanding video personality of the year. A distinguished supporting cast for the S. N. Behrman play is being lined up by Valentine Windt, director of the Drama Season.

To wind up the season, week of June 6, Valerie Bettis and Lydia St. Clair have been signed to costar in "The Time Of The Cuckoo" by Arthur Laurents. Known as well for her work as a dancer and choreographer as an actress, Miss Bettis will come to Ann Arbor direct from the Anta dance festival in New York City. Miss St. Clair is another of the Season's participants who will be recreating a role made famous in the original Broadway production. Stiano Braggiotti will be featured in the cast.

Mail orders for the series are now being taken. The box office will open May 2. Complete details can be obtained by writing to the University of Michigan Drama Season, Lydia Mendelssohn Theatre, Ann Arbor.

Christian Science Services Listed

The fact that man's real nature in God's likeness is unfallen, upright, and free will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Readings from the King James Version of the Bible and correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will comprise the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man."

Among the passages to be read from Science and Health is the following: "The divine nature was best expressed in Christ Jesus, who threw upon mortals the truer reflection of God and lifted their lives higher than their poor thought-models would allow, — thoughts which presented man as fallen, sick, sinning, and dying" (259:6-11 The).

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians (15:22): "As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive."

Kroger Offers 97 Scholarships

Ninety-seven outstanding high school graduates will begin college studies in agriculture and home economics under the Kroger Scholarships Plan for 1955, it has been announced by Carl S. Fuller, manager of the retail food firm's Toledo branch which operates stores in this area.

The $200 one-year awards are available for next fall at land-grant colleges in 17 midwestern and southern states in which Kroger operates, as well as California and Florida where the company's produce procurement offices are located.

In announcing the program, Fuller quoted a letter from a Kroger scholarship winner of 25 years ago who recently wrote to tell the company how this encouragement provided the incentive that has led to a life of community service. She called the scholarship program a "long-range investment in human welfare."

"We are proud of her and of the hundreds of the other Kroger scholars who have since graduated and are doing useful jobs in their communities," he said. "We think our investment has been well worthwhile."

Originally begun at Ohio State University, the program has been expanded to include 25 land-grant colleges. The Agricultural and Technical College of North Carolina was added this year.

Any graduate of an accredited high school is eligible. Applications should be made directly to the dean of the college of agriculture, or through county agents, home demonstration agents, home economic teachers, or vocational agriculture instructors.

The Silver Lining

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

JOHN MC COLL BELIEVES more of us should practice the slogan of live and let live when it comes to snakes. A long and well-written letter from John was read by Bud Guest last Friday morning on his radio show. The letter, which included the Latin name for the puffed adder, explained why the adder puffs to frighten off his enemies. The missile to Bud plainly showed that John knows as much about snakes as he does about bees.

IF YOU HAVE A DIME kicking about in your jeans that you don't know what to do with, why not send it to the victory dimes fund which will buy a carload of free Salk polio vaccine. This fund was set up by the Michigan State Employees' Association when success of the Salk vaccine was announced. It was created to insure vaccine for every child in the state from one to 10 years old. The dimes are now rolling in and if you want to add your ten cents worth to this worthy cause send a dime to Michigan State Employees' Association, 429 Tussing Building, Lansing, Mich.

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE to march six miles a week? The Cochran Majorettes who will appear here in the Michigan Week parade Saturday, May 21, do. They practice as a unit six hours a week and during these practice sessions they march six miles.

SUNDAY IS MOTHER'S DAY. Remember your mother on her day. Drop in on her for a visit to help her observe this beautiful American custom that has spread around most of the world. This all began in Philadelphia in 1907—the inspired idea of a devoted woman who, though not a mother herself, revered the memory of her own. Happy is the family with a mother in its midst to honor in the small, blithesome ways that can make her special "day" an exciting joyous one. For those who are not blessed by her actual presence, there is the white carnation to be worn in memory—the memory best loved and most sacred.

A MIGHTY INTERESTING HERALD for Nov. 25, 1886, was sent by Mrs. S. D. MacDonald (Catherine Stevens) of Detroit. The six-column, eight-page paper was published by S. C. Stacy. Of special interest were two full columns of display advertising on page one; the correspondents "Ridgeway Ramblings" and "Onsted Odds;" a short story "My Lady's Money;" an article about a group taking a bicycle ride to Detroit which was written by L. C. Hayden; the pithy writing of the editor ("Thanksgiving Day. The turkey and chickens say."); the ads—C. A. Wright & Co. and Hayden Mill are the only two Tecumseh concerns still in business today that advertised in this particular edition of the HERALD—; some of the low prices in the ads of the 1880's and an ad for McCollum Clothier in Clinton which read: "Hurrah for Clinton. Let other towns cry hard times; we never hear the expression in Clinton. Always plenty to eat and to wear, especially the latter, which is sold so cheap as to astonish the natives." Ready made suits were as low as $5. Many thanks, Mrs. MacDonald, for sending us this interesting paper. If some one would like to read it all through as we have he or she is welcome to borrow it.

THE OLDTIMER SAYS: "Some men with big ideas on how to run our ship of state, can't even paddle their own canoe."

THERE'S A LITTLE FERNDALE POOCH named So-Good that was written up recently in the Detroit Times because it goes to school. Students of Miss Bertha LaPointe at West Branch School think their dog Timmi is prettier and probably smarter. Miss LaPointe, owner of Timmi, who attends West Branch thinks so, too, and she noticed that the Times story even had the age of the teacher which was 23.

HOW ABOUT SOME SPIDERWORT, pickerel weed, sheep's-sorrel, or pigweed for your next meal!

No fooling, there are many Michigan wild plants that when properly cooked can make delightful — and adventuresome — eating.

Many of these were standard items in days gone by, but have disappeared in favor of foods that lend themselves to mass production.

All those mentioned so far are potherbs. Suitable for greens when young and tender, they may be cooked like spinach and served with butter and vinegar. Other substitutes for spinach include such plants as bracken fern, lambsquarters, purslane, shepherd's purse, mustard, mallow and fireweed.

A second group of potherbs or greens is too strong flavored or bitter for most palates, and so must be cooked in two or more changes of water to extract the unpleasant taste. With such treatment, wild onions, marsh marigold, winter cress, milkweed and burdock become edible. Even the disagreeable and offensive skunk cabbage yields a pleasant surprise!

FRANK BUCK OF ADRIAN who has contributed to the Lining in the past writes: "Re the article about the great blue heron — For many years there were eight nests in a tall oak in what was the Eliza Sanford woods one and three quarter miles east of Tecumseh. I have not been in that woods for five years but they nested there every year while I hunted there. Another nesting place was in the Horton woods at Fruit Ridge. Some of the large oaks would have as many as a dozen nests."

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO Friday, May 6, Dr. C. N. Brodersen came to Tecumseh. He had a Franklin car and 100 bucks in his pocket. Asked if he planned to celebrate, Dr. Brodersen said: "No. I'm not the celebrating kind. I merely mention this fact in gratefulness. Tecumseh has been good to me."

MY NEIGHBOR MRS. ELLA BROWN has the most beautiful garden in Tecumseh. Right now it is a riot of color and if you want to enjoy this garden as we do, drop by. She will be thrilled to show off her many fine flowers to you,

CONGRATULATIONS AND best wishes to the Tecumseh office of the Adrian Federal Savings & Loan Association. The local office and staff are beginning their second year.

SUNDAY WE ATTENDED the centennial program of the Iron Creek Church. The trip through the green and rolling countryside, the spectacular view from the parsonage, meeting the Brazees again, hearing the Rev. Edward Escolme bring the sermon, chatting with the fine folk of the congregation, and viewing the historic tools, clothes and implements used by previous generations—all of these things, coupled with the panorama of natural beauty around the little country church nestled in the hills—made Sunday a most richly rewarding day.

A BABY SARDINE WAS FRIGHTENED by a submarine and went crying to its mother. "There, there, dear," she soothed, "it's only a can of people."

ANOTHER GARDEN THAT blazes with color is that of Mrs. Paul Maves, 9103 north Union. Mrs. Maves has tulips to show members of the Tecumseh Garden Club and anybody else who enjoys beautiful flowers.

THIS POEM WAS WRITTEN after the author saw a farmer working in his fields on a hot day:

The sun's been blisterin' hot today
For shockin' wheat and rakin' hay;
The horses pant, and chickens loll
Beneath the witherin' rays of Sol.
When mother says, "You've done your bit;"
I sometimes think I ought to quit;
Just pack the goods and move to town,
And spend my time just sittin' 'round.
There's no demand for wheat today;
Our foreign market's slipped away,
And, if I'd really count the cost—
I've grown the wheat but money lost.
But when the fields are all in gold,
I soon forget I'm growin' old;
I soon forget the scorchin' heat,
Likewise forget the price of wheat.
I like to hear the binder sing,
And watch a quail to safety wing;
I like to see the ripened grain
Capped in shocks before the rain.
There's something more to growin' wheat
Than price, and yield, and summer heat.
A sweet communion here is wrought,
As God gives me this holy thought:
  Somewhere someone will bow his head
  And thank our Lord for daily bread.
That thought, to me, is might sweet
'Cause I helped God produce the wheat.

CENTENNIAL SCHOOL

Visiting Tecumseh High School

On Thursday, Janet Bachtal, Mary Lewis, and I went to the high school. We didn't know where to go, but stood by the school door. There were some seventh grade girls that we asked where we should go. They said that we couldn't get in yet because the bell hadn't rung.

We waited a few minutes and John Cadmus, a junior, asked us if we came to visit. We said we had. He said for us to come with him.

We followed him in and down the hall about to the other end of the school. We followed him to the cafeteria and told him that we would be in the seventh grade.

We sat down and Mr. Hart talked a few minutes then they passed out a book called the "Indian Lore" and the rules for the school were in it.

We were in the cafeteria for about an hour. Then two of the student girls took a group of us around in the school. They showed us the library, study hall, typing room, and the band room.

When we came out of one of the rooms they had a fire drill and one of the girls told us to go downstairs and outside. We must walk all the way. In a few minutes they told us to come in. We went through the gym and the shower. We asked Mr. Crisp and Mr. Hart if that was all. They said it was.

We could either go to the cafeteria and wait, or go to our bus. We went to our bus. We had a very wonderful time.

Punch-line to the year's hottest power story—

Chevrolet "Turbo-Fire V8"!

This is the engine that's writing a whole new chapter in the book of automobile performance records. This is the engine that has stock car timers doing a "double take" at their stopwatches wherever experts gather to compare the abilities of the 1955 cars.

For example, in the recent NASCAR* stock car competition at Daytona Beach, Florida, Chevrolet literally ran away from every other car in its class—and a raft of others besides. In the one-mile straightaway run for low-priced cars, the first two places—and six of the first ten—went to Chevrolets. And in acceleration runs from a standing start against all comers, the Motoramic Chevrolet beat all other low-priced cars—and every high-priced car except one!

What's behind this blazing performance? A compact honey of a V8 that only the world's leading producer of valve-in-head engines can build. Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8".

It puts a new kind of fun in your driving life. You're in charge of 162 high-spirited horsepower—or if you're looking for even more excitement, the new "Super Turbo-Fire V8" (optional at extra cost) puts 180 h.p. under your toe!

Pick the one you'd rather have fun with, then come in and get behind the wheel. You'll see why the Motoramic Chevrolet is showing its heels to everyone else on the road!

TECUMSEH PRODUCTS ACQUIRES TRESCO

Merger Announced by R. W. Herrick

The Tecumseh Products Company, the world's largest builder of refrigeration units, has acquired Tresco, Inc. The announcement of the merger was made Tuesday by R. W. Herrick, chairman of the board.

Tresco, Inc., Mr. Herrick explained, has been the sales and engineering organization on a contractual basis for Tecumseh Products since the company was founded. While the set-up has been unique in many respects, he added, it has proved to be highly successful.

Former owners of Tresco, Inc.—Curtis M. Brown, Jens K. Touborg and Frank K. Smith — will be executive vice-presidents and active members of the executive committee and active members of the board.

The entire sales and engineering staff of Tresco, Inc., will become members of the Tecumseh Products Company to insure continuity of customer relationships.

Mr. Herrick said the reason for the merger at this time is: "In the opinion of all parties concerned we are building a stronger organization by utilizing the combined talents of both organizations in all phases of the business."

"No changes in the operation and functioning of the sales and engineering departments are being made," he said, "and the field organization will continue to function as it has in the past."

"We feel that this step will enable Tecumseh Products better to handle our expanding operations and to meet the needs of our customers in this ever-growing industry."

Mr. Herrick also announced that Mr. T. W. Rundell, formerly of Servel, Inc., who joined the staff of Tresco, Inc., April 1, will become general manager of sales and sales engineering. And Mr. F. G. Purcell will become general sales manager. A newly-created post of manager of consumer research will be filled by Mr. L. W. Larsen.

Mr. D. J. Bowen has been promoted to sales manager of the western division and Mr. P. G. Colgrove has been promoted to sales manager of the eastern division.

Mr. Rundell held the positions of vice president of engineering and operations with Servel, Inc. And he previously served as refrigeration engineer with Philco Corp. and Westinghouse.

A graduate of Ohio Northern with a degree in electrical engineering, he holds several patents on his inventions.

He and Mrs. Rundell have two sons of college age.

FIREMEN ANSWER TWO CAR CALLS

Firemen were called out twice during the past week to put out car fires.

Last Thursday they put out a fire in a car owned by Milo Bishop of Tipton. The car burned a quarter mile west of Billington's corners. Faulty wiring caused a fire that did extensive damages to the car's interior.

Friday morning they were called to 112 west Patterson street where a parked car overheated. The radiator boiled over but there were no damages.

Mayor Stebbins Has Served Stanton 5 Terms

Mayor S. B. Stebbins of Stanton who will become president of the Village of Britton next Monday has been in the furniture and hardware business for 35 years.

He has been president of the State Savings Bank of Stanton since 1949.

He and Mrs. Stebbins have one daughter and two grandsons.

The mayor and his wife live at Dickerson Lake about four miles west of Stanton. His hobby is trying to transform about four acres of what was swamp land into a "nice lawn."

He is a member of the First Congregational Church ("We have a new church of which we are very proud.") and he is a member of the Stanton Men's Community Club, Rotary, Masonic Lodge and Elks of Ionia.

"I've held only one public office which is my present position of mayor. I'm on my fifth and, I hope, my last term."

"Whereas: The annual sale of Buddy Poppies by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States has been officially recognized and endorsed by the President of the United States and Veterans Administration; and

"Whereas: V.F.W. Buddy Poppies are assembled by disabled veterans, and the proceeds of this worthy fund raising campaign are used exclusively for the benefit of disabled and needy veterans, and the widows and orphans of deceased veterans, and

"Whereas: The basic purpose of the annual sale of Buddy Poppies by the Veterans of Foreign Wars is reflected in the desire to 'Honor the Dead by Helping the Living'; Therefore

"I do hereby urge the citizens of this community to recognize Friday, May 20 and Saturday, May 21 as distribution days of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Buddy Poppies."

Scots Seeking New Life Gave Morrice Its Name

(Reprinted from the Lansing State Journal)

MORRICE — Morrice got a later start as a village than many of the towns in Shiawassee county, but soon began to grow.

Although as early as 1836, a settler had arrived on land occupied later by Morrice, it remained for Isaac Gale, a large land holder in this area to plat the village in 1877.

Mr. Gale, as a vice president of the railroad, was able to get a depot built here when the lines of the Chicago and Port Huron railroad, now part of the Grand Trunk system, came through here in the middle 1870's.

Joshua Purdy was the early settler mentioned before. He arrived in 1836, and built a log cabin.

In the spring of the next year, 1837, he planted a small garden near his home, on the first land plowed in Perry township.

Many families settled near Purdy's claim, notable that of William Morrice, from which the place gets its name. William Morrice came originally from Aberdeenshire, Scotland, with his brothers, John, George, and Alexander.

Morrice was incorporated as a village in November, 1884 and the first election was conducted in December of that year with 23 votes cast.

At this time business and industries in the town area included a grist mill, two hotels, two elevators, a sawmill and a stave and heading mill.

The Sager House, built in 1878 by C. W. Sager, was described as "a well furnished and commodious hostelry."

Frederick Cummings, son of James Cummings, former treasurer of the county, was Morrice's first merchant.

The population of the village at this time was a little more than 250 persons.

A few years after the turn of the century, the village had one private bank; one hotel, a grist mill with a capacity of 50 barrels daily; an elevator, handling an average of three carloads of grain and beans per week; a sawmill, producing about $150,000 worth of lumber annually; a canning factory, costing $8,000; an apple dryer, and a lumber yard. The village was lighted by electricity at this time, and had a population of about 50.

Among the principal businesses in 1955 are:

The Morrice Tower company, owned and operated by Stanley Jordan. The firm makes steel television antennae for home use.

The Morrice Grain and Bean company, operated by L. G. Rothney and his son, George; the Morrice State bank; three grocery stores, a hardware store, an implement store, two radio and television dealers ,and two restaurants. The town has a consolidated agricultural school and two churches.

The present population of the town is estimated at more than 700.

When it comes to Protection ..it pays to have the BEST

Life rafts can be very handy at times—but there's no chance to get another if the one you have fails to float.

Dependable insurance is like that, too. It's one thing you can't get when you need it most. After an accident or loss has occurred, it's too late to buy better insurance if the policy you have proves unsatisfactory.

So don't gamble with "cheap" insurance. Buy only the BEST—and buy it today.

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

THAT WAS AN EXCELLENT and professional job done by Tecumseh High School students on this year's school annual. All who had anything to do with the book must feel mighty proud.

CLASSIFIED ADS PAY. AN ad in last week's HERALD advertised for a frogman to retrieve a bowling ball in Red Pond and the frogman for the job was found. For those of you who want to know how the ball — a five-fingered one — came to rest in the silt at the bottom of the pond this is the story: For a long time bowlers who have bad nights threaten to toss their bowling balls into the drink. Frank Rice had been having a bad time with the five-fingered job so he did what the rest of them had been talking about. He threw his ball in. But it took him two heaves before he made it. The ball was reluctant to part with Frank and on the first heave it struck the bridge and bounced back. But Frank persevered and on the second toss he made it. Bowling friends of Frank, knowing how much Frank meant to that bowling ball, hired the frogman again to retrieve the ball which will be wrapped and returned to its owner. The reunion of Frank and the five-fingered ball probably will take place at the bowler's banquet; but maybe not until Christmas. It all depends on how much difficulty is encountered in retrieving the sad ball.

MRS. MARION SPITLER OF MACON thinks she may have the earliest tomatoes of any season. She has three plants that came up in flower pots. She doesn't know how or why they came up because she did not plant them or the seed. She has had four red tomatoes about the size of gooseberries from the plants which are of the climbing variety.

THE REV. ALVIN BRAZEE thought the publishing of the names in the last election was a "fine move." The long list of voters' names reminded him of a true event that happened long ago which he passes on as an object lesson to others. This is his story: "So long ago when Woodrow Wilson ran for a second term I served as one of the clerks of the election at Chinook, Montana.

"An aged couple came in to vote but found they were not registered. We sent them to the other precinct but they returned to us.

"By doing some telephoning we found they were registered at a little mountain settlement 30 miles away where they had lived for a short time.

"Turning to her husband, she said 'Amby, we must get out there and vote. Perhaps the President might be in need of just our votes to elect him.'

"They had no car and no one offered to take them and, tho' poor, they hired a taxi for this trip which she considered so important. It taught me a wonderful lesson."

HIDDEN LAKE GARDENS is a gorgeous spot this time of year. It certainly is a spot to show visitors to the Tecumseh area. The lilac hedges are particularly outstanding. But I would suggest that you not visit on Sunday if it is at all possible. If you really want to see it and to enjoy it to the fullest, go some evening after an early dinner. As we viewed it last Friday night I had this thought: what a wonderful memorial to Mr. Harry Fee.

FROM THE U. S. NAVAL AIR Station at Memphis, Tenn., Paul E. Graham, airman apprentice, writes: "I thought you might want to see how the fame of Tecumseh is spreading. Enclosed is a full page ad from the Memphis Press-Scimitar, advertising air conditioning units with the famous Tecumseh compressor. It is surprising the places I've run into the name Tecumseh. Of course the best place to run into the name Tecumseh is at the city limits of Tecumseh (sound logic.)"

THREE NAMES LEFT OUT of the list of voters in the April 4 election published last week were Gibbs Barber, Mary Whitelock and Naomi Sallows. The mistake did not stem from the chamber of commerce which sponsored the publishing of the names but from the election clerk who didn't stamp these three voters' registration cards.

ONE OF THE FINEST AND most interesting little papers ever to come across my desk is Harry Oliver's Desert Rat Scrap Book, the only newspaper in America you can open in the wind. Supervisor W. G. Waldron let us borrow it.

These are just a few of the many witty lines in this little paper which costs "one lousy thin dime:"

This paper is not entered as second class mail. It's a first class newspaper.

You can buy the paper, published four times a year at Thousand Palms, Calif., for $50 for 100 years. "This offer expires when I do."

"I cannot afford to waste my time making money."

"Good nonsense is good sense in disguise."

"Remember, you can't fall out of bed if you sleep on the ground."

The little paper had an outside spread dedicated to the "world's greatest optimist, the desert prospector."

And it is filled with stories of the noble burro . . . "The only thing I ever resented about a burro or a mule was that I figured that they were smarter than I was."

The paper, printed with old style type and many line drawings, is published by Harry Oliver who is a one-man campaign to keep the desert country natural and unlittered by little bugs. He has been putting it out for the last eight years "just for the heck of it."

The publisher apparently is a desert rat himself and he must have a long white beard.

He is addicted to prevarication for emphasis. He admits "I have heard lies so well told that a man would almost be a fool not to believe them."

And: "Even the truth has a ridiculous side to it, and he who can make us laugh at it is the best philosopher."

Desert rat Harry Oliver is a good philosopher. His little efforts at putting out a newspaper made me laugh.

Plans Completed For Kitchen Tour

Final details of the Kitchen Tour to be held Thursday, May 19 from 2 to 5 p. m. are being worked out by members of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Peter's Episcopal church. Members are busy baking and preparing the tasty dishes that will be on sale in the kitchens to be visited on the tour.

This year attention will be given to showing the kitchens and explaining their new fixtures and appliances, especially the ones in River Acres. Each kitchen will have a hostess, who will be glad to answer questions and explain the innovations being used in both new and remodeled homes.

The tour will start at the new home of Mrs. Hugh Walters at the north end of River Acres. Here homemade bread, rolls, coffee cakes and muffins will be on sale. Tickets will be punched here and those not having tickets may purchase one. Guests will keep their tickets as they must be shown at each kitchen and will then be taken up at the Parish House where tea will be served.

Mrs. Wilbur Rumpf's home is the second on the tour. This kitchen will have baked beans, relishes and frozen vegetables on display.

House number three is that of Mrs. Harry Spencer, located directly across the road from the Rumpf's. This kitchen will feature baked ham, casseroles, meat loaves and meat pies.

The route will then turn to Herrick Park where many attractive salads will be on display in the kitchen of Mrs. William Damon.

Kitchen number five will be that of Mrs. C. O. Butler on S. Union St., where there will be pies and desserts on sale.

The home of Mrs. William Wright on W. Pottawatamie, the sixth one to be visited will display cakes and cookies.

Last but not least will be the visit to St. Peter's new Parish House, where the ladies may relax over a cup of tea, sandwiches and cookies.

Mrs. Allan Seager has donated a king size rotisserie broiler to the Auxiliary and this will be given to a guest at the Parish House.

The co-chairmen, Mrs. C. O. Butler and Mrs. L. W. Larsen have appointed the following committees for each home: Hugh Walters, Mrs. Henrietta Lindsley, chairman and Mesdames Philip Colgrove, O. W. Laidlaw, John Keeney, L. Blum, Edward Boss and C. Brock. At Wilbur Rumpfs, Mesdames Richard Duffin, Marion Rumpf, J. Osborn, Leo Lohrman, C. Kennell and R. Cooper. At Harry Spencers, Mesdames Louis Schneider, L. W. Larsen, Allen Russell, Paul Ammer, Hal Lewis, Robert Lowe and Addie Lindbert.

Hostesses at the home of William Damon are Mesdames Lynn Hubbard, Lloyd Rhein, S. Barrett, William Bly and Charles Haughn. At Charles Butlers, Mesdames Lyman Curtiss, William Bruce, J. Smith, Glenn Williams, F. Scovell, L. Russell and Charles Mensing. Mrs. Charles Osborn will be chairman at William Wrights assisted by Mesdames W. Kizer, C. Irelan, W. Andrews, V. Lemerand, B. Richards, R. Hammel and C. Mitchell.

At the Parish House, tea will be served by Mrs. M. W. Wilson and a committee consisting of Mesdames Thomas O'Hara, G. Driscoll, A. C. Hamaker, R. Havens, E. C. Dickin, J. McCaughen, J. Douglas, F. Hadley, Gertrude Schneider, K. Wise, H. Schuch, H. Brown, C. Jennings, R. K. Anderson and H. H. Hammel.

Mothers-Daughters Attend Banquet at St. Peter's Church

The men and boys of St. Peter's Episcopal church served the dinner Monday evening when 104 of the Mothers and Daughters of the church held their annual banquet. Mrs. Harry Schuch and Mrs. Barney McCaughen had charge of the kitchen. Mrs. E. C. Dickin asked the blessing.

The traditional toast to the daughters was given by Mrs. Leo Lohrman and the response by her daughter Gail after which Miss Margaret Hardy entertained with a vocal selection. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Clifford Hardy.

The serious tone of the program was then broken by a skit with a Davy Crockett theme, by Charles O'Neill and Phil Surratt and a tap dance by Meredith Munger and Lauranne Williams of Tipton who danced to the accompaniment of Mrs. Glenn Driscoll. A song by Rae Lynn Crosby closed the program.

Flowering plants were given as tributes to the oldest mother present, Mrs. Charles Saul; to the youngest, Mrs. James Stevens; to the mother with the most daughters, Mrs. Leo Lohrman, who has three and to the mother who came the longest distance, Mrs. Clark of Ypsilanti, whose daughter is Mrs. Charles Irelan.

Dale Hoags Will Tour Europe

Dale Hoag, son of Mrs. Bertha Hoag, and Mrs. Hoag, the former Lois Sheldon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheldon, visited their parents and brother, Herbert Hoag and family over the Mother's Day weekend, preparatory to leaving for a six weeks trip abroad. They will sail May 25 on the Queen Mary for South Hampton, England.

Mr. Hoag is being sent to England by his employers, the Baker Perkins Co. of Saginaw, who specialize in the manufacture of bakery equipment for bread, pies, cakes and cookies. He expects to visit their plant located in Peterborough, England and then make a tour of recent bakery installations in various parts of the British Isles.

During the last two weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Hoag will take a conducted tour on the continent, visiting France, Switzerland, Germany and Denmark and flying back directly to Detroit from Copenhagen, Denmark, July 8.

Cub Pack 73 Tours Products Co.

Cub Scout Pack 73, with nearly the entire membership present, toured the Tecumseh Products factory last Wednesday afternoon. They were conducted by Cubmaster Erwin Richardson and his assistant Howard Wilson Jr. and by several fathers and den mothers. They explored nearly every department in the more than an hour they were there and learned many things about the city's largest industry.

Thursday evening Cubmaster and Mrs. Richardson, Mr. Wilson and Mrs. Charles Stephenson were in Deerfield where they assisted in the plans for the organization of a Cub Scout troop in that town.

Mr. Richardson led the discussion in his capacity of district organizer, a post to which he has recently been appointed. The meeting was at the home of Mrs. Harold Overmyer and was very well attended. Mr. Richardson will return June 15 when the first cub meeting will be held.

Pack 73 will hold their Field Day June 4, at Wamplers Lake.

CUBS PLAN TRIP TO GREENFIELD VILLAGE

The committee of Cub Scout Pack 4 met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Stanley Kruse and decided that as there were new Cubs to be inducted and awards still to be made it would be necessary to hold a regular pack meeting this month after all. They request all new cubs and their parents to be present.

They also made plans for Saturday's trip to Greenfield Village and announce that Cubs are to report in uniform Saturday morning at 9:30 at the Central school building and are to bring money for their lunch.

Cubs will also meet at the Central building the following Saturday, May 21, in uniform, at 9:30 a.m. to march in the Armed Forces Day parade of the Michigan Week celebration.

Long range plans were discussed for a picnic of cubs and parents sometime in June. Time, place and arrangements will be announced later.

WSCS Plans for 15th Anniversary

1955 is the fifteenth anniversary of the organization of the women of the Methodist church into the Women's Society of Christian Service. This year, plans are being made to completely reorganize the circles into which the society is divided, in such a way as to stress the importance of the individual woman without regard to her age group.

The recently organized Sara Rebecca Circle, a group of the youngest church women, and the Temple Dependable Circle will not be changed but the other circles will be re-grouped, giving a wider opportunity for new acquaintanceships. The first meeting of the new organization will be held next Wednesday afternoon, May 18.

hickory AND horsehide

by DIZZY TROUT

One of the prime sources of talent for professional baseball is the American Legion baseball program.

Last year 237 active major league players were "graduates" of Legion baseball. Since its inception in 1926, 1,527 boys have traveled the glittering trail from the Legion diamond to the big league stadium.

Lou Brissie, former pitcher for Philadelphia and Cleveland and now Commissioner of American Legion Junior Baseball, estimates that perhaps 3,000 or more Legion ball players enter the minor leagues every year.

Every big league ball club has its share of Legion graduates. With the Tigers, among others, are Al Aber, Ray Boone, Jim Delsing, Ned Garver, Steve Gromek, Fred Hatfield, Harvey Kuenn, Red Wilson, and Jay Porter.

Curbs Delinquency

But vastly more important than its imprint on pro ball is the Legion baseball program's effect upon juvenile delinquency. It is regarded as an excellent curb on hooliganism.

This isn't some corn dished up by Old Diz. It reflects the sentiments of people like J. Edgar Hoover, West Point officials and major leaguers themselves.

A boy actively participating in a baseball game is removed from gangs and street corners and is less likely to wind up in serious trouble.

Character building is the principal product of the Legion's program, which instills into players 16 years of age and younger lessons in good sportsmanship, fair play, team work, self reliance and respect for rules.

Blankets Nation

Even if they didn't make the big leagues, more than 15 million boys have learned good citizenship in a program that extends throughout the 48 states, the District of Columbia and Hawaii.

In addition to playing a regular schedule, Legion teams get an opportunity to participate in state and national tournaments. Moreover, a photo of the boy selected as the "player of the year" is placed in a plaque, along with those of baseball's immortals, at the Cooperstown Hall of Fame for a year.

Old Diz is proud to be numbered among the Legion's graduates.

I remember that when I was 13, I hitched a ride from our farm near New Goshen, Indiana, to try out for the Clinton Legion team. Near the end of an intrasquad game, I gave up six runs.

Everything was against me that day, for I was unable to hitch a ride home and wound up by walking the 12 miles back with my glove in my pocket.

Later on, however, I made the Terre Haute team and played third base for two years, learning the valuable lesson in the American Legion's Hickory and Horsehide program of how to get along with people.

MARC Races Begin Thurs.

The finest drivers from Northwestern Ohio and Southern Michigan will be in the Midwest Association for Race Cars field when the Adrian Speedway opens its stock car race season Thursday night under new management and a remodeled layout at the Lenawee County Fairgrounds.

Toledo will present the 1954 Adrian track champion in Rollie Beale and Kenny Nemire, '54 runnerup. The Toledo speed demons also present a strong cast for 1955 Adrian honors with such pilots as Johnny Josza, Leo Caldwell, Al Beale and other top MARC drivers. The MARC is now the second largest stock car racing organization in the country and plans to have most of its best drivers at Adrian Speedway during the season.

Southern Michigan also will have a strong representation at Adrian Speedway this year. Len Segur of Temperance finished third in the MARC point standings, while Harold Apel of Temperance also was a topflighter who is returning Thursday night.

Time trials will be at 7 p.m., with the first race at 8:30.

Herb Robinson of Adrian, a front-runner on his home grounds for the past several seasons, has been working hard to get a new car in shape for the opener and expects to be on hand for Thursday's opener of the weekly race cards.

Other Michigan topnotchers planning to enter Adrian races are Audley Craig of Britton, a top driver at Flat Rock last year, and the colorful veteran from Milan, Iggy Katona, who has won practically every type of racing event on wheels during his lengthy career.

Incidentally, Iggy's son, Jim, serves as his entire "pit crew".

Frank Canale, Adrian track manager for the new operating firm of Marcum Promotions, Inc., reports that the Speedway oval will be in its best shape in years for the '55 opener.

Indians Win in Golf, Drop 2 Baseball Games and Their Track Meet

Tecumseh High School had a rocky road in sports last week, winning only one of four events. The golf team was the only winner while the baseball team dropped two games and the track squad lost its meet.

This is a summary of the overall record:

In golf—Tecumseh, 12½; Bedford, 3½.

In baseball — Monroe Catholic Central, 7; Tecumseh, 3. Airport Community, 18; Tecumseh, 1.

In track—Monroe Catholic Central, 59 7/10; Tecumseh, 49 3/10.

In the golf match Max Smith was low with 84. Dave Lamkin had 85; D. Baker 89; and Dave Elliott 91.

Monroe Catholic Central had a 7-0 lead when the Indians came to bat in the fifth inning and rallied for three runs. Dennis Farley started the rally with a solid single.

Monroe posted four runs in the first inning to get a head start and added a brace of runs in the second and a lone counter in the fourth.

Each team made eight hits. Spreeman, Scutt and Benham furnished the local battery.

The Indians were clobbered by Airpotr Community, 18-1.

The Jets had an 18-0 lead when Tecumseh avoided a shut-out by posting a lone run in the top of the seventh.

The Jets had three big innings, scoring five in the second, six in the third, five again in the fifth and adding two in the sixth.

Tecumseh could manage only one hit while making six errors.

Airport banged out 14 hits, in- [illegible] two triples by Meyer and a homer and two singles by Hatcher.

Scutt, Spreeman and Larned paraded to the mound for the Indians while Benham was behind the plate.

A lack of second place winners again proved the Indians' downfall in the track meet. They won six events and tied another but were able to pick up only three seconds while Central won five firsts and tied for a first and won six second places.

Ritchie Davis again led the thinclads. He won the 100 yd. dash in 10.6; the 220 in 24.8; and tied Lipford and Van Clambrouck of Central in the high jump at 5' 2".

Other Tecumseh winners were Bill Browne, mile run, 5:06.8; Jim Bowser, 440-yard dash, :56; Ken Miller, 880-yard run, 2:08.2; and Bill Scutt, shot put, 38' nine".

Sand Creek Blanks Britton

The Sand Creek Aggies blanked the Britton Tories in baseball last week, 4-0.

The Tories were able to garner only three hits off the slants of Doug Sandborn, Sand Creek hurler. He fanned nine and walked five.

VanValkenburg, Tory pitcher, was reached for eight hits, including homers by Bob Clark and Gary Sears.

Sand Creek posted single runs in the first and third innings and added a pair of markers in the fifth.

The win gave the Aggies a 3-0 record in the Little Six. Britton has a 0-4 league record.

Five league games will be played in softball and a complete home and home basketball schedule will be laid out next winter.

In the first games Boysville clobbered Ann Arbor, 25-7; Ypsi edged Deerfield, 13-12 and Milan beat St. Elizabeth's, 17-7.

Salute Our Hospital

National Hospital Week being observed nationally this week offers a fine opportunity to take stock of our hospitals, particularly Herrick Memorial hospital.

Theme of this special week "your hospital . . . a tradition of service" best sums up hospitals' accomplishments and continuing goals.

Let's take a look at some of the facts about Herrick Memorial hospital for 1954. There were 2079 admissions for bed care; 522 babies were born; 1120 emergencies were cared for, but not admitted to a bed; the average stay for all patients during the year was seven days (the national average is nine days); the daily average number of patients in the hospital was 36, plus eight new-born babies; 15,887 days of nursing care were given; 36 physicians cared for patients.

These are impressive figures, but more impressive is the long list of persons behind the figures. City councilmen, members of the hospital board, the hospital staff, the physicians and members of the hospital auxiliary all have worked as a team to give the Tecumseh area one of the finest small city hospitals in the state.

But members of this team can't do it all, no matter how much effort they put forth. They have received a lot of help from persons and groups interested in making the hospital better and to ease the care of the patients confined there.

These are just a few of the many acts that have helped to beautify and to make the local hospital better: the Tecumseh Garden Club, with the help of Cub Scouts, landscaped the grounds; the auxiliary furnished the children's ward and through its activities members have contributed for the kitchen, for scholarships, for a hospital cart and for an oxygen tent; the Mary Schneerer fund has provided more needed equipment; Brownies, Cub Scouts and members of Sunday School classes have made and contributed tray favors for patients; the American Legion contributed a plaque commemorating the late Dr. H. H. Hammel's untiring efforts in working for a local hospital.

And during the past year an anonymous giver contributed two X-rays that put Herrick Memorial hospital on a level with the finest hospitals in the nation in providing its patients with the finest and most complete X-ray service available.

We have come to rely increasingly on our hospital as a health center, yet too often we take its many activities too much for granted.

National Hospital Week provides us with an opportunity to recognize these activities that take place in our hospital and it gives us the chance to salute the entire hospital team and those whose time and contributions continually make it a finer place of service.

. . . And Another Aspect

Herrick Memorial hospital serves a wide area. In addition to Tecumseh it serves cities, villages and townships in Lenawee, Washtenaw and Monroe County, not to mention the accident transient cases many of which are from out of state.

With this ever-increasing area of service comes increased costs. Our hospital through efficient administration has been able up to the present to cope with these costs.

But it should have a better "cushion" on which to work. The hospital is a city hospital but Tecumseh can't — nor should it be expected to — carry all the burden. There are ways in which the economic burdens of running an up-to-date hospital can be shared.

One of these is through a People's Community Hospital Authority. For many years Beyer Memorial Hospital at Ypsilanti has been kept operating in this way. The Legislature several years ago set up an enabling act whereby communities could band together and assess themselves for hospital purposes. Even townships under this act can by law pay into a hospital fund.

In our service area there are any number of cities, villages and townships that could pay a mill or two for hospital purposes. They are using our hospital; they probably would not mind helping to pay to make it better.

The matter is worthy of the attention of the hospital board. It should be investigated.

"I know you serve as agent for the seller of property," a friend said the other day, "but do you also try to protect the buyer?"

"Indeed," I said. "A deal isn't a good deal unless it is fair to both parties."

"Can you point out any specific ways you help a buyer?"

"Sure. In the first place we furnish considerable information on the property. But if a buyer is hesitant, let us say because of the heating plant, we urge him to check with a heating expert. We want him to be 100 per cent satisfied."

I continued, "If a buyer needs a certain size or kind of loan to handle the purchase, we make the contract subject to this condition. If proper financing can't be arranged, the deal is called off and his money refunded.

"Then, too, we are often able to help him in obtaining financing, selling his other property, and in finding the right kind of real estate."

"In other words," the friend said, "your firm tries to guide and protect a buyer of property through your office."

"Exactly," I answered.

May we help you find the right property?

OVER 2,000,000 MORE PEOPLE IN THE UNITED STATES, are alive, this year, because in 1954, Medical Science has raised the average life expectancy a whole year. Last year the average person lived 69.9 years.

THE BIBLE PROMISES US at least three score and ten years. There is no real reason why everyone should not live to be more than one hundred.

ALL YOU NEED IS FAITH, and the will to live properly. If you wait until you are seriously sick before calling a Physician, you may be taking years away from your life.

RESEARCH WORKERS, PHARMACEUTICAL CHEMISTS, PHYSICIANS AND PHARMACISTS, are all united in a great effort to help you to live longer, and to enjoy those added years. In our Pharmacy are the medicines and vitamins that can help to accomplish this purpose. But you must give your Physician the opportunity to help you more by calling him at the first sign of illness.

Grade School Notes

Grade Four—Central
Mrs. Bailey

April Smith and Michael Deaner are the only children who have birthdays this month and they are the same day—the twenty-fourth.

We made tulips and a fence to decorate our room. Now we are working on posters. We can choose anything we want to. Some of the things we have chosen are the animals, flowers, cars, birds, houses, boats, and flags.

Mrs. Bailey has finished reading the book "Heidi" and is now reading "Treasure Island" to us.

In Social Studies we are learning about some of our great Americans. So far we have read about George Washington and Benjamin Franklin. We have found some pictures of these men.

We all know that we are in the last six weeks period of the school year. We are working hard so we will be good fifth graders next year.

Grade Four—Central
Mrs. Whiting

Dean McCarley has been chosen as our April Citizen of the Month. John Hartley, Tommy Smith and Kenneth Southwell all have birthdays this month.

We all enjoyed our Easter vacation and are beginning to count the days until summer vacation.

For our Easter decorations Danny Carpenter drew a mural of Jesus and the two thieves on the cross. We also made four pictures depicting the life of Christ. Bradley McCombs decorated the bulletin board with a paper window box of tulips.

We were entertained on April 13 by the Davies family, who sang a variety of songs. They were here last year, too.

The boys and girls are now having gym classes outside when the weather permits.

The neatest papers are being placed on our bulletin board each day.

We are multiplying two figures in dollars and cents now. In reading we are on our third book. We have finished our science books and are almost through our social studies book. The last unti in that is about famous people. In language we are writing stories about these people. In geography we are studying about 12 children of China.

Grade Five—Patterson
Mrs. Osburn

Our room has the display case in the main hall, across from the Principal's office. We have made a display about Michigan. Billie Truesdale drew a large map of Michigan, on which we put pictures of products and recreations in Michigan. Several of us brought automobiles manufactured in Detroit, the automobile center of the world. Tim Whitney, Alice Shirley, Kent Naugle and Bob French brought minerals and stones. Tim brought some rare green stones that are found only on Isle Royal. We also wrote stories about Michigan cities. We put quite a number of them in the case also. Billie Truesdale built a model of the Soo Locks, which is very interesting.

Mary Jean Cleveland has rheumatic fever and will not be able to return to school this year.

We have finished our basic readers and are now reading "Trails to Treasure."

Garde Six—Patterson
Mr. Kaiser

We are enjoying the new softball field. The gym classes use it during the school day. The fifth and sixth grade boys use it before and after school. The girls and lower grades use the old diamond.

Thursday, May 26, we expect to visit Greenfield Village and the museum. Our chartered bus will pick us up at eight in the morning. We are taking our own lunches. The bus will bring us back about four in the afternoon.

We did not have enough girls in our room for two softball teams. Therefore, the fifth and sixth grade girls are having a combined gym program.

Grade Five—Central
Mrs. Sclater

Spring is here, and we all have spring fever. We are just counting the days until school is out.

We were sorry to have Betty Bowers and Virginia Tolley leave us. There now are 30 boys and girls in our room.

In Health we are studying about the prevention of disease. This unit is very interesting since we all have been hearing so much about polio vaccine.

In Language we are learning how to make reports. Now we are all making reports in all of our classes.

We have had two birthdays in our room. They are Jean Packard and David Crosby.

Grade Six—Central
Mrs. Crawford

We are getting anxious for the end of school and our trip to Greenfield Village. John Winzler brought his view master and a strip of film showing scenes from Greenfield Village so we have an idea of what we will see there.

Most of us agreed to work for a better grade in every subject this last six weeks. There will be extra assignments which we may do to add to our regular marks. We have finished our science books so we will have an added study time also.

Mrs. Anna Grigg was an afternoon visitor recently.

April birthdays for Dorothy Mackey, Thelma Richardson, Paul Underwood, and Charlene Sowers.

4-H Sunday Set for May 15

Boys and girls in Lenawee county 4-H clubs are planning special events and services for the annual 4-H Club Sunday, set for May 15.

Lenawee County 4-H Club Agent James Pelham reports that special services are being conducted in many of the rural churches in the county.

The agent points out that the 4-H'ers wish by this recognition to place emphasis on the meaning and value of Christianity in rural life. Some boys and girls will follow the lead of other Michigan 4-H'ers by conducting entire regular Sunday services, holding special services, youth programs or candlelight service, attending as a 4-H club unit, providing choir numbers, acting as ushers; or providing programs or flowers for the altar.

Agent Pelham reports that such programs have been held in Michigan communities for many years.

Phone Workers Choose AFL

The National Labor Relations Board on April 5 ordered an election to be held between the AFL-IBEW and the Communication Workers of America, CIO, to determine which organization would represent the employee in the plant department and traffic department of the General Telephone Company of Michigan.

The election was completed May 2, in accordance with the NLRB order and a majority of the ballots cast for the respective parties were in favor of retention of the IBEW-AFL as bargaining agent for affected employees. Balloting was as follows: plant department, IBEW-AFL, 187; CWA-CIO, 110; traffic department, IBEW-AFL, 313; CWA-CIO, 151.

In a normal course of events, the board will certify the AFL-IBEW unit as the proper bargaining agent for the employees of the General Telephone Company of Michigan.

Everything it takes to be "TOPS"

STANDARD GASOLINES
... balanced for top power, economy, and all 'round performance
... and raised to the Highest Octane levels in our history

We are mighty proud of our new gasolines. They have been stepped up to the highest octane ratings in our history . . . designed to give knock-free performance in the most modern of high compression engines, and older cars as well. But important as octane is, good gasolines need something more. They must be balanced too. STANDARD WHITE CROWN and RED CROWN Gasolines are balanced to give you top performance, with controlled volatility—the right gasoline for the right season—with no vapor lock even in the hottest summer weather.

Try a tankful of one of these clean-burning, high octane, balanced gasolines today, and prove to yourself that there is a difference in gasolines.

Are all gasolines pretty much the same?

NO, THEY'RE NOT. Standard's research brings you the best in gasolines. And we guard their quality from refinery to your car through exclusive terminals, lake tankers, river barges, pipelines, tank cars and trucks. No gasolines arrive at or go out of our terminals but Standard Gasolines. That's why they are distinctly different!

You expect more from STANDARD and get it!

POWER—Pontiac's husky 200-horsepower Strato-Streak V-8 with four-barrel carburetor, optional at low extra cost, delivers more power than any car within hundreds of dollars of its price. And road records show this power is teamed with the greatest economy in Pontiac history.

STYLE—No car at any price is so beautifully distinctive. Pontiac's future-fashioned Twin-Streak styling and Vogue Two-Toning set it apart from all other cars—point the way to tomorrow.

SIZE—Pontiac is a big car where it counts—with a long, road-hugging 122" or 124" wheelbase. On any road, at any speed, you enjoy the feeling of genuine fine-car size.

COMFORT—Pontiac's extra size means big-car comfort—room to stretch out and relax. Wide-stance rear springs and Shock-Proof chassis float you along in luxury style.

If you were to guess Pontiac's price on the basis of its style, performance and size, you'd surely guess hundreds of dollars higher than its actual cost. Pontiac measures up with the finest on any point of comparison—except price.

It's a simple matter of fact that you can buy a big, powerful Pontiac for less than many models of the lowest-priced cars and much less than stripped economy models of higher-priced makes!

After a close inspection of Pontiac's luxury and quality and a few miles commanding its mighty 200-horsepower Strato-Streak V-8, buyers from both ends of the price scale are switching to Pontiac in record-breaking numbers. Come in soon for the clinching facts and figures. You'll make the very pleasant discovery that if you can afford any new car, you can afford a big, powerful Pontiac—and step directly into the fine-car class!

Hard Water Increases Expenses

If you live in a hard water area—85 per cent of the nation's home-owners do—hardness in the water is running up hidden charge against you, which do not appear on your water bill, the Plumbing and Heating Industries bureau says.

What are some of these charges, which you may not recognize as having anything to do with the nature of your water supply? For one thing, the monthly budget outlay for soaps, detergents, lyes, bleaches, and packaged softeners, required to counteract the effects of hard water and get things clean. Right here, you might save as much as $4.10 a month with a home water softener, the bureau points out.

Or, take such washables as sheets, towels, shirts, nylon stockings, and various other items of clothing that go into the automatic clothes washer. Repeated laundering in hard water makes them wear out 25 per cent sooner, due to the fabric-weakening effect of soap scum buildup. This means the additional budgeting of $3.60 a month, on the average, for replacement. A water softener would change this from a debit to a credit item.

Hard water scale buildup in water supply piping may mean eventual costly plumbing repairs or replacement. Figure this at about $3 a month added to your household maintenance budget Scale also acts as an insulator in that water heater tank, preventing heat from getting through. As a result, you pay more than you should have to for heating water —say $6 additional yearly to your utility company, as a safe estimate. Your monthly bill at the drugstore for shampoos, hand lotions, and shaving cream may be $1.50 more than it need be, on the average, because hard water uses them up at a fast rate.

Soft water is a decided economy in the long run, reminds the bureau. The cost of hard water far exceeds the cost of water softening equipment within a period of a few years. Softeners may be bought outright from a plumbing contractor or dealer in plumbing connected appliances, or rented from a water softening service organizaion on a month-to-month basis.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

A slave baby became one of the world's greatest agricultural scientists and benefactors of the human race. He had no name of his own, so he was called by that of the man who owned his mother, old man Carver.

Before his death in 1943, George W. Carver had brought incalculable benefits to farmers of the south through his discoveries, especially new ways of using peanuts, sweet potatoes, pecans. But he arrived at distinction the hard way. In babyhood he had been kidnapped with his mother by slave-thieves. He was rescued but his mother was never heard of again. Emancipation had now come and the little black boy was free.

At twenty-six he was admitted to Simpson College and next year transferred to Iowa State College in order to equip himself for service among his people in the South as an agricultural expert. He made a notable record as a student and upon graduation was appointed assistant in botany. Then in 1896 he went to Tuskegee Institute in Alabama, where he remained throughout his distinguished career.

Dr. Carver was also a genius in the realm of the spirit. Truly he walked with God. In an unforgetable visit with him, he told us about his practice of going out into the fields very early in the morning and "getting his directions for the day."

This slave child grew into a black man who had to live in a white man's world. Discrimination and segregation were the diet of a life-time for this holy man of God. Other men who were his inferiors in learning and culture, who stood planes below him in Christian stature, demanded that he "keep in his place." Little did they realize that George Washington Carver did keep in his place as a gifted child of God.

IT'S ALL BUICK

for only $2253.88* delivered locally!

YOU certainly can throw out your chest and call this Buick yours.

Because—as comparison shows—the dollar difference between this brawny beauty and the well-known smaller cars is virtually erased.

So if you've been thinking a Buick was out of reach—let yourself go. You can afford a Buick if you can afford any new car—and the price we show here proves it.

Buick Sales Soaring To New Highs

That's a major reason for the phenomenal success of Buick today. So much so, that production and sales are hitting new peaks to move Buick more firmly into the tight circle of America's best sellers.

And a companion reason for this soaring popularity is Buick's full line of cars to give you a choice in any price class—the bedrock-priced SPECIAL, the high-powered CENTURY, the extra-roomy SUPER, and the custom-built ROADMASTER.

But pure and simple, it's all the car you get for your money that's winning so many new owners to Buick.

It's the extra pride you feel, the extra room you enjoy, the extra comfort you get, the extra safety you sense—from Buick styling, Buick size, Buick ride-engineering, Buick solidity of structure.

It's the extra lift and snap and ginger you get from Buick high-compression V8 power—and the fun and thrill of bossing such eager might.

As we said—if you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick—even with the spectacular performance of Variable Pitch Dynaflow† at modest extra cost.

So why settle for anything less than a Buick? Drop in on us, take the wheel, press that pedal, and see for yourself what a whale of an automobile—and a whale of a buy—today's Buick really is.

†Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series

*2-door, 6-passenger Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 48, illustrated. Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities. Even the factory-installed extras you may want are bargains, such as: Heater & Defroster—$81.70; Radio & Antenna—$92.50.

DID YOU KNOW—

☆ —that the Buick SPECIAL is priced below any other car of 188 horsepower and 122-inch wheelbase?

☆ —that the Buick SPECIAL is priced below some models of the three well-known smaller cars?

☆ —that the Buick SPECIAL includes as standard equipment at no extra cost a long list of items usually charged for as "extras" by other cars—items such as direction signals, automatic lighting of glove compartment, variable speed windshield wipers with vacuum booster, and so on?

☆ —that the Buick SPECIAL gives you more pounds of automobile than any other car at its low price?

Thrill of the year is Buick

F.F.A. Reviews Year's Activities

The boys of the Tecumseh Chapter of Future Farmers of America started the year under the leadership of Phillip Young, president; John Cadmus, vice president; Charles Hendershot, secretary; John Wilt, treasurer; Edwin Lewis, reporter, and Herbert Quigley, sentinel.

The boys started last spring with a spraying program on our test plots on Adrian street with the cooperation of Professor Grigsby of Michigan State University. The tests proved highly successful in controlling weeds and sold most of the boys on spraying.

During the summer the officers attended the leadership training camp at Wolf Lake in Jackson County. The object of the camp is to train boys for their respective offices for the coming year.

In Aug. we combined our oats on Adrian street. Of the four acres combined one-half of the plots yielded 45 bushels per acre. The other half yielded 58 bushels per acre. The reason for the increase in yields is that the one half was top dressed with 26 pounds of actual nitrogen per acre. The four acres averaged 52 bushels per acre as compared to 35 bushels per acre last year.

After school started we put in six acres of wheat and represented Tecumseh High School at the Lenawee County fair judging contests. The boys took first place in, and received a banner for, crops-pests and disease and also tied Morenci for the sweepstakes banner for having the high total score in all contests.

The local chapter also took second place in crops and in dairy, third place in livestock and fourth place in the poultry judging contests.

The latter part of Sept. the boys drilled six acres of wheat on Adrian street and north of the school.

In Oct. the chapter initiated 15 green hands which brought the total membership to 45.

In Nov. we dressed chickens from our broiler project that was raised by John Cadmus and put on our annual parent and son banquet. Speaker for the banquet was George Parsons of Michigan State University and former agriculture teacher at Tecumseh.

Also in Nov. members of the Ag III class attended the International Harvester crawler tractor plant, the Ingersoll steel plant, a division of Borg-Warner, the board of trade building where they saw grain auctioned off. They also saw the Museum of Natural History, Shedd Acquarium, and Addler Planetarium.

In Dec. we held our annual Christmas party where games were played.

Jan. and Feb. were inactive months with the boys working mostly on class work and group projects.

In March the boys of the farm shop class constructed a trailer from a car axle and wheels with a wooden box. We plan to use the trailer to haul fertilizer, etc. for our group projects.

April's coming brought on the spring work. The boys top dressed the wheat with 26 per cent nitrogen and drilled four acres of oats on Adrian street.

We killed and sold the broilers raised by Roger Finnegan and tied for second place in the chicken of tomorrow contest that the birds were entered in.

The chapter also rented 20 more acres of land for corn this spring and now is in the process of fitting and planting it. The 20 rented acres added to the ground we already have will make about 40 acres to work.

The chapter is now taking on the task of raising enough money to buy a new tractor, plow, and cultivator for our work on the test plots.

The Tecumseh chapter was rated as one of the top 15 chapters in the state last year and received a gold award for this rating.

Man's true selfhood as a spiritual child of God—possessing dominion over sin, sickness, and mortality—will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon "Mortals and Immortals."

Among the passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following: "Immortal man was and is God's image or idea, even the infinite expression of infinite Mind, and immortal man is coexistent and coeternal with that Mind . . . Immortal man is not and never was material, but always spiritual and eternal" (336:9-12, 16).

Scriptural selections will include the following from Psalms (1:1, 6): "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful . . . For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish."

First graders had their polio shots last Thursday. Sixth graders visited Tecumseh High School so the rest of us went on a hike. We found some frog eggs and have them at school. Now they are poliwogs. We are watching them develop.

Our school picnic will be at Wamplers Lake Wednesday, June 1. All parents are invited. Bring sandwiches for your family and a passing dish.

We went to the music festival with Mrs. Vaughn and Mrs. Woods. And we had ice cream cones.

Andy Heistand was a recent visitor.

Ricky Leske and Hicidro Martinez are back in school after bouts with the mumps.

The Bookmobile will come for the last time next month. We have enjoyed having it because we can read many stories and poems.

New officers of our citizenship club are Anthony Sullivan, president; Rosie Martinez, vice-president; Robert Comfort, secretary; Richard Teske, treasurer; and safety patrol captain, David Woods. Helpers are Christine Finnigan, Carolyn Woods, Linda Budurt. When some one is absent Diane Handy and Josie Martinez will take his or her place.

Mrs. Vaughn has many pretty bouquets of flowers on her desk.

Mrs. Gobba, our teacher for next year, visited us.

The third grade is learning to multiply and divide. They know their twos and threes.

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

THE GLAMOUR THAT WAS CO. C

There are probably sound military reasons why enlistments and inductions are such starkly solitary affairs now-a-days. It is even difficult to realize that it was not always so; that there really was a time when "the boys marched away to war" with bands playing and flags flying. But when Tecumseh's Co. C, the unit which this week will play reunion host, left for the Spanish American War the whole town almost went with them.

They were a part of the Michigan State troops but they were also a closely knit local organization. And colorful was the name for Co. C! They drilled indefatigably during the long evenings but, in time of peace, they were almost as much social as military. No parade or other gala affair was complete without them.

At first they drilled on the second floor of Tindall and Slayton's Farm Implement store (now DesErmia's furniture) and then in that square, one story, brick structure which now houses the offices of Moore's Lumber Co. Built originally as a store house for the Hayden Milling Co., the "Armory," as it is still thought of by older inhabitants, was purchased by the company in the early 1890's and was not only a drill ground but dance pavillion and social center as well. At least one Military Ball is recorded during this period, an affair of grand march, crossed sabers, beautiful ladies and dashing uniforms.

Captain William Hayden was company commander then, and a very popular figure. He had followed Capt. Fred B. Wood, who had gone on to higher rank in the state organization. A still earlier leader had been A. L. Lawrence.

They were a democratic outfit too, for a copy of the Tecumseh Herald of 1895 records—"The election held by Co. C last Tuesday resulted in the choice of William Hayden as Captain; Samuel R. McClure, First Lt.; W. R. Ross, Second Lt. and Scove Walker as First Sgt."

Each year, of course, they went to camp and one summer, bicycling then being at its height of popularity, about 30 young men decided to visit them at Island Lake. They made it. But that was a long way under "two-leg" power and just two of the demon cyclists could ride back next day.

There is a picture of Co. C taken in 1894 under the trees of Military Square, very swank, in Sam Brown belts, broad brim hats and leggings. Probably they looked like that when, military band and all, they marched into church behind the Grand Army veterans on the Sundays before Memorial Day. And no doubt they were just as neat and trim when they marched to the station to entrain for Island Lake and far off Cuba that day in May, 1898, with all the town there to see them off.

Tragedy touched them almost before they were on their way. Island Lake was an induction center and their well liked Captain Hayden, already affected by the lung ailment which was to cause his untimely death, could not pass the physical tests. First Lt. Tom Kyle took his place and Co. C went on.

Perhaps they were more worn and weary than dashing when they came back in May, 1899, but to Tecumseh they were Co. C and bathed in glory. The town turned out en mass to welcome them home. There was a parade, a reception at the Opera House and a dinner (on the town) at the armory. Unfortunately there were also speeches at the Opera House, which as speeches will, went on and on, until one exasperated lady (who had, no doubt, been trying to keep mashed potatoes hot) arrived from the armory and announced in stentorian tones, "These boys are hungry; they need more food and less talk."

And Co. C was home again.

98 Spanish War Veterans Gather for Reunion

For the 55th time since that May 17th in 1899 when they were mustered out following their service in the Spanish American War, veterans of the 31st Michigan Volunteer Infantry gathered for a reunion Saturday. The local Palmer Gray Post was host and dinner and program were at the American Legion home.

There were 98 places filled at the tables when the Legion Auxiliary served a chicken dinner. Veterans were there from New York, Grand Marias, Iowa, Detroit, Parma, Rapid City, Jackson, Ann Arbor, Monroe, Lansing and Adrian. Although he was not a member of the Post, Scovel Walker of Roscommon, 90 years of age and the oldest surviving member of Co. C, registered and was greeted by old friends.

The Rev. Alvin Brazee, master of ceremonies, as well as Mayor Hanna who was present to welcome the guests, delved back into their boyhood memories for many reminiscences of the '90s and Co. C.

Commanders Harold Warren and Lyle Grigg of the V.F.W. and Legion brought greetings from their organizations. Sandra Copeland gave her stirring declamation "This I Pledge" and a solo by Mrs. Arthur Schwartz with Mrs. William Hayden as accompanist, closed the program.

Reminiscences, songs and stories of their more active days made the day a very pleasant one for the veterans and their wives and families and all appreciated the efforts of Mrs. Fred Marsh, who as president of the Auxiliary of Palmer-Gray Post was responsible for much of the success of the event.

Councilmen Monday night passed an emergency curfew ordinance. Effective immediately, the ordinance, patterned after a similar village ordinance that was automatically revoked when Tecumseh became a city, was passed "to preserve the health and morals of this community."

All minors under 18 will have to be off the streets by 10 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and by 11 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

The ordinance provides, however, that a person under 18 "if accompanied by his parent or guardian . . . or performing an errand for his parent or guardian . . . or lawfully employed" may be on the streets after the 10 and 11 p.m. curfew hours.

City police are authorized by the ordinance to arrest persons violating the ordinance.

Under the provisions of the ordinance both minors and their parents or guardians if found guilty of violating the ordinance may be punished "by a fine of $50 or by a prison term of 30 days" or by both the fine and prison term.

The ordinance was acted upon immediately under a provision in the city charter which provides for emergency measures to preserve the health and morals of the community.

The request for the ordinance came from Neville Hart, high school principal, who told councilmen of instances where local students had been beaten by "outside gangs."

Principal Hart thought such an ordinance would protect Tecumseh's young people since police would be able to check persons on the street late at night. It would have a two-pronged effect. First, it would keep local young people off the street late at night so they would not be attacked and seondly, it would give police "more teeth" to deal with outsiders who come to town to commit distrubances.

The principal said he was not seeking to alarm any one with the idea that the situation is out of hand but, he added, "let's nip this thing right now before it gets out of hand and one of our students gets seriously hurt."

He pointed out that the school could make provisions for dances that would not conflict with provisions of the ordinance.

Principal Hart also pointed out that the present situation needs the joint cooperation of city officials, the police, school personnel and parents.

Hospitality Day Dinner Attended by 200 Here

About 200 persons attended the Michigan Week hospitality day dinner held in the Products Workers' Union Hall Tuesday night.

They heard a long list of Michigan "firsts" described by George F. Taubeneck, editor and publisher of "Refrigeration News."

Introduced by Larry Larsen, Mr. Taubeneck asked "Is Michigan a State or a State of Mind?"

He said most of us are not aware of the uniqueness of our great state. "We should be proud of what we have and let others know about it," he said.

Dr. Robert J. Murray, toastmaster, introduced guests and the Rev. Horace L. James pronounced the invocation.

The Tecumseh Music Club, directed by Mrs. John McColl, and accompanied by Mrs. William Hayden, sang several numbers.

The dinner, jointly sponsored by the Exchange, Rotary, Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce, Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce and the Business and Professional Women, was served by the Tecumseh Grange.

Boy Scouts checked coats.

Jaycees Complete Plans for Road-e-o

Plans have been completed for the first annual teen-age driving road-e-o sponsored by the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The road-e-o, to be held on north Ottawa street at 2 p.m. Sunday, May 29, will consist of written examinations and a skill test involving driving through prescribed exercises such as parking, smooth stopping and others.

All teen-agers, boys and girls, who hold driving permits or licenses are eligible to enter this safe driving contest.

Engraved wall plaques will be presented to Tecumseh's three highest scoring contestants. The local winner in this national Jaycee contest will be eligible to compete in the state road-e-o June 4, in Lansing. State winners compete for $3,000 in scholarships in a natoinal contest July 25-29 in Washington, D. C.

Bob Murray, local Jaycee president, said four subcommittees have been organized under the general co-chairmanships of Pete Dermeyer and Elwin Merx to carry out various aspects of this safe driving program.

"By emphasizing the rules of the road and the skills needed for safe driving, we intend to give local youths a chance to prove that some of America's best drivers are teen-agers," the road-e-o committee said.

Application blanks for the local road-e-o can be obtained at the Tecumseh Police Department, high school and at all automobile dealers.

Entries must be returned to these points or to any Jaycee prior to 6 p.m. Saturday, May 28.

No Wonder "I'm Glad I Live In Mich."

Michigan has a rich and fabulous history . . .

Fourteen years after the Pilgrims landed in America (1620), French explorers and fur traders came to Michigan.

The first permanent settlements were made at Sault Ste. Marie, in 1668, and at Saint Ignace, in 1671, by Father Dablon and Father Marquette.

The Upper Peninsula, originally part of the Indiana Territory, was incorporated into Michigan as compensation for the loss of a narrow strip of land in the northern portion of Ohio and Indiana.

Four flags — Spanish (1731), French (1634-1763), English (1763-1796) and American (1796 to the present) — have flown over Michigan.

Michigan is the largest state east of the Mississippi . . .

Michigan has the longest shoreline of any state: 3,121 miles. This equals the length of the Atlantic Coast from Florida to Maine.

The Great Lakes, in their entirety, form the largest body of fresh water in the world. Michigan is bordered by four of the five Great Lakes.

Michigan, in total land area, is larger than Greece, four times the size of Belgium, and larger than Switzerland and Portugal combined. 36,777,200 acres comprise this state's land area.

Michigan is a land of plenty . . .

Michigan's 937,687 acres of forest lead all other states.

Ninety-five percent of the world's supply of bird's-eye maple comes from forests in the Upper Peninsula.

Michigan mines nearly thirty percent of the nation's salt. Detroit, the center of the state's salt production, has one of the most modern salt mines in the world located beneath it.

The only large commercial deposit of native copper in the world is found in the "Copper Country" of Michigan. In the last century, nearly 5,000,000 tons have been mined here.

Michigan ranks first in America in the production of calcium-magnesium chlorides, gypsum and salt; second in bromine, iron ore, sand and gravel; third in natural magnesium compounds; fourth in stone and peat.

Michigan is the fifth greatest industrial state in the nation . . .

Michigan is the automobile center of the world. In value of shipments of passenger cars, Michigan stands first with 52.9 per cent of America's total.

There are 10,000 factories in Michigan which employ 1,011,074 persons.

Michigan stands second among the ten ranking industrial states in the value of products per worker.

Michigan ranks first in the nation in percentage of income derived from manufacturing.

Our state is first in the manufacture of gray iron, cutting tools, woodworking, machinery and cereal preparations.

Detroit, the industrial capital of the world, with the largest number of factory workers per capita and the largest volume of manufactured products, and the most prosperous big city in America, is located in Michigan.

Michigan is the most self-sufficient food producer in the nation . . .

Michigan ranks tenth or better in production of the nation's twenty major crops, although only twenty-second in area.

One of the most important fruit belts, the "Fruit Basket of the Middle West," is found along the eastern shore of Lake Michigan.

Michigan farmers won the "International Wheat King" title in 1951 and 1952.

Michigan leads the nation in production of sour cherries, navy beans, cantaloupes, celery, cucumber pickles, and strawberries for market.

Kalamazoo is the celery center of the world.

Michigan is among the nation's four leading producers of commercial apples.

Only four other states equal Michigan's sugar beet production.

Michigan is a vacationland . . .

One of the four principal sources of income to Michigan is the tourist industry.

Michigan has 11,037 inland lakes, 36,350 miles of streams and 3,121 miles of Great Lakes shoreline — four times as much water-covered area as any other state.

A sportsman's paradise, Michigan usually outranks all other states in the sale of hunting and fishing licenses.

Michigan has more state parks than any other state. Porcupine Mountain State Park, in the Upper Peninsula, is the largest state park in America, with 41,925 acres of timber highlands.

Michigan's public lands include 3,600,000 acres in state forests, 2,400,000 acres in national forests and 92,000 acres in state game areas.

Michigan has long been a leader in education . . .

Michigan was the first state to appoint a State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Michigan's educational system has been used as a model in nearly all of the western states.

Michigan stands third in the number of students enrolled in institutions of higher learning.

Founded in 1817, the University of Michigan is regarded as the "Mother of State Universities" because of its leadership in the development of state-supported higher education.

Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti, established in 1849, was the first teachers' training institution west of the Alleghenies.

Michigan State College, established in 1855, was the first agricultural college in America and the Pioneer Land Grant Institution. It is celebrating it Centennial Year now.

The Michigan College of Mining and Technology in Houghton is one of America's leading technical schools.

Richard Widmark, Susan Hayward and Gary Cooper form the trio of fortune seekers in the technicolor, Cinemascope production "Garden of Evil."

State Has Scored Important Health Firsts

Michigan people have scored important "firsts" in public health.

State Health Commissioner, Dr. Albert E. Heustis hails pacemaking health gains in all age groups, "from grandparents to new born."

The Health Commisisoner says few if any states can match the public health progress made by Michigan people.

Advances, he said, have been cooked up with this recipe: "one part science, one part medicine, one part alert Michigan families with a good pinch of pride and common sense."

Records show Michigan's health department was the first state agency in the nation to distribute blood plasma to hospitals and physicians for civilian use.

Michigan is also listed as the leading state in providing community programs for the application of sodium fluoride solution to the teeth of youngsters.

The state health department had the first mobile chest X-ray unit in the country—secured in October, 1940.

And Michigan's program for screening children for defective vision was the first of its kind in the nation undertaken on a statewide basis.

Growing community health services reflect the interest of Michigan people, Dr. Heustis said..

"And there, too," he added, "is our best promise for coming generations. Michigan's public health prognosis is bright with hope."

Robin's Song Means Work--- Not Play

The Robin's joyful and delightfully varied song isn't just for fun, it means he's on the job, says Harry W. Hann, assistant professor of zoology at the University of Michigan.

For while the female is busy with the nest, the male stands guard and sings frequently. Singing not only keeps the female informed as to his whereabouts, but serves notice to all other Robins that this particular territory is occupied.

As a matter of fact, the male Robin has an important role, both in nest building and later in the feeding of the young, indicates the professor. In addition to the male's duties as guardian of the nest, he frequently accompanied the female on her trips for material, and may even carry some himself.

Credit for most of the nest building, however, must go to his lady. One very characteristic process is to "mould" the nest by shaking her body violently, then rotating slightly and moulding again. The direction of rotation is said to be reversed following each trip for material. As the nest building proceeds, the female slows down in her work, and spends some time resting in the nest. Finally when the eggs are laid the sitting becomes constant.

I'm glad I live in Michigan
MICHIGAN WEEK May 15-21

The male Robin pitches in again, after the eggs hatch, helping mother carry large quantities of caterpillars, cutworms and earthworms to the greedy young. Growth in the young birds is phenomenal, the weight being nearly doubled on the day following hatching.

At the end of ten or 12 days the young birds are nearly grown, and are ready to leave the nest. This is an exciting time for the parents and a critical time for the young, for large numbers fall prey to such enemies as the common house-cat.

There's one more job for papa, Professor Hann points out. Young Robins must be fed for some time after leaving the nest, and this is done largely by the male in the case of the first brood. Meanwhile the female begins to build a nest for a second brood, for two broods are usually raised, and sometimes a third.

Baptist Banquet Attended by 200

The annual mother-daughter banquet of the Baptist church held in the Youth House was attended by 202 feminine members of the congregation. Little Emily Manwaring gave the invocation and Mrs. Clifford Curran was the evening's toastmistress.

The tables were beautifully decorated for the occasion by spring flowers combined with pastel colored May poles and ceramic dolls representing the months of the year. These were the work of Mrs. Hal Kelso, who with Mrs. Vern Manwaring and Mrs. Herbert Dillon, formed the decorating committee. They were thanked by Mrs. Curran as were Mrs. Floyd Barrett, Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett and Mrs. Mills Swick, who headed the kitchen committee, Mr. Manwaring and the men who assisted him in serving the dinner and Mrs. Floyd Bryan who had been in charge of tickets.

The program of the evening in the church sanctuary had been planned by Mrs. B. O. Bashore and Mrs. E. H. McConnell and began in an informal fashion by the singing of "Happy Birthday" to Mrs. Fred Sheldon, whose birthday had been the day before. A group of girls led by Mrs. Sevedus Maples sang a welcome song and the traditional toast to the mothers was given by Mrs. Harold Easton and that to the daughters by Mrs. Robert Gillespie. "Dreaming" and the "Tap Tap Polka" were the two selections played by Marilyn Curtis as accordion solos.

Mrs. McConnell presented a tribute to Mrs. Harriet Knight, who at 92 was the oldest mother present; to Mrs. George Downard as the mother of the youngest baby, which was three weeks old; and to Mrs. George Green Jr. and Mrs. Edwin Gove as the mothers with the most daughters, each having three.

The speaker was Mrs. Walter Simmons, wife of the pastor of the United Brethren church at Ogden, who illustrated her talk with scene-o-felt pictures of mothers of the Bible, created as she spoke. The recitation of a group benediction closed the event.

Wayne U. Coeds Prepare Dutch Treats As Foreign Cookery Takes Limelight

Marieke Sellenraad, Holland-born Wayne University student, smilingly prepares a favorite Dutch recipe. She is wearing her native costume which she brought to this country from Bloemendaal, Holland. Majoring in occupational therapy, Marieke is now in clinical training.

Foreign cookery has been considered for a long time as a delicacy or something dabbled in only by gourmets or people who like to try unusual dishes as a novelty.

Wayne University students of home economics claim, however, that many foreign foods can be prepared easily and economically with foods produced in their home-state of Michigan.

The recipes that follow are real Dutch treats calling for colorful vegetables and wholesome dairy foods fresh from Michigan's farm lands.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

Every Christian is under obligation to help deliver the holy church from conformity to this world and to transform it into a more worthy channel through which the wisdom and power and love of God can flow into human society.

Thus it is not enough for us to be appreciative of the church and grateful to it, we must also pass judgment upon it. Listen to this admonition from the Oxford Conference, where representative Christians were gathered from all corners of the earth:

"The church is under obligation never to lose sight of its one supreme calling to bear costing witness, in deed as well as in word, to the higher way of Christ . . . This is the tragic and continuous tension in which the church is always placed, the tension between the pure ideals of the kingdom and the unredeemed community of men in which it has to live and bear its witness. But so soon as it seeks peace of becoming unconscious of that tension then it is traitorous to its Master and Lord . . ."

"All Christians acknowledge one Lord, whose claim upon them is such as to transcend all other loyalties. Here is the first obligation of the church, to be in living fact the church, a society with a unity so deep as to be indestructible by earthly divisions of race or nation or class . . .

"War involves compulsory enmity, diabolical outrages against human personality, and a wanton distortion of the truth. War is a particular demonstration of power of sin in this world and a defiance of the righteousness of God as revealed in Jesus Christ and him crucified. No justification of war should be allowed to conceal or minimize this fact."

For these reasons Quakers and many other Christians are unable to approve of the method of war or to engage in it.

A Michigan Week Special

By George W. Stark

Historiographer, City of Detroit

Michigan Week, this year celebrated from May 15 through May 21, puts an accent on our commonwealth, making us conscious of its industrial, cultural and natural resources, which are abundant. This alone should fill us with a pride in our State, make us glad that we live in Michigan.

But there is another phase of this operation that we must never forget. Michigan Week causes us to examine thoughtfully our background and our tradition. In Michigan, we are wonderfully equipped in this direction, for the Michigan story is lively and exciting and has a deep, rich background. This tapestry of history reaches back three centuries, involves many Old World nationals.

Some persons may give tradition short shrift, asking what good it is in a practical, machine-tooled world. Well, the world we now live in, for better or worse, came to its present status, because of the world we used to live in. Mankind cannot possibly have any awareness of where it is headed, unless it retains a deep, abiding consciousness of where it has been. That is history, if you please. Better still, that is tradition.

That is the reason why cities the size and importance of Detroit include in the framework of their government such honorary assignments as historiographer. Importantly, his task is to keep a community's tradition alive, to give its people a sense of pride in what they have thus far accomplished, a sense of hope in what they expect to accomplish.

It is also the reason why we set aside a week in our greater community to regard the State of Michigan, to consider its background of history and tradition, to regard its utility and beauty.

Greater Michigan, Inc. is well named. If you seek a great peninsula, look about you. Ours grows greater, year by year.

James A. Alexander, who died May 14 at the Masonic Home at Alma at the age of 89, was buried Monday afternoon in Brookside cemetery with graveside services conducted by Detroit Masonic Lodge No. 2 with Worshipful Master David Fisk in charge. He was born in 1865 in Larne, County Antrim, Ireland and came to America at the age of 21, settling in Detroit. He was employed on the steamers of the Great Lakes; by the old D.U.R. and later by the Detroit department of parks and recreation, until his retirement eight years ago.

Funeral services were held in Detroit at the Mott Chapel with the Rev. David King Kerr of the Woodward Ave. Presbyterian church in charge.

Thoes attending the burial included Mrs. Hugh McCloud and daughter, Mrs. Lester Larkin, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hurlbut, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hurlbut and son Robert, Mr. and Mrs. J. Melville, Mr. and Mrs. Harry James, Mr. and Mrs. David Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Stafford Clements, all of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. George Matthews of Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Gregg of Williamston, Mrs. Jennie Lewis of Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gregg of Milan and Mr. and Mrs. William Gibson of Macon.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED:

That the attached Curfew be enacted immediately, the same to be effective 17 May 1955.

Grand Chapter Officers Visit Local O.E.S.

A special meeting of Tecumseh Chapter 51, Order of Eastern Star was held last Thursday evening, when the Past Matrons and Past Patrons of the chapter were honored. A potluck dinner preceded the meeting with tables attractively decorated with May poles furnished by Mrs. Norris Morehouse.

Before the regular opening of the chapter, Vera Driffill and Ann Rozelle were escorted to the East by the Marshall, Louise M. Partridge. As president of the Past Matrons Club, Mrs. Driffill presented 17 stoles to the Worthy Matron, Ann Rozelle, who is the chapter's official representative. These stoles were made by the Past Matron's Club as their project for the year and their gift to the chapter. Mrs. Rozelle accepted the stoles in behalf of Tecumseh chapter and thanked the Past Matrons Club for their gift. The stoles were to be worn for the first time during the initiation this evening.

The chapter then opened in regular form and guests were introduced including four members of the grand family, Grant E. Born, worthy grand patron of the grand chapter of Michigan from Petoskey; Betty M. From the Wayne County Association, Blanche Camburn, organist, Washtenaw County Association; Birdella Flood, secretary and treasurer, Manchester.

After the welcome was given by the worthy matron, Ann Rozelle, a special ceremony honored the past matrons and past matrons and gifts were presented to them from the chapter.

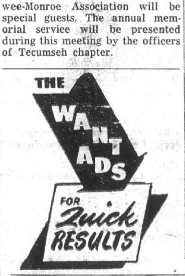
Those serving were presiding worthy matron, Vera Driffell; matron's first lecturer, Louise M. Partridge; matron's second lecturer, Gladys Russell; worthy patrons, LaVern Russell, Owen H. Partridge and Grant E. Born; associate matron, Jessie Russell; associate patron, John H. Smith, secretary, Thelma Frayer; treasurer, Jennie Temple; conductress, Alice Hamilton; associate conductress, Helen Hodges; chaplain, Louise Lott; marshall, Agnes Harris; Adah, Leah Hart; Ruth, Ledah Beal; Esther, Marie Smith; Martha, Katharine Hunt; Electa, Nina Sturdevant; warder, Lelah Linger; sentinel, Dwight Hodges; organist, Blanche Camburn, Wayne County organist; soloist, Melba Mills, Lincoln Park Chapter, Detroit. Florence Montgomery assisted in the closing.

The Bible ceremony was given by the regular officers and white Bibles were presented to new members.

An honorary membership in Tecumseh chapter was presented to Grant E. Born by Mrs. Rozelle. He then spoke to the members and closed his remarks by giving his poem on "Kindness."

Several songs were sung by guest solist, Melba Mills of Lincoln Park. She was accompanied by Blanche Camburn of Detroit, who was made an honorary member of Tecumseh chapter last year.

The next regular meeting of Tecumseh chapter will be held on June 2, when the officers of Lenawee-Monroe Association will be special guests. The annual memorial service will be presented during this meeting by the officers of Tecumseh chapter.



Grade School News

Kindergarten—Central
Mrs. Preston

We have kindergarten news each week and here is a copy of this week's news which we dedicated to our teacher, Mrs. Preston.

Mary, Ginny, and Amalia can jump rope.

In our pet department, Danny brought a little snake for us to see, and Tommy brought a little turtle. We enjoyed playing with them very much. Mario has tiny baby bunnies at home.

Three of us were out of school because of illness recently. Lonnie is home from the hospital. Barry has the mumps. Rickie has the chicken pox. We hope that they will be back real soon.

We are planning a surprise for our mothers. We want to show them some of the things we have learned to do in kindergarten and some special things which we think are most fun to do.

Kindergarten—Patterson
Mrs. Updike

We had a busy time making our Mother's Day gifts, but when they were all finished we were very proud of them. Mrs. Updike took pictures of us in our Easter parade. We each had one and we put it on a pretty flower basket to take home for Mother.

Each Monday is very exciting now, as we look the first thing to see the "Helpers for this Week." We never know where our name will appear. Then we have to read what our special work is. Many of us can read all the different jobs for the week, even when Mrs. Updike mixed them up.

Some day soon we are going to have a surprise in a big bag. We are planning on taking it outside under the trees before we know what is inside.

We hope many of our mothers will visit us during Michigan Week. We have many things that we would like to show them and tell them about.

We are enjoying the Nut-Cracker and Sugar-Dolly stories for the second time. We think we like these stories the best of all.

Christian Science Services Listed

The fact that lasting beauty is gained through spiritual understanding of God's radiance and strength will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul and Body" includes the following verse from the Bible (Psalms 96:6): "Honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary."

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following (247:10-12, 13-15): "Beauty, as well as truth, is eternal; but the beauty of material things passes away, fading and fleeting as mortal belief . . . Immortality, exempt from age or decay, has a glory of its own. — the radiance of Soul."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (104:1): "Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty."

JAYCEE ROAD-E-O — Straight line driving between rows of parallel balls is one of the four safe driving performance exercises to be conducted by local teen-agers in the Teen-Age Road-e-o sponsored by the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce. Teen-agers who have a driver's license or permit and no record of a moving traffic violation in the past six months are eligible. The local Road-e-o is a preliminary to state-wide eliminations and the national finals. Pictured is a scene from the Oklahoma state Teen-Age Road-e-o with Janet Sue Mussen, Clinton, Oklahoma, testing her skill under the eye of Oklahoma Trooper F. E. Snider.

Jaycees Will Conduct Road-e-o for Young Drivers

Plans to conduct the first Teen-Age Driving Road-e-o were made here Monday night by the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Road-e-o, to be held Saturday, May 28, will consist of a written examination and a skill test involving driving through prescribed exercises such as parking, smooth stopping and others. Engraved wall plaques will be presented to Tecumseh's three highest scoring contestants.

The local winner in this national Jaycee contest will be eligible to compete in the state Road-e-o June 4, in Lansing. State winners compete for $3,000 in scholarships in a national contest July 25-29 in Washington, D. C.

Bob Murray, local Jaycee president, said four sub-committees have been organized under the general co-chairmanship of Pete Dermyer and Elwin Merx, to carry out various aspects of the program. "By emphasizing the rules of the road and the skills needed for safe driving, we intend to give local youths a chance to prove that some of America's best drivers are teen-agers," Road-e-o committee members said.

Last year 250,000 teen-agers took part in Teen-Age-Road-e-o in more than 1000 towns and cities. Sponsors of the National Teen-Age Road-e-o are the U.S. Jaycees, Liberty Mutual Insurance Companies and American Trucking Associations, Inc.

Coach Breniff Sets Meeting on Football

Potential Tecumseh High School football players and their parents will meet Friday, May 20, in the gymnasium at 8 p.m. with Coach Bob Breniff for a get-acquainted meeting and to hear some of the objectives of next year's football team outlined by the new football coach.

He also will have a couple of players suited up to explain to parents the importance of good equipment and to show the proper way to wear the equipment.

Movie highlights of Big 10 football games last autumn will be shown.

Players who are freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors next year and their parents, both mothers and fathers, are invited to the exploratory meeting.

Golfers Take Regional 3rd

Tecumseh High School placed third in the state high school regional golf matches at Brighton last week.

Livonia Bentley won the regional title; Walled Lake was second.

Val Spangler was low Indian with 80.

Adrian Drivers Expect To Win

Although Toledo drivers took the lion's share of honors on opening night, there are indications that some Adrian pilots will be breaking into the victory column when stock car racing swings into its second program of the season at Adrian Speedway Thursday night. Time trials will begin at 7 p.m., first race is at 8:30.

Herb Robinson of Adrian, who won the opener a year ago and took the track title two seasons back, is the No. 1 local prospect for winning honors Thursday. Herb hopes, though, that he doesn't run into the same last-minute scramble that he met last Thursday when some 1,200 fans were treated to a slam-bang opening card which saw a near dead heat in the feature.

Several amateurs, including entries from Blissfield, Tecumseh and Temperance are expected for Thursday night's card.

Track Manager Frank Canale announces that children under 12, accompanied by their parents, will be admitted free to all Adrian Speedway races this season.

MICHIGAN FOR ME

Michigan Week offers a ready made opportunity for you to sell your fellow citizens on the importance of conservation of natural resources to the economy of our state and well being of our people.

The late Conservation Director P. J. Hoffmaster, said "Michigan's Wealth Is In Her Water." It is not enough that every automobile license plate bears the words "Water Wonderland." The driver behind every wheel must be made to realize that it is his responsibility that this great natural resource with which our state is so abundantly blessed is kept clean and free of pollution.

He must also be made to realize that it is his responsibility to "Keep Michigan Green," not only to conserve our great forest resources but provide food and cover for our wildlife — that a carelessly tossed cigarette may well wreck havoc and destruction.

It is not enough that we sportsmen meet and sell each other on conservation — we must be missionaries, carrying the gospel of conservation to the unthinking and uninformed.

Michigan Week provides this opportunity — Let's not overlook it. See to it that you give due emphasis to the conservation and wise use of our natural resources, or we will not long be singing — "I'm glad I live in Michigan."

Over the years, Detroit and the state of Michigan have been highly productive sources of talent for major league ball clubs. Old Diz wouldn't be surprised to see Michigan near the top of the list as a supplier of big leaguers.

Consider the Tigers' roster alone. Seven players are of Michigan origin and still live here. Curiously, all but two are pitchers.

The hurlers include Steve Gromek, born in Hamtramck and now living in Detroit; George Zuverink, born and still living in Holland; Ray Herbert, whose birthplace is Battle Creek but now calls Detroit his home; Leo Cristante, born and still living in Detroit, and Duane Maas, born in Utica and still residing there.

The exceptions are Detroit-born outfielder Steve Souchock, who now lives in Dearborn, and new outfielder Charlie Maxwell, obtained from Baltimore, who was born in Lawton and now lives in Paw Paw.

Of the 16 teams in the two major leagues, only four—the two New York clubs, Kansas City and Washington—are without Michigan representatives.

On the other hand, the Chicago White Sox, Cleveland Indians and Philadelphia Phils boast almost as many Michiganders as the Tigers do.

On the White Sox squad are pitchers Ted Gray and Billy Pierce, both born in Highland Park, the former now living in Dearborn, the latter in Birmingham; first baseman Ronald Jackson, born and still living in Kalamazoo; outfielder John Golich, Detroit-born but now living in Dearborn, and infielder Cass Michaels (out this year with a head injury), born in Detroit and now residing in Grosse Pointe Woods.

The Phils boast Detroit-born pitcher Bob Miller, who still lives here; catcher Stan Lopata, born in Detroit and now living in Allen Park; infielder Ted Kazanski, now a Detroiter but born in Hamtramck, and outfielder Danny Schell, who was born and still lives in Fostoria.

With the Cleveland Indians are pitchers Hal Newhouser and Art Houtteman, both born in Detroit, the former living in Franklin Hills, the latter in Birmingham. Infielder Joe Altobelli was born and still lives in Detroit.

On the Baltimore Oriole roster this spring were pitchers Duane Pillette and Bob Kuzava, born and still living in, respectively, Detroit and Wyandotte. Catcher Hal Smith winters in Lincoln Park, while outfielder Chuck Oertel spends his winters in Pontiac.

For the Boston Red Sox, pitcher Ivan Delock was born in Highland Park and now lives in Detroit, while infielder Norman Zauchin was born in Detroit and now lives in Royal Oak.

Pitcher Charley Templeton of the Brooklyn Dodgers was born in Detroit and now lives in Wayne. Pitcher Bob Rush of the Chicago Cubs still lives in Battle Creek. Pitcher Bob Buhl of the Milwaukee Braves still lives in Saginaw.

For Cincinnati, pitcher Don Gross was born in Weidham and still lives there, while catcher Hobie Landrith resides in Allen Park when he's not playing the Hickory and Horsehide game.

Look About You

The State of Michigan's motto — If you seek a beautiful peninsula, look about you — has special meaning as we observe "Michigan Week."

Look about you and see the beauty Michigan holds for us who live here and for vacationers who visit our "Water Wonderland." They come each year in increasing numbers to enjoy our lakes and streams, our forests and parks; to renew themselves in the freshness of our out-of-doors. Many come for a vacation and stay to build a home.

Look about you and see the beauty of our home sites. "Home owners," to paraphrase Lincoln, "must love Michigan, because there are so many of them." Our state has the largest percentage of people owning their own single-family dwelling — 64 per cent.

Michigan is a leader, too, in products of the forest, mine and field.

Largest producers of sawed lumber, we also are first in the production of sour cherries, navy beans, cantaloupes, celery, cucumber pickles and strawberries. We are second in iron ore and rank high in gypsum, limestone, salt and copper.

All this diversified record in spite of the fact that much of our land is now devoted to industry.

Here in Michigan industrial workers enjoy the highest annual wage of any state in the union. Here the working man can find employment in his trade, whatever it may be. For—famous as our automotive production is—we also lead in such diversified products as pharmaceuticals and furniture, adding machines and heavy chemicals, paints, baby foods and refrigeration compressors.

No matter through whose eyes we look, the plain facts engender a justifiable pride in our state. "Michigan Week" gives us an opportunity to hold up a mirror to the greatness of Michigan so our friends and relatives in other states may see the beauty that we see and enjoy.

Michigan, My Michigan

Home of my heart, I sing of thee,
Michigan, my Michigan.
Thy lake-bound shores I long to see,
Michigan, my Michigan.
From Saginaw's tall whispering pines,
To Lake Superior's farthest mines,
Fair in the light of memory shines,
Michigan, my Michigan.
When worn with watching traitor foes,
Michigan, my Michigan.
The welcome night brought sweet repose,
Michigan, my Michigan.
The soldier, weary from the fight,
Sleeps sound, nor fears the rebels might,
For "Michigan's on guard tonight!"
Michigan, my Michigan.

Seven Million People Live in Michigan

Michigan's population passed the seven million mark on July 1, 1954.

Michigan ranked 7th in the U. S. in population size in 1950 and 1954.

Since 1950, only three states — California, Texas and Florida — increased more numerically than Michigan. In the last 20 years, Michigan's population climbed relatively more than that of any other state in the north-central region.

For every 100 deaths in Michigan last year 316 births were recorded . . . about 3 babies for every (one) death.

Births At An All-time High

Provisional reports show 190,759 births last year in Michigan — more than ever in the history of the state.

Birth rate of 27.2 per 1,000 population last year also is the highest in history — about 50 per cent more than the 1940 rate of 18.9.

Deaths At An All-time Low

The death rate in Michigan (provisional) dropped to 8.6 per 1,000 population last year. This is the lowest in history. And the infant death rate also reached a new low of 25 deaths per 1,000 live births.

Public Health for Nine Out of Ten

Seventy out of eighty-three Michigan counties are served by full time local health departments.

More than 90 per cent of Michigan's population is covered by local health services.

"Come out and list my house for sale?" Mr. Hoover said in our office recently.

I followed him home and noticed a "For Sale" sign in the window.

"I see you've tried to sell it," I mentioned.

"Yes," Mr. Hoover admitted. "People have been streaming through here for several months. But nothing's happened."

"That's why we visited your office. I've never been any good at selling anything. I've learned that includes houses."

"Mr. Hoover," I said, "many people have discovered that the days of merely putting up a For Sale sign and getting an automatic sale are over. More and more sellers are learning the buyers have to be sold—they don't just drive by and sell themselves."

Mr. Hoover nodded, "I know it."

"The big difference a broker can offer is this—often it is just a little thing, a small problem, that stands in the way of a sale. Through experience, we've learned how to spot the trouble and get the problem solved for the benefit of all concerned."

"You don't have to sell me," Mr. Hoover smilingly said, "just the house."

Believe me, we will! May we sell yours too?

Rotunda Display Opens to Public

Tourist attractions in Michigan's vacationland, including several realistic outdoor scenes, are now on display in the Ford Rotunda at Dearborn.

The show will continue through the peak summer tourist season until Labor Day. Displays will be changed periodically to feature special events throughout the state.

Start of the Rotunda show, titled "Michigan Vacationland," coincides wtih Michigan Week.

J. G. Mullaly, special events manager for Ford Motor Company, estimated approximately 400,000 tourists will see the exhibit. During 1954, the Rotunda was visited by 1,503,136 persons, representing every state and U. S. possession and more than 80 foreign countries.

Highlight of the "Michigan Vacationland" show will be a camping scene, complete with a running stream. The display, typical of a family tent camp in a state park, will occupy approximately 6,500 square feet in the exhibition building's center court.

Also featured in life-like exhibits will be other Michigan outdoor activities, including bathing, picnicking and golfing, and its wildlife.

Other displays will show visitors the food specialties of various cities and sections of the state and such Michigan vacation accessories as wearing apparel, fishing gear, and boating and photography equipment.

Throughout the show, the Rotunda theater will present special films on Michigan recreation, a calendar of special events of tourist interest throughout the state will be on display and literature, including maps, will be available on all sections of the state.

The show will be presented by Ford Motor Company in cooperation with the state conservation and highway departments, Michigan, Southeast, Eastern, Western and Upper Peninsula tourist councils.

During the summer months, the Rotunda will be open, free to the public, from 8:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Mondays through Saturdays and from 1 to 9 p.m. on Sundays.

TECUMSEH'S INDUSTRIAL PAST

Those Michigan Week window displays on our main street tend to emphasize the generally accepted picture of the sharply dual character of Tecumseh's past and present. There are "quaint and amusing" examples of the possessions of her rural past and contrasting exhibits of her industrial present.

Yet, to the thoughtful and informed observer, the cleavage is not quite so definite. Tecumseh had industries from the first. True, the materials used were largely those produced on the land and a high percentage of the manufactured articles was for local consumption. Yet even during the earliest years there was a trickle of export which was to grow to a life giving stream.

From the beginning the town and country grew up together. Tecumseh was a planned town. Its founders envisioned it as a focal point, supporting and being supported by the men who tilled the land around it.

Its first industry was sawmills. The earliest, 1824, east of the present Brownville bridge, then in 1827, one at Blood's road and one at Newburg, followed by the Globe saw mill east of Standish dam in 1832 and in 1833 one at the Quaker dam, now Comfort Road. All have been gone for years but their lumber built homes, barns and shops for miles on both sides of the river.

At each of the five dams a grist mill followed quickly, grinding at first only the meager grain crop that meant survival for the isolated community, but later processing a golden flood of wheat that was shipped to the east coast and even the British Isles as "name brand" flour, the profits from which built churches, stores and homes in town and country.

The abundance of choice wood plus water power made possible chair factories and cooper shops. Barrels were essential for shipping flour and for molasses and cider so there were several cooper shops at the Brownville dam, one at the Globe Mill and later several in other parts of the town.

Furniture was made in Brownville also, as early as 1830 in a factory on the south side of the river by David Van Tine and a series of partners. When the English author, Harriet Martineau passed through Tecumseh in the 1830's, she said every other house was a chair factory. This exaggerated statement was probably based on the fact that many people made the rush and splint seats for the early chairs.

Wood was also a factor in the making of wagons and carriages in the Cummins factory which stood on the now vacant lot at Evans and Kilbuck and in the Hialey carriage factory now the site of the Boyce apartments.

The building now occupied by the Eagles Lodge was orginally a table factory and tables were also made, for a time, on the site of Easton's service station. Local wood was converted into axe handles in the old county court house and wooden pumps were made in a factory north of the A & P parking lot.

Slaughter houses and tanneries were part of the early economy and wool from Lenawee sheep was carded, spun and woven in at least two factories, one at the Globe Dam and the one in Brownville. When the Van Tine furniture factory burned, its place was taken by a paper mill which for years converted straw into a coarse, brown, butcher paper and smelled to high Heaven in the process.

The first of the so-called industrial plants, those which used shipped-in metal and exported at least part of the finished products were the "Tecumseh Furnace" (on the Easton corner) and H. Brewer and Co. Foundry. The "Furnace" made farm machinery, plows, etc., many of which were used locally. Brewers, as early as the 1840's made steam engines but specialized in the Tiffany clay tile machines, the patent of a local man. Heesen's Foundry, forerunner of Bruce's, had a definitely rural beginning for their first product was "hog-ringers" from which they graduated to stock feed cookers.

Second only to H. Brewer and Co. was the Anthony Fence Factory, again a patent of a local man, and Uncle Sam's Macaroni Co. which was begun by Tecumseh businessmen and sold to Quaker Oats.

No one industry in the past had many employees but their total made a solid foundation of good citizens. Most were skilled artisans with pride in their work. One man worked for 41 years in one spot in the Cummins Carriage Shop and when it closed he merely moved over to Hialey's.

For better than 100 years, until the hard surface road and the motor truck made the country town obsolete, Tecumseh and its farming community were mutually sustaining.

Grange Will Sponsor Trip to Europe

The National Grange, oldest farm fraternity in the world, will sponsor its second European Tour in Sept., in response to popular demand because of the unqualified success of its first tour last Oct.

"It was a grand trip and I enjoyed meeting Grangers from other parts of the country," writes Elizabeth D. Conner, of Delaware.

A Rhode Island man, who took one of his adughters on the tour last year, already is planning to take a second daughter this year.

The 1955 Tour will start from New York aboard the S.S. America on Sept. 9, and will include visits to six European countries, England, Holland, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, and France, returning to New York, Oct. 7.

For those who have the time, the tour may be extended from Switzerland, on Oct. 2, to include Italy, with visits to Milan, Venice, Florence, Rome, Naples, Genoa, Isle of Capri, Monte Carlo, Pompeii, Nice, and back to Paris, to arrive in New York on the S.S. United States, Oct. 25. Optional side trips to places of agricultural interest will be announced later.

The purpose of these tours is to see European agricultural production; to bring about a better understanding of international farm problems; and to build good will with peoples of other nations.

The American Express Company, which directs the tour, offers a new Travel Credit Plan this year, to finance the tour in monthly installments with no down payment.

Letters from individuals who went on the 1954 tour repeatedly stress the fun of good fellowship and new friendships, in addition to the educational advantages of such a trip.

An illustrated free pamphlet with itinerary, rates, etc., is available from: European Tour, National Grange Monthly, Springfield 3, Mass.

Polio and the Vaccine

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This information was compiled by the Michigan Department of Health).

When the polio vaccine is given, does this mean our child won't get polio?

The vaccine modifies or prevents the crippling effects of polio. It does not prevent the disease, itself. The vaccine is not expected to cut down the risk of catching non-paralytic or subclinical polio. But vaccinated children who come down with polio are far less likely to suffer disabling effects from the disease.

Is there any possibility that a child will come down with paralytic polio even though he has been vaccinated?

There is a possibility. The vaccine was found to be 80 to 90 per cent effective in stopping paralytic polio. No vaccine is 100 per cent effective. Moreover, some children and adults do not respond to vaccines at all (They are unable to build up the disease-fighting antibodies in their blood).

Also, just as important: The vaccine can't be expected to work if it's given after polio is already developing. Polio has a 10 to 14 day incubation period — a time when there are no outward symptoms. If the disease is already building up in the child, the vaccine will not have time to cause the production of enough antibodies to protect against paralysis. This is another reason why we can expect to have some paralytic polio in vaccinated children.

From the time of exposure, how long does it take polio to develop?

As noted above, generally polio has a "silent" attack period of 10 to 14 days during which time the disease gives no warning. This is the incubation period.

After the vaccine is given, when does it begin to protect against paralytic polio?

Protection begins to build uu between six and nine days after the first dose of the vaccine is given By 14 days, you have maximum protection from the first shot.

The second dose of the vaccine, given two to four weeks after the first injection, brings a prompt increase in protection.

Shortly after the second dose, the vaccine reaches its most effective level—80 to 90 per cent protection against paralytic polio. Seven or eight months later, as protection begins to fade slightly, a third dose of the vaccine should be given. This keeps protection up. There is no knowledge as yet on when or if added doses of the vaccine will be needed.

Will the vaccine be used in treatment when polio strikes?

NO. The vaccine is of no value in treatment.

Are we sure the vaccine is safe?

YES. The National Institutes of Health assure the safety of the vaccine. Thousands of Michigan children have had the vaccine with no unfavorable results to date.

Does the vaccine interfere with the effect of vaccines for whooping cough, diphtheria, lock jaw or smallpox?

NO. Each vaccine builds protection against the specific disease for which it is given. The vaccines do not interfere with ecah other in any way.

If a child has once had polio, should he be vaccinated?

There are three types of polio. If a child has had one type of the disease, it does not mean he has immunity to the other two. The vaccine works against all three types of polio. Thus, even though your child has once had polio, he should be vaccinated.

If we know our child is exposed to polio, should the vaccine be given?

The vaccine will not harm a child exposed to polio. But if he is already in the polio incubation period, it is very doubtful if it will help him.

Are you going to keep track of how many vaccinated children get polio?

YES. The Michigan Department of Health will make a weekly report each Friday morning, summarizing the number of polio cases which have developed, among both vaccinated and unvaccinated persons.

As the vaccine becomes availabue, will it be given in summer months?

The vaccine probably will be given during the summer. However, it is highly important to remember that:

As cases of polio begin to rise in numbers, there is an increased likelihood of vaccinating children who are already in the polio incubation period and who may develop paralytic polio. If this is not clearly understood the public might lose faith in the vaccine.

When more vaccine is available, who will get it?

Detailed plans are being worked out to see that supplies of the vaccine reach the highest polio risk groups first.

Besides having the vaccine for our children as soon as we can, what else can we do to help protect them from polio?

If there is polio in your community, don't isolate your youngsters; but do keep them within their usual circle of playmates. Try to get children to rest or at least to play quiet games during part of the day. Don't let them become exhausted or chilled in any way. If they should have the polio virus in their bodies, being overtired or chilled may result in more serious infection. Keep youngsters clean. Consult your physician at the first sign of illness, particularly if these symptoms appear: headache, fever, sore throat, upset stomach, stiff neck or back.

DISPLAY WINDOWS

Brownie and Girl Scouts of Tecumseh will have charge of a window display downtown using a map of Michigan showing its resources and also exhibiting some of their handcraft depicting their interest in badge work and community service.

This is in connection with the observance of Michigan Week. They also will participate in the activities on May 21 which is Youth Day—New Frontiers.

Hottest news in Hardtops is the 4-Door Riviera

Why take anything less than the sensation of the year?

WHEN you learn what's been done in the automobile pictured here, you can easily see why this beauty is winning rave notices coast to coast.
Buick engineers took the hardtop body design that has been growing tremendously in popularity over the past six years—and gave it four doors instead of two.
Simple? Sure—to all outward appearances.
But it took a brand-new kind of body with wholly new structural principles to do it—to bring this long-awaited new kind of automobile to the public in volume numbers and at popular prices.
For this is a true hardtop—with the sleek and racy look of a Convertible, because there are no center posts in the window areas on either side.
And now it has front doors for the front-seat passengers—and rear doors for the rear-seat passengers—plus room increased to the size of a full Sedan.
(It took some special kind of engineering magic, you can be sure, to hinge all four doors at their forward edges for greater safety, and more ease of entering and exiting.)
So it looks like Buick has scooped the industry again—and come up with the hottest news in hardtops since Buick originated the first two-door hardtop six years ago.

State Police Reduce Height on Requirements

The minimum height requirement of Michigan State Police officers has been reduced one inch to five feet, nine inches, which will open up the ranks to many more young men who want to become members, according to Sergeant Fred O'Donnell, commanding officer of the Clinton post.

Sergt. O'Donnell commented on the change in connection with a current recruiting program to fill 65 anticipated positions.

"The change was decided upon only after long and careful research established that it would not affect the present physical standards of the department," Sergt. O'Donnell said. "Many very desirable men were being barred because they could not quite meet the previous five foot, 10 inch minimum."

Weight and build must be in proportion to height.

Other requirements are that a recruit must be between the ages of 21 and 29, inclusive, in good health and of excellent character. He must have a high school education or its equivalent. Married men as well as single are accepted.

Plans are now going forward for the next recruit school, the sergeant said, and candidates are urged to hurry if they wish to enroll. May 20 is the deadline to have applications in for a Civil Service examination to be held June 4, and June 22 is the last date on which they will be received for an examination set for July 9. Applicants for the first examination, however, have the best chance of immediate employment.

Full information may be obtained at any State Police post or by writing to the State Civil Service Commission or the Michigan State Police at Lansing.

WHILE YOU SLEEP

TONIGHT, while you are fast asleep, they'll be unloading a truck-trailer at your favorite food store — carting in the refrigerated meat, fresh, iced vegetables and fruit, and all the other choice articles of food you'll find on display when you go marketing tomorrow morning.

Food stores want their customers to have a full selection of fresh merchandise every morning—so they call on trucks to stock their shelves and counters while you and most of Michigan sleep.

Without trucks, food stores just couldn't give the customer this sort of service. Without trucks —well, things just wouldn't be the same at all in any business and the people of Michigan just wouldn't be enjoying the modern comforts and conveniences they're enjoying today.

Handicapped?

Not This Young Lady

Evelyn Herrala, 1234 Pallister, Detroit, has been named the "Goodwill Industries Worker of the Year," indicating she had progressed further in overcoming physical handicaps than any other of Goodwill's 385 handicapped employees. She was selected by popular vote of her fellow workers.

Evelyn was honored at a dinner held at the Veteran's Memorial Building and received an award plus an extra week's vacation. She now enters the national competition, competing against winners in 107 other cities. The winner of this competition will receive an all expense trip to Washington and to the Goodwill Conference at Lake Geneva.

In a manner of speaking, Evelyn had a head start over other Goodwill workers. She has had her handicap since birth when by a quirk of fate she was born without hands or feet. To Evelyn, this was not a handicap but a challenge, accepted with equanimity as she began her stimulating life against odds. She had an interest and determination lacking in many.

Today Evelyn is a member of Goodwill's promotion department. As such, she walks at least a mile a day on her job, conducting tours through the block large Goodwill Workshops that cover four floors. She writes an average of a 1000 words a day in letters concerning Goodwill operations. She handles approximately twenty-five telephone calls a day, both incoming and outgoing, each of which entails the taking of notes concerning meetings and the engagement of speakers.

Evelyn also has charge of most of the employee recreational activities which entail both imagination and hard work. She plays the piano and the slide trombone.

At home Evelyn does all her own housework including cooking, sewing and ironing.

Evelyn is active in church activities at Central Methodist Church and at the Church of all Nations, has a keen interest in Government, yet has time to take a personal interest in the problems of any other employee who finds the going a bit rough.

Born in Minnesota and orphaned early, Evelyn was unable to attend school until she was eleven years old. She soon caught up with her class, graduated from high school with honors and won a scholarship to Hamline University where she majored in sociology and psychology. She received her degree in 1943 and through one of her professors obtained a job at the Detroit Goodwill Industries.

Evelyn never considers her handicaps, considering it more important to improve her abilities than to dwell on physical disabilities that are not handicaps unless so considered by the preson himself.

Meat in Diet Gives Baby Normal Blood

Meat may soon be added to baby's diet ,even before he's three months old.

The meat seems to aid the production of red blood cells, says Mary Lewis, associate professor of foods and nutrition at Michigan State College. Young babies, tend to have a sharp drop in the amount of hemoglobin in their blood during their first three months.

The drop is normal, but it can be dangerous if it continues to the point where a baby becomes anemic. Some source of iron is needed to level it off before it goes too far, Miss Lewis points out.

That source may be meat. Recent studies have shown that when meat is added to a baby's formula within his first three months, the sharp drop in hemoglobin is stopped. In fact, Miss Lewis says, the hemoglobin level even begins a slow upward climb.

How do babies react to meat at such an early age? Miss Lewis indicates that a study shows the infants slept well, ate well and came back hungry for more.

The connection between iron and red blood cells, Miss Lewis explains, is that iron is one of the regulating factors in the production of the red cells.

Iron from the daily diet is needed to give red blood cells their quota of hemoglobin. Hemoglobin in turn, takes oxygen from the lungs and carries it out to the body cells. There it enables food energy to be used.

General Phone Growth Told

General Telephone System now has a telephone plant investment in excess of $500,000,000, it was announced in New York today by President Donald C. Power.

This milestone was reached during April, 1955. It is estimated now that by the end of the year the total investment will reach $538,800,000, or an increase of $51,600,000 over the close of 1954.

At the end of World War II, or as of December 31, 1945, telephone plant for General Telephone System amounted to $111,600,000. By the end of 1950 this figure had climbed to $269,700,000.

During 1955 it is estimated that the construction and expansion budget for General Telephone System will be at an all-time high, and $78,700,000 has been budgeted for that program. This amount is $7,300,000 more than was spent for expansion during 1954, is 45 per cent higher than in 1950, and 1,174 per cent higher than 1945.

The Silver Lining

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

IT'S IRIS TIME IN THE GARDEN of Mrs. Neil Pearson, 501 W. Pottawatamie, and visitors are more than welcome. The Pearsons maintain a display of 400 varieties, discarding some older and more common types to make place for the newest ones. This year the high lights of the garden are some pink, some ruffled and some laced varieties all of which are new.

THE DISCUSSION TURNED TO the comparative price of ice cream sundaes in an earlier generation and the price we have to pay now so sounding like an old reactionary, I told the children that when I was a lad you could buy sundaes for a dime. The five-year-old in all seriousness asked "Did they have dinosaurs then?" I know I was getting old—such remarks as the dime sundaes prove it—but I didn't know the girls thought I was such an old fossil.

A. C. ("BILL") HAMAKER is proud of one of his tulips and justifiably so. This particular tulip is a beautiful deep maroon and it is 40 inches high.

IF YOU HAVEN'T SEEN THE window displays of the D.A.R. and the Brownie Scouts you have a rare treat in store. As part of Michigan Week these two groups gathered materials telling of Michigan's past. The historical displays certainly do call attention to our heritage.

ELVEN DUVALL, FORMER Tecumseh High School teacher, has been promoted to superintendent of the Addison Community Schools. He had been principal of the Addison School for the past four years.

VILLAGE PRESIDENT GEORGE Rothney of Morrice who was mayor of Tecumseh Monday comes from a long line of Congregationalists. His family is the fourth generation of Rothneys to attend the Perry Congregational Church. He and Mrs. Rothney have three little Congregationalists: Susan, 4; Bill, 3; and Charles, nine months.

A BOON TO FISHERMEN may be a new boat on the market. It is leak-proof; it has a plastic hull; and it can be stored outdoors in all kinds of weather.

A VISITOR TO THE PICNIC grounds in the back yard last week was a beautiful Baltimore oriole. He was enjoying himself immensely as he sang in one of the smaller elms in the yard. But he wasn't alone. We also enjoyed his wonderful concert with our dinner.

A YOUNG PRINTER WHO GOT his start on the HERALD in 1888 dropped in for a chat Saturday. Dressed in his Spanish-American War uniform of 55 years ago, George Walker, now of Chicago, in town for the 55th anniversary of the 31st Infantry, told of his early experiences as a printer. He started on the HERALD, then graduated to an Adrian printer. Later he also worked in Montgomery, Ala., and Chicago, Ill. When he retired from his Chicago job in 1949, he had put in 61 years as a printer-pressman. The printing trade has been kind to Mr. Walker, now 83. He has a quick step and a bright eye and he walks with the energy of a man 40 years younger. When he stopped talking about printing he told of the little house he and Mrs. Walker live in. They bought this house in Chicago in 1907 and they still live there.

A FORMER TECUMSEH LAD, Russell W. Abbott, has been promoted by Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Company at Toledo to the position of associate director of engineering.

JACK HULL, 312 east Chicago, planted seed potatoes in April but his green thumb produced no sprouts. Last week he dug into the hills and discovered that new potatoes were growing directly from the seed. Four hills had new spuds about the size of quarters.

MAX HANDY, SON OF MR. AND MRS. Lester Handy, does not intend to be outdistanced by his father. As his 4-H calf project he has purchased a Bardolier-Eileenmere strain registered Aberdeen-Angus heifer from Vaughan Bros. Farm at Albion. Mr. Handy invested in a calf of the same strain several weeks ago.

Close

Most Tecumseh stores will be closed all day next Monday for Memorial Day.

The HERALD will be closed Monday and it also will be closed all day Saturday.

Three Arraigned for Tavern Brawl

Three Tecumseh area men were arrested by sheriff deputies after a tavern brawl at Pike Inn Friday night.

Charles Bumpus, 21, of Tecumseh, and Norman Brock, 21, of Macon, pleaded not guilty to a charge of drunkenness before Justice L. J. VanDeusen Monday.

Bond was $100 each and their trials were set for May 31.

Bumpus also pleaded not guilty to a charge of violating his probation. A bond of $100 also was set on this charge and his trial was set for May 31.

Brock and Marvin Higgins, 23, of Route 2, Tecumseh, pleaded guilty to using obscene language. Each were given 10-day jail sentences and were assessed fines and costs totalling $37.30. If he doesn't pay his fine and costs Brock must stay in jail 40 days and Higgins 30 days.

BASHORE APPOINTED

The Rev. B. O. Bashore, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and a member of the county board of supervisors, has been appointed county civil defense director. His appointment was made by Mayor Claude E. Porter of Adrian, chairman of the board of supervisors.

May Gets Prison Term for Attack

David E. May, 46, of Pontiac, has been sentenced to a term of two to four years in Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson for felonious assault against a 14-year-old Tecumseh girl.

Sentenced last week in circuit court, May was arrested by Clinton State Police Jan. 29 after he had threatened the girl with a knife as she was walking home from a basketball game.

A truck driver, he tried to force the girl into his truck.

Board of Education and City Assessor Discuss Budget

John Saling, city assessor, visited the board of education Monday night at his request to discuss the local school budget for 1955-56 as presented to the Lenawee County Tax Allocation Board in Adrian this April.

Mr. Saling requested that the board consider, as in the past, a budget based upon a nine mill operating tax on local equalized evaluations as anticipated earlier this year.

Following considerable review of present and anticipated needs, the board found it impossible to decrease the budget as presented to the tax allocation board and yet meet adequately the needs of the children in this rapidly growing community.

A complete budget will be presented in the HERALD before the annual meeting in July so that interested school electors may review it and discuss it with the board at the annual meeting.

Legion Auxiliary Will Distribute Memorial Poppies

Friday and Saturday will be poppy days in Tecumseh.

Proceeds from the sale of the little red flowers go for the welfare of disabled war veterans and needy children of veterans.

Plans have been completed under the direction of Mrs. Vern Manwaring, American Legion Auxiliary Poppy Chairman.

A large corps of volunteer workers has been organized to distribute poppies throughout the city. Women of the American Legion Auxiliary will be aided by their own junior members, and by women and girls of other groups.

The poppies, made of crepe paper in replica of the wild poppies of France and Flanders which bloomed "between the crosses, row on row," of the World War I battle cemeteries, are made by disabled veterans.

The custom of wearing poppies in honor of the war dead began at the close of World War I, when the picture of the little wild poppies growing in the bare earth around the battle graves was fresh in the minds of the returning veterans.

At its first national convention in 1921, the American Legion Auxiliary adopted the poppy as its memorial flower and ever since has conducted an annual distribution of poppies.

This year more than 25,000,000 of the little red flowers have been made by disabled veterans for the Auxiliary to pin over America's remembering hearts.

DRUNK FINED

Arraigned before Justice Robert French Monday morning on a drunkenness charge, Henry Asebedo of Tecumseh pleaded guilty and was put on probation for 90 days and assessed a fine of $25 and costs of $8.60. He was arrested by Tecumseh Police Saturday night.

Britton - Macon School District Votes on $235,000 Bond Saturday

Britton voters will go to the polls Saturday to vote on a proposed $235,000 bond proposition for the Britton-Macon Rural Agricultural School.

Included in the proposition are plans for a full-sized gym, remodeling plans of the present high school and plans for another school building.

The proposition reads ". . . for erecting and furnishing an additional school house and for remodeling the present high school building."

The proposal includes a 54 x 84 gym, locker and shower rooms, a new science laboratory and classroom, a stage to be used for a band room and corridors connecting the three separate units of the school.

The bond issue also will finance remodeling of the old gym into a study hall and cafeteria, basement locker rooms into the cafeteria kitchen and a present study hall into two upper elementary classrooms.

Polls for the election will be open from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday.

To vote a person must own property assessed for taxes in the district, be at least 21 and a citizen. He also must have been a resident of the state for at least six months and a resident of the school district for 30 days.

If the bond proposal passes the tax rate will go from $16.50 to $17.60 per $1000 assessed valuation.

The bond issue carries an increase of 3.6 mills until 1962 when it will be slightly reduced.

Teen-age Road-e-o Scheduled for Next Sunday

Four judges for the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce Teen-Age Road-e-o to be held at north Ottawa street next Sunday, May 29, were named today by Denney Gollar, Jaycee sub-committee chairman.

The judges who will serve on the skill test course are, Chief George Kilbourn of the Tecumseh Police Department, for driving between pairs of rubber balls; Mr. David Dick, driver training instructor of Tecumseh High School, serpentine exercises; a member of the Tecumseh police department, smooth stopping; and a Michigan State Police trooper, parallel parking.

The written quiz will be monitored by Jaycee members. The two phases of the Road-e-o examinations, written and skill tests, will be given Sunday. The written test will be given in Central School at 2 p. m. with the skill test following immediately.

This is the first annual teen-age Road-e-o to be staged by local Jaycees.

Pete Dermeyer and Elwin Merx, co-chairmen, said today that teenagers already have started signing up for the event, indicating that participation will pass all expectations.

Mayor H. H. Hanna will present engraved wall plaques to Tecumseh's three highest scorers at the conclusion of the afternoons events.

Country Club Will Take Part in National Golf Day

Announcement was made today by Leo Bishop, professional of the Tecumseh Country Club, that the local club will take part in National Golf Day competition Saturday, June 4.

This will be welcome news to many men and women golfers in the Tecumseh area, he said, because it affords them a chance to match strokes with the nation's 1954 Open Champions, Ed Furgol and Babe Zaharias who will play 18 holes the same day in San Francisco.

Last year a number of local golfers participated and Mr. Bishop is hopeful that an even greater number will compete.

A major share of the gross receipts will be turned over to the American Red Cross.

Uniformed Red Cross volunteers will be on the first tee to register all contestants that have not registered.

Our Heritage Displays Showed Part of an Earlier Way of Life

Our Heritage Day of Michigan Week, which was a contribution of Abi Evans Chapter D.A.R., was more than a day. It was a week long feature for the pleasure of many visitors. The exhibits shown in the display windows of cooperating merchants were cherished articles of use and beauty which had been part of an earlier way of life.

While the work was under the general chairmanship of Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, practically every member contributed and there were outstanding examples of dresses and their accessories which included a gown made for a White House reception, beautiful shawls and a collection of children's clothing and toys. Glass and dishes formed several displays, one of the most interesting being a table of lovely pieces on a hand-loomed cloth.

Antique silver and jewelry, quilts, coverlets and books attracted interest the length of the street.

Assorted apothecary items, which included the saddle bag of a Civil War doctor, contrasted with the drug store of today and a charming room setting made up of lovely chairs and table was highlighted by a quaint child's chair and doll.

An early map of the Village of Tecumseh attracted much interest as did a collection of chairs which were typical of those produced during the early days of the town.

The focal point of the displays was the window marked "Our Pioneer and Spiritual Heritage" where posters listed the founders of the town and the beginnings of the first five churches. An atmosphere of Tecumseh's Quaker background was supplied by a Friends bonnet and an open antique Bible.

An interesting map showing the resources of Michigan had been made by the Girl Scouts, at the suggestion of the chairman and was an outstanding feature of their exhibit while a corner window held a grouping of flags which were replicas of all those made for the early republic before the Stars and Stripes was officially adopted.

NIP MOTORIST

George E. Bates, 33 years old, of Tipton, pleaded not guilty to driving while under the influence of liquor when arraigned Monday before Justice Francis O'Brien of Ypsilanti.

Trial was set for Thursday.

Bates pleaded guilty to driving without an operator's license and was assessed costs of $25 and ordered to spend two days in the Washtenaw County jail.

He was arrested Sunday morning by Clinton state police after an accident east of Clinton.

Kind Words from Dave Reed

Kind words for "Is That So!", Miss Clara Waldron's colorful column, come from Mr. David M. Reed, former Tecumseh boy who now is director of press information services for The Detroit Edison Company.

Mr. Reed wrote:

"As a regular reader of The HERALD, I am struck with the general excellence of your column. In style, readability and interesting contents, your work far surpasses that of many metropolitan columnists, and I wish to compliment you.

"By the way, your May 19 piece on Tecumseh's early industries reminded me of the old 'car barns' that were still standing, long disused, when I was a youngster.

"They were located at the south or southeast outskirts of town, as I remember them. We used to go there to get chunks of rubber that must have been used for damping or shock-absorbing purposes in the railway cars that had once been manufactured there. (We whittled this rubber into balls that were neither very round nor very bouncy).

"Perhaps you know something of the history of this bygone enterprise; if so, maybe I can look forward to seeing something about it in 'Is That So!'.

"Meanwhile, my very best regards to you.

Yours sincerely,
David M. Reed"

CENTENNIAL SCHOOL NEWS

District No. 10

Mrs. Vaughn

This week we wrote notes to the parents telling them we are going to have our picnic at Wamplers State Park. We will meet at the schoolhouse at 11 o'clock bringing sandwiches and a dish to pass.

Last week we started on new reading books for the rest of the year.

Next week we are going to start our test. We hope we all will pass.

All of our polywogs died.

Christine Finnegan and Carolyn Woods arranged a pretty bouquet for the front table. Mike Kossey brought a large bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Janet Bachtal brought some wild violets for the teacher to plant.

We were entertained by Christine Finnegan and Carolyn Woods, who sang a very nice duet.

We want to thank the Tecumseh HERALD for giving us room for our news. You will hear from us again next year.

Grade School News

Grade One—Patterson
Mrs. Buttolph

Phillip Barber is spending two weeks in Florida with his parents, sister, and baby brother. We all wished we could have gone with him.

Recently Marsha Richard and Billy Walker celebrated their seventh birthdays at school. Their mothers each brought ice cream, cup cakes, and favors for all of us on each ones special day.

Many of our mothers visited our room during Michigan Week. They saw us all working very hard to finish our first grade work. We all hope we can be second graders next year, after lots of fun this summer while working, swimming, and playing.

Grade Two—Patterson
Mrs. Garlick

We have been learning about our state of Michigan and made a border for our bulletin board to represent a scene along the Great Lakes. In our scene we have boats, cottages, sand, water, people, birds, and a lighthouse. We also brought pictures showing places in Michigan and each one of us drew a picture showing something we especially like about our state. We brought stones, cars, an Indian headdress, a peace pipe, and many other things which are found in Michigan. We think our state is rather wonderful because it is such a goods place for a vacation, and is also well known for its manufacturing, lumber and good farm land.

Our polliwogs all died. We now have some snails. We hope to be able to keep them alive.

We had a Cercropia moth come out of its cocoon in our insect box. We think it is the prettiest one we have had come out. Nina brought a bumble bee for us to watch. We were glad it was in a jar.

Karnl Davis invited our second grade to a Davy Crockett party at her father's roller skating rink one Sunday afternoon. Many of us went and some of us dressed in western costumes. Gregg Schultz, Barry Roe and Nina Robinson won prizes. The prizes were the very large "Sugar Daddy" suckers.

Our recent birthdays have been those of Marvin Grigg, Dougles Beasley, Gregg Schultz, Sharon Green, Stephen Derby, and Clare Maynard. Clare, Douglas and Sharon each brought a treat for the room.

One reading group has finished all of the second grade reading and another group is reading the last part of our basic reading program. They are all reading so well now, that we are able to find out many things from books without help.

We are learning about halves and quarters in our number work. We have also been practicing to recognize the numbers to one thousand.

This will be the last time for this year that we will be able to tell you what we are doing. We are all looking forward to vacation time and hope you have a real nice summer.

First Grade
Mrs. Neitling

Here we are almost at the end of the school year. It has been a year in which we have learned to do a great many things that we could not do last year.

Most of us have read at least seven books this year. We have finished our basic readers and are reading some lovely books just for fun and to see if we can talk just like the characters in the book. Each of us has a different book which we are reading to ourselves in our spare times. David has read more books than anyone else.

We can spell about one hundred words now. We can also write sentences about things we know about.

Mrs. Sinkey and Mrs. Cunkle visited us Wednesday.

For Michigan Week we have drawn pictures and written stories about places we have visited in our state. We have also learned the name of our state flower and bird.

Gary Hall, Richard Smith and Jean Stearns had birthday parties this month.

Thirty-two children from our room received the polio vaccine. We have seven children absent. They have chicken pox. We hope they are all back in time to get the next polio shot.

Tuesday we visited Mrs. Preston's kindergarten and saw the nice program they had prepared for their mothers.

We hope to see you next year when we will be reporting from grade two. Thanks to everyone who halped make our stay in first grade a pleasant one, and thanks, especially, to our parents. We know how much they helped.

Grade One—Central
Mrs. VanValkenburg

We are looking forward to a pleasant vacation and to being second graders in a very short time.

One class has finished reading our book "Our New Friends" and has started reading our new book "Through the Gate." Our number book and work book are finished. Our book, "We Talk, Spell and Write" will soon be finished.

Several boys and girls have been absent because they have been sick with chickenpox or the mumps.

Our birthday people of this month are Rae Lynne Crosby, who brought us a treat, Lendall Milheim, and Beth O'Neil.

We are very busy making our bird books. We have written a short story about the common birds which we have colored.

Grade Two—Central
Mrs. Puffer

We have enjoyed our Social Studies books this year. In the first part of "Someday Soon" we read about a big city fire department and we wondered if ours differed from that one. After receiving permission, we visited the things we had not known about our fire fighting equipment. We learned that our volunteer fire department is as well prepared to protect us from fires as are the larger departments in big cities.

We have visited the library twice. The first time we each chose a book. We read our books then shared them with the other children. Two weeks later we returned them to the library. Several children in our room already have cards and we hope that during the summer, all of us will take advantage of the library facilities.

During Michigan Week, six mothers and four smaller brothers and sisters visited our room. We are happy to report that altogether during the year, 22 mothers and three grandmothers have been our visitors.

It has been an unusually busy year, but we have had many happy times and have formed some fine friendships that we shall be glad to continue next Autumn in third grade.

Grade Two—Central
Mrs. Callihan

We have been studying about birds that stay in Michigan all winter. We are going to study about those that come back in the spring from their winter homes.

We will put them into a booklet with notes about eggs, nests, color and food.

We are writing our spelling words in cursive writing and adding all new words to our spelling books. Our room has gone to the library two times. Each one of us picked out a book we could read. We use these in our extra time. Maybe some of us will be able to get books this summer to read at home.

Beverly Myers and Walter Zarnoch had birthdays in May. Mrs. Clark visited us this week. Bernie Clark will leave us for Florida for a week. We hope he will be back before school is out.

We made an experiment to see if seeds needed water to grow. We used water and cotton around a glass with some corn and pea seeds. A mouse ate our corn, but we found seeds need water, light and air to grow. The ones in dirt grew much better.

Many of us have finished our readers and "What Next." We hope to finish the rest by next week. We wish everyone a wonderful vacation.

Grade Two—Central
Mrs. VanWinkle

Well another school year is almost over. We've enjoyed letting you, our parents and friends, read about and share some of the things we do in our second grade room at Central.

Right now our room looks like the Ringling or Barnum and Bailey Circus grounds. We have been talking about and making some of the things we find in a real circus. We have had many laughing, funny happy clowns, elephants, giraffes, wagons filled with wild animals, strong men, fat ladies, giants, etc. We have had fun making the circus and think it would be nice if we could all go to a real big circus some day.

Our reading groups have read several books during the year. Many of us have finished both of our basic readers. All of us have completed "Friends and Neighbors."

We are all anxious to know who our third grade teacher will be. It won't be long 'til we find out her name and the room in which we will be.

Grade Two—West Branch
Miss LaPointe

We are very grateful to Mr. Kaiser and James Griffin for giving us polliwogs to watch. Some seem to be at the right stage for developing hind legs. We have learned a polliwog song.

We have finished our basic readers and are now reading supplementary books.

The following celebrated birthdays in May: Arnold Kleindienst, Linda Hicks and Susanne Poley. We had two parties with ice cream and cupcakes as refreshments. Arnold's mother was hostess for one and Karen Creger's for the other. Mrs. Creger was honoring Karen's birthday which occurs in July.

This school year has passed very quickly and pleasantly due to the fact that the majority of the class tried to be good citizens and made an effort to be industrious.

We wish to exprees our sincere thanks to the following mothers for driving their cars to get the children to the dental clinic: Mrs. George Green, Mrs. Clyde Mitchell, Mrs. Francis Packard, Mrs. Donald Creger, Mrs. William Wright, Mrs. Maynard Townsend, Mrs. Paul Hohenstein and Mrs. Melvin Purple.

Grade One—West Branch
Miss Steinhoff

Here another school year has almost gone. The first grade now is ready to become a second grade.

We have been doing a circus unit. We are making a little circus book. In it we have a story about a clown and his trick pig. Connie Robinette brought her cutout circus to school. We set this up in our little green table for all of us to enjoy. We have written about elephants, clowns, giraffs, and kangaroos. In our music class, Miss Gillespie taught us to sing "Old Mr. Elephant." We intend to make a circus wagon with an animal in it.

We had a butterfly in our room for two or three days. Now we have a cocoon in a jar that we hope will hatch. We are studying polliwogs and frogs. In our room we have some polliwogs in a fish bowl. They are so little that we don't think they'll be frogs before school is out.

During this last month Mrs. George Meads, Mrs. Henry Sparks, Mrs. Donald Brazee, and Mrs. Robert MacGeorge have visited our room.

We want to thank Mrs. Donald Brazee, Mrs. Richard Brighton and Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, for their help and the fine things they did for us.

Michigan Auto Pioneer Retires After 44 Years

DETROIT—A small town boy from Ohio who grew up to become one of Michigan's most colorful automotive pioneers, has bid farewell to the industry he helped create.

Fred J. Lamborn, vice president and general manager of the Dodge Division, Chrysler Corporation, retired last week after 44 years of continuous service with Dodge Division. His current plans call for a little earnest fishing in Michigan's abundant waters and to call on acquaintances in Ohio and Michigan.

Born in Springfield, Ohio in 1888, Lamborn has had a colorful and interesting career as a pioneer automotive production genius.

Lamborn left Springfield for Detroit in 1911, intending to work his way on a cattleboat to England. In the budding motor city however, an uncle advised him to get a job at the new plant just being built by John and Horace Dodge. He intended to stay "only for a couple of months" to earn money for his passage to England. Once he started to work, however, the youth was so intrigued by the opportunities that the two months stretched onward to 44 years.

Throughout his career he has played a prominent part in Detroit's rise as the center of automotive production. It was he who provided the intricate tools needed to produce the first Dodge cars, which Pershing used later in chasing Pancho Villa and with the AEF in France. And it was Lamborn whose genius found a way to mass-produce the famous French field guns so badly needed by Pershing—a feat the French said was impossible.

Still later, in World War II, Lamborn helped build more than 400,000 Dodge military vehicles and the delicate Sperry gyro-compass.

Upon his retirement, 100 Dodge and Chrysler executives, many of whom had worked with him since the early days, gathered to pay tribute to the man who had risen from a "boomer machinist" to one of the most responsible positions in the automotive field.

Among the many gifts showered upon him by W. C. Newberg, (left) president of Dodge, and K. T. Keller, (right) Chrysler chairman of the board, was a huge cup testifying to the respect in which Lamborn was held both as a production genius, and a citizen of Michigan.

Mrs. Williamson Tells of Trip

Mrs. Charles Williamson, who recently returned from the west coast, entertained 20 members of the Good Cheer Class, Friday evening with an account of her last winter's vacation trip around the coast of South America.

Mrs. Williamson was one of a group of eleven passengers on a coast wise freighter which made most of the major ports. The trip took nearly three months and they encountered many changes of climate and weather. Her observations of the people and customs made during this leisurely journey were of fascinating interest to her listeners.

Mrs. Lulu McConnell took as her devotional topic, "Drink deep from wisdom's well." The hostess, Mrs. Lililan Hoagland, assisted by Mrs. Carrie Morley, served refreshments for the group.

There will be no June meeting but a picnic at Walter Hayes park will be held in July.

Local Topics

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Foote of St. Petersburg, Florida came Thursday to spend some time with Mr. Foote's sister, Mrs. Francis Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Whittier of Port Huron and Mrs. John Jordan of Lapeer were guests Sunday of Miss Edith Ingersoll.

June Is Dairy Month

Special programs will be launched throughout the state June 1 to tell the story of dairy products and their nutritional value to the family as June Dairy Month in Michigan officially gets underway, according to Charles E. Stone, secretary-manager of the American Dairy Association of Michigan and chairman of the June Dairy Month committee, which sponsors the annual event.

Dairy farmers in all of the state's 83 counties have correlated their efforts with milk processors the past few weeks, preparing special promotions and events to tell the dairy products story to the public. Posters have been placed in most food stores and local festivals are scheduled in some places stressing dairy products.

A highlight of the month will be the state-wide tour of Miss Joanne Barrett, of Lum, Michigan's pretty 1955 queen of dairying.

The queen, who just recently completed a tour of the east with three other queens of Michigan's agricultural products as part of the Michigan Week observance, will spread the story of milk and other dairy foods in local programs all during June.

Assisting Miss Barrett will be county queens who recently competed for the state title of Michigan's dairy queen.

According to Mr. Stone, more than 1,000 Michigan people in all walks of life are serving on special dairy committees in 83 counties.

In conjunction with local efforts, the American Dairy Association of Michigan has started a large-scale promotional program through advertising in Michigan newspapers, national magazines and television and radio stations which blanket Michigan homes in order to bring the story of dairying to all.

Local festivities, already planned for June Dairy Month, are slated for Stanton, Flint, Port Huron, Ludington and Scottville.

In Stanton the dairy committee of Montcalm county has scheduled a Dairy Smorgasbord.

A dairy day has been scheduled for Flint for June 7 sponsored by Flint dairies and Mrs. Marian N. Kotte, consumer information agent.

Business Women Install Officers

Annual reports and the installation of new officers were the main features of the last regular meeting of the season of the Business and Professional Woman's Club Monday evening.

Mrs. Howard Truesdale was the installing officer and presided over the impressive ceremony when the outgoing officers, each before a white candle, were presented with red roses and in turn lighted a yellow candle for their successor, giving each a rose with their best wishes. Mrs. Ray Sluyter, as the new president, headed the installed officers, who included Mrs. R. Dixon as first vice president; Miss Lucile Hawley as second vice president; Mrs. Maxine Runk, recording secretary; Mrs. Mary Drake, corresponding secretary and Miss Ann Carson, treasurer.

As announced by the new president, the acting committees for the coming year are: program, Mrs. Roy VanWinkle, Miss Ann Carson and Mrs. Earl Baldwin; membership, Mrs. B. E. Brees, Mrs. Cecil Smith and Mrs. Alice Randall; finance, Mrs. George French, Mrs. Archie Porter, and Miss Mabel Hamlin; publicity, Mrs. Edna Staulter and Miss Clara Waldron; child welfare, Mrs. B. Meyer and Mrs. W. G. Waldron; courtesy, Mrs. Duaine Service, Mrs. Marvin Watkins and Mrs. Lois Aebersold; auditing, Mrs. Ralph Sager and Mrs. Maxine Runk and parliamentarian, Miss Ruth Harding.

Preceding installation, the outgoing president, Mrs. Homer Colson conducted a short business meeting during which the annual reports were summarized and Mrs. Cecile Smith reported on the work of the club in making Hospitality Day a success. The members sold 84 tickets to the civic banquet and Mrs. Smith gave special credit to Mrs. Staulter, Miss Lockwood, Mrs. Colson and Mrs. Service.

Thanks from Mrs. Cole of the County Federation of Women's Clubs for the assistance given by the club at the Federation's golden anniversary were received as was the resignation of Miss Gertrude Spaulding because of her departure from the city. It was also announced that there would be a Federation picnic, June 29 at the Ellis Playground in Blissfield.

This was the year's musical program and it was in charge of Mrs. W. G. Waldron. It opened with two piano duets played by Mrs. Sluyter and Mrs. Runk followed by Miss Marcelle Gillespie singing "Romance." Miss Gillespie then introduced a group of her pupils, Ruby Lambes, Betty Day, Delores Fletcher, Rosemary Murphy and Julie Crawford who sang "Mood Indigo" and "My Lord Delivered Daniel."

A new and much enjoyed note was added to the program by two flute solos played by Miss Sally Rentschler with Mrs. Waldron at the piano, and "Amarylis" was sung by Mrs. Nina Heath, Mrs. Duaine Service and Miss Marie Wintersteen as a vocal trio.

Mrs. Waldron then introduced the Rev. Alvin Brazee, who with Mrs. Brazee was a guest of the evening. He spoke briefly on his hobby of collecting old school readers and then connected his talk with music by reading an old poem which related the legend of the birth of the Stradivarius violin.

The program came to a fitting climax with the playing of three string selections "Spanish Dance," "Merry Widow Waltz" and "Golden Waltz" with Mrs. Robert Warren as cellist and Mrs. Max Sweet of Adrian playing the violin. Both are accomplished players and their music was much enjoyed. They were accompanied by Mrs. Waldron.

A picnic at the home of Miss Marjorie Wickwire will be the June gathering of the club and will complete the year.

BROTHER MARRIED

Mrs. Ralph Helzerman drove to Buffalo, N. Y. Thursday, accompanied by her daughter, Marilyn and Joan Wing. There she attended the wedding of her brother, Warren C. McKenzie and Miss Norma Doris Shisler, which took place at 4 p.m. Saturday at the Central Park Methodist Church.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at the Park Lane Hotel. Mrs. Helzerman's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. S. McKenzie of Adrian were also present.

Mr. McKenzie will be remembered by many here because of his talk on interior decoration before the ladies of the Country Club two years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie will reside in Stanford, Conn., where he has an interior decorating business and where Mr. McKenzie will be superintendent of the out-patient department of a new hospital being opened there.

Foot Health Week Observed

"Ninety-eight percent of all Michigan children are born with perfect feet."

This is the encouraging report of Dr. Earl G. Kaplan, Detroit chiropodist who is president of the Michigan Chiropody association and treasurer of the National Foot Health Foundation.

The alarming problem, however, according to Dr. Kaplan, is what happens to these perfect feet during childhood and adolescence. He reports that a recent foot health survey showed four out of every five women and three out of every five men suffer from some form of foot trouble before they are 20. And in addition, he says, American business last year lost 600 million dollars to foot ailments.

The two biggest reasons for foot troubles are neglect and ignorance, Dr. Kaplan points out. To help alleviate the situation the Michigan Chiropody association is undertaking a public information program which includes sponsorship of Michigan Foot Health Week, May 22-29, and publication of a booklet entitled "Know Your Chiropodist."

The six-page booklet is available without charge through any of the members of the association. It acquaints the public with the profession of chiropody, and it details the qualifications of the chiropodist and his professional ethics and educational background. It even explains that the much mis-pronounced title is said KI-ROP'-O-DIST.

"Chiropodists, like dentists, are specialists required to attend six years of college, and they are just as important," says Dr. Kaplan. "The normal human has two natural sets of teeth, and these can be replaced, but one pair of feet is nature's limit."

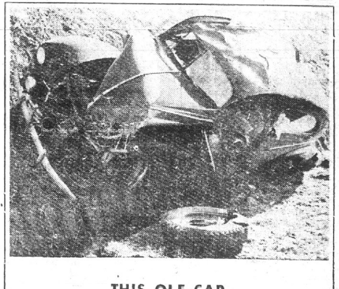
VACATIONISTS—BE CAREFUL!



THIS OLE CAR

This ole car once knew some children,
This ole car once knew a wife,
This ole car once knew a husband
And a merry family life . . .

But this family's trips are over,
Picked a dang'rous spot to pass—
Then they saw death's angel peekin'
Through the broken windshield glass.

Ain't gonna need this car no longer,
Ain't gonna need this car no more—
Had no time to fix the brakes up,
Had no time to fix the door,
Had no time to fix the steerin'
Or to drive with more restraint—
Ain't gonna need this car no longer,
They've been taken to meet the Saint . . .

Three Methodist Circles Formed

The three circles of the newly reorganized Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church held preliminary meetings Wednesday evening, May 18. Their membership is made up from the former Reliable Circle, Methodist Guild and Mary Martha on a pro-rata basis without regard for age groups.

Only one has as yet chosen a name, which is to be selected from those of Methodist missionaries. The new Mary Foster circle met at the home of Mrs. Walter Beck but did not choose officers at this time.

There were 18 in the group at the church where Mrs. Walter Hizer was acting chairman and Mrs. Delmar Crisp led devotions. It was voted to meet on the third Wednesday of each month and officers were decided upon as follows: chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Heflin; vice chairman, Mrs. James Artman and secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Walter Hizer. The matter of a name was left to a committee and there was a program in charge of Mrs. Hizer. Mrs. Paul Hadsell will entertain the group next month.

The third group, meeting at the home of Mrs. Erwin Buss, chose as officers: chairman, Mrs. Elmer Bryan; vice chairman, Mrs. Victor Peterson and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Clifford Adams. Mrs. Dorothy Murphy will be sunshine chairman. This group also appointed a committee to decide on a name.

Methodists Note Children's Day

The Children's Day program at the Methodist church was held before a capacity congregation Sunday morning.

The children of the nursery, kindergarten and primary departments sang songs and a feature of the program was a Bible quiz conducted by the Rev. Horace James.

The girls team, representing their respective classes, was Joyce Hadsell of high school, Mary Ann Mead of the junior department and Sally Hunt, intermediate.

The boys were Gary Hizer, high school; Bobbie Bonner, junior and Bobbie Dick, intermediate. The contest, which displayed an admirable grasp of the subject matter on the part of the contestants, resulted in a tie score.

Special recognition was given the eight Methodist boys and girls in the 1955 graduating class by the Rev. James in his morning sermon and they were presented with copies of the Bible by the Dependable Class. The eight were Gary Hizer, Diane Woodward, Peggy Jo Pocklington, Brenda Porter, Roger Bush, Lois Smith, Kathleen Davis and Judy Foos.

Kitchen Tour Taken by 300

The annual kitchen tour conducted by the Women's Auxiliary of St. Peter's Episcopal church last Thursday afternoon was considered a success, according to Mrs. C. O. Butler and Mrs. L. W. Larsen, co-chairmen of the event.

Some 300 women took the tour, visiting the kitchens of six homes and ending the tour at St. Peter's new parish house, where sandwiches, cookies and tea were served. Mrs. R. K. Anderson and Mrs. H. H. Hammel presided at the tea table centered with spring flowers, which also decorated the room.

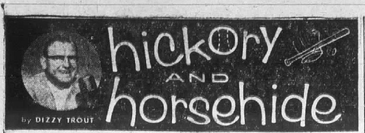
"CELEBRATING OUR 25TH ANNIVERSARY"



An EXCEEDINGLY important item in every major league club's budget is travel expense. It costs each club approximately $35,000 a year to transport players, manager, coaches, trainers and others from city to city.

Where minor leaguers must be content with long and often tedious bus rides, the big leaguers enjoy the fruits of success and travel in style. They are accustomed to all three major modes of transportation, train, plane and bus, depending upon the destination.

The Tigers, for example, charter an airliner for any series in Kansas City that does not allow a one-day break for traveling time. Some 22 hours by rail, the trek to the American League's newest representative is only two and a half hours by air.

On the other hand, for a series in Cleveland, buses are utilized. It is a relatively short jaunt to the Indians' wigwam and back.

Veteran Travelers

Most of the time, however, rail transportation is employed. Major leaguers spend an awful lot of time in pullman cars, much of it playing penny ante card games to while away the monotonous hours.

Teams require two or three special cars, two if they're the modern type with plenty of roomettes, three if they're the old-fashioned sleepers.

On sleepers, the regulars are assigned car one, the utility players car two and the coaches and press car three.

But all this scheduling of transportation is not done at the last moment. It begins the first of the year, when baseball schedules are drawn up. Representatives of bus, railroad and air lines meet with the traveling secretaries of the 16 major league clubs to map out transportation for the entire season.

Baseball players are charged the same for their travel as other individuals. The only consideration they receive is in charter service, such as the special railroad cars.

Great Expense

How the traveling secretaries save money is in judicious purchasing of tickets. By buying tickets, say, from Chicago to New York, stop-over privileges are allowed in Washington and Baltimore.

Despite such economy measures, the expense of playing on the road is terrific. The cost comes to about a thousand dollars per man per season, not including feeding.

On the Tigers' recent 13-day swing through the East, hotel accommodations ran to $2,900, with food (at about $8 per man per day) another $4,000.

Chartering a bus to the ball park and back to the hotel, so that the whole team arrives on time, costs another $22 a day.

It becomes apparent that playing the Hickory and Horsehide game away from home is an expensive proposition.

Indians Win First League Baseball Game

The Tecumseh High School Indians won their first league baseball game Thursday, edging Hillsdale in an extra inning, 6-5.

The score was tied at 5-5 when left fielder Bob Manley led off the eighth with a single. He scored all the way from first on a single by Al Dickinson. The ball got past the center fielder and Manley scooted home.

Ray Larned had a homer, triple and single to lead the Indians' hitting. He smacked his homer in the first inning with nobody on.

Dickinson had a double and single.

Auseon and Freese led the Hornet attack with two hits each, powdering a triple and single apiece.

Although outhit 12-6, the Indians kept pecking away at Hillsdale's first inning 3-1 lead to come out the victor.

Dales Beat Track Team

Hillsdale High School defeated Tecumseh in a dual track meet last week, 60⅔ to 38⅓.

Hillsdale's first were scored by Brown and McElroy with a 40' heave in the shot put; Moore with a jump of 5' 9¼" in the high jump; Lint and Ewles with a mark of 8' 6" in the pole vault; Moore with a leap of 19' 1½" in the broad jump; Lint with an 18 seconds dash in the 120 high hurdles; Boyse with a 4:53 mile; Moore with a 53 seconds 440; Lint with a 22.7 seconds 180 low hurdles; and the relay team with a 1:40.3 in the 880 relay.

Ritchie Davis had a first in the 100 yard with a mark of 10.6; Davis also had a first in the 220 with 24.8; Miller had a 2:11.7 half mile; and Tecumseh's medley relay team of McDowell, Touborg, Cadmus and Dickinson won the event in 2:42.

Other local point getters were Scutt with a second in the shot put; Davis with a second in the high jump; Weakly with a second in the 110 yard dash; Browne with a second in the mile; Betzoldt with a second in the 440; Weakly with a second in the 220; Drummonds with a tie for third in the high jump; Baker with a third in the 120 low hurdles; Bowser with a third in the 440; and Scutt with a third in the 180 low hurdles.

2000 Fans See Jackson Races

The stock car races are moving into high gear at Jackson Motor Speedway. The regular Saturday night races are drawing excellent fields of drivers and cars as shown by the numerous broken records.

Loren Ferney of Jackson is leading in the drivers' point standings with 255 points. Ferney has gunned his Chrysler-powered Plymouth to a 4th place finish, and two 2nd places in the 25-lap feature races.

Wayne Harrington of Kalamazoo rocketed into 2nd place in the point standings when he won the feature race last Saturday night. Virgil Rimer is now in 3rd place, Art Krallman 4th, Don Vandeventor 5th, Bill Kourt 6th, Russ Baugh 7th, Jim Kennedy 8th, Mickey Katlin 9th and Mike Gray 10th.

Over 2,000 fans, the largest crowd of the season, saw the hard-fought races last Saturday night. The result was a $950 purse which is expected to attract a very fast field for the coming Saturday night program.

The hard-riding stock car drivers are in action every Saturday night at Jackson Motor Speedway. Time trials start at 7 and the first race starts at 8:30 with 8 races every night. All events are on the high-banked three-eighth mile track.

Boysville Wins

Boysville clobbered Dexter in a League of the Lakes baseball game Friday, 8-1.

Johnny Murray, Knight hurler, pitched a three hitter, fanned 14 and walked eight.

Boysville got off to a four-run start in the first inning, added a single run in the third, two runs in the fourth and a single run in the seventh.

Dexter got its lone run in the third.

Full Card of Races Set for Adrian

Three of last year's top 10 drivers at Adrian Speedway scored victories in the season opener but the other seven will be shooting for their first wins here this season when the MARC stock car races swing into action with a full card Thursday night.

Rained out of the second round of races last week, the Speedway slate starts this Thursday, and every Thursday throughout the season, with time trials at 7 p.m. and the first race at 8:30.

Rollie Beale, 1954 track champion, chalked up a heat victory in the opener while Kenny Nemire took the Australian Pursuit and was nosed out by Dick Mortemore in the opening feature. Nemire was runnerup last year while Mortemore finished ninth in MARC point standings at Adrian Speedway.

A couple of third place finishes by cousins Herb and Myron Robinosn have been the best output to date for Adrian entries. Adrian's Larry Gray, who escaped with a cut finger in a 6-car crackup on opening night, has his car in shape for this week's action.

Another Adrian entry hoping to break into the victory column is Ken McCullough, who raced here last year and has been running at Jackson. Dempsey Moore of Adrian helped Ken build his '40 Ford for racing and the two are co-owers. Ken works as a hydraulic maintenance man at Bridgeport Brass when he's not racing.

This week's card includes time trials, four heat races, the Australian Pursuit, another "amateur" event, semi-final and feature. Children under 12 are admitted free with their parents, while parking is free at the Speedway.

Clinton Powders Tecumseh, 9-5

Clinton Redskins powdered Tecumseh in baseball last week in a non-league game for both nine, 9-5.

Clinton had two big innings to ice the game, scoring six runs in the first inning and adding three in the second.

The Indians scored two in the second and three in the third to fall four runs short.

Highlights of the Indians' attack were a homer by Jim Bowser in the third with two aboard and a brace of singles by Denny Farley.

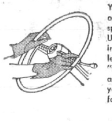
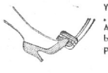
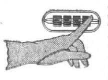
Ford's lower price lets you buy "the works"!
Because Ford is priced hundreds of dollars below other fine cars, you can have conveniences like Fordomatic, power steering, power brakes, power windows or a 4-way power front seat with the money you save!*



Master-Guide Power Steering lets you park up to 75% easier
You ease your Ford into or out of tight parking spaces with far less effort. Unlike many power steering systems, Master-Guide leaves you with a natural "feel" of steering . . . yet assists you the moment you need extra "muscle" for turning or parking.



Swift Sure Power Brakes let you stop up to ⅓ easier
You travel more relaxed . . . arrive more refreshed. And Ford's suspended brake pedal makes stopping even easier.



Power-Lift Windows let driver regulate all 4 windows
And there's a separate control at each window for individual passenger convenience. From the driver's seat you can set each window just as you want it with a touch on the control.

4-Way Power Seat gives exact seat adjustment
A single control moves the front seat forward or back, up or down, for the exact height and leg room you want. It's the only 4-way seat in Ford's field.

Can you see, steer, stop safely? Check your car . . . check accidents!

*Based upon a comparison of manufacturers' suggested list or factory delivered prices

You can profit from the experience of thousands of former medium-priced-car buyers who have made the switch to Ford. For one thing, you can enjoy as they do Ford's many truly fine-car features and, with the money you save, buy the fine-car power conveniences of your choice.

Whichever of Ford's 16 models you prefer, you get the years-ahead styling of the Thunderbird. Rich Luxury Lounge interiors offer you the last word in interior décor. You'll be far ahead in "go," too, with Ford's reassuring Trigger-Torque power. And wherever you go, on boulevard or back road, Ford's exclusive Angle-Poised ride smooths the way.

Try Ford and you'll agree . . . you can pay more but you can't buy better!

New Speed-Trigger Fordomatic for automatic driving at its best
Now, for extra-fast speed-trigger starts, just press the accelerator to the toeboard and you flash away in "low." Fordomatic automatically shifts you into intermediate gear then to direct—all while the selector lever is set at "Drive."

Death Stalks Travelers

The approaching three-day holiday, Saturday through Monday, brings warnings about traffic risks from police, the Automobile Club of Michigan and the Michigan Trucking Association.

Unnecessary driving should be eliminated from Memorial Day programs, all said. Truckers were asked to move only cargoes of extreme urgency.

However, police expected that nearly a million cars would be on the highways, and that death would stalk peacetime travelers as closely as shells and bombs struck at those the holiday remembers.

Speeding, driving on the wrong side of the road, and recklessness will cause 319 deaths of a predicted nationwide total of 425 highway accident fatalities during the three-day Memorial Day weekend starting Friday night, road safety officials report.

Excessive speed is expected to be the "number one killer," taking a toll of 170 lives. Eighty-five more persons will meet death as a result of driving on the wrong side of the road, and another 64 will die because of recklessness.

Other major factors contributing to the grim score of 425 victims are: failure to yield the right of way, which will account for 43 lives, and sleeping at the wheel, which will take 25. Miscellaneous causes will kill the final 38 of the predicted total.

Approximately one-fourth of drivers who are involved in fatal accidents, or pedestrians who are killed, will have been drinking. Most smashups will take place on straight, dry roads, and almost half of all fatalities will occur in broad daylight.

With the help of 50 National Guardsmen ordered out by Governor Williams, Michigan State Police have planned an intensified traffic safety effort over the Memorial day weekend.

As the first step, Commissioner Joseph A. Childs has canceled all pass days from noon Friday, May 27, to noon Tuesday, May 31. The cancellation order also includes the Fourth of July and Labor Day weekend.

All State Police enlisted personnel will be on traffic duty. Detectives and other officers on special assignment will work at Post radio desks or be on patrol.

Post commanders have been instructed to schedule patrols in accordance with traffic flows and to pay special attention to high accident areas.

The National Guardsmen will not be used on patrol, but on point control where traffic becomes congested and jams up for considerable distances. Their use on point control proved very effective when the Guard was called out to work with the State Police, sheriffs and local police over the last Labor Day weekend.

Twenty persons were killed in 19 Michigan accidents during the Memorial weekend last year.

"We're going to try to reduce that toll this year," Childs said. "But the final answer, as always, is the driver himself. It's up to him to save his life by driving sensibly and watching out for the other fellow.

"Traffic may reach an all time high for a Memorial weekend and that means drivers must be on the alert. And they shouldn't forget that safety does pay."

When Mr. Purdum bought the Apartment House as an investment, he remarked that he had enjoyed dealing with our firm.

Then he dropped from sight — moved to Missouri.

Late one evening, the phone rang. Surprisingly, it was a long distance call from Mr. Purdum.

"I have another opportunity here," he said, "a business venture requiring lots of capital. Do you think you can sell my Apartment House?"

"Sure," I said. "How much do you want for it?"

"Use your own judgment," came the startling answer. "You know what I have in it. Get me out with a quick sale."

I started to protest, but he cut in, "Go ahead. Work up as good a deal as you can, but call me before you turn anything down. I have lots of faith and confidence in your firm."

This is admittedly an unusual incident. But the moral bears emphasis: You can place your selling problem in our hands with complete confidence!

Garden Club Tours Gardens

Eighteen members of the Garden Club were entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Paul Maves on Newburg road. It was garden tour day but a business meeting was conducted in advance and the hostess, assisted by Mrs. R. J. McCoy, Mrs. Kennard Wise and Mrs. William Stearns served dessert before the tour began.

Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, Mrs. Leon Rosacrans and Mrs. Hoyt Whelan, who are the committee in charge of a memorial planting for Mrs. R. S. Moore reported on their plans for a beauty spot on the hospital grounds.

Miss Ann Carson and Mrs. Harold Wilson were appointed to attend the 24th annual meeting of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan which will be held at the Hotel Hayes in Jackson, June 8 and 9 and Mrs. William Stearns accepted the post of club secretary for the remainder of the year.

Mrs. Henry Korth was a guest of the club and the names of two new members were proposed by Mrs. Neil Pearson.

The president, Mrs. Harold Wilson, was in charge of the tour and after the group had enjoyed the late tulips and iris in Mrs. Maves' garden she led the way to the homes of Mrs. Henry VanDuzer, Miss Ann Carson, Mrs. Al Helzerman and Mrs. Neil Pearson. Because of the advanced season many of the spring bulbs were past but iris was at its best and the members were well repaid for their trip.

Mrs. L. W. Larsen will entertain the club in June.

Christian Science Services Listed

Divine healing which casts out evil and restores harmony on the basis of God's unfailing power and goodness will be set forth at Christion Science services this Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" will include the account of healing as recorded in The Acts of the Apostles (5:12 to,, 16): "And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; . . . There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one."

Also stressing the practical power of Christian healing is the following passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God will heal the sick through man, whenever man is governed by God. Truth casts out error now as surely as it did nineteen centuries ago" (495:1-3).

Here's why PONTIAC WINS BUYERS
FROM EVERY OTHER MAKE

It's a king-size luxury car—
Biggest at its price!
Pontiac is a big, roomy car. Here it is: A car with 122" or 124" wheelbase—longest in its price field, even longer than some models in the top price range—and with true big-car stability to match. Luxury is in key. For quality of fabrics, conveniences and appointments, Pontiac compares with the costliest cars.

It's a 200-horsepower performer—
Most powerful at its price!
As the only car with the Strato-Streak V-8, Pontiac has a big performance advantage. This newest and most efficient V-8 enables Pontiac to provide more power than any car has ever delivered at Pontiac's price—a full 200 horsepower with the four-barrel carburetor, an extra cost option; 180 H.P. is standard.

It's a future-fashioned beauty—
Most distinctive at any price!
Style-conscious motorists turn to Pontiac for true mode-of-tomorrow design, beautifully different from any other car on the road. Exclusive Vogue Two-Tone styling, Twin-Streaked hood and low, rakish lines give you a car that you know will remain a prideful possession for many years to come.

It's America's topmost value—
Greatest buy of any year!
Pontiac is selling at the fastest rate of all time for this simple reason: America agrees—when you can get the size, power, beauty and luxury you want at Pontiac's easy price, that's the place to put your money. Come in and get all the facts.

You can buy a big, 200-horsepower Strato-Streak V-8 Pontiac for less than many models of the lowest-priced cars and for much less than stripped economy models of higher-priced makes—none of which equal Pontiac in combined power, size and future-fashioned beauty.

Millions Are Affected By Allergies . . .

It is estimated there are now 10 million allergy victims in our country. Hay fever is most prevalent. Of the others, asthma, exzema, hives, constant allergies and food reactions are prominent offenders.

Simple treatment help little. Take your allergy to your Doctor. If it is not quickly curable — and it likely is not — scientific tests and treatment can teach you how to live with it.

4-H Sunday Is Observed

A number of 4-H clubs in the county actively participated in church services on 4-H Sunday last week. Reports have come to the county office on services at three churches.

The Britton Suttonaires club, led by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Frayer, reports 18 of their 21 members attended services at the Britton Congregational church. Since the members of this club represent five different churches the names of all of them were put in a hat and the Congregational church was the one drawn from it. Next year this church will be left out so that eventually all of the churches will be attended on 4-H Sunday.

Rev. O. E. Priest welcomed the club and spoke of the fine work 4-H clubs are doing for youth.

At the Rollin Methodist church Mary Ann Hyatt led the services assisted by Bertie Gibbs and Constance Beal. Large numbers attended from the Rollin Blue Streaks and the Kitchenettes. Mrs. Alfred Hyatt, leader of the Kitchenettes and Nathan Knowles, leader of the Rollin Blue Streaks and Clayton Ingerson, extension agent, were introduced. Mary Ann Hyatt explained to the congregation the 4-H motto and 4-H pledge. Most of the choir was composed of 4-H members.

At the Rollin Baptist church 4-H members from the Rollin Do and Learn club, the Quaker Craftsmen and Quaker Willing Workers conducted the services with the exception of the sermon.

In the sermon the Rev. Riley compared the building of good christians to the building of good soil.

Flowers decorating the altar were donated by Linda Underhill, Janet Stubli and Carolyn Carpenter.

Linda Peebles acted as song leader and a vocal recitation was given by Linda, her sister Janet and Jane Bradstreet.

Nelson Bills and Jane Bradstreet led prayers and David Stubli, David Betz, Robert Hawkins and Richard Hawkins conducted the offering. Margaret Hawkins played the piano and a choir made-up of all 4-H members present sang "For the Beauty of the Earth."

The Rollin Do and Learn club is led by Mrs. Lambert Peebles, the Quaker Willing Workers by Mrs. Morris Stubli and Charles Huffman and the Quaker Craftsmen by Lawrence Cole and John Hawkins.

County 4-H agent Jim Pelham and family were visitors.

New WSCS Circle Elects Officers

One of the new circles of the W.S.C.S. of the Methodist church met Wednesday, May 18, at the home of Mrs. Arlene Buss with 15 members attending.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Glyde Wittrup.

New officers elected include Mrs. Anna Bryan, chairman; Mrs. Ethel Peterson, vice-chairman; Mrs. Don Murphy, Sushine chairman; and Mrs. Bessie Adams, secretary-treasurer.

A committee was appointed to decide a name for this circle. Members of this committee are Mrs. Owen Partridge, Mrs. Arlene Buss and Mrs. Earl McNeil.

The meeting closed with refreshments served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ethel Peterson and Mrs. Lorraine Radant.

The next meeting will be held June 15 at the home of Mrs. Anna Bryan.

Get Articles Ready for Goodwill Trucks

The United States government recently issued a pamphlet stating that the lack of closet space in new homes today was the largest single mistake made by the majority of architects of new homes today. The majority of housewives in the country will undoubtedly agree with the government research on this phase of the American home.

Mrs. Carl Burch and William Kuster, Goodwill representatives from Tecumseh and Britton, have an answer for housewives in this area whose homes lack the necessary closet space. Although not offering to build any new homes, they promise that if every housewife, during spring cleaning takes out the clothes that are either moth eaten, out of style, or outgrown, and gives them to Goodwill Industries, they will be surprised at the added space they will have for their every day needs.

The two repreesntatives have also asked the men of the area to go through their garages and take out broken or old tools and toys and save them for Goodwill Industries.

The Goodwill trucks will make their next visit to Tecumseh and Britton on Wednesday, June 1. The representative from Tecumseh, Mrs. Burch, will arrange to have a pick-up truck stop at your home if you call her at Tecumseh 868, and Mr. Kuster, the representative from Britton, will do the same if you call him at Britton 2121.

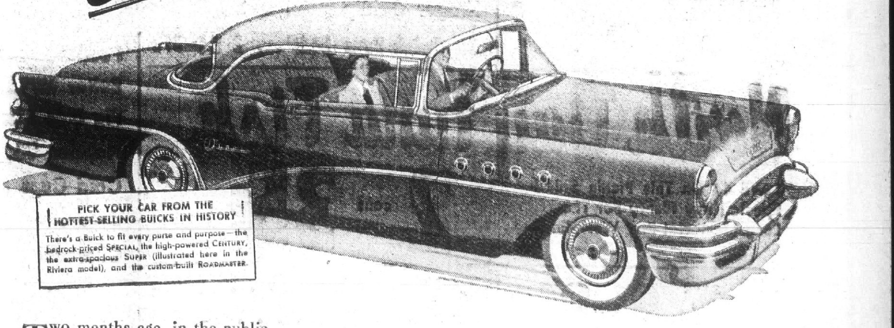
This '55 Buick must have something that folks just won't do without!



PICK YOUR CAR FROM THE HOTTEST-SELLING BUICKS IN HISTORY

There's a Buick to fit every purse and purpose—the bedrock-priced SPECIAL, the high-powered CENTURY, the extra-spacious SUPER (illustrated here in the Riviera model), and the custom-built ROADMASTER.

Two months ago, in the public print, we said that this looks like Buick's biggest year—and we weren't fooling.

But what has happened—and continues to happen—is almost beyond belief.

People buy up these stunning new Buicks practically as fast as we get them from the factory. Buick production—already revised upward several times—keeps forging ahead to new highs every month to meet the mounting demand.

And Buick sales keep soaring higher and higher and higher — outstripping by far the phenomenal success of last year — the success that moved Buick into the "Big Three" of America's best sellers.

What is it about the '55 Buicks that folks by the hundreds of thousands just won't do without? It's many things.

It's styling that's boldly distinctive and fresh as tomorrow. It's beauty of line and beauty of interior décor. It's a ride that's level, firm and steady. It's a new sweetness of handling. It's great power — walloping new V8 power of record might.

But above all, it's a new kind of performance, from a new kind of automatic transmission that was born of flight thinking.

It's Variable Pitch Dynaflow*—engineered from the principle of the modern plane's switch-pitch propeller—and what it brings you in the way of pure thrill, mere words can't describe.

Just you drop in on us this very week and try it. That way you can see what a terrific automobile — and a terrific buy — the hottest-selling Buick of all time really is.

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Thrill of the year is Buick

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

MANY THANKS TO RICKY Holdridge, Bobby Dick and our own Ernie Jeschke for their help in distributing the paper on city routes last week. They all did a fine job in seeing that most folks got the paper.

RICHARD N. PEARSON, 501 west Pottawatamie, has been named a case editor for the Boston University School of Law's "Law Review Quarterly." The publication publishes case histories, legal treatises, analyses of various types of law cases written by Boston University as well as non-Boston University legal authorities. Dick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Pearson, was selected on the basis of academic standing and writing ability. He will help to edit the publication next year.

ROGER WARING OF MARION, Ohio, renewed his subscription and sent this message: "Tell Clara Waldron her column 'Is That So!' is worth the price of admission alone. I never miss it and never miss getting a thrill out of it. All of the HERALD is good now."

POST MICHIGAN WEEK thought: If you ever need a fine meal served in high style contact the Tecumseh Grange. Grange members did another outstanding job at the Michigan Week hospitality day banquet. And how about that technique for serving that large, hungry crowd? Its equal hasn't been seen in these parts.

AND ANOTHER: MISS Josephine Brighenti, county home demonstration agent, reports that the following poem, author unknown, was given to her by Mrs. Virgil Lowery, a member of the south Holloway Extension Club:

God knit a mitten of sand, rock and lime,
He made a foundation to last through all time.
He planted its palm with hemlock and pine,
Then blessed it with rain and golden sunshine.
He feathered its forest and flowered its fields,
And gave it a history of automobiles.
In all of the world there is no other land
That God Himself patterned from His own left hand.

WONDER HOW LONG IT TAKES to learn that when you reach the mid-thirties you can't run and jump and raise cain in general as you did when you were 12 or 13. Last Saturday we tried this in a softball game with a bunch of junior high sprites and since that time it has been a bit difficult to navigate. Wonder how Johnny Hamilton and Virge Tucker are. They played and I haven't seen them on the street since. Maybe they just can't get about any more.

MAYOR OLEY HANNA SAYS Morrice, the little town he visited on Mayors' Exchange Day, is small but the folks there are very proud of their town. He says they show this pride in everything they say and do.

MRS. RUTH O'NEILL REPORTS that when she saw her son Skip in his graduating cap and gown he looked seven feet tall.

FOLKS WHO HAVE LIVED HERE exclaimed that the Michigan Week parade was the best one they have seen in Tecumseh. This is high praise indeed for this fine parade.

THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK—I have grown to believe:

That the one thing worth aiming at is simplicity of heart and life;

That one's relations with others should be direct, not diplomatic;

That power leaves a bitter taste in the mouth;

That meanness and hardness and coldness are the unforgiveable sins;

That conventionality is the mother of dreariness;

That pleasure exists not in the virtue of material conditions, but in the joyful heart;

That the world is a very interesting and beautiful place;

That congenial labor is the secret of happiness.

25 Pound Trout Caught But Biggest Got Away

This is a fish story and, like all fish stories, one of the biggest got away.

Dr. Richard Dustin and R. H. Moore were in a party of 15 that fished from May 11 to May 27 in the wilds of Canada. The trip was conducted by Walter Johnson of Birdsall. Others in the party were from Mason, Ypsilanti, Toledo and Jackson.

Driving to the Sault, they took a boat to the north shore of Lake Superior and then a car to Red Lake in western Ontario. The party then hopped a plane that flew 50 miles into the wilderness.

Fishing from a canoe in a chain of seven lakes that involved several portages, they caught lake trout, pike and pickerel.

One of the trout weighed 25 pounds and Dr. Dustin caught a northern pike that stretched 42½ inches. Bob Moore caught one that measured 36 inches.

And, of course, there's an incident about the one that got away. This one broke a 20-pound line for Bob.

Members of the party caught 45 trout in one day. Limit was five per species per person.

They traveled 1270 miles to fish and they claim it was worth every mile.

School Building Bonds Approved at Britton

Britton-Macon Rural Agricultural School students will have additions to their school buildings.

Voters Saturday okayed a $235,000 bond proposition that will provide for the improvements. The vote was:

For	200
Against	130

The special election was held under the new state law which passed as proposal No. 3 in the election last Nov. This proposal provides for school district voters to approve bond issues without a vote on the tax millage rate.

A simple majority is necessary for approval and only property owners can vote.

The vote Saturday will make possible the following:

A 54 x 84 gym, locker and shower rooms; a new science laboratory and classroom; a stage to be used for a band room; and corridors connecting the three separate units of the school.

The old gym also will be remodeled into a study hall and cafeteria, basement locker rooms into a kitchen and the present study hall into two upper elementary classrooms.

Final checking of the plans will be done by architect Ralph Gerganoff of Ypsilanti in the next few days, reports Supt. Rudolph Koczman, and, he adds, "as soon as the plans are approved by our board, the bonds will be sold and bids on the work will be requested."

Hundreds Remember Their War Dead

Hundreds of local folks Monday braved cold and threatening weather to view a long and colorful Memorial Day parade of 38 units and to attend services in Brookside Cemetery.

Marching up Chicago boulevard to north Union, the parade terminated at the cemetery where services were held and a large crowd heard the Rev. Cecil Dickin, rector of St. Peter's Church bring the address.

Before the address, the Rev. Horace James, pastor of the First Methodist Church, pronounced the invocation. Mayor H. H. Hanna introduced the speaker.

Units of the parade included the police, the color guard, city officials' cars, the Tecumseh High School Band directed by Donald Johnson, National Guard vehicles, Legionnaires and Auxiliary, junior members of the Legion, V.F.W. members and Auxiliary, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, Brownies, the flower truck, horses, gaily-decorated bicycles and one tot on a tricycle.

Gerald Smith was parade marshall.

Honored guests at the services were Lyman Ousterhout and Reuben VanWinkle, Tecumseh's veterans of the Spanish-American War.

Selections at the cemetery were played by the band.

The V.F.W. firing squad fired a volley and taps were played as wreaths were placed in the cemetery and on Evans Creek in memory of the soldier and sailor dead.

The Rev. James pronounced the benediction.

Ex. 12: 14

And this day shall be unto for a memorial.

These words are written in the book Exodus 12th chapter and the 14th verse. They are part of an agreement between God and the people of Israel, this agreement being made between God and Moses on behalf of the people.

These people had been under bondage of Egypt for many years.

God was instructing the people through Moses about what they were to do that they might be saved from the visitation of the Death Angel. They were to paint the two door posts and the top post with blood from a lamb, this would be a sign and they would be saved.

The people were to set aside a day of memorial that they forget not their deliverance, the graciousness of God.

Many days of memorial are set aside for different celebrations, and not too many of them are of religious significance. Today we stand here to celebrate a day of memorial, for what?

As I look around at the many monuments I am reminded that I have lost many friends, who were near and dear to me. I remember the loss of many for the freedom of their country, the sacrifice they made, the blood that was shed for you and for me.

As a lamb had to die and shed blood in the days of the Israelites, and then on the Cross at Calvary by our Lord Jesus Christ, so have sons and daughters, fathers and mothers, for the principles that made this country great. I think of those who from their labours rest, gave unto us the many comforts of living, who gave many of the new medicines to relieve pain and suffring, who served their community long and well by sacrifice before self.

There are many things I can think of that make me feel so inadequate today, yet these stones speak of a challenge to me also. I am sure they will speak to you something of what they speak to me. They will also speak a challenge to you.

When I think of all the wonders that have taken place just in the short time that I have been alive, I am aware that I too should endeavor to make some contribution to the betterment of life for myself and for others. What I will do remains to be seen. What you will do is hard to say, but nevertheless we have a responsibility to society and we must fulfill it.

This day shall be a memorial unto you.

We cannot accept these things, these benefits, without some consideration of the cost, and without some determination to do our part for our children and their children.

The eyes of the whole world are upon us. In the past they have been amazed at our successes. We cannot fail now.

Let this day be the time when a spark, that may have been just simmering, be fanned into a flame, that our appreciation may be shown by a willingness to sacrifice for the benefit of others and forget ourselves.

Clayton Store Owner Authors Book of Wit

The Village of Clayton is proud of having, for the first time in its history, a resident who is an author. Edwin D. Kerr, who has compiled a volume of homey sayings, poems, and essays entitled PA SAYS is not only an author, but a humorist and philosopher.

Dedicated to the memory of his father, the book contains many of the sayings which the older Kerr formulated to instill in his family a philosophical view of life.

Well-indoctrinated, Edwin went on to invent sayings of his own which are herein credited to "Pa." Commenting on many of the annoyances that plague us today, the book offers a smile on every page, calculated to relieve our fears and anxieties, and remind us that life is not to be taken too seriously.

Born in Toledo, Ohio, Mr. Kerr graduated from High School in Bryan, Ohio, and went on to work his way up in a variety of business enterprises.

At present he is the owner and operator of a retail furniture store, the Clayton Supply Co., in Clayton.

Like Pa, he is married and the father of three children.

In his book he writes such homey wisdom as: "The reason a year is divided into months is to make your payments come oftener;" or such good advice as: "Politicians are like diapers, the oftener you change them the cleaner they are;" or this observation on the contradictions of modern life: "Horsepower is something that increased after the horse diminished."

New Road Construction Adopted by Legislature

Just what does the new $36,000,000 Michigan highway program do? After long and acrid debate on the merits of the road construction plan sponsored by Senate Republicans, the program was adopted by the Legislature.

Here are the salient features:

Gasoline taxes will be increased 1½ cents per gallon to bring in approximately $30,000,000 in additional money yearly.

Truck weight taxes will go up 10 per cent for an additional $6,000,000.

The new money will be split between the State Highway Department, counties and cities on the basis of 75 per cent to the state and 25 per cent to local governmental units.

That means $27,000,000 a year more for State trunkline construction and $9,000,000 more to be spent on local roads. Counties will get $6,000,000 and cities $3,000,000.

(The formula for dividing the new money does not affect the present split of the current 4½ cent gas tax, of which the State gets 44 per cent, counties 37 per cent and cities 19 per cent).

Forty per cent of the state's 75 per cent must be spent on trunklines or by-passes in and around cities. That means that $10,800,000 of the state's $27,000,000 must be spent in urban areas.

Bonding provisions are provided in order to get an accelerated highway program into being without delay. In the first year, the State and local governments may pledge up to one-fifth of their new money to retire road construction bonds. After that, they may pledge up to one-half of their new money to retire bonds.

"With this program, we could have several hundred millions of dollars of new road construction underway in the next few years," said Senator Creighton R. Coleman, Battle Creek Republican who drew up the highway plan. "We will build roads where they are needed with emphasis on state trunkline construction.

"At the same time, local governments will get more money for their road systems and when their share of the new money is coupled with what they are getting now, it becomes apparent that needs are being met."

Opponents of the bill argued that no action should be taken until a highway study is completed sometime this fall, but those favoring the measure insisted that the program could be reassessed when the Legislature convenes in 1956 on the basis of the study.

The following road projects are named in the bill as part of the state trunkline system: US-27 from Indiana to a point south of Grayling. US-127 from the Ohio border to Lansing. US-23 from Ohio line to Flint. US-223 from Ohio line to US-127. US-131 from the Indiana line to Cadillac. US-31 from the Indiana line to St. Joseph. US-31 from Holland to Ludington. M-53 from Detroit to Imlay City. M-21 from Flint to Port Huron. M-78 from Lansing to Flint.

The following routes are named for modernization of the interstate system:

US-24 or US-25 from Toledo to Detroit. US-12 from Detroit to New Buffalo. US-16 from Detroit to Muskegon. US-10 from Detroit to Saginaw. US-23 from Saginaw to Standish to Roscommon. US-27 from Roscommon to the Straits. US-2 from the Straits to Sault Ste. Marie. A new route is proposed from Kalamazoo to South Bend.

"Now, when you get dried out from your lodge picnic, I'll really give you an ironing!"

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS
from The Bible

Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.—(Romans 15, 13.)

Hope, strong and constantly growing as we come to know our Heavenly Father ever better, becomes a reality when bolstered by steadfast faith — and faith fills us with joy and peace, everlasting.

Country Club Golfers Play Against Furgol and Zaharias

Local golfing enthusiasts — parbusters and duffers alike have been invited to match their skill against Ed Furgol and Babe Didrikson Zaharias, 1954 national open golf champions, in observance of National Golf Day, Saturday, June 4.

National Golf Day each year is sponsored by "Life" Magazine and the Profesisonal Golfers' Association with the close cooperation of the United States Golf Association. This will be the event's fourth year.

The total proceeds of this nation wide gold contest are always disbursed to research and philanthropic projects related to golf and to a national service organization. This year the American Red Cross will be the national service organization receiving the major share of gross receipts.

Mrs. L. W. Larsen, chariman of Tecumseh volunteers of the Lenawee County Chapter, today urged all women golfers in the Tecumseh area to take part.

Mrs. Larsen who will have a corp of uniformed volunteers at the first tee Saturday at the Tecumseh Country Club to register the contestants, called attention to the small entrance fee and the fact that every dollar in this and similar tournaments on the nation's 5,000 courses will be turned over to the National Golf Fund, Inc., for charitable and other worthwhile projects connected with the game and to the Red Cross to help support its wide program of humanitarian services.

Among those who will be indirectly helped are thousands of men in military and veterans hospitals who benefit greatly from Red Cross assistance.

Here is how the National Golf Day competition works. Furgol and Zaharias will play 18 holes at the Olympic Club in San Francisco on June 4. On the same date, throughout the country thousands of ordinary golfers, playing courses of their own choice, using full handicaps, will shoot against the champions. Players without club handicaps use the Callaway handicap system.

A medal inscribed "I Beat Ed Furgol" will be presented to all male golfers bettering Furgol's score. "Life" will present women golfers with a similar medal if they beat Babe Zaharias.

Over the past three years National Golf Day has grossed more than $317,000 for golf and its charities. Participation this year is expected to bring an even greater financial return.

Indians Win Baseball Game; But They Lose Track Meet

By Bob Bruce Warren

Tecumseh High's Indians lost a track meet during the past week but they won their final league baseball game.

They lost a close dual meet to Airport Community in track by a score of 59-50 and won their final baseball game in extra innings from Hillsdale by a score of 2-1.

Airport had eight firsts in the meet for 40 points while the Indians managed five for 25 points.

First place winners for Tecumseh were Partridge with a leap of 19' 5' in the broad jump; Betzoldt with a 55.9 440; Miller with a 2:10 880; the medley relay team (Dickinson, Touborg, McDowell and Scutt) with a 2:46; and the 880 relay team (Weakly, Bowser and Davis) with a mark of 1:39.4.

Second place winners for the Indians were Drummonds (tie) in the high jump; Betzoldt in the pole vault; Baker in the 120 high hurdles; Davis in the 100 yard dash; Browne in the mile; Bowser in the 440; Davis in the 220; Betzoldt (tie) in the 880.

Indian third place winners were Davis in the broad jump; Drummonds in the 120 yard high hurdles; Weakly in the 100; Partridge in the 440; Marsh in the 180 low hurdles; and Haviland in the 880.

BASEBALL TEAM WINS

With two wins over Hillsdale, the Indian baseball team grabbed fourth spot in the Southeastern League and shoved the Hornets into the basement.

The second win over Hillsdale again was extended into extra innings with the Indians gaining the 2-1 squeak in the eighth.

Hillsdale had a golden opportunity to cinch the game in the seventh with the bases loaded and nobody out but failed to score.

The Indians drew first blood in the fifth with a single run and Hillsdale knotted the count in the sixth.

In the eighth Jim Bowser and Bob Manley singled with Bowser scoring what proved to be the winning run on an infield error.

Ray Larned, pitcher and third baseman, drove in the first local run with a single.

Tecumseh had three hits and the Hornets managed two off Spreeman and Larned. Benham was the back-stop.

Monroe Catholic Central won the league title with a 7-1 record.

by DIZZY TROUT

STANDING QUIETLY at home plate, players and fans clustered around him, the late Harry Heilmann presented a stirring sight as he modestly accepted the gifts of an appreciative citizenry for his many years as a Detroit baseball star and, later, Tigers' radio announcer.

If memory serves correctly, it was 1949 and Harry was given a shiny, new Chrysler and a $300 camel hair overcoat. The latter was a gift of the players, who chipped in when they learned that all his life Harry had wanted such a coat.

What brings this to mind is the planned Cristante Night June 3, when Tiger relief hurler Leo Cristante will be honored at pre-game ceremonies by the Oakwood Blue Jackets, Southwest Detroit athletic club with whom Cristante got his start.

Traded with Fain

Big Leo, who won 24 and lost 7 with Atlanta of the Southern Association last season, coming to the Tigers in the winter in the Ferris Fain deal, will receive a number of gifts and a lot of cheers from 500 of the Blue Jackets' 1,500 members sitting together in the stands.

Leo was the Blue Jackets' star pitcher in 1947 in Class B of the Detroit Baseball Federation, winning 10 and losing none, striking out 102 in 80 innings and posting a 1.9 earned run average. He made his professional debut with Terre Haute of the Class B Three-I League, the same club Ol' Diz started with.

Ball players are deeply appreciative of tributes by the fans. Al Kaline was overwhelmed a few weeks ago by the presentation from the Holy Name Society in his native Baltimore.

He was given a movie projector, gold watch, traveling case and a silver set for his wife, but these are comparatively insignificant to what the fans will someday shower upon him if he keeps up his phenomenal performances.

Proud Day

Certainly the most impressive present to a player is an automobile. I remember how I felt when I was honored with a new Pontiac in August, 1950, together with an outboard motor and $400 in silver dollars.

People from all over the state had mailed in dimes and quarters for the presents.

I was all at once proud and humble and deeply appreciative. To this day I treasure the many letters I received and the pictures taken of the occasion.

As a sidelight, back in 1949 George Kell was playing a sterling third base for the Tigers and some man running for mayor in suburban Chicago arranged a "Kell Day" in Comiskey Park.

The man gave George a traveling case and a gold watch.

The resulting Hickory and Horsehide publicity was so effective that the candidate won his mayoral race with ease.

Adrian Speedway Champ Honors Thrown Wide-open

A strong comeback by veteran Pete Toth of Toledo is throwing the championship race into a wide-open battle at Adrian Speedway as the action-packed MARC stock car drivers prepare for another program of racing Thursday night. Time trials are at 7:30, with the first race at 8:30.

Toth, a veteran of many years of victories at stock car tracks throughout the Ohio and Michigan area, is making a strong bid to get back on the top rung this season. Pete proved that in last Thursday's card as he romped to a half-lap victory in the 25-lap feature, with Leo Caldwell finishing a distant second.

The full MARC program at Adrian Speedway this week will include time trials, four heats, Australian Pursuit, semi-final and the feature. Children under 12 are admitted free with parents and parking is free.

Boysville Wins from Pinckney

Pinckney's baseball team was knocked out of first place in the League of the Lake conference by Boysville during the past week.

Boysville, behind the four-hit pitching of John Murray, won, 8-5.

It was the final league game for Boysville which ended the season with a 3-7 conference mark.

Leading Boysville's eight-hit attack were Joe Murray and Rich Temerowski who cracked doubles.

Six Teams Are Entered in Rec. Softball League

Six teams are entered in the city recreation board's Men's Softball League.

The teams are Dick's Standard Service of Tipton, Wilson Motor Sales, Friends Church, American Legion, Gambles Store and Britton Oddfellows.

Dick's Standard Service is the defending champion.

League play began last night. Games are scheduled for every Monday and Wednesday nights. The league will play two rounds and will wind up play with a round-robin tournament.

Season play ends in Aug.

Coach Lester Runk is director of the league. If there are any questions, he will be glad to answer them.

EXTENSION CLUB SEES EUROPEAN PICTURES

Northeast Tecumseh Extension Club members were hostesses Tuesday evening, May 23 at the Ridgeway school to members of Macon Homemakers and Ridgeway Extension Clubs.

The program was a presentation by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rice of Tecumseh of an interesting account of their recent trip to Europe by air. Colored slides taken by them in England, France and Switzerland were shown.

Group introductions were made by the members present giving their names and clubs and why each enjoyed her club.

Refreshments were served following the program and the Rices visited with the group informally.

Brew, Serve Iced Coffee in a Jiffy

Iced coffee, one of the favorite warm-weather drinks, can be prepared in two ways.

Which method you use may depend on how much time you have, says Ruth Brotten, instructor in institution administration at Michigan State College.

The coffee can be brewed at regular strength, cooled thoroughly and cracked ice added just before it is served.

If you're in a hurry, brew the coffee doubly strong and while it's still hot, add plenty of ice to chill it.

Iced coffee, Miss Brotten says, can be served with or without cream. If it is to be sweetened, the sugar should be added before it's chilled so that it will dissolve readily.

The brewing of iced coffee, like any other good coffee, should follow a few general rules that are designed to give a flavorful product. Some of these suggestions are to use a clean coffee pot, measure the coffee and water carefully, always use fresh coffee and never boil the coffee.

Miss Brotten also advises that coffee be stored in a cool, dry place in a tightly covered container. Try to avoid storing roasted coffee near foods with strong odors. Coffee readily absorbs these odors and they can be tasted in the finished brew.

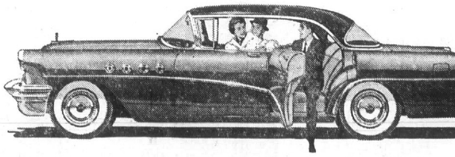
for this wide-open beauty



It's the new kind of hardtop–
The 4-Door Riviera!

A HARDTOP is a car that looks like a Convertible with the top up—but has a solid steel roof overhead — and no center posts in the side window areas.

Up until just recently, it could be built in volume only with two doors — not more — because it would take wholly new structural principles to hinge another set of doors without floor-to-roof center posts.

But Buick came up with those new structural principles and is now building — in volume — hardtops with four doors.

You see one pictured here. It's the 4-Door Riviera. And it's taking the country by storm ...

Because here, at long last, is an automobile with the sleek and sporty styling of a true hardtop — but with separate doors for rear-seat passengers, plus the added room of a full-size Buick Sedan.

On top of that, this beauty is all Buick—with the buoyant ride of Buick's all-coil springing —the walloping might of Buick's record-high V8 power — the whip-quick getaway and sizable gas savings of Buick's spectacular Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

And it's available in Buick's two lowest-priced Series — the budget-tagged 188-hp SPECIAL, and the high-performance 236-hp CENTURY, illustrated here.

Come visit us for a first-hand meeting with the 4-Door Riviera — and see how quickly and how easily the last word in automobiles can be yours.

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Adopts Peddlers' Ordinance

The neighboring town of Blissfield has adopted a peddlers' ordinance which was requested by Blissfield merchants.

This new ordinance affects non-residents only and under its provisions no person who is not a local taxpayer may sell from house-to-house, offer services, solicit orders or use the public streets for these purposes without a license.

The ordinance also restricts hawkers using public address systems and other noisy devices.

Recommendations of a merchants' committee were incorporated in the ordinance.

Such an ordinance is still needed here and if merchants approached the council there is little doubt but what councilmen would come up with a plan that would go far in protecting local merchants and the buying public.

Guidance in the Home

Those who have commented adversely against the city curfew ordinance should realize two things: first, the curfew is geared to protect local young people; and secondly, such a curfew never would have had to be enacted had parents been using the right amount of parental control.

This is not to say that every young person in the city is running loose late at night; but there were just enough of these to bring about the necessity for some kind of curb and protection.

There are parents here who will allow their children to be out late at night and who seemingly care very little about where their children are or what they may be doing.

These children are not "bad" ones. They need a little more guidance and direction and, since their parents are not providing it, they also need protection.

But the curfew ordinance, as good as it is, can be no better than proper parental supervision.

In too many cases parents expect the schools, the police and others in the city to usurp their own duties. Then, when something unpleasant happens to their children, they don't blame themselves for the situation but they point at the shortcomings of the schools, the police and society in general that lead their children into troubles.

Parents should not expect the schools, the churches, the police or any other agency to replace themselves in offering the necessary guidance and control of their children.

This guidance and control should begin in the home.

An "A" for Effort

Too often in past weeks those close to the picture have heard comments that the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce might as well disband because it doesn't do anything.

These comments of criticism certainly could be debunked by the chamber of commerce's overall planning of local Michigan Week activities.

Special appreciation and an "A" for effort should go to Mrs. Earl Pennington, chamber secretary. She goes around commending everybody whose efforts made the week successful but how about a standing ovation for her? She certainly deserves it.

J. C. Beardsley Speaks to Christian Builders

The Christian Builders of the Presbyterian church closed their regular meetings for the season Wednesday evening by entertaining the members of the Westminster League and the husbands of both groups.

The guests were met at the entrance to Fellowship Center by a hospitality committee composed of Mrs. Bart Aiuto, Mrs. Harlan Dicks and Mrs. Ralph Easton. Devotions in charge of Mrs. William Sisson opened the meeting and the business session was dispensed with.

The speaker of the evening was James C. Beardsley, who took as his topic, "The law as it applies to the home." He told of the making of wills and various legal aspects of real estate ownership and then answered many questions from his listeners, A very interesting discussion followed.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. David Faling, Mrs. Earl Baldwin, Mrs. Lowell Wise, Mrs. Don Purkey and Mrs. Charles Cottle.

June 26, the group will hold a family potluck picnic supper at the home of Mrs. Roger Williams on Russell Road.

The previous Saturday afternoon the Builders entertained Brownie Scout Troop 12 for refreshments in Fellowship Center following the Frontiers Day parade. This is the troop sponsored by the Builders class and the Brownies were presented with their Scout pins by the group.

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (231:30): "Man, governed by his Maker, having no other Mind, — planted on the Evangelist's statement that 'all things were made by Him (the Word of God); and without Him was not anything made that was made,' — can triumph over sin, sickness, and death."

The Golden Text is from Acts (4:24): "Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is."

The well-known national columnist, Hal Boyle, wrote recently:

"If you were Santa Claus and could give every child in America one gift, what would it be?

"My choice would be a big, old fashioned back yard for the child to grow up in. Remember the fun you had in one when young?"

Boyle then points [illegible] solutions others offer for the "problem kids" of today: "A few more trips to the woodshed" and "supervised play grounds."

He adds: "I'd like to see my own solution tried out — give every child at least one wise hearted parent, and that old-fashioned back yard in which to grow up."

"The trouble with a modern, supervised playground is that it is often too supervised and paved like a city street."

"A child is an animal who likes the feel of grass and ground under his feet, a place to play where someone he loves keeps an eye on him but still leaves him free to be the pirate or Marco Polo of his dreams.

"In a big back yard a child can learn most of the lessons he needs and still run in to mama's comforting arms if he gets hurt in a tumble. Where else can a child enjoy both freedom and safety?"

Think this over. Then call our office—we'll show you some spacious family homes with big, old fashioned back yards!

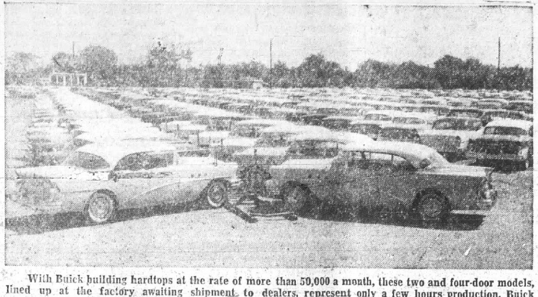
Buick Hardtops by the Hundreds



With Buick building hardtops at the rate of more than 50,000 a month, these two and four-door models, lined up at the factory awaiting shipment to dealers, represent only a few hours production. Buick pioneered the hardtop in 1949 and builds almost twice as many as any other manufacturer. The new four-door hardtop, shown in the foreground, also is a Buick first. Nearly 25 per cent of all current retail orders are for the new four-door hardtop sedan which was put into production in March of this year.

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

The observance of Memorial Day must have developed local customs in each community across the nation but the general pattern is probably much the same. There are parades, speeches, the crash of the military salute and the hush of taps. These form the official climax of the day. But they are only part of what has grown to be that American phenomenon more aptly described by its other title, Decoration Day.

The original ceremony, planned to honor only the war dead and growing from the bitter pride and pain of the Civil War has taken on a more personal and a more civilian significance. Flippantly it might be called the ritual of "putting a geranium on grandpa's grave." But it goes deeper than that. Anything so universal must be more than a superficial gesture. Something hard to define in our racial consciousness is responsible for those journeyings of individuals and groups with flowers and plants to the "family lot."

They begin more than a week in advance. Often they involve long trips on the part of many who now have no ties whatsoever with the town that once was the home of their ancestors. They come in modest, family cars, in sports convertibles and now and then a chauffeur driven limousine. Some come early Memorial morning and enjoy "old home week" with other perennial returnees. Many find their only contact through a local florist or the cemetery caretaker. Whether it is the memory of past bereavement, a sense of responsibility and family pride or a deep atavastic instinct, something draws almost every individual to one special plot of ground.

It was in 1868 that General Logan, then Commander in Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, announced May 30 as the day to honor the Civil War dead and Tecumseh has not missed an observance since. But that observance has varied over the years.

The first ceremonies were held in the afternoon and probably in a church although as soon as that social and civic center, the "Opera House," was built it became the scene of the speechmaking. There the parade formed, its principal feature for years being, of course, the G.A.R. veterans. They were escorted by the current "Tecumseh Band," by the dash and color of Company C, by a mounted marshall of the day and a line of horse drawn carriages and marching school children.

Men made the speeches and made up the parade but it was the women of the village who were responsible for the actual decorations, and their work covered more than one year. Perennials, bulbs and shrubs were planted with Memorial Day in mind. The weather was anxiously watched and such an early season as this spring was a catastrophe.

Memorial Day morning the town was stripped of bloom and an efficient, and frequently self-appointed, committee gathered in a convenient building or vacant store to arrange the floral sprays. Possibly there are still sedate matrons who were part of the bevy of small girls in starched white dresses, who rode in the parade on the dray, carrying the flowers, and distributed them in the cemetery.

A brief ceremony, probably the forerunner of the present day outdoor exercises, would be held at the official G.A.R. plot and the firing of the salute would be prefaced with the warning, "Hold your horses."

Memorial Day even then was made the special occasion for flowers on civilian family lots. The decoration of burial places is, of course, as old as the act of burial itself and probably Decoration Day will continue until a changing civilization discards the phrase, "the cradle to the grave" in favor of "the hospital to the crematory."

Fishing Is Nation's Fastest Growing Family Vacationtime Recreation

Top: Friendly fishing competition makes for family vacation fun.

Right: Dad has conversation material for years to come when he hooks a husky musky.

That ever popular sport, fishing, becomes even more popular as thousands of folks discover how perfectly it ties in with family vacations.

Pan fishing with cane pole and bobber is perfect for the youngsters, but it's good grownup fun, too. For the more advanced angler, of course, there are species to test the strength of the fly rod or spinning and bait casting rod, and for the serious there are the big hungry "tackle busters."

Soaring fishing license records are proof of the family swing toward fishing. In Wisconsin, the state which has led the nation in the sale of non-resident licenses for several years, more than 340,000 licenses were sold to fishing visitors in the 1953-54 season. Added to this, of course, is an overwhelming number of state residents who can't resist the urge to try their luck.

Contributing to the popularity of fishing is a general relaxing of restrictions. In many cases regulations have been simplified, and only those laws that make for sound conservation have been retained.

In Wisconsin, for example, there is no minimum length for largemouth and smallmouth bass. Pan fish may legally be caught the year 'round, and on the "Five Lakes" project in the northern part of the state there is no closed season, no bag limit, and no size limit for all species of fish. Complete Wisconsin vacation information, including a fishing regulations pamphlet, a colorful brochure, a highway map, and a list of regional vacation organizations may be obtained by writing to: Recreation Section, Wisconsin Conservation Dept., Madison, Wisconsin.

So if you haven't included fishing in your family vacation plans before, try it this year. It's inexpensive, it's challenging, and, above all, it's fun for the whole family.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

To live forevermore in loving comradeship with the God and Father of our Lord Jesus is the most radiant hope that can grip the heart of man. Exult, with William Cullen Bryant:

To him who in the love of Nature holds
Communion with her visible form, she speaks
A various language; for his gayer hours
She has a voice of gladness, and a smile
And eloquence of beauty, and she glides
Into his darker musings, with a mild
And healing sympathy, that steals away
Their sharpness, ere he is aware . . .
Go forth, under the open sky, and list
To Nature's teachings, while from all around—
Earth and her waters, and the depths of air—
Comes a still voice — Yet a few days, and thee
The all-beholding sun shall see no more
In all his course; nor yet in the cold ground,
Where thy pale form was laid, with many tears,
Nor in the embrace of ocean, shall exist
Thy image . . . .
So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan, which moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not, like the quarry-slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.

If You Think It's Hot, Just Wait Until Aug.

If you think it's hot now, just wait until August! Says Associate Prof. Hazel M. Losh of the University of Michigan's astronomy department.

Although summer begins officially at 11:32 p.m. June 21 and we'll have our longest day—fifteen hours of daylight—we won't have our warmest one, she points out. The Earth will be storing up more heat than it is losing because the atmosphere acts like a blanket holding back some of the heat falling on the surface, she explains. She adds that by August the Earth will be losing more heat than it's gaining so it will be about twice as hot for us, since we'll have the sun beating down from above and the Earth letting off steam below.

On June 21 the Sun reaches its northernmost point 23½ degrees from the equator and the northern hemisphere is farthest from the Sun in its orbit. Since we are closer to the Sun in the winter than we are in the summer it makes our seasons more mild than those of the southern hemisphere where just the opposite is true, Professor Losh states.

This month we'll see the famous Northern Cross, one of the most magnificent constellations, rising on its side in the northeastern sky just after dark. Although not as brilliant as the celebrated Southern Cross, its stars form a larger and more perfect figure.

This constellation is represented in old star maps as the Swan, Cygnus, flying southward along the Milky Way. Deneb is one of the most prominent stars in the Swan or Cross, appearing as the tail of the Swan and the head of the Cross. It ranks about fifteenth in order of the brightness of stars visible from this latitude.

"One of the finest double stars in the sky is in this star group, and it's especially interesting because of the striking contrast in the colors of its two components," Professor Losh says. Viewed through a small telescope these twin suns are distinctly maize and blue, a real University of Michigan star.

Music Club Plans Summer Picnic

The final Music Club program of the season was given Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Kennard Wise. Two new members, Miss Marie Wintersteen and Mrs. Ted Glauser were introduced and Miss Lelah Weuthner was a guest for the evening.

It was decided to have a club picnic during the summer and tentative plans were made to hold it July 7 at the W. G. Waldron cottage at Sand Lake.

Mrs. Duaine Service was program leader and she opened the discussion of "Contemporary Music" by giving a comprehensive resume of the composers of that period, their lives and their music. To illustrate the points she made Mrs. W. G. Wallron played two selections as piano solos and Mrs. Florence Gallant sang two solos written by contemporary composers.

Miss Sally Rentschler, recently returned from a year's study in the east, was the evening's guest artist and described and illustrated the work of five modern composers for the flute. She gave excerpts from the work of each.

The final instrumental examples of the program were two selections on the piano played by Mrs. William Hayden, and then the entire group sang the new version of "Michigan My Michigan," which is being discussed as the state's official song.

After the program the chorus held a practice session and lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Harley McConnell.

Two Seniors Win U-M Scholarships

Regents-Alumni Scholarships at the University of Michigan have been awarded to 495 graduating seniors in Michigan high schools, it was announced today by Walter B. Rea, dean of men and chairman of the committee on university scholarships.

These scholarships carry a stipend equivalent to semester fees for the freshman year and are renewable for the normal length of the degree program in which the student enrolls provided the student's academic record justifies renewal. The award winners were selected from nearly 1,300 applicants representing 281 high schools. At least one scholarship is available for every accredited high school in the state provided a qualified candidate applies.

These awards are made by the committee on university scholarships with the assistance and advice of university alumni and alumnae and high school principals and teachers in the communities in which the applicants reside. In evaluating the applications, the committee places special emphasis upon character, citizenship, the high school academic record, financial need and the scores made on the competitive test written by all applicants.

Work of high school officials and University of Michigan alumni clubs throughout the state in helping select scholarship winners was of invaluable assistance to the committee, Dean Rea declared.

Tecumseh seniors who won the scholarships are Connie Marsha Clark (nursing), 1000 east Chicago, and Robert Lee Francouer (English), 714 north Union street.

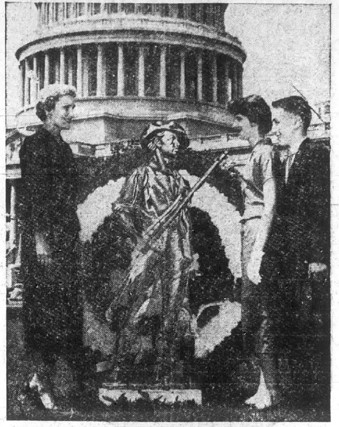
Series E Savings Bond 14 Years Old



The popular Series E Savings Bond had a birthday in May—its 14th—and on hand to greet it were the wife of the Vice-President of the United States and two Washington school youngsters who were born in the same month as the first E bond, May 1941. Mrs. Richard Nixon is shown here on the Capitol lawn receiving a floral tribute from Marsha Baker and Thomas Bensinger, students of the Alice Deal Junior High School in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Nixon, as honorary vice-chairman of the National Women's Advisory Committee for Savings Bonds, received the offering in behalf of the thousands of women volunteers across the country, who have helped to sell 1.7 billion separate Series E Savings Bonds since 1941. The two youngsters were chosen for the honor not only because they are the same age as the E bond, but because they are regular purchasers of Savings Stamps in their school program. The spectacular 4½-foot floral piece was made of red and white carnations and blue cornflowers, with the Minute Man symbol of the Savings Bond Program in gold. It was donated by the Allied Florist Association of Greater Washington, Inc.

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

IT WAS THE FIRST MEMORIAL Day parade missed by Art Harding, special policeman, in many a year. Art is seriously ill with a heart condition. For years he has had the job of directing traffic around and in Brookside Cemetery and a fine job he always did.

THE LINING'S BEST WISHES go with Ken Blumerick and his family to their new home near Jamestown, Wis. May they find new friends and may they enjoy their new adventures and town very much.

THAT WAS A FINE GESTURE city councilmen used in thanking merchants who contributed to buying Michigan flags for Michigan Week. Each merchant was sent a post card signed by each councilman.

WHAT'S IN A NAME? The name of the newly incorporated Tresco is Ocsert which is Tresco spelled backwards. Tresco was merged with the Tecumseh Products Corp. May 1.

SOME LEARNED CAUSES ON obesity (fatness) were outlined in a news release by a University of Michigan doctor. After a page of causes he concluded by stating: "A strong pair of arms to push yourself away from the dinner table is all that is needed to lose weight."

THOSE ROSES IN FRONT of the city offices are mighty pretty.

J. V. FERMAN OF BRITTON is the new supervisor of Ridgeway Township. He succeeds the late Ben J. Beasley who died recently.

TECUMSEH JAYCEES OWE a debt of gratitude to the little fellow who checked in with Dr. and Mrs. Robert Laidlaw about 10 days ago. At the last Jaycee meeting Dr. Bob was proudly handing out cigars to all Jaycees in honor of the little tike.

A GALLANT LEGIONNAIRE retreated to wipe the nose of one of the color guard members of the Legion Auxiliary in the Memorial Day parade. The cold wind caused the nose running and since the pretty lady had her hands full with the flag, he turned around and came to her rescue.

DURING THE PAST WEEKEND we visited an old friend who happens to be a member of the cloth in Eaton Rapids. For a long time he also has been a truant officer. A newspaperman was doing a feature on the minister-truant officer and he commented "You are the finest and most popular truant officer I have ever met." And just when my friend's ego began to rise, he asked the newsman how many truant officers he had met. The newsman replied, "Why, you're the only one."

ANOTHER FINE JOB ON the Memorial Day parade was done by Gerald Smith, parade marshall. For two years he's been conducting the affair and now he has a record of two fine parades under his shiny belt.

THE TOPS IN DIRECT MAIL advertising came in a letter from a large rose growing business. The letter was written on scented paper—the same fragance that comes from the lavender rose the company is selling. Personally, it didn't sell me. The fragrance was too sweet.

MRS. A. C. HAMAKER of the Tecumseh Motel has a letter she prizes. It was written to her by Giles H. Krupp, assistant service manager of the International Harvester Co. Mr. Krupp, after an over night stop at the motel, left one of his neckties. Mrs. Hamaker sent the tie to him and he wrote his thanks, He said: "It is gratifying to receive this personal consideration."

Study Re-appraisal Plan

Councilmen Monday night heard another representative from an appraising firm explain how his company could scientifically re-appraise personal and real property.

William Cleminshaw of the J. M. Cleminshaw company of Cleveland, Ohio, outlined his firm's proposal which would cost the city $12,250.

Last April the council heard from a company that would charge $13,500 for the job.

Arthur Eaton and Ernest Harris of the Tecumseh Township board also sat in on the meeting Monday. The township is considering having a new appraisal made of township property, too.

Answering questions, Mr. Cleminshaw said:

Houses would be inspected inside and out to determine the true value.

All information on real and personal property would be placed on a card system which could be used by the assessor.

Merchants and manufacturers' records would be checked and inventories would be inspected. Average inventories would be used, not low or high periods.

The job in the city would take about four months.

The price quoted does not include the township's survey. He said he would need more information as to the number of parcels and number of farms before he could give an estimated cost to the township.

His company provides an annual service that would keep the rolls up to date by surveying new homes and businesses.

His company has done the cities of Niles, Buchanan, Sault St. Marie, Munising and St. Joseph in Michigan.

Purpose of the survey would be to equalize assessments so taxpayers are paying their fair share of the taxes, no more and no less.

The survey would give the city and township a true picture of the various values and would give officials facts to support any taxation question.

The cost to the township will be less if township officials have the survey done at the same time the city survey is done.

After a discussion of how the city might pay for having the survey completed, councilmen said they would try to work out a payment plan and submit the plan for the company's approval.

Meanwhile, the contract submitted by Mr. Cleminshaw will be studied by Jim Beardsley, city attorney.

218 Alumni Return for School Reunion

The 1955 alumni reunion of Tecumseh High School, held Saturday evening in the Union Hall, was attended by 218 former students. After a social hour of renewing acquaintance-ships those present were seated at tables decorated with pink and white majestic daisies. Yellow roses formed the special decoration on the table reserved for the class of 1905, who were celebrating their golden anniversary.

Thanks

The following letter from George Rothney, president of the Village of Morrice, who served as Tecumseh's mayor during Michigan Week, has been received by Mayor Pro-tem Arthur Schwartz:

"We wish to thank you and Mrs. Schwartz and the accompanying couples in the escort for a most enjoyable day in Tecumseh.

"We received the key (to the city) yesterday in good condition and thank you for it. There has been much interest in Morrice in it.

"As we evaluate the trip we think how fortunate the people of Tecumseh are to have such a fine hospital and schools with their unexcelled facilities.

"The Tecumseh Products Company tour showed good workmanship, with fine labor relations which undoubtedly makes it an outstanding company in its field of manufacture.

"Everytime we have meatballs and spaghetti we will think of our tour through the immaculate Quaker Oats plant.

"The visit to the sewage disposal plant and the city wells gave us ideas for future civic development.

"We hope that the rest of your Michigan Week was a success and if you are ever in our area, we would be most happy to see you.

Sincerely,
George and Etheljane Rothney"

WHY DON'T YOU CARRY CUT-RATE INSURANCE?
IF IT IS SO GOOD, WHY DO THEY HAVE TO CUT THE PRICE?
dh.

Why take chances for a few dollars possible "saving"? You can "save" money by having your telephone taken out and making calls from a corner drugstore but this would be inconvenient and in case of an emergency might prove disastrous.

You might do without the service of an insurance agent, too, and possibly "save" a few dollars but like the lack of a telephone, this might, in the case of an emergency not only prove inconvenient but very costly. Be SURE of your insurance.

Here's where all that wonderful performance begins!

They're all true—all the wonderful things you hear about Pontiac's great performance.

The way it sweeps up hill or down with the same effortless ease. The tremendous burst of passing power that answers the nudge of your toe. The thought-quick response in stop-and-go traffic that makes the car seem part of you. The smooth, quiet way it goes about its business however hard or far you drive.

Lift the hood of a Pontiac and you'll be face to face with the reason. That compact power plant nested there may look much like other V-8's—but that's where your eyes deceive you!

The Strato-Streak V-8 is in a class all by itself—filled with engineering "firsts" that make it the mightiest engine ever to appear in Pontiac's price field. And it's one of the many Pontiac advantages you can't get anywhere else. Pontiac alone gives you the terrific drive of Strato-Streak performance.

This sensational performance, remember, comes in a distinguished, future-fashioned beauty that is tagged with a price any new-car buyer can readily afford.

Here's your wide-open invitation to come in and try the result—the fastest-selling Pontiac of all time. The car is ready whenever you are! Make it soon.

Pauline Bagshaw Married Wednesday to R. M. Young

At a 7 o'clock candlelight ceremony Wednesday evening, Miss Pauline Bagshaw and Lt. Robert Mason Young were married at the Tecumseh Presbyterian church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Walworth and the bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bagshaw was given in marriage by her father. Mr. Young's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. Mason Young of Ferndale.

Mrs. F. C. Dickinson played traditional organ music as the wedding party took their places before an altar massed with palms, lighted candelabra and hampers of white larkspur and carnations.

Miss Mary Garner, a sorority sister of the bride, was her maid of honor, while Lt. William S. Cumming served Lt. Young as best man and Ed Hauser and Jim Montieth were ushers.

White taffeta formed Miss Bagshaw's waltz length bridal gown, which was cut in princess style with a boat shaped neckline edged in pearl beads. She wore elbow length gauntlets with the short sleeves and carried an ethereally dainty cascade bouquet of white stephanotis and Fleur D' Amour.

White organdy, embroidered in pink silk, was worn by the maid of honor and with it she carried a cascade arrangement of pale pink carnations and gypsophylia. The little flower girl, Cassandra Bagshaw, niece of the bride, whose bouffant gown was pink organdy, carried a tiny nosegay of miniature pink roses and baby's breath.

Both mothers were in blue. Mrs. Young's gown was of linen and Mrs. Bagshaw's of silk print and both had white orchid corsages.

Dr. and Mrs. Malcolm Bagshaw received the 60 guests at the reception at Holiday Hotel, Evans Lake which followed the ceremony. The serving table was decorated with white larkspur, pink rosettes and gypsophylia with lighted tapers in crystal candelabra. The wedding cake was topped with a miniature colonial bouquet of gardenias and light pink roses and it was circled by a bridal wreath.

Mrs. Ginny Haidle and Mrs. Ed Hauser, sisters of the groom, assisted with the serving as did the bride's two aunts, Mrs. Don May and Mrs. Don Shutes. All wore white gardenia corsages.

The new Mrs. Young wore a brown and white checked suit with white accessories and a tailored carnation corsage when they left after the reception for Hill Air Force Base in Utah, where Lt. Young is stationed.

Mrs. Young recently received her BA degree in social science with the class of 1955 at Michigan State University, while the groom is a graduate of the same institution with a degree in mechanical engineering. They will live near the air base at Ogden, Utah for a year.

More than 100 million people are now protected against the cost of sickness and accident through membership in voluntary hospital prepayment plans.

3 GLASSES
OF MILK
EVERY DAY

You never outgrow your need for MILK

Herrell de Graff, Professor of Food Economics at Cornell University, says, "Drinking at least three glasses of milk every day is one of the best health habits you can have. You will enjoy milk even more if you pour it into a pitcher to aerate it, then keep it in the refrigerator. Pouring from the pitcher to a glass aerates the milk again so that it looks as good as it tastes—fresh, bubbly, ice-cold."

Girl Scout Association Reports Successful Year

The Tecumseh Girl Scout Association held its June meeting in the Scout cabin last Wednesday morning with Mrs. Truman Rentschler presiding.

Officers, committee-chairmen and leaders of troops gave reports indicating that the year's program had been satisfying to the 205 registered Brownies and Girl Scouts.

Reports also showed that the girls had participated on a community level by providing and making tray favors for the patients in the local hospital and the nursing homes, by contributing and holding polio benefits besides the many ways in which they shared at Christmas time. They also assumed the responsibility of a display window during Michigan Week; they marched in the youth parade and again in the Memorial Day parade and were helpful in placing the plants on the graves of veterans.

Several of the troops will spend from three to seven days at the lake this summer with the purpose of learning to live together in a harmonious manner and also learning to live properly on a fixed amount of money which they have earned through the sale of Girl Scout cookies and troop projects.

The president's report expressed praise for the good work of the leaders and assistant leaders and thanks to the school and churches for providing meeting places for the troops throughout the year besides appreciation for the cooperation of the officers, committeemen and women, sponsoring organizations and the parents.

At the close of the annual meeting, Mrs. Rentschler introduced the new officers and conducted a short ceremony during which Mrs. Howard Truesdale, the new president, lighted a new candle from the old, symbolizing not only new personnel, but new ideas, new energy, and new strength for conducting the work of the association.

Mrs. Truesdale then solicited the interest and cooperation of members in order to promote good scouting in Tecumseh. She announced the appointment of members to the following committees:

Calendar, Mrs. Ralph Helzerman, Mrs. Victor Peterson, Mrs. Victor Lawson; publicity, Mrs. Truman Rentschler, Mrs. E. J. Crawford, Mrs. Frank Robinette; revisions, Mrs. George Derby, Mrs. Wallace Rutherford, Mrs. J. C. Cameron; auditing, Mrs. George Elliott, Mrs. Junior Fouts, Mrs. John Saling; nominations, Mrs. Julius Vincze, Mrs. Harry Schuch, Mrs. Howard Morris.

Officers for the ensuing year are: President, Mrs. Howard Truesdale; vice president, Mrs. Ralph Helzerman, recording secretary, Mrs. Wellington Wotring; treasurer, Mrs. John C. Cameron; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Donald Johnson; secretary of supplies, Mrs. Gerald Griffin; custodian, Mrs. Julius Vincze; registrar, Mrs. Duncan Oliphant.

The association holds five meetings a year.

For I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour."

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS from The Bible

I am the Lord which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth, for in these things I delight.—(Jeremiah 9, 24.)

hickory AND horsehide

by DIZZY TROUT

BROADCASTING and telecasting Tiger baseball games is not as simple a task as many fans believe. Van Patrick and Ol' Diz are at the ball park long before the game begins.

Starting line-ups must be obtained from home and visiting team managers. Cards have to be compiled on individual batting averages and defensive positions. Note must be made of visiting delegations for later acknowledgement on the air. Voice levels have to be checked before air time.

Moreover, as Ol' Diz shuttles about, gathering data, I'm stopped by fans who want to say hello. Not that I mind. I love to chat with the fans, but it does cut into my time, so I try to arrive at the ball park with the players at 10:30 a.m.

Several mornings a week Ol' Diz pitches batting practice to the Tigers, thus sparing a regular pitcher for afternoon duty. I still have a locker in the clubhouse and my old uniform, number 11.

Work Apart

As for the broadcasts, Van and I have separate microphones. When I do the "color" between innings, I take my cue from engineer Howard Stitzel, who's been handling Tigercasts eight years, when we're only on radio, or from producer Ralph Rust when we're also doing television.

Signaling me to speak, they simply point a finger in my direction, meaning, "You're on."

I try not to interrup Van's play-by-play unless I have some extremely important sidelight to add. Then I signal him by a light touch.

When we have something to say to each other, Van or I can press cut-off buttons on our mikes that takes us off the air for a few seconds. It happens so fast that fans rarely are aware that we're off.

Telecasting is considerably more complex than broadcasting. The picture and Van's narration have to be in harmony. We have a TV monitor in our booth, which hangs down from the second deck between home and first, to help us. But producer Rust is kept hopping to select which of three pictures on his big monitor best fits in with Van's description.

Different Views

Each of the three cameras—behind home plate, to the right of our booth and to the left of the visiting announcer's booth, between home and third—is trained on a different action. One may show the pitcher, another may be on the batter and the third may take in both.

Crowd noise is picked up by a mike hanging from our booth.

Van, who possesses an excellent vocabulary, stumps me once in a while. But I look up the word in my pocket dictionary and remember it. However, I'm still a man of simple words and intend to continue that way as long as I'm broadcasting the Hickory and Horsehide game.

Live Longer: Eat More Meats

A good diet might add ten years to your life. What's more, the years can be added at the prime of life—during the middle years, says Roberta Hershey, extension specialist in foods and nutrition at Michigan State College.

The first steps in making middle age longer and old age shorter, Miss Hershey says, should be taken in young adulthood. To keep in tip-top vigor, make sure you have well chosen meals throughout adult years as well as childhood.

Miss Hershey suggests that protein, ideally, should be part of every meal. Studies show that protein and the B vitamins delay aging. Meat is a good source of both. Milk, cheese, eggs and fish are other good protein sources.

B vitamins, so important in delaying aging, are found in enriched flour and whole grain cereals. Keeping calorie counts low leaves little room for eating baked products, so all bread and other cereal foods we do eat should be enriched or made with whole grains.

As an adult becomes less active, less energy food is needed. But when less food is eaten, milk, meat, eggs, fruits and vegetables should not be neglected, warns Miss Hershey. A pint or more milk should be high on the day's diet list, because the calcium it contains helps protect bones against breaking. Calcium also serves as a nerve regualtor.

Point Title Is Wide Open in Stock Car Champ Race

With defending champion Rollie Beale having trouble getting his car in shape for a feature victory, three hard-driving stock car pilots will be aiming for win No. 2 in the MARC racing program at Adrian Speedway Thursday night. Time trials start at 7, with the first race going at 8:30.

Since Beale has been trying a borrowed car, it's been a wide-open race for the point title at Adrian more and Pete Toth will join Nemire the reckless bread salesman from Toledo, became the third different feature winner in three weeks at the Speedway last week as he overtook Len Segur for a quarter-lap victory. Dick Moretemoer and Pete Toth will join Nemire in looking for their second feature victory.

Kenny "relaxed" from stock car driving to gain a seventh place in a 1955 Cadillac at Toledo Raceway Park in New Car racing last Saturday but will be back in action in his Cadillac-powered Chevrolet stock car at Adrian this week.

Herbie Robinson of Adrian continues to be the top local threat for feature honors after taking fourth last week in the feature and second in a heat. Robinson and Adrian's Larry Gray both were up in contention early in the feature last week until their cars collided and they lost some valuable time to the rest of the field.

A full card is on tap, including four heat races, Australian Pursuit, consolation and 25-lap feature each Thursday night at Adrian Speedway and every Wednesday night at Wauseon Raceway.

A double header card has been announced by Promoter Skip Jechura of Toledo Raceway Park this week on Saturday and Sunday nights. On Saturday, there will be twin features of 30 laps each. Speedy midgets from the Tri-State Racing Association provide the action in one main event, with the roaring stocks going in the other 30-lapper.

On Sunday night at Toledo Raceway Park, the stock cars will take over for a complete program capped by a 30-lap feature. Time trials start at 7 p.m. with the first race at 8:30 at Adrian. Wauseon and Toledo MARC tracks.

Be Alert, Let Them Grow Up

Now that school is out there are hundreds of small children playing near the streets. Sometimes they chase a muffed ball into the street.

During the past week we saw this happen and, luckily, a passing motorist saw the small girl in time to stop and thus avoid an accident.

This is just a reminder to motorists to be on the alert for children who may be having such a good time playing that they aren't paying too much attention to passing cars.

So slow up—let them grow up.

Weeds on the Siding

That's a fine crop of weeds along the railroad tracks on Evans street.

Last week Chief George Kilbourn was seen grubbing out some of the more than knee-high burdock in front of the police station.

One must admire his ambition but it isn't his place or the place of any other city employee to keep the railroad siding free of noxious and unsightly weeds.

Railroad employees should do this; but apparently they aren't.

It is bad enough to see weeds growing on railroad sidings out in the country but when they grow right in town on one of Tecumseh's main lateral streets something should be done about it.

The railroad should be reminded of their duty. One way to do this is to have a city official clip this piece and send it to railroad officials to make them aware of this unsightly and unhealthy condition.

"You have to understand our family," Mr. Johnson said, "before you can suggest the right home for us. We have lots of hobbies and need plenty of hobby space. Also with three children, we want ample yard room. And my wife insists on the utilities on the main floor. And ideas?"

"You're on the right track," I replied. "The ideal way to buy a home is to start by analyzing the needs and desires of your family. Figure out how you would like to live. Then find a home that best answers the purpose within the price range you propose to go."

Mr. Johnson nodded. "We see eye to eye," he added, "now let's find that house. I think my income is sufficient to handle a home in the $12,000 to $15,000 range."

"Okay," I said, "I think we have just the home for you."

Sure enough — we did.

May we discuss your home requirements with YOU? Perhaps, like the Johnson's, you may soon be enjoying a home "tailored" to the special requirements of your family.

Vice President, Dugan Brothers, Newark, New Jersey

I will try this day to live a simple, sincere and serene life, repelling promptly every thought of discontent, anxiety, discouragement, impurity, selfseeking; cultivating cheerfulness, magnanimity, charity, and the love of holy silence; exercising economy in expenditure, generosity in giving, carefulness in conversion, diligence in appointed service, fidelity to every trust, and a childlike faith in God.

In particular, I will try to be faithful in those habits of prayer, work, study, physical exercise, eating and sleeping which I believe the Holy Spirit has shown me to be right. ("Morning Resolve" of the Laymen's Movement for a Christian World.)

Camilla O'Pravil and Morris Wright Exchanged Vows Saturday

At one o'clock last Saturday afternoon in St. Elizabeth Catholic church, Camilla O'Pravil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Pravil of Tecumseh and Morris Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wright of Adrian were united in marriage by the Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins.

White larkspur and carnations filled the vases of the altar which was flanked by banked palms and hampers of gladioli, larkspur and carnations, all in white. Mrs. Ben Hammack was at the organ and the soloist was Wallace Whiting.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white chantilly lace and tulle. The waltz length, nylon tulle skirt had applique insets of the same lace as the strapless, pleated bodice and there was a matching bolero jacket with stand-up collar and long sleeves. The finger tip veil of illusion fell from a tiny pill box which was appliqued with pearls and sequins and pearl earrings, a gift of the groom, supplemented her costume. She carried a cascade bouquet of miniature red rosettes, centered with gardenias.

Miss O'Pravil's matron of honor and only attendant was her sister, Mary, Mrs. John D. Hanasack, who wore a two piece gown of light blue frostyk made with a circular skirt and bolero. Her flowers were a cascade arm bouquet of Demure roses outlined in paler pink Carol Amling roses.

Mr. Wright was attended as best man by George Hanasack and John Whalen and Merle Daniels seated the guests.

Mrs. O'Pravil wore for her daughter's wedding a lace gown in powder blue with accessories of light blue and navy and her corsage was a deep rose orchid. Mrs. Wright's gown was rose and white, her accessories were white and she wore a corsage of Euchrist lilies.

Mrs. Arthur Baaske was in charge of the reception which followed the ceremony at the Legion Hall and she was assisted by Edna Bierlein at the coffee urn, Mrs. George Hanasack who cut the three tiered wedding cake and Dorothy Whalen, who served punch.

Gloria O'Pravil and Betty Daniels received the gifts and Dorothy Welch was in charge of the guest book. The punch and gift tables were flounced in white, caught with silver bells, and a linen cloth covered the bride's table where the cake was encircled by pink roses and peonies and flanked by crystal candelabra.

Leaving for a trip through northern Michigan, the bride wore a navy blue linen suit with white blouse, white and navy accessories and a corsage of Eucharist lilies.

They will reside in a newly purchased home at 2865 Airport Road in Adrian where Mrs. Wright is employed at the Bohn Aluminum and Brass Co. and the groom conducts his own business as Wright's Signs.

Hospital Aûxiliary Will Entertain

You can get your American Flag cleaned free of charge if you promise to fly it on Flag Day, June 14.

That's the offer the American Legion and most Michigan dry cleaners are making June 1 through 11 in an effort to stimulate general display of the flag on Flag Day and patriotic holidays.

In launching its second annual nation-wide campaign of its flag cleaning program "New Glory for Old Glory," the Legion has asked more than 26,000 dry cleaners of America to support this worthy patriotic gesture by volunteering to clean all domestic American flags free from June 1 to 11 in preparation for Flag Day, June 14.

In Michigan, state commander Kent T. Lundgren announced that appeals had gone to the state's 518 Legion posts to promote and publicize the program in their own communities.

Colorful window posters identifying dry cleaning stores as participating in the drive have been provided to all establishments by the Detrex Corporation of Detroit, a leading manufacturer of dry cleaning equipment, which is national co-sponsor with the Legion of its "New Glory for Old Glory" flag cleaning drive.

Overwhelming response and favorable attention from press and public during last year's project led national commander Seaborn P. Collins to renew and enlarge the program this year.

"We feel that the flag cleaning drive is especially timely," announced Lundgren, H. R. Norgren, Detrex general sales manager, and L. G. Farrell, executive director of the Dry Cleaners' Institute.

"Now, as never before," they said, "it is important that all Americans properly demonstrate their reverence and respect for the Stars and Stripes."

At Lundgren's request, Governor G. Mennen Williams has proclaimed June 6 through 11 as "New Glory for Old Glory Week" in Michigan. Forty-seven other governors are expected to issue a similar proclamation.

As a preview to this year's program the Michigan American Legion and Detrex dry cleaned the world's largest flag, owned by The J. L. Hudson Company of Detroit, at the University of Detroit football stadium.

Weighing ¾ ton and measuring 235 by 105 feet, the flag is flown once annually on Flag Day.

On an average day there are more than 1,300,000 persons and more than 43,000 newborn infants in the nation's hospitals.

Want to watch the gas pumps go by?

It's wonderful what Variable Pitch Propellers do for getaway AND gas savings!

It's The Hardtop with Four Doors!

Another big reason for Buick's soaring sales is the 4-Door Riviera—the new hit in hardtops that's taking the country by storm. The "Convertible" look, with no center posts—but with separate doors for rear-seat passengers. Shown here in the low-price SPECIAL model—also available in the high-powered CENTURY Series. Both now in volume production to insure prompt deliveries.

ANY airline pilot will tell you that one big reason for the modern plane's greatly increased cruising range aloft is the variable pitch propeller.

To get off the ground, of course, the pilot needs plenty of acceleration, for take-off and climb. So his propellers must "bite" into air at a certain angle for utmost performance.

But once the plane is at cruising altitude, great power acceleration is no longer needed—fuel efficiency is. So the pilot switches the pitch of his propeller blades to high-economy angle—and gets a lot more mileage from the fuel in his tanks.

That's why Buick's new Variable Pitch Dynaflow* is such a sensation across the nation.

For the same aviation principle that brings this two-way magic to the modern plane is now found in the twenty propeller-like blades whirling in oil inside the Dynaflow unit.

Just by pressing the gas pedal way down, you switch the pitch and get instantaneous getaway response or safety-surge acceleration.

Just by easing up on the pedal, you change the pitch to high-economy angle—and get new and better gas mileage in all normal driving and cruising.

It's a spectacular and sensible achievement—this new Dynaflow Drive—a brand-new thrill and a brand-new thriftiness.

And with it goes the might of record-high V8 power—and the level luxury of Buick's all-coil-spring ride—and the spacious roominess of Buick's broad interiors—and the host of other advanced features that add to Buick's brimming value.

Come in and try what is very definitely the performance thrill of the year—and see for yourself why Buick sales are soaring to all-time best-seller highs.

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Sad Note From The Bugle

All of us on the Clarion were alarmed to learn that our principal rival in the newspaper field—the Balesville Bugle—might have to shut down.

Crops were bad in Balesville last year and one of their factories moved out of town. Just temporary hard times, of course—but the Bugle needs help now if it's to survive.

So, this paper is going to scrape up a little money to help tide them over, and we hope other local concerns will do the same. We've seldom agreed with them editorially over the years—but we want their competition to keep us on our toes.

From where I sit, this country needs papers with different points of view—just as it needs people with different ideas and tastes. You may prefer iced tea as a hot-weather cooler . . . I generally choose a cold glass of beer. But if either of us couldn't express his opinion, and act on it, that would be "bad news" for the whole community.

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

TECUMSEH'S FIRST CITIZEN

Just 100 years ago this week, June 7, 1855, Musgrove Evans died at Cypress Creek, Texas. The restless energy of Tecumseh's founding father had driven him nearly the entire length of the then new country and in that westward course he had spent only six fateful years in Michigan.

We have no photograph of this man and none of his contemporaries left a word-picture for our information. His only biography is his deeds but they form a very speaking one. Stories of early Tecumseh always briefly characterize him as a Quaker and a surveyor. He was both but he was much more. One fortunately preserved letter of his shows him to have been a man of education and culture and his name, running like a bright thread through the town's early records, marks him as an able and conscientious public servant.

He was no longer a young man in 1824, somewhere in his early forties which was then almost old age, and he had already taken part in the opening and development of another settlement. We know he was born near Philadelphia and received more than a common school education, studying both civil engineering and surveying. Probably he was already a friend of the Brown family, who came from the same locality and with whom his life was linked, for in 1811 he joined them in Jefferson county, New York.

Briefly, Jacob Brown, later commander-in-chief of the U.S. Army and his brother, Joseph, Tecumseh's General Brown, had taken over the development of a huge tract of land deeded by the government to a Count Chaumont, an aide of Fafayette in return for his help in the Revolution. Evans surveyed the land and later, acting as an agent for Chaumont, he brought a group of Quakers from Pennsylvania to colonize the new country. Accounts say this attempt was not too successful but other settlers did come and a thriving community grew up.

Evans, meanwhile, had married Abi Brown, sister of Jacob and Joseph. The Brown family had prospered but the surveying that went with a new territory was nearly finished and Evans apparently was not content to settle down merely as an in-law.

A cousin of the Browns, Austin E. Wing, was active in law and politics in the newly opened territory of Michigan and in 1823, Evans paid him a visit with an eye toward a government surveying contract. Wing, whose home was in Monroe, suggested something more permanent and Evans, following upstream along the Raisin, and finding fertile "Oak Openings" and rapid water ready-made for the farmer and the miller took fire with enthusiasm. It speaks for his standing in his community that he was able to inspire an equal enthusiasm in Joseph, and a year later he led the nucleus of a new town from that far off eastern corner of New York state to the site of Tecumseh.

His activities during the next few years were legion. He "swamped out" the trail from Monroe, directed the building of the first homes, laid out what were to be streets among the forest trees and planned the power development on the land he had had Wing purchase in advance of the arrival of other settlers. He took the first U.S. census in Lenawee County (then a strip reaching to Lake Michigan) was the first Judge of Probate and never shirked those irksome local officers that were all work and no honor. He was "overseer of the poor," "fence viewer," tax assessor and on occasion clerk, treasurer and moderator of the "meeting" which was the governing body of the new community before the village was organized. He was a director of one of the early schools and was the first postmaster here as he had been in Chaumont, New York.

(In fact he crowded so much into these six years that it cannot be crowded into one article and must be completed another week.)

Health, Recreation and Safety Important to 2,000,000 4-H'ers

The last "H" to join the 4-H cloverleaf, Health, is receiving new emphasis from the two million club members across the nation through three National 4-H Programs: Health, Recreation-Rural Arts, and Safety.

By emphasizing the importance of good community and individual health habits, effective use of leisure time and the need for practicing safety at home, work and play, this "H" has become vital in the four-fold development of tomorrow's citizens.

Improving health habits is a special 4-H activity the year-round for nearly a million members. During the summer months, about 250,000 4-H'ers attend camps on the local, county, regional and state levels. Thousands more take part in recreational activities through their 4-H Clubs.

Last year, 675,000 members participated in safety activities. A few examples of their participation were conducting safety surveys on the farm and in the home, eliminating hazards and learning to live with those which cannot be eliminated and taking part in radio and television programs promoting safety.

Incentives valued at $100,000 are provided through the National 4-H Health, Recreation-Rural Arts, and Safety Award Programs to encourage members to do more and better work in the three areas. Health awards are made available by the Kellogg Company; Recreation-Rural Arts incentives by the United States Rubber Company; and Safety awards by General Motors.

Medals are provided in each program for four winners in each county. State winners in the programs will receive all-expense trips to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, Nov. 27-Dec. 1. At the Congress, national awards of $300 college scholarships will be presented the top six winners in Health and Recreation-Rural Arts, and eight high ranking winners in Safety.

In addition to the honors for individuals, local 4-H Clubs will be recognized for carrying on outstanding community Health, Recreation-Rural Arts, and Safety programs. Certificates will be presented to clubs as county and state awards. State winning Clubs in Recreation-Rural Arts will also receive a $20.00 cash award.

Leader training funds are provided in Recreation-Rural Arts. Last year, 21,000 adult and junior leaders received training made possible with these funds.

The programs are conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service and the award programs arranged by the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work. Full information about them can be obtained from county Extension offices.

Dried Egg Solids Are More Convenient

New and improved dried egg solids are now on the market and available to the family food shopper.

Mildred Jones, food director at Michigan State College, says dried whole eggs, egg yolks and egg whites now come in 4 to 8-ounce packages. Large packages are also available.

Dried eggs which have the same nutritional value as fresh fluid eggs, have several advantages, Miss Jones points out. Dried egg whites are especially convenient to use in making meringue for pie, meringue shells or sham tortes and angel food cakes. Used this way, there are no eggs to crack and separate, no leftover yolks to have to use up. And you're sure that the eggs are fresh and at room temperature for easy whipping.

Miss Jones explains that the dried egg whites are just added to the amount of water specified on the package and put in a mixing bowl. To distribute the solids evenly, she suggests mixing them briefly with a wire whip and then whipping them in the usual way. You have nice fluffy, whipped egg whites in a jiffy.

Dried egg yolks are handy to use in custards, mayonnaise and in recipes that call for just the yolks of eggs. The dried whole eggs are excellent for use in baking.

Miss Jones suggests that women who have their own source of eggs, should sell their eggs fresh and save only enough for themselves to use for scrambling.

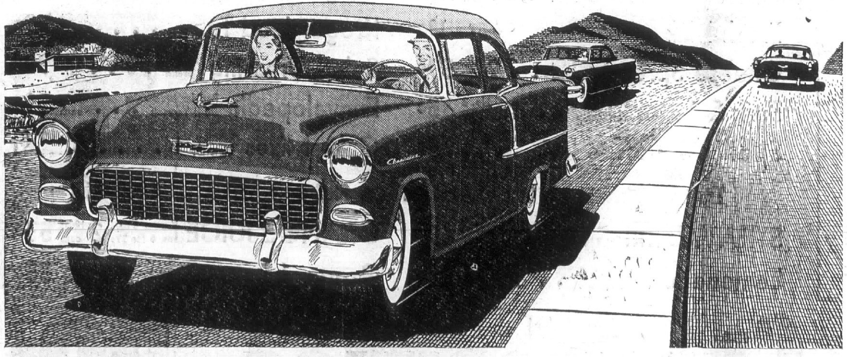
Don't argue with this baby!

All Chevrolet's competitors and most of the high-priced cars tried it recently in official NASCAR* trials—and took a licking!



Meet the champ! The new Chevrolet "Turbo-Fire V8"—the most modern V8 on the road today. Here's what happened—

Daytona Beach. NASCAR Acceleration Tests Over Measured Mile From Standing Start. Chevrolet captured the 4 top positions in its class! 8 of the first 11! And on a time basis Chevrolet beat every high-priced car, too—but one! But wait!—this is just the beginning!

Daytona Beach. NASCAR Straightaway Running. Open to cars delivered in Florida for $2,500 or less. Chevrolet captured the first two places, 7 out of the first 11 places!

Daytona Beach. NASCAR 2-Way Straightaway Running Over Measured Mile. Open to cars from 250 to 299 cu. in. displacement. Chevrolet captured 3 of the first 5 places!

Columbia, S. C. NASCAR 100-Mile Race on half-mile track. Very tight turns. Chevrolet finished first!

Fayetteville, N. C. NASCAR Late Model Event. Chevrolet again finished first. Because of even tighter turns the driver chose to run the entire 150 laps in second gear! Yet no overheating or pit stops!

These facts you can't laugh off. Sales leader. Road leader. A crowning achievement of Chevrolet and General Motors. Try a Chevrolet . . . and live in a land of going-away where you win all the arguments! Soon, maybe?

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

THERE ARE A LOT OF PROUD mothers around commencement time but none are any prouder than Mrs. Charles Johnson of Tecumseh. And no wonder. Consider the record. Her son Cap W. Orr graduated from Adrian College last Sunday. President of his class, he was on the dean's list for scholastic standing, completing his final semester with five "A's" and one "B." This in itself is quite an accomplishment. But Cap has done far more. He has worked full time as night clerk at the Rumpf Truck Lines while carrying a full class load.

IF YOU WANT TO DO a good turn and at the same time cheer a fellow up drop Art Harding a card. Art, special policeman for 50 years, is in Herrick Memorial hospital laid low with a heart condition.

A COUPLE OF CHARACTERS on their way to Hillsdale College to observe the fiftieth anniversary of their graduating class dropped in Friday. Both characters—the Rev. Brooks Warren, pastor emeritus of the Richmond Congregational Church, and Walter Jack, feature writer and photographer for the Erie, Pa., Times have a combined service of 100 years in their chosen fields and they are still going strong. Both men happen to be my uncles and I am extremely proud of them.

Unc Walt always has been punctual. Like a coach with a stop watch checking his star trackman, he hauled out his watch and said: "O.K. We have 10 minutes to visit." And after the time elapsed, he said "Goodbye" and they were gone.

He always has been an individualist. I remember when I was a five-year-old country kid and Unc Walt with his hard straw hat and snappy bow tie visited his Hillsdale County relatives. What a thrill it was to see him place his portable typwriter on his knees and with hands flying, bang out a feature story or a column for his paper.

Both uncles are excellent story tellers. Unc Brooks, a rabid sports fan who enjoys watching the Tigers on a television set members of his congregation gave him when he "retired," told this story:

A moonshiner finally got religion and he wanted to become a minister. After study he was invited to the deacon's house for dinner and to be "inspected" for the pastoral job.

Later, a friend asked him if he received the pastoral call and he explained that he hadn't. His friend asked him why and he said:

"I was all right until my host asked me if I cared for more corn. I passed my glass instead of my plate."

YOU HAVE HEARD OFTEN the statement "Oh, if only I could live my life over again." It was heard again Saturday night at the alumni banquet. This was the situation: a picture was taken of the members of the class of 1905 who were attending the fiftieth anniversary of their graduating class. After the picture was taken the five members present dispersed and they were asked to return to their positions for identification purposes. Dr. A. J. Garlinghouse commented: "Let's go back to where we were." Then he paused and mused: "Let's go way back to 1905. Wouldn't it be wonderful?" Nobody answered. But perhaps they didn't hear the doctor.

CARL HALE THINKS kids are getting cleaner. How else would you explain the tremendous amount of warm water and soap they use at the swimming pool. The pool manager thinks it's wonderful, although it is a little expensive in pool maintenance.

PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE is fine so long as it is not overdone.

On his fifty-fifth birthday, Thomas Edison attended a party given in his honor. "What plans do you have for the future?" he was asked.

"From now until I am 75," Edison said, I will be occupied with my work. At 75, I intend to learn how to play bridge. At 80, I am going to gossip with the ladies, and at 85 I expect to take up golf.

"And at 90?" he was asked.

Edison shrugged. "I never plan more than 30 years in advance," he said.

THE OLDTIMER SAYS: "Knowing what is none of your business is just as important as knowing what is."

THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK—I find the great thing in this world is not so much where we stand, as in what direction we are moving. — Oliver Wendell Holmes

LENAWEE COUNTY'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
SERVING TECUMSEH, BRITTON, RIDGEWAY, MACON AND TIPTON

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

ONE HUNDRED FOURTH YEAR — NUMBER 37 TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JUNE 16, 1955 TEN CENTS A COPY

City Rec. Program Will Begin Monday

The Tecumseh recreation program, sponsored by the city recreation board, will open next Monday, reports Lester Runk, director.

Three playgrounds again will be in operation. Herrick Park and Tecumseh Acres will be open from 9 a. m to 12 noon Monday through Friday. Central playground will be in operation from 9 a. m. to 12 noon and from 1 to 4:30 p. m. Monday through Friday.

The handicraft class will be conducted in Central School art room in the afternoon from 1 to 4:40. Arts and crafts will be featured.

Supervisors will be in charge of all playgrounds.

Regular playground activities will include softball, baseball, ping pong, croquet, horseshoes, checkers, cards, volleyball, ring toss, target games, free throw shooting, archery and tennis.

Or, the director says, "those taking part may just sit if they want to."

The softball games between Wilson Motors and Dick's Standard Service and Gambles and Britton Oddfellows which were rained out last week will be played Friday night, weather permitting.

Men's adult softball league and young men's softball league have been going for the past week and the tennis courts have been resurfaced and will be ready for use next Monday. The horseshoe courts also will be ready for use Monday.

Director Runk expressed hope that all children will take advantage of the diversified program being offered.

Girls' State

Betty Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Day of Tecumseh, has been chosen by the American Legion Auxiliary to attend the annual Wolverine Girls' State at Ann Arbor.

She left Tuesday and will be gone until June 22.

Girls are appointed to the model state on the basis of scholarship, leadership and extra curricular activities.

In Ann Arbor they will represent various "cities" and elect a state "governor" and other "officials."

They also will discuss and pass "legislation."

Miss Day is a member of the Tecumseh High School chorus and the Girls' Athletic Association. She also appeared in the junior play and next year she will be editor of the school annual.

She is a senior.

Liked It

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson are hosts to a robin with exotic tastes. Returning recently from Florida, they brought back some Spanish moss, a large mass of it, and hung it in an apple tree to see what it would do in a Michigan climate.

What happened was that the moss began to disappear.

Watching, they found that a robin, building her second nest of the season had elected to have "something different."

Struggling manfully, she dragged every shred through an intervening tree, returning patiently for snagged tendrils, and now is sitting proudly in her new home amid graceful tropical draperies.

And she did not leave a thread of moss for the Wilson's experiment.

Personnel Needed

Because of an expanded city recreation program more help is needed for playground supervision.

Any one who has had experience or is interested in this field may contact Lester Runk by phoning 592-R.

Mr. Runk, director of the program, also needs an experienced handicraft instructor.

Both are paid positions.

Hours of playground supervision are from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The handicraft position hours are from 1 to 4:30 p.m.

C OF C BOARD MEETS TUESDAY

Second row: Leo Pask, Louis Nagy, Jerry McCrate, Robert Wilkins, Steve Buku, Robert Schneider and Gary Mueller.

Two nights before commencement the graduates were honored by the seventh graders at a dinner and the Rev. Father Collins said the Mass and gave the Holy Communion.

A field day was held at the school Thursday.

Next year the graduates will enter Tecumseh High School, Adrian Catholic Central or Britton-Macon Rural Agricultural School.

Furbush Offers Swim Lessons

Considerable interest has been shown for a continuation of the swimming program which has been carried on at the "pit," owned by Mrs. L. Gallo, during past seasons.

If there is sufficient demand, Duane Furbush, who has been swimming instructor there, again will give lessons in all phases of swimming and life saving. He will also act as lifeguard.

Instruction will be given individually or in groups and enrollment will begin Thursday, June 16, and continue through Sunday.

Mr. Furbush has been teaching in the Flint public schools the past year.

City's Oldest Resident Charles Kemp Dies at 96

Charles H. Kemp, Tecumseh's oldest citizen, died Friday afternoon at the age of 96. He had been a patient at the Parrett Nursing Home since his return from Florida more than a year ago.

His early life was spent as a farmer in Franklin, moving to Tecumseh in 1894, after which he was employed as a carpenter and plumber.

In 1882 he married Josephine M. Butrick who died in 1926. Their daughter Carol, Mrs. Grover Burg, also preceded him in death. He married Mrs. Hattie Billmyer in 1936 and her death occured in 1945.

He was a life member of Tecumseh Lodge F. and A. M. and of the Tecumseh Presbyterian church. He was a charter member and one of the founders of the Wit and Wisdom Club of Tecumseh. For the past 20 years he had spent the winters in Florida.

Easton Expands Station Facilities

Contractors Monday began an expansion job at Easton's Friendly Service.

The expansion will include a longer island, new pumps and a larger storage capacity for gasoline.

Owner Harold Easton said business warranted the addition of another pump to service more cars. He did have three pumps. With two new double units and a longer island his men will be able to serve four cars at a time.

And his three storage tanks near the building will be replaced with larger tanks that will increase his storage capacity by 9000 gallons.

Business is going on as usual during the expansion.

Brakes Failed

Antonio Rivera, 26, of Route 2, Tecumseh, was injured Friday on M-52 at Weston road when his brakes failed as he approched the highway.

Nine from Area To Attend State V.F.W. Encampment

Probably the largest convention ever staged in Traverse City will take place starting June 16 when an estimated 5,000 Veterans of Foreign Wars and auxiliary members hold their 36th annual encampment. The encampment ends Sunday.

Climax of the four-day parley will be election of state officers who will lead the V.F.W. during 1955-56.

Don M. Draher, a member of the Indian River Post No. 7439 who resides in Royal Oak, will likely become state commander to succeed Leon B. Buer of Grand Rapids.

Persons from the Tecumseh area who will attend include Harold Warren, commander of the local post, and Mrs. Warren; Warren Filter, senior vice-commander and Mrs. Filter, president of the auxiliary; Lloyd Stites, officer of the day, and Mrs. Stites, senior vice-commander of the auxiliary; Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Boyce of Tipton; and Richard Butler, present Sixth District commander.

Mrs. Boyce will be installed Sunday as president of the Sixth District auxiliary.

Delegates representing more than 400 V.F.W. posts will also elect six other important state officers. Max C. McCarn, of Mason, present state junior vice commander, is expected to be elevated to the post of senior vice-commander. A six-cornered battle is expected for the pivotol position of state junior vice-commander, usually the jumping off spot for ascending in two years to the state commandership. The last time the line of succession theory was broken in the V.F.W. was back in the mid 1930's.

Candidates for this office include Charles Cooper, of Clare; Howard Barhitte, of Muskegon, Marine DeLee and Wilburt Kirsch of Detroit; William Rogers of Trenton and Elmer Meggison of Flint.

Business of the convention will center about the more than 75 resolutions submitted by V.F.W. posts from throughout the state.

Among the speakers scheduled is Omar B. Ketchum, national legis-

Service

Section workers for the New York Central Railroad Monday and Tuesday grubbed out weeds along the siding on Evans street.

Whether there was any connection with a HERALD editorial last week that called attention to the tall weeds and the fast service of grubbing the weeds out this week is not known.

It may have been just an old-fashioned coincidence.

Regardless, the men did a fine job and the siding looks like a fine garden spot now.

Tecumseh folks should thank the railroad for its efforts.

Waldrons Are Hosts for Family Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Waldron were hosts Sunday to the Brown family of which Mrs. Waldron is a member.

The event was the 40th family reunion and it was held in the social rooms of the First Methodist church.

A large group of the family attended morning service and a double trio sang the anthem, "God So Loved the World" while the morning solo "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Wilfred Waldron, Jr.

The cooperative family dinner was a three fold celebration, honoring the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Brown of Onsted and the 40th of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Waldron as well as the family reunion.

There was an appropriate program and social hour and both honored couples received many gifts.

Sixty-five members of the family, whose original home was at Deerfield, attended. They came from Mt. Clemens, Bay City, Benton Harbor, Detroit, Vassar, Ann Arbor, Port Clinton and Ottawa Lake, and Ohio and Crawfordsville, Ind.

There will be free favors for everyone visiting the store Friday and Saturday.

JAYCEES PLAN TEEN DANCE

The Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a Teen Club dance Friday night, June 24, at 8:30 p. m. in Central School gym.

7 Leave for Boys' State

More than 1,000 boys, intent on learning the principles of good, sound government, will converge on Michigan State University campus, East Lansing, June 18, for an eight-day session of Wolverine Boys' State. The annual event is sponsored by the American Legion, Department of Michigan.

Boys from the Tecumseh area who are taking part include Ray Puffer, Bob Benham, Val Spangler, Bill Browne, John Cadmus, Eddie Hodges and Don Partridge.

Boys from Lenawee County will make the trip to East Lansing in the 40 et 8, the replica of the box car that handled 40 mules and eight soldiers or 40 soldiers and eight mules in the World Wars.

The local post of the American Legion is sponsoring three of the boys while the Eagles, Exchange, Rotary and Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce are sponsoring one each.

The high school lads, chosen for their qualities of leadership and good citizenship, will form into two political parties upon their arrival at the campus.

They will set up city and county groups and establish a mythical "49th State" patterned after Michigan's constitutional form of government.

Youths attending will come from all 18 Congressional districts and will represent every type of community and school.

Governor G. Mennen Williams; Michigan State University secretary, Karl H. McDonel; state Legion commander, Kent T. Lundgren of Menominee; national Legion Americanism vice-chairman, J. Addington Wagner, Battle Creek; and leading government and college officials will open Boys' State Saturday, June 18, with brief addresses.

Government services, a new class discussion topic included in this year's schedule, has taken the interest of a majority of the 1,000 youths who received a preliminary survey weeks ago.

Asked to choose a topic they most wished to discuss and have clarified, more than 50 per cent picked juvenile delinquency from nine other subjects which included highways, subversives, conservation, traffic safety programs, citizenship, foreign policy, labor-management relations and national defense.

Formerly housed in 60 Quonset huts commonly called "Quonset Village," the boys this year will occupy quarters in Shaw Hall on the university campus.

On Sunday, June 19, memorial services conducted by the Legion's honor society, the 40 et 8 Voiture 102, Detroit, will be held for past Boys' State citizens who have died in the service of their country.

The American Legion Zouaves, Jackson's internationally-famed precision drill team, will put on an exhibition of split-second drilling for the 1,000 youths June 21.

Saturday, June 25, marks the closing of the 18th annual Boys' State with commencement exercises at which the 1,000 youngsters will receive diplomas and awards of merit.

At noon Saturday, June 25, the entire assembly will march into Lansing where Wolverine Boys' State officers will visit similar elective offices in the State Capitol.

The newly-elected Boys' State Governor and his staff will "take over" the operation of Michigan's Capitol while sessions are being held by Senate, House, and Supreme Court in State chambers.

Dwight H. Rich, superintendent of schools, Lansing, is president of the Boys' State Commission. Other Legionnaire officers who donate freely of their time and effort are: John L. Farley, Menominee, vice-president; William R. Daniel, Detroit, secretary; George R. Simmons, Northville, comptroller; David Russell, Midland; A. Stanley Fox, Battle Creek, and Harold B. Roe, Grand Rapids, commissioners.

Annual Anniversary Day

More than one old timer laments the fact that "Tecumseh never does anything worth while any more." The city's older residents harken back to "the good old days" when colorful vaudeville shows that were given every Wednesday night packed them in from miles around. Merchants ran special buys, too, and Tecumseh had traffic jams with parking spaces at a premium.

A program similar to the one Tecumseh area residents used to enjoy is given each year in the small town of Stanton, county seat of Montcalm County.

When Mayor S. B. Stebbins visited Britton during Michigan Week's exchange of mayors' day he described his city's anniversary day.

Stanton is a small city of 1152 persons, yet it has enough civic spunk and pride to put out a whing-ding of a program.

Stanton, according to Mayor Stebbins, is planning its fifth anniversary day Saturday, July 30, when money again will be raised by popular subscription. The day is free to Stanton's friends and customers—it is a "thank you" for patronage given the business places.

Last year the city had a parade that was two miles long. And one year it had as special guest Richard Arlen, the movie star, who was a friend of the newspaper publisher in Stanton.

The program always includes fine stage attractions, a water battle, balloon ascension and fireworks. The cost is around $4000.

Last year the city entertained 15,000 persons and, in the words of Mayor Stebbins, ". . . being all for free, it has come to be quite an event."

Tecumseh is almost five times the size of Stanton, yet our city no longer has annual celebrations. True, it has had the 125th anniversary in 1949 and it has its annual fireworks and music festivals sponsored by the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce.

But what about planning for some annual program such as Stanton has? Would this program "go over" here or are most of us too busy living our own lives to take part in a community event of this type? Are there too many distractions to preclude the workability of the program?

We believe such a program has lots of merit and it would "go over" here. It certainly would be something for the chamber of commerce to "chew on."

"We think we want to list our house for sale," Mrs. Phillips said one day on the phone, "and we wonder if you would come out to see it right away."

The home, although not young, was well-maintained, clean and attractive.

Since neighbors were visiting, I drew Mrs. Phillips aside. "Your house is appealing. We'd sure like to sell it."

She laughingly replied, "I would too. That's one thought we share in common."

"Why are you so keen on selling?" I asked. "Do you need a larger home?"

"No," she said, "but we have a little girl, 3½. There aren't any other playmates nearby. The neighbors are pleasant, but their families are grown and gone. We want to move to a district where there are other young children."

Changing circumstances, sometimes force families to consider a change of homes. Perhaps to a different district, or to a larger or smaller size.

In any event, we stand ready to give your home selling problem our personal attention.

Watson-Lowe Marriage Vows Exchanged Friday

In the presence of only their immediate families, Barbara Lowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lowe of South Maumee street and James Watson, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Watson of Tecumseh Rt. 2 were married at 7 p.m. Friday at the Friends church.

The Rev. Edward Escolme performed the double ring ceremony and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Attendants were Mrs. Compton Furbush and Bert Wade.

Miss Lowe wore a street length dress of white nylon tulle with a corsage of red roses and her hat and other accessories were white.

Mrs. Lowe was dressed in a sheer navy while Mrs. Watson wore a green print. Both had white accessories and both wore red rose corsages. Baskets of garden flowers decorated the church.

Sunday afternoon a reception for 200 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, honoring the newly married couple. Baskets and bouquets of peonies and other flowers decorated the house and the table, where the three-tiered wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Helen Lowe, grandmother of the bride.

Those who assisted with the serving were Mrs. Gerald Johnson, Mrs. Rebecca Johnson, Kay Robertson, Janet Kafer, Mrs. Elwood Kafer, Mrs. Virginia Rouff, Carolyn Kafer, Ardis Furbush, Jane Hargraves, Lucy Comfort and Nancy Wade. Bonnie Covell had charge of the guest book.

Mr. Watson is employed at the Revco plant in Deerfield and Mrs. Watson, who graduated this year from Tecumseh high school is at present employed at the Kandy Kitchen.

Plan Clothes for Vacation; Let Kids Help

Moms and Dads all over Michigan will soon be packing the kids in the car and heading for their vacation at the cottage.

It's usually up to Mom to make the decision of what clothes to take for the children. This takes planning, points out Bernice Borgman, head of the home management and child development department at Michigan State.

Miss Borgman believes it is a good idea to let the children help plan what they want to take. Let them take some responsibility for getting their clothes together and seeing that they are packed. Probably Bobby will first think of his bathing suit. Miss Borgman adds some of the other necessities to the list.

Sunsuits are fine for sunny days, but be sure to include overalls and shirts for chilly days and evenings. She points out that jersey T-shirts are easy to pack and to launder. A broadrimmed hat will likely come in handy many times. Miss Borgman suggests a pair of stout walking shoes besides a pair of the popular sneakers.

A jacket or sweater for cool evenings or damp, cool days is something you won't want to be without. And for real rainy days, you might pack a raincoat and boots.

Miss Borgman reminds that nights on the lake are apt to be cool so take warm sleeping clothes such as flannel pajamas. And, she adds, a robe and slippers are mighty comfortable to slip into in the morning or late evening.

Finally Miss Borgman cautions: Don't forget the usual soap and towels, oil or cream for sunburn, insect repellent, plenty of paper tissue and a simple first-aid kit.

With a little planning, Miss Borgman declares, you can add a lot more pleasure to your vacation.

PIANO RECITAL GIVEN SUNDAY

Piano students of Mrs. William Hayden were presented in a small recital at her home Sunday afternoon at 3.30. Included in the varied program were several duets by the students, a musical quiz and two solos, "Who'll Buy My Lavender" and "Think of Me" by guest vocalist, Mrs. Arthur Schwartz.

Students taking part were: Bettie Bailey, Edsel Brooks, Michael Deaner, Dianne Fuller, Jane Hodges, Marilyn McClure, Dorothy Nettleman, Brenda Porter, Alice Titley, Carolyn Vaughn, Mary Wing, Carol Ann Wolf and Suzanne Wolf. Linda Johnson was unable to participate because of illness.

An award was given to Jane Hodges, winner of a recent four weeks contest, at the close of the recital and punch and cookies were served by Mrs. Hayden.

New Finishes on Cottons Halt Wrinkles

Today's crisp summer cotton dresses are easier to keep fresh and well-groomed looking.

For this we can thank the crease-resistant finishes, says Marjorie Eastman, extension specialist in textiles and clothing. Cotton fabrics which have been treated with these resin finishes require less up-keep than untreated cottons. They wrinkle less and wrinkles tend to shake out.

Miss Eastman cites the results of laundering tests. They show that wrinkle-resistant cottons generally shrink less and iron more easily and smoothly.

But, cautions Miss Eastman, they do have some disadvantages. Some of the treated cottons, especially those which have a glazed polished or embossed surface, are not as cool to wear.

In home sewing, too, dressmakers report difficulty in pressing the seams flat. They also contend it is not easy to get flat, sharp edges on facings and collors when using crease-resistant cottons.

A&P Bakes Special 'Dad's Day' Cakes

Whether he's called "Pop," "Dad," or just plain father, he will appreciate a special kind of remembrance at the family dinner table on his "Day," June 19.

The bakeries of A & P Food Stores have devised a novel cake which should fill the bill — it not only looks and tastes delicious but, at first glance, will have Dad reaching for his spectacles and letter-opener.

Topping the cake, as part of its decor, is a post-marked envelope inscribed "Love to Daddy." Close inspection reveals that the envelope is actually a plaque made of sugar with stamp of the same food. The post mark is bound to produce a fatherly chuckle — looking exactly like the genuine article, it reads, "First Class Male, June 19, 1955."

The Devil's Food cake, bearing the Jane Parker label, is two-layered, eight inches in diameter, with chocolate icing and a smooth white butter cream filling between the layers. The outside rim of the cake is garnished with ground nuts.

Neighborhood A & P Stores will have the cake available during the week ending June 18.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

Memory is a source of poignant grief, and memory is a reservoir from which we draw countless joys. The way we live today stores up memories for tomorrow. With Winfred Ernest Garrison, now let imagination soar:

Oh, I am rich in treasures stored away—
Old ecstasies and half-remembered joys;
Prismatic dawns that faded to white noons;
Knowledge forgotten; songs my mother sang;
The scent of flowers that withered long ago;
Wounds that healed and left but little scars
To show where once the very life-blood had ebbed;
Sorrows that long since lost their bitterness
And only knit me closer to my kind;
Music that lingers though its notes are stilled;
Voices and hands and lips that I have loved.
These are my wealth, my comfort, and my stay.
But not on these my soul can feed today.
Holding in dear remembrance all that was,
Guarding my treasure with a miser's care,
May I have yet some daily meed of joy;
Some fresh, untasted cup; some flower that springs
From the deep soil of old experiences
But blossoms in the sunlight of this hour.
Rather some fresh sorrow, fresh and fierce and keen,
Than the stale dregs and ashes of old wrongs
Too dearly cherished. Grant me Lord, new songs,
New lifting of the heart with each new morn.
Give me this day my spirit's daily bread.

DAR Chapter Has Summer Picnic

Twenty members of Abi Evans chapter D.A.R. enjoyed a rainy day picnic Friday at the Wamplers Lake cottage of Mrs. Roy Whiting. There were four guests present, Mrs. William Homan of East Hampton, Conn., Mrs. Lydia and Mrs. Lola Spaulding of Tipton and Mrs. Minnie Lamkin of Tecumseh.

A potluck picnic dinner was served at 1 o'clock and was followed by a short business meeting. The group voted Mrs. Roy W. Dahlke into membership of the Abi Evans chapter and a report was made on the participation of the D.A.R. in Heritage Day during Michigan Week.

Mrs. Lyman Curtiss was in charge of a most interesting program regarding Colonial American flags. She was assisted by Mrs. Louis Schneider and the talks were illustrated by the showing of replicas of nearly a dozen flags used before, during and following the Revolution. They had been made several years ago by D.A.R. members and presented a graphic picture of those changing times.

The chapter then recessed until September.

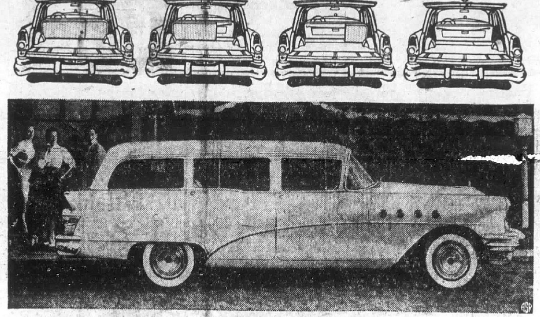
Beauty And Utility Combined In Estate Wagon



The trend toward suburban living has prompted manufacturers to build more utility as well as beauty into their estate wagons. Buick, for example, has split the rear seat of its estate wagons to provide room for one, two or three passengers, as the occasion requires. The panels at the top show how the rear seat can be lowered to provide additional cargo space and still have room left for passengers. Buick's all-steel estate wagon comes in both the Special and Century series.

Woodpeckers Peck for Several Reasons Say Wayne University Biology Students

Lorraine Sturm of Pigeon (left) and Carol Scott of Bad Axe examine a mounted red-headed woodpecker, property of the Children's Museum of the Detroit Public Schools. Both girls are students at Wayne University.

Why does a woodpecker peck and how can he peck so hard without dire results to his nervous system?

Biology students at Wayne University know that whenever you find a woodpecker drumming away he usually has a good reason. Dr. Charles W. Creaser, chairman of Wayne's biology department, says the woodpecker is an unusually interesting bird.

He explained that a woodpecker's bill is used as a hammer, chisel, pick or drill. First thing in the morning he spies a good feeding area so he proceeds to hammer it, letting all others of his kind know this is his feeding ground for the day.

When the woodpecker isn't signalling, he might be pecking commercially, says Dr. Creaser. That is, he's digging insects out of the wood—a business at which he is extremely adept. His sticky, barbed tongue is capable of lashing out and grabbing insects in hard-to-get-at places.

In the nesting season his drumming is intended to be a mating call—a warning that this is his home range. This also is the season in which he delights in pounding on tin roofs.

Sometimes he is preparing a nest for his family. It makes little difference to him whether the wood is hard or soft, whether it is a tree, a telephone pole, a roof or just a broken-down log. Most woodpeckers bore themselves a nest roughly oval in shape. But Michigan's largest, the pileated woodpecker with the tufted or crested type head, cuts square holes.

A woodpecker simply doesn't light on a tree and go to work as many people think. He adjusts his speed and strength of stroke to the thickness or hardness of the wood, the strength of the stroke varying with the weight of the bird.

How does the woodpecker peck? He gets a good toe-hold on the bark with his strong claws, formed with two toes before and two behind, and uses his stiffened, pointed tail feathers as a brace. Then he swings his head in much the same manner as we would swing a hammer. He doesn't knock himself out with the blows because his brain is located above and behind the beak, which in turn is predominately connected to the lower part of the skull. Thus the jarring is passed directly to the neck, and the woodpecker's S-shaped neck is constructed in just the right fashion to absorb the shock.

The Wayne professor also explained that the woodpecker manages to strike so rapidly because the reaction time of the bird's nervous system is quite high. The muscular reaction of a woodpecker is somewhat similar to the technique of a good drummer.

Frank Prochaska of Britton Tries for Fisher Body Craftsman's Prize

Judging is going on today of a record-breaking number of model automobile entries in the 1955 Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild Silver anniversary model car competition. Teams of experts are minutely inspecting the model cars, state by state.

Among the youthful designers whose models are competing for honors is Frank J. Prochaska, 10124 Pennington road, Britton.

Cash awards and university scholarships amounting to $90,000 are at stake in the Guild competition.

Judges are members of the General Motors Styling Section, industrial arts instructors from Detroit public schools, and representatives from the Guild's Technical Department.

Points on which the miniature automobiles are scored are divided among scale fidelity, workmanship, painting, originality of design, artistic merit of design and practicability.

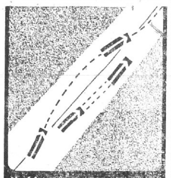
Judging will continue until all models have been inspected and scored and the state and regional winners will be announced either late this month or early in July. The 40 regional winners will come to Detroit, expense-free, from August 2-5 for the Silver Anniversary Guild convention and testimonial banquet where the national scholarship winners are announced.

Eight scholarships, two each in the amounts of $4,000, $3,000, $2,000 and $1,000 are the top awards, to be given to the four best model car builders in the junior (12 through 15 years old) and senior (16 through 19 years old) age divisions.

State awards in each age division are $150 for first, $100 for second, $50 for third, and $25 U. S. Savings Bonds for honorable mention. The first place winners in each state will compete against the winner from the other state or states in their region for the regional awards, which are the convention trips.

Sons of General Motors employes are eligible to enter the competition. In the event any of them are among the winners, however, they are given duplicate awards so that all original awards offered will go to non-GM boys.

President of the Craftsman's Guild is James E. Goodman, vice president of General Motors, while the Honorary President is Dr. George J. Fisher, National Commissioner of the Boy Scouts of America.



No. 66 HELP DRIVERS PASS YOU

In traffic, too, "What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander". So when some driver starts to pass you — make it easier for him. Pull to the extreme right of your lane. Slow down so that he can get by quicker.

By making it easier for him you also make it safer — for you. Pulling right and slowing down gives him more room in case a puff of wind catches him. If a car is coming up ahead he can pull back to the right hand lane more quickly.

Being more courteous to drivers passing you may encourage drivers whom you pass to be more courteous. And be sure to remember the slogan, "SLOW DOWN AND LIVE".

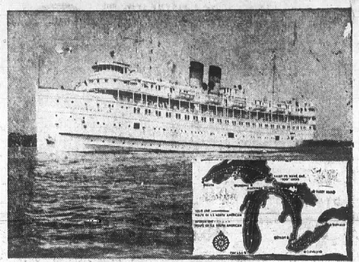
ative director of the V.F.W. Notables who are expected to attend are Governor G. Mennen Williams and other state officials.

Pageantry, an integral part of V.F.W. conventions in the past, will play an important part. Champions will be decided in four major unit classes during the annual pageant of drums to be held on June 18.

Defending champions are Lansing Post No. 701, in the senior band division; Reed City Post 2964, senior men's rifle drill team; Mt. Pleasant High School band in the junior band division; and Wayne County V.F.W. Council in the men's senior drum and bugle corps division. The latter will not compete this year.

Convention of the auxiliary to the V.F.W. will be held during the same four-day period. Mrs. Frances Hugener, of Detroit, will succeed Mrs. Janet Hutzel, of Chelsea, retiring state head.



A sure sign that the summer vacation season has arrived is the appearance of the big, gleaming-white cruise ships of the Georgian Bay Line—the S. S. North American (shown above) and her sister ship the S. S. South American. The only remaining passenger ships on the Great Lakes operating strictly in cruise service, these ships begin their summer cruise schedules with the official arrival of summer. Familiar sights to the many hundreds of thousands of summer visitors to the Great Lakes area, these ships operate on weekly 2200-mile cruises through July and August, visiting the top scenic and historic points of interest of the region. Inset map shows routes of each ship.

hickory AND horsehide

by DIZZY TROUT

SINCE OL' DIZ mentioned a few ball players' pet superstitions on the air recently, there has been so much comment that I decided to explore the subject further. The results are extremely interesting.

Tiger Manager Bucky Harris pats a resin bag with two fingers when the team is in trouble. If we're winning games, he insists on the same player writing down the line-up that Bucky dictates for the umpire. But the moment we lose, he has a different player write it down.

Bucky is a good housekeeper and dislikes scraps of paper littering the dugout. He's always picking them up.

Speaking of scraps of paper, Bobo Newsome, the former Tiger pitcher, hated seeing them around the mound and wouldn't pitch while they were there.

So it was bound to happen: Doc Cramer, then our centerfielder, tore up a score card and littered the mound as he trotted to the outfield.

Bobo, now a Baltimore radio announcer, made a big show of refusing to pitch until the ground crew had cleaned up the debris.

Another of Bobo's superstitions was touching the foul line with his right forefinger on the way to the pitching box.

Ray Boone never kneels in the batter's circle, always just outside of it. Bill Tuttle wears the same sweatshirt when the team is winning and the same shorts when he's hitting consistently.

Our trainer, Jack Homel, opens a pair of scissors and jabs the points in the direction of the opposing pitcher if he thinks the enemy hurler is doing too well against our batters.

Ferris Fain has a superstition that many others subscribe to. When he sees a white horse, he licks his thumb, presses the thumb against the palm of his other hand and then pounds the dampened palm with his fist. This is supposed to bring him many base hits.

Ol' Diz never stepped on a foul line, always picked up my glove with the left hand and never walked between the catcher and the umpire when going to bat.

The two most universal superstitions in baseball are never allowing bats to get crossed in the bat rack and never putting away the bats until the game is over—no matter how many runs you're ahead.

Harvey Kuenn is convinced that chewing tobacco helps his batting.

At the trainer's insistence, Harvey gave up the habit in the spring of 1954 and bet him $100 he wouldn't renew it. Thereafter he couldn't buy a hit.

Finally, in desperation one day, Harvey took a chew and got three-for-four. He continued to chew and wound up the season with a .306 average.

Harvey lost a hundred bucks but more than made it up in his 1955 Hickory and Horsehide contract.

Rain

Cold, soaking rains rained out all games in the Men's Recreation Softball League last week.

Weather permitting, the games will be rescheduled to fit in on off nights of the league.

School's Out Watch for Kids!

School's out. And every mother of school-age children knows what that means, according to Gladys M. Wright, president of the Michigan Trucking Association. "Once again, they are faced with the problem of keeping foot-loose offspring happy, contented, out of trouble and out of danger," Miss Wright stated.

"Every year at this time, there are a large number of accidents involving children," she warned. "These accidents range from a few scratches and bruises to serious injury and death from traffic accidents. On behalf of the trucking industry of Michigan, we want to remind parents of some of the things they can do to minimize the likelihood of injury to their children in traffic during the coming months:

1. Know where your children are playing and keep younger children under your own supervision or that of a reliable adult.

2. Discourage children from playing in the street. Instruct them to use a playground or play street.

3. Children need constant reminders to play safely. Warn them particularly of the danger of suddenly running into the street for any reason.

4. Do not let young children use wagons and tricycles in the street. Remind older children who may be riding bicycles that, under the law, they have much the same duties as the drivers of motor vehicles.

5. Set a good example for the younger generation."

To Guard Your Life Be Your Own Life-guard

Water enthusiasts in a water wonderland were today urged to "play it safe when swimming, fishing or boating." The Michigan Department of Health says, "to guard your life, be your own life-guard — it's the best way to hold down accidental drownings which claimed 312 Michigan lives last year."

Among the health department recommendations: fisherman should stay ashore rather than accept a seat in an overcrowded boat; swimmers should check the depth of water before diving; parties "just out for a ride" should agree that no-one stands up in a boat.

"Even if you swim like a fish," the health department counselled, "respect your limitations. Even the best swimmers can get cramps."

Swimmers were advised to "come out of the water before you're all in, to swim only in daylight hours, if possible at guarded beaches, and always with a companion."

If you are a swimming, boating or sailing enthusiast, the health department warns, "Keep your feet on the ground when storm warnings are out."

"And whenever children are around water make sure they are constantly in sight, and within easy reach by a person to whom you would entrust your own life in an emergency."

While water sports are good medicine both for your mind and your body, the health department said: "Even the best medicine should be taken in the proper doses. And sefety is part of the prescription."

Pauline Comfort and Dale Neff Married Saturday

In a modified version of the traditional Quaker marriage service, Pauline Irene Comfort and Dale Russell Neff spoke their marriage vows at the Friends church at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Comfort was given in marriage by her father and just before the service she sang, "The Day of Golden Promise."

Miss Martha Hayden sang "Through the Years" and following the marriage prayer, "Oh Jesus, We Have Promised." She was accompanied by Mrs. William Hayden at the organ, who in addition to the customary nuptial music played "I Love You Truly" on the organ chimes.

Miss Comfort was attended by Miss Barbara Cottel, a fellow student at Cleveland Bible College and by Mrs. Lawrence Ehinger of Adrian. Lawrence Ehinger assisted Mr. Neff as best man and his other attendant was A. W. Langley of Cleveland. William and Joe Hayden seated the guests.

The bride's gown was of nylon organza over taffeta, made floor length with a scalloped yoke and collar. She wore mitts with the short sleeves and her veil was held by a bandeau embroidered in pearls and sequins. She carried a white Bible with a decorating corsage of mathiola flowerettes, centered with an orchid.

Miss Cottel wore a floor length dress of orchid satin with which she carried a crescent bouquet of lavender and dubonnet bebe mums, tied with green lace and maline. Mrs. Ehinger's gown was similar in pale green satin and her crescent bouquet was of lavender daisy mums tied with yellow. Both wore matching mitts and head bands.

Mrs. Comfort wore light blue for her daughter's wedding while the mother of the groom was in navy print. The costumes of both were complimented by orchid corsages.

Baskets of flowers, palms and candelabra banked the pulpit and beautiful baskets and bouquets arranged by Mrs. Charles Kotts and her committee decorated the church and social rooms. Miss Martha Hayden was reception hostess while Mrs. Naomi Sallows cut the wedding cake and Mrs. William Hayden and Miss Ardis Drewyor served punch assisted by Joan Judd and Marjorie Martin. Refreshments were in charge of the ladies of the Quaker Fellowship.
